THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, MAY 5, 1907.

The Oregonian

SUBSCRIPTION BATES.

neans dead, its form is encouragement, for it came cation following regeneration."

loyalty to the Prince of Peace.

This is a day of woe and heartburntion that of all the men whose hand-

So the man who falled to get there mning-he will conclude that per-

PEACE.

ies may be a good thing or it may be

The question has not yet been does and hope the people will only ask himself: "Does it pay?"

ligion

brother

ing

		at Portland, I-Class Matter.	and the second s	Postoffice
0	to 14	Pages		1 cent
9	to 44	Pages		S cents

Foreign porrage, double rates. IMPORTANT-The postal laws are strict. Newspapers on which postage is not fully prepaid are not forwarded to destination.

EASTERN BUSINESS OFFICE. The S. C. Beckwith, Special Agency-New York, rooms 43-50 Tribune building, Chi-cago, rooms 510-512 Tribune building.

KEPT ON SALE.

Chicago - Auditorium Annex, Postoffice ews. Co., 178 Dearborn st. St. Faul, Minn.-N. St. Marie, Commercial nation. Denver-Hamilton & Hendrick, 906-612 Ovonteenth street; Pratt Book Store, 1214 Meenth street; H. P. Hansen, E. Bice.

Kansas City, Mo.-Richardker Cigar Co., inth and Walnut; Sostand News Co.

Minneapells-M. J. Kavanaugh, 50 South hird, Eagle News Co., corner Tenth and leventh, Yona News Co. Cleveland, O.-James Pushaw, 307 Su-

Washington, D. C .- Ebblitt House, Pena-

This is what George Ade would call friends would make a total grant strengt of men, women and children of the city. Hope as a strengt the strengt call friends would make a total several times the enumeration of men, women and children of the city. Hope as a strengt with the sum till the polls closed, dageath Stationery Ca. Sacramento, Cal.-Sacramento News Co., 38 K street; Amos News Ca. Salt Lake-Moon Book & Stationery Co.; Iosenteid & Hansen. Jos Angeles-B. E. Amos, manager seven press manager.

rreet wagons. San Diego-B. E. Amos. Long Beach, Cal.-B. E. Amos. Pasadena, Cal.-A. F. Horning. Santa Barbara, Cal.-Join Prechel. San Jose, Cal-St. James Hotsi News und

Stand Fort Worth, Tex.--F. Robinson San Francisco-Poster & Orear, Ferry News Stand; Hotel Bt. Francis News Stand; I. Parent; N. Wheatley: Fairmont Hotel News Stand; Amos News Co. Goldnied, New.--Loude Polin. Eureks, Cal.--Call-Chronicle Agency. Norfolk, Va.--Jamestown Exposition News Stand; Potts & Roeder; Schneider & Kalser. Pine Beach, Va.--W. A. Courrove.

PORTLAND, SUNDAY, MAY 5, 1907.

WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

Shall we ever again see the day when those days pretty much as he does ministers will be the leaders of the Na- 25 centuries later. Else why should tion in moral reform? That they have Jeremiah, some years before he set up hargely lost this position, at least for his lamentations, "make a noise" like present, everybody admits. The unto a present-day organ decrying its the spiritual regeneration which we have rival? just experienced in this country was accomplished with little help and some notable hindrance from the pulpit, Conalled Christian education, celebrated clasp and promise were so freely givpreachers, have come forward to apoloen many were the most cheerful and deceitful of llars. For figures do not gize for orime on the ground that it was successful and to excuse the violalie and the voies that are not in the tion of the Commandments because it was helpful to certain kinds of busibox cannot be counted. It but adds ness. Will this ever cease? Have the intellect and zeal of the sects definitely allied themselves with unrighteousness known by the prostrated one. and made a perpetual contract with the powers of evil And being of necessity of the right temperament-else he would not be It cannot be thought so. Like other human institutions, the church has its periods of spiritual depression and exaltation. Sometimes it appears as the haps it most enlivening of social forces, some times as the most retrogressive. To know him better the next time day the Protestant denominations are

