Miss Beatrice C. M. Hidden will leave shortly for a few months stay in Europe. She will sail from Montreal on July 12 in one of the new Empress line of steam-ers and after a tour of England, France and Holland, will study with her former teacher. Xavier Schanwenka, in Berlin, returning in season to resume her plano classes.

to the incoming guests, while their fragrance added to the general happy effect. The ladies who assisted Mrs. Kennell in receiving were: Mrs. J. Mauran Knight. Mrs. Wm. G. Eliot. Mrs. Archibald Wright. The Misses Elsie Backus, Elva Sitken and Cordelia Pinkham passed cakes and bon-bons among the guests. About 75 guests partook of Mrs. Kennell's hospitality during the afternoon. The lawn fete to have been given June 12 by the Cathedrai Ladies' Ald Society and the St. Anne's Charitable Society, for the benest of the Old Ladies' Home, at Sunnyside, has been postponed to Wednesday evening, June 19. PORTLAND ROSE SHOW AND FIESTA JUNE 20-21

5000 yards of this season's newest and most desirable dress fabrics on sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at about cost price. We want to reduce our dress goods stock, and do it quickly, so here's a splendid opportunity for prudent women to buy goods of the very best quality at about half their real worth. Remember, these prices will be in force for three days only. Mail orders filled and samples sent on request.

Cream	Silks
35¢	20-inch Messaline, special
50e	19-inch Taffeta, 75c grade6
	19-inch Crepe de Chine, yard

Black Silks 28-inch Black Guaranteed Taffets, $1 grade;

20-inch Black Guaranteed Taffeta, 75c grade;

Black Dress Goods

weave. Our regular $1.35 quality, and worth it. Special sale price ... 98¢
44-inch Black Crepe de Paris—beautiful deep black and the quality that usually sells at $1.50 a yard. Sale price, 50-ineh Black Panama, fine, lustrous dye, and one of our suits and skirts; regular $2.00 grade. Special sale price novelty, marked to sell regularly at $4.00 a yard. cial sale price.....$3.15

CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON STS

MAIL ORDERS FILLED

SPECIAL SALE DRESS GOODS AND SILKS

MONDAY-TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY

	Cream	Silks
nch Jap Silk, special nch Jap Silk, 65c grade nch Jap Silk, 85c grade	50e	20-inch Messaline, special
- Cille is state at the state	Fancy	Silks

Fancy Silks in stripes, checks, etc., 80c-51

Cream Serge

42-inch Cream Serge, regular $1.25 grade; sale price, yard.....936 44-inch Cream Serge, regular $1.50 quality; sale price, yard .. $1.23

56-inch Cream Serge, regular $2.

Nunsveiling

38-inch Cream Nunsveiling, 60c grade; sale price, yard....... 50¢ 44-inch Cream Nunsveiling, $1.00 quality; sale price, yard....83¢ 45-inch Cream Nunsveiling, best $1.40 grade; sale price....$1.23

Panamas

44-inch Cream Panama, $1.25 qual-

MAIL

ORDERS

FILLED

Miss Louine Ross, formerly of this city, graduated with high honors from the medical department of the Boston University June 3. The diplomas from this college rank with those of Harvard and are the only ones accepted by Methourne, and Miss Ross is to be congratulated on her splendid success, due entirely to her own indefatigable efforts. She is the youngest daughter of Greenbury J. Ross, a ploneer of East Portland. Her mother was for many years the president of the East Side W. C. T. U. Miss Ross is possessed of indomitable energy and brains and ambition, having worked for several years as stenographer in this city. She later entered the service of the Government in the same capacity in the Agricultural Department at Washington, D. C. Here she studied medical College for two years and later entered the Boston University. Dr. Ross starts upon her medical career in Washington with some practical experience, having served as interne in one of the largest hospitals in Boston for two years.

A pink shower for Miss Ina Lucile Craig, whose marriage to Arthur L. Finley occurred Wednesday evening, was given by Mrs. Hiram Stipe on Saturday, June 8. The Stipe home was lavishly

Craig, whose marriage to Arthur L. Finley occurred Wednesday evening, was given by Mrs. Hiram Stipe on Saturday, June S. The Stipe home was lavishly decorated with Caroline Testout and La France roses, and a score of dainty decorative oddities sustained the pink color scheme. The early portion of the evening was spent at German whist, the scores being kept on pink heart-shaped cards bearing bride sketches. Miss Eugenia Craig captured the whist prize, as she did also the prize in the "Wedding of the Flowers," which followed.

At II o'clock a charming surprise was given the guests. The doors of the din-ing-room were thrown open, discovering a daintily laid board, over which hovered a large white dove, suspended from the electrolier, carrying streamers of pink satin ribbon, which terminated at the bride-elect's place with an immense lover's knot. A soft sheen from pink-shaded er's knot. A soft sheen from pink-shaded globes illuminated the board, the center-piece for which was a large cut-glass bowl filled with La France roses and ferns upon a pink-embroidered dolly. The place cards were tiny pink baskets with single pink roses, and the favors were miniature suitcases filled with rice. The ministure suitcases filled with rice. The ices were frozen with pink heart centers, and the bonbons and other toothsome items of the collation carried out the same idea. As the guests were seated, the bride-elect discovered at her left a great basket of dainty pink, with its handle arched with pink roses and lover's knot of pink ribbon, in which were the gifts of her friends. Each gift was in pink also. The guests at this unique and delightful affair were Miss Craig, Miss Eugenia Craig, Mrs. T. Craig, Mrs. Clodfelter, Mrs. M. Whitehead, Mrs. Clayton Seaman, Mrs. F. J. Brady, Miss Jennie Thompson, Miss Anna Stipe, Miss Lorena Strauhal, Mrz. C. G. Irwin, Miss Anna Finley, Mrs. William Goodwin, Mrs. F. J. Strauhal.

