PARK FOR TRI-CITY LEAGUE

Street Railway Company Will Fit Grounds Near The Oaks.

The Tri-City League will have its ow grounds. General Manager Fuller, of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, notified President Whitemore of the League yesterday afternoon that the railway company would fit up grounds near The Oaks for the use of the league. The consideration was not made public, but it is generally supposed that the com-pany will receive a part of the gate re-The work on the grounds will begin as soon as all danger of high water is past. At certain times, when the water in the river reaches a certain level, it overflows the flats and often covers them to a depth of several feet. There would be little use in commencing work immediately, as the grounds are now in a boggy condition.

Engineers, sent out by the railway company, have gone over the flats and staked out the grounds. A grandstand and