THE UNDERLYING PRINCIPLES OF not unsympathetic with the spirit of the age, but they are too weak to make their sympathies tell sufficiently history and the principa Roosevelt says, almost as unfortunate cause of their weakness is disintegration. The forces of disintegration be-gan to work in Protestantism almost a mortal attribute as a willingness to do wrong. It is true that the first equipment or attribute usually keeps as soon as Luther preached the refor-That great genius discerned its possessor out of fail: but it contribnation. the delinutes not infrequently to the coming trouble and sought to forequency of others, by overindulgence of stall it by making the Scriptures an anfailible guide to faith, to replace the their evil propensities. An Illustration of this is seen every time a cringvanished authority of tradition, pope ing woman appears before a police and councils. er brutal husband and insisting that But his effort falled because the meaning of Scripture must be deter-mined by human reason, and to the reathe bruises that are in evidence of his assault upon her with his brawny fists son of each man it may mean some thing different. The hosts of Protestare the result of falling down stairs. In the wider application, a nation antism broke into wrangling sects ere were Baptists and Anabaptists acapable of righteous wrath would be neapable of maintaining the decent in Britain, the Netherlands and northespect of mankind, even if it could orn Italy. There were Calvinists in paintain its place upon the map of a sirenuous world, which, of course it France, Scotland and Switzerland, The 'hurch of England cleaved away from The statement that the the general Protestant movement and person who has not got it in him to continued over since to hover un strive manfully against wrong will accertainly upon the outer skirts of Ca-The sects divided and subomplish but little, for right needs no proof that ordinary observation does divided upon points almost inconceivot readily furnish. Without the spirit ably minute and trifling and perse and ability to resist aggression no incuted each other with unrelenting bitdividual can command respect and no nation can be great. With this reserterness for differences of opinion which would appear ludicrous had not their vation and upon this principle all upon the course of history peace negotiations must proceed. been so tragic. Just how far we may church, driven from the barren deserts of theology, found new life in the ferile problems of sociology. Its aim and mission were transferred from heaven to earth, and the solution of vital questions touching the life of man gave fruitful occupation to intellects which might have been wasted upon arid metaphysics. As the church be-gins to labor at a common definite coin, Neb., were a failure. The Com-mercial Club of Lincoln held a meettask, its energies tend toward unity. Work instead of "works" becomes its watchword; and, while faith is by no Dress

Everybody remembers that the railcountry have developed their brains to the point where they can think for of coalition has begun in many direc-They do not take their themselves. opinions ready-made from corporation tions. Only the other day three numerous bodies formed an organic union in Chicago, merging their futtle differinwyers, nor can they be permanently by faked reports of things aces in a common name. The dissent which do not happen. to their action was in itself a sign that part of the country which is most "And there came a traveler unto the inaccessible to new ideas and most retrogressive both in politics and reressive both in politics and re-The delegates from Mississippi his own flock and of his own herd to and Louisiana declined to join the dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him, but took the poor union because the proposed statement of hellef made no mention of "sanctifiman's lamb and dressed it for the man that was come unto him." This the How like the reverberation of a brazen pot rich man did though he had exceeding many flocks and herds of his own, while the poor man had but the one ewe lamb "which he had bought and these hollow words fail upon the mod-ern ear! They tell of bygone times and forsaken modes of thought. The innourished up; and it grew together dividual's regeneration and sanctificawith him and with his children; it did tion, whatever that may be, are some-thing for himself to attend to; the thing for himself to attend to; the church of today is occupied with his eat of his own meat and drank of his own cup and lay in his bosom and was unto him as a daughter." Naturally attitude toward social wrongs and his when David the King, who was a man after God's own heart, heard this story from Nathan his anger was greatly kindled against the rich man; and he said to Nathan, "As my soul the man that hath done this thing shall surely die. And Nathan said to David, "Thou are the man."" David was King over Israel. Nathan was a ragged old prophet, not any too tact-David ful and sadly in want of a bath, as shone with the sun till the polls closed, most prophets generally are. His and was not dispelled till the adding beard was unkempt and probably populous, as Gibbon says the Emperor machines ceased their cold, metallic clicking. Then the candidates who found their hopes but a taste of salt, Julian's used to be. He was far from being a safe man and not very sane. likewise found a bit of comfort in the words of the prophet Jeremiah: "Take At least he was not sane in the of Grover Cleveland and Judge Parker ye heed every one of his neighbor and for he accused evil in high places to trust ye not in any brother; for every its face, which is the last thing in the will utterly supplant, and world a man would do who had a every neighbor will walk with slanproper feelng for his own interest. When it came to downright mean It is not given in the Great Record ness David was near the limit. Uriah, that there were municipal elections in one of his generals, had a pretty the sixth century before Christ; yet David fell in love with her. He first many of the words of the prophet have the sound of warning that comes betrayed the woman, whose dulcet name was Bath-Sheba, and then orfrom the partisan press and one must dered his soldiers to desert Urlah believe the politician went forth hot battle and let him be killed. When Uriah was well out of the way he took Bath-Sheba into his barem. A very neat bit of tactics It was, showing gentus almost equal in its way to Mr. Harriman's. The ability which today exercises itself in capturing other per ple's money was in those old Bible ing for the defeated candidates, not wholly for defeat, for that is the chance of battle: but for the realizatimes directed toward their wives. If wives are more valuable than money then civilization has advanced since David's time. If they are not, then it has retrograded. By virtue of an effort prolonged through some thou-sands of years we have finally made the poor man's family comparatively safe from the lust of the rich and powto the misery to realize that the men who threw him down will never be secure from neglect and penury? secure from neglect and penury' The Emperor William, whom our lovers of peace denounce for his militarism, has secured for every workingwealthy. The tyrannical German government husbands the savings of the poor and pensions their old age; our count of a convention which opposed its lawbreaking? It takes a good deal Federal regulation of railroad rates. The truth about the matter was that person who knowingly profits by the convention was dominated by a crime even if he is not active in comthe convention was dominated by a critic even it he is not active in com-mitting it. Whoever enjoys benefits patch was paid for out of a railroad corruption fund. Another of these mendacious news items stated that the iniquity that taints it. Worse the municipal water works of Lin-coin, Neb., were a failure. The Com-mercial Club of Lincoln held a meeting to "repel and rebuke" the false- the moral guilt of the bribery, no mathood and sent out a denial to the ter how innocent he may be under the It is impossible for the receiver of stolen goods to clear himself by roads carried on a similar campaign saying that he did not himself pick was before Congress. Its success was not encouraging, but the monopolisis seem incapable of learning anything from experience. The result seem incapable of learning anything by the crime. Had we a Nathan to from experience. The people of this go about today accusing the guilty as he of old did the wicked king of the Jews, which of us would escape his indictment. "Thou art the man?"

THOU ART THE MAN.

QUEER ECONOMICS.

The Kansas City Journal has earned leather medal. It has compressed into a single column more had logic and more false economics than any paper ever did before. The feat was achieved an attempt to prove that the Govrnment ought not to regulate the cororations. From the bouquet of fallales which the Journal presents it is possible to cull only one or two of the choicest, but they will suffice to show what the rest are.

"A street railway is no more truly a public utility than a barber shop or a shoe store. "The law has exactly the same right to regulate advertising rates or hotel rates as it has to regulate raiload rates or gas rates." If a ten-yearid schoolboy should make such a booby of himself as to write these se in a composition he would have to year a duncecap. The Kansas City Journal prints them seriously as the best it can furnish in the way of ecodoctrine. Its mental state is probably hopeless, but we are willing o attempt some enlightenment. One lege to plow under a crop of clover or might begin by remarking that a shoe other crop every few years. store is generally kept by a natural person instead of one created by the law for that particular purpose. The shoe man holds no franchise giving him exclusive rights; he does not enjoy the power of eminent domain; he has no monopoly in the public streets; he may not tear up the pavement, thrust vehicles out of his way as a streetcar choice among shoe stores. In general there is no choice among gas compa-

road is created by the law for that spe-cific purpose. The beneficial accomcific purpose. The peneticial account inforces the new rule interval of the purpose is what it ordinances regulating the stink of other members of the Board are Repub-promises the public in return for the garbage wagons on the streets and licans. Thinking to win the support of privilege to exist. How childish, then, to say that the public has no right to demand that the corporation shall fulfill

Tu-

An International Congress arculosis will be held in Washington. wonder. D. C., from September 21, 1908 to Octo in the gutter after they have spent has sent out a carefully compiled to know that they must hold them-their lives in making the rest of us statement of the object of the association and of its purpose in calling the convention at the time specified.

and its inroads upon human life by statistician. Awakened intelligence everywhere is asking what shall we do to be released from the deadly clutch, of this deadliest foe of the human race? The answer is: Beware of the beginnings of the disease; preven-tion is always possible, cure at best tion is always possible, cure To make the danger signals of tuberculosis intelligible to the most simple is the first purpose of those who are waging war upon tuberculosis. Knowledge is in this realm all powerful, ignorance fatally weak. Hence the effort by sanitarians, hu-manitarians and scientists to disseminate knowledge in regard to tubercu losis and dispel the ignorance which is its chief stronghold.

liberty his father, a noted attorney. lic safety. The lad was acquitted of murder on the ground of insanity. Behe committed the crime he was known to be insane. He was fore DOD: moody, erotic, queer. He is still so. If the mental equipment caused him to commit murder once it may again. Hence public safety demands his incarceration and as a law creating a ward in the penitentiary for insane criminals will go into effect June 12 the court has decided that to be the proper place for the lad. The decision is one in which the public gener- College, of Utah, Mr. Kerr received a ally will concur as being under the cir- salary of $4800 a year, and Oregon made

cumstances just and prudent.

get him.

Farmers who have been caught by the dry weather without their plow ing completed could have avoided this difficulty to a large degree by following the advice of the Agricultural Col-Such a practice supplies humus and keeps the the soli loose and porous. Continuous cui-The tivation eventually makes soll "dead," or places it in such condition that the soil will bake hard as soon as warm weather comes. According to reports this has been an unfavorable Spring for cultivating where the soil In this connection, a story is told that shows the views of the members of the have plenty of rain yet.

Streetcar smokers will now have to keep the fetid filth of their tobacco in resignation of President Gatch. Among their own faces and in their own The ban is ordained, not to pressing his claim, and he had such a clothes; compel them to be decent, for that is impossible, but to force them to respect in experience that he seemed to be in a sensibilities of others. The tobacco hog will now vent his rudeness in an other direction—on the conductor who enforces the new rule. There are city is a Democrat, while a number of the other members of the Board are Repubhog will now vent his rudeness in an- But he pulled one too many wires. He others are needed to keep within due bounds the perfumery of smoke-laden that the Governor was opposing lim becitizens.

To be immensely rich is to be the Blank." Tactics of this kind lost him all prey of blackmallers both before and his support and made him an impossible after death. Not near all the blackcandidate, Not a Republican on the mailing schemes are ever brought to Board would support him, arguing that light, but those which do become known show that wealth is often a dethis single act was sufficient to show that he would not be a safe man to put at the head of a large institution. Many stroyer of peace.

One of the surest ways to get an electric railroad to Hillsboro is to keep killed himself off in pretty much the same way. The incident just related up the race between Swigert's Oregon may serve as an object lesson to some Electric Company and Wittenberg's United Railways. Let them go to it. The one who skins the other will be a who may in the future be tempted to pull wires whose ends have unknown attachments.

CORVALLIS has figured in education-at news in another respect in the We are told that horses have doubled in value in the last four years. The animals had horse sense enough past week by reason of the resignation of Principal S. W. Holmes, of the pubselves at higher figures or be held in contempt by the automobiles

The defeated candidates are wonder-

SYMPOSIUM OF CURRENT STATE TOPICS

Why the State Agricultural College Regents Balsed the Salary of Their New Presid Outlook for Better Pay for Public School Teachers-Shocking Neglect of State Offi-cials About Scriptural Literature-How the New Sheep Dipping Law Works-Farm-ers Going to the City and Professional Men to the Farm-Scarcity of Wood and the Consequences.

HEN the Board of Regents of the | small bands of sheep will find it con-State Agricultural College a few days ago elected W. J. Kerr, of dipping plants on the co-Itah, to the presidency of the institution | plan and shear their sheep at the same at Corvallis, they raised the salary from time, so that they will all be ready to 35000 to 35000 a year. This does not mean to dip at once and treat all the sheep $3000 to $5000 a year. This does not mean much in itself, but, when the ultimate of the community at one visit of onsequences are considered, it means inspector. It will be difficult for each nuch in the great contest that has been individual to arrange for separate vis-Chester Thompson, the youthful seattle murderer, for whose life and sion. The president of the State University has been getting but $3000, but it places in Eastern Oregon movements made so strenuous, protracted and will be readily apparent that the head are on foot for the establishment of pathetic a struggle before the Circuit of that institution should receive as central shearing places, where modern Court at Tacoma, is to be sent to the much as the head of the Agricultural shearing machinery will be provided and the shear of the same time. It is said that the shearthis decision is in the interest of pub-presidents and those of the professors is machinery and with a saving of from presidents and those of the professors is too great, and there will be a gradual marking up all along the line, though sheep. Sheepowners will find the new probably not at the same rate that the salary of the president at Corvallis has been raised. A beginning has been made. A higher standard of compensation has been set. Some of the advances may not be made for a year or two, and adjust themselves to the requirements, may be slight, but eventually the change of policy will be felt down to the primary grades and out in the country schools. As president of the Agricultural machinery and with a saving of from one-half to a pound of wool from each regulations burdensome at first, but the Government inspection rules will make dipping unavoidable. Members of the State Commission believe the farmers in Western Oregon will soon so that the inspection and dipping need not be very expensive. CHARIVARI parties get into the naws columns of papers st frequently by reason of such lawlessness as the breaka little raise on that figure in order to ing of windows and doors or the shooting of some member of the party by the angered groom, but last week an affair of N the effort to secure the best man for the position the Board of Regents has sons who were in no way connected with At Albany a party of young people spared no pains in looking into men's 11 were making "music" with tin pans and records and studying their general qualifications aside from experience and eduother instruments around a hou use where cation. A man was desired who would a newly married couple had taken their abode, and, while the noise was at its not only be recognized as a specialist in Agricultural College work, but one who height, a man drove past with his wife would also, by reason of his personal characteristics, be able to continue that and three young children in the carriage with him. His team was scared so that it ran away, demolished the carriage, good feeling which has existed during broke the woman's arm, knocked the the administration of President Gatch. man senseless, and injured the children. though not seriously. A sort of unwritten law protects young people from pun-Board as to one kind of man who would ishment on occasions of that kind, else not do. There was a large number of there might be a criminal court record applicants for the vacancy caused by

co-operative

to go with the event.

S CARCITY of cord wood and conse-quent high prices is quite likely to good record in scholastic attainments and prove of advantage in encouraging the owners of some of the Oregon coal mines to develop their properties and place their product upon the market. Recently work has been pushed on some coal lands in Jackson County and it is expected that the fuel will soon be coming out in considerable quantities. Coos County has immense coal fields of high grade product. Columbia County and some Eastern Oregon districts have wellknown coal deposits. With wood soaring in price as it has in the past year people will soon be ready to burn coal even in cook stoves.

DRIFT of city men to the country and country men to the city is one of the teacher in the common schools has notable tendencies growing every year more pronounced. Eugene papers convey the information that George A. Dorris, formerly a lawyer and political leader, is now one of Lane County's most extensive farmers. His feature this year is said to be 15 acres of asparague the product from which he sells in The Oregon State Journal says he carries $15 worth to town in his buggy at one trip. Henry Brophy, formerly poli-tical boss of Salem, is now a prosperous its schools, who will leave the teaching farmer near Eola and entirely out of profession at the end of the present politics. Polk County papers at the same year to take a position as a bookkeeper in the office of a lumber company at Os-best known and most successful farmers A weak, good-nature, incapable of righteous wrath is, as President Rooseveit says, almost as unfortunate ers. Men find that they can do better everything in ship-shape, pure, cold in other occupations and many of them spring water piped into his house, and yet he was going to sell out and go to the dity. His city friends told him he was crazy, so he will hold on to the farm till lie tries the city for a year or two. Then he will see. And the same story is being told from one end of the state to B iBLES are apparently not essential is being told from one end of the state to the other. Names are mere incidents. Railroad attorneys want to be farmers; successful farmers want to be city bankers and merchants. Of Mr. Dorris the Eugene paper says he now has an income from his farm equal to that of any lawyer in that part of the state.

orporation may, nor is the public com pelled to patronize him whether it likes or not. Everybody must ride on the cars; everybody must use gas. Above all, everybody who does any business must use the railroads. There is a wife nies, streetcars or railroads. The corporation which owns a rail-its part of the agreement. Seldom in these days does a paper, even among those most besottedly devoted to corporate interests, display the contempt for the intelligence of its readers which the Kansas City Journal exhibits in this article. It pleads for capital to build railroads, but if the lavel of intelligence in that part of the country is correctly indicated by what it the prople to read, their need of s houses is far more urgent.

THE WAR ON TUBERCULOSIS.

man in the German empire an old ber 12, inclusive. In anticipation of this event the Secretary General of Our wiser statesmen let them perish the association. Dr. John S. Fulton

The study and prevention of tuberupon the direct inspiration of the Holy Spirit to guide our conduct just how to administer the rite of baptism; the exact part which faith plays the office of salvation, as compared with good works; whether a man is regenerated instantaneously or gradual-ly; how the church ought to be governed-all these matters and many others of incomparably less importance have divided Protestant Christians into warring factions and deferred indefinitely the success of their mission in the world.

greater boobies than other nations. As a unifying principle in religion, However that may be, the question gets it is not good. the written word has been a fallure. Each text, each variant interpretation of a text, affords ground for a new schism. Protestant Christians have acknowledged this unfortunate weakness of their position more or less openly and have sought incessantly in recent years for some common ground of federation, if not complete union. But no such ground at first appeared. So long as the emphasis fell on their da is operated by a group of men who public funds. creeds they were doomed to disintegration and paralysis. Science, therefore, in attacking the foundations of the oreeds, took the stage as their best and the robbery that too often goes friend, though they scarcely perceived it. When the creeds could no longer with it. he believed, and when the higher criticism had disposed forever of the in errancy of the Bible, Protestant Christianity seemed at first bereft of its strength. What had really hapied, however, was the eradication of the principal cause of its weakness, in place of (utile and divisive abstrac ture and purpos bad.

tions came the great principle of realwhich had already transformed modern literature and new victorious is invaded the realm of religion. The of them from Alabama gives an ac- stock can say that he is innocent of menace is recognized by the sanitarian in need of one.

bankers and delivers hoary indigence this congress which will convene in bankers and dervers hoary index to the poorhouse and the jail. It is a marvel that any workingman in this country manages to lay up a competence. The marvel arises not because he lacks opportunity to earn, from all parts of the world-physibut because he is preyed upon by so clans, hygienists, sociologists and hu2 many parasites. We pass by the manitarians, and each will bring to the companies which sell him bad insurance for ten times its value, the sav-ings banks which are founded for no this most dreaded and most prevalent which furnish poisonous milk to his the footsteps of civilization. The most children for two prices and levy blood noted authorities on tuberculosis in money upon his fuel, his bread and his this country are included among cloining. What we have in mind to speak of now is a more exasperating and meaner species of robbery. It is that cumning iniquity which compels The Congress will be far m the workingman and the small con-sumer to found universities and endow magnificent hospitals. If the ing this disease, An exhibit made up men who build these grand establish- of a large collection of illustrative obments did it out of their own means jects, is being prepared, the purpose of nobody could complain, for education which is purely educational, and medicine are fine in themselves. the public cannot fall to be interested. If the people who contribute the The subject is one that belongs money for them got the glory it would every section of the country, and, in-not be so bad. But they do not. The deed, of the civilized world, since no money is taken without our consent, place is so remote that the germs of by a sort of illicit ingenuity; and the this insidious disease have not reached whole credit of the foundation goes to the robbors. Thus the great endow-to the public at all times during the The exhibit will be open and free TAINTED NEWS. Municipal ownership of public utili-extorted from the plain people of the showing will be of interest to people country in small sums and every new of all classes since the disease that it gift to that institution is made up by will portray in different stages of its decided. People in this country are pretty generally of the opinion that we are too corrupt and too great money? When Mr. Rockefeller wishes This association has been in exist-ve are too corrupt and too great blockheads to put it in successful to make a gift to education he lays a ence four years and the Congress of practice even if it were excellent; but tax upon the Nation to raise the next year will be the largest enter-views on that point may change in funds. He spares of his own flock and prise that it has undertaken. It has ourse of time. We may ultimately onvince ourselves that we are not man's lamb. The way he uses the velt and the Federal Government and money may be good, but the way he gets it is not good. The same thing that will have a tendency to widen the municipal ownership ought to be is true of the vast sums which we scope and insure the success of the decided upon its merits and upon the facts, not upon false information. Col-lier's Weekly is printing a series of articles which disclose a systematic own pocket. They are extorted from propaganda of prevarication in re-spect to the success of the experiments American cities have made in the negle and Rockefeller are no more enownership of gas and water works and street railoads. The propagan-than Congress is when it appropriates is as in this protession; hence this con-rola is operated by a group of men who public funds. They are less emitted They are less entitled, gress will number hundreds of physisedulously conceal their names. Of for Congress acts openly and with the clans, among its attendants, and it consent of the taxpayers, while our may be confidently said that each will w the private ownership of franchises benevolent despots act clandestinely return to his practice with a better robbery that too often goes Their method is to send out ing them we glorify hypocrisy. Mr. culosis than he had before.

dispatches which misrepresent the facts and get them published by hook or crook in reputable papers. Usually high-handed robbery. The Cuar of cal and social problem as well. Its or crook in reputable papers. Usually high-handed robbery. The Caar of cal and social problem as well. Its stead of hard, that the nomine say of their unsuccessful rivals. ing the papers. The dispatches are while he siaughters his helpless sub-plausible in tone and there is nothing jects by the thousand; Carnegie question with which political econoabout them to indicate their real na- finances a peace congress upon the mists must deal. The pitiful and painful progress of its victims toward fruits of rapine.

In Collier's for May 4 there are sev-eral photographic reproductions of these deceptive news dispatches. One draws a dividend from Standard Oii strongly to humanity; the price of its ever a man or a woman chooses a nominee for life's journey.

The Governor of Washington protests against an Oregon quarantine law that will keep Washington sheep the scarcity will increase. off the Oregon ranges. But Oregon has sheep of its own to look after.

The man who keeps his ear to the ground to observe the rumblings of popular opinion is preferable to the ne who holds his head so high the people cannot make him hear -

Possibly the Corey incident and the riticism it has aroused will make other men of his kind besitate to take similar course. Or will it merely harden their consciences?

The people of this country as well as jury of 12 men will try the Moyer-Haywood case and their verdict will be in accordance with the evidence.

Song for sore candidates this morn "And the world goes on just the same." It won't do any good, however, "to find the ones to blame."

Some of the things that are being said about Mr. W. E. Corey ought to give a more forceful meaning, if possible, to the word "excortation."

Oregon is promised a bumper cherry crop. The record of Oregon will be volume. "The Governor must have takbroken for quantity and the world's record for qui

The gas company is bolder now after the primaries and will be in good shape again after the election next

The burglar who tried to kiss the hired girl should have known better in these days of hard-reckoning with the Selem has begun to pave. And if a good job shall be done the people will never be sorry for the beginning.

Now listen to the soft things, in-stead of hard, that the nominees will

The State Library at Salem contains tons of books, but no Bible. It is a gradually desert the ranks of the public school instructors. The process has already resulted in scarcity of teachers and them was one man who was vigorous in fair way to be the successful aspirant that the Governor was opposing him because he was a Republican. He also spoke of one of his rivals as "that man

state offices in Oregon. At any rate, Superintendent of Public Instruction Ackerman was unable a few days ago to find a copy of the sacred book around the Capitol at Salem, and he tells the story at his own expense as well as that of his associates. He owns up to having no Bible in his office library, though he says he has one at home. When he recently had occasion to use a Scriptural quotation in preparing an address he needed a Bible to give him the exact language, and therefore went up to the State Library, where there are thousands of volumes of law books, reference books and treatises of various kinds. But the book of books, containing the Ten Commandments, upon a hen will lay as many as for which all law is founded, was not no record of one having been there for a dozen years. Then he repaired to the Governor's office, where Pri- great dairy regions of Oregon. vate Secretary Gatens volunteered to trip of investigation in California she deloan him a Bible, but upon searching for it was unable to find the desired en it with him when he went out on a long trip and wanted something good Inquiries at the offices of the Secretary of State and State Treasurer were met with prompt response that no Bibles were kept there. Then, remembering that the Oregon Library the gallery. Commission volunteers to furnish information on any and all subjects, he have a Bible. Finally, convinced that the search was useless and that if the

it away by mistake, he gave up the that they would not convey title. search and sent down town and bought defective conveyances were made a num-

O REGONS new sheep-dipping law is in creating a co-operative spirit among those farmers in Western Oregon who those farmers in Western Oregon who keep small bands of sheep. A sheep dipping vat of approved form costs from $75 to $100, though tanks that will answer the purpose can be had for less. The dipping must be done in the presence of an inspector, who collects from the owner of the sheep a fee of $5 a day and his expenses in relate. The from the mines where going to and from the place where of rain. The work is to be done. Owners of the automatic in the six o'clock the six o'clock

HOWEVER the season may have been for hatching Chinese pheasants in the woods, it is said to be promising for those who raise these game birds in confinement. Eugene Simpson, of Corvallis, has about a hundred pheasant hens which he expects will lay 4000 eggs. He has sold most of the year's product and will raise some 600 chicks himself. His China hens iny an average of 40 eggs each during the season, but occasionally which all law is founded, was not there, and, so the report goes, there is a record of one baying been there machine into Coos County, one of the cided the machines are a success, especially when dairy hands are, scarce. The machine is operated by a 4-horsepower gasoline engine.

to read" was the explanation offered. Inquiries at the offices of the Secret 750-590 in the main auditorium and 250 in the gallery. The new structure will be on the site of the old.

> THAT there has either been a searcity of lawyers in Lebanon or ought to in the Lebanon Criterion that a lawyer of that city recently examined an fostract in which 21 conveyances were noted. Of these, 12 were so defective ber of years ago.

The Six o'Clock Trais.

- Lucy Foster, in St. Nicholas. The six o'clock train comes through with a bang! And a roar and a toot and a hiss and a place frequented by lawyers

The girl who insists upon not having a chaperone is quite likely to be most

Those fellows who didn't get the cominations should respect their encmies at least for being good prophets. Who was it that started that gross ibel that a Democrat cannot month.

"help."

-

write. Ex-Candidate Thomas knows better. one.

called on Secretary Marvin, only to be turned away empty-handed. Of course, the State Land Office didn't state ever had a Bible some member of the Legislature must have taken