Mrs. James Dougherty entertained at dinner, 12 covers, at her home on King's Heights Monday evening. The decorations were in yellow, the centerpiece being a huge mass of golden biossoms. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gates, Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Miss Lulu Hall, Miss Randall, Mr. Ernest Webb, Mr. Jordan Zan, Miss Florence Williams, Miss Gertrude O'Brien and Mr. Edward Ortmann. McCraken, Mrs. George C. Mason, Miss
Lisa Wood, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Effle Houghton, Miss Marie Pratt, of Oregon City; Mrs. J. Nelson Wisner, also of Oregon City, and Miss Alice Sansbury. At the tea table were Mrs. J.
Frank Watson, Mrs. Ralph Wilbur, Mrs.
A. E. Rockey and Mrs. A. A. Morrison.
Serving at the punch-bowl were Mrs.
David Honeyman and Mrs. C. B. Hurley of Tacoms.

A joily little theater party and supper were given by Mrs. G. W. Gates last night. The seats were for "Dolly Varden," at the Marquam Grand, and the board was spread at the Portland Grill.

prettly wrought, immense quantities of pink carnations and syringa being utilized Margaret Weston, 654 Taylor street, were pink carnations and syringa being utilized to effect the official pale green and pink of the coming carnival. The color scheme was carried out with particularly dainty effect in the appointments of the teatable, which was spread with an exquisite cover of Mexican drawn-work over a cloth of pale pink silk. The profusion of fragrant June roses and other blossoms, the blending of delicate colors in the decorative scheme, the sheen and film of the lovely gowns worn by the graceful callers and the happy hum of among those whose talents were contributed. programme was especially good, and among those whose talents were contrib-uted were Miss Laura Fox, Miss Elphie Smith, Mrs. L. H. Hammond, Miss Celeste Dygert, Miss Julia Cole, Miss Jessie Mc-Connell and Miss Cornella Barker, Mrs. Hammond having the musicale in charge. Miss Margaret Chamberlain and Miss Florence Dayton sold bonbons, Mrs. F. W. Isherwood, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. John W. Minto and Mrs. Richard Martin Jr., poured tea. The officers of the board received. They were: Mrs. Theodore Nicolal, Mrs. A. H. Willett, Mrs. Mary Knox, Mrs. D. H. Rand, Mrs. A. L. Ramsey, Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mrs. Fred Daly and Mrs. A. D. Shannon. In the diningdominated, with a rose design running through it, and of Empire design, Mrs. Morrison's gown was of white creps, with duchess lace yoke. Mrs. Wilbur's was of silk, robin's egg blue in tone. An ecru silk grenadine was worn by Mrs. Watson, and Mrs Rockey appeared in an elaborate Empire tollette of black and white brocaded silk. Miss Sansbury wore a lingerie gown of clinging white, Mrs. James McCraken a tollette of black embroidered lace over white silk. Mrs. James McCraken wore a pale gray tailored gown, with a hat of shell pink over cloth of silver, with a profusion of pink plumes. A pretty costume of Nile green was wern by Miss Pratt, and Miss Houghton was in old rose satin foulard, with deep cream yoke and sleeves. Miss Knapp wore a dainty white lingerie frock with numerous valencienness ruffes, and Miss Wood a charming costume of all covers for the oldest and most prominent families of the Constant of the Constant of the close of the oldest and most prominent families of the Constant of the Constant of the close of the oldest and most prominent families of the Constant of the Constan of this city, and Miss Edith Barnhisel, of this city, and Miss Edith Barnhisel, daughter of one of the oldest and most prominent families of the "Garden City." The wedding was the culmination of a university romance, the two having been in the same class at Stanford. The bride is one of the most cultured girls of San Jose, and the groom one of the most talented waying alternacy of Portland Dr. ented young attorneys of Portland. Dr. Homer D. Angell, of this city, who has been the close friend of Mr. Fisher since at bridge. The parlor and library were fragrant and gay with a profusion of Oregon grape and Caroline Testout roses, and the dining-room, done in red, was a veritable bower of Oregon grape and red rambler. The prizes were won by Mrs. Leon Hall, Mrs. W. C. Noon, Jr., Mrs. Ben Trenkman and Mrs. Joseph Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley-sailed from Seattle Friday morning, on the new Seattle Friday morning, on the new but that the young attorney would bring but that the young attorney would bring

A Sweeping Sale of Beautiful Waists

The most exquisitely elaborate Sammer Waists in Portland, such as distinguish Bartholomew's as "The House of Tone," will be sold at a tremendous reduction

Every One at a Discount of 25 Per Cent All these daintily-wrought Waists are for Summer wear. The materials are lingerie, lace and net-each one trimmed in lace, insertion and tucks—many of them after models that come from the most exclusive blousemaking establishments of Paris. You could scarcely buy the materials alone for the price we ask. While the style is individually artis-tic, a large number of them are not too elaborate for the most ordinary occasions. In so sweeping a sale you are bound to find exactly what you need to complete your Summer wardrobe. Read the prices-remember the beautiful styles for which this firm is famous-and come-early or late!

Note These Reductions $ 7.00 VALUES ... $ 5.25

$ 9.00 VALUES....$ 6.75 $10.50 VALUES....$ 7.98 $11.00 VALUES....$ 8.25 $12.00 VALUES....$ 9.00 $15.00 VALUES...$11.25 $18.00 VALUES....$13.50 $21.00 VALUES... $15.75 $38.00 VALUES....$28.50 $44.00 VALUES... $33.00

"THE HOUSE OF TONE" 392 WASHINGTON St.

The Bartholomew Company

Pansy Metschan. The board was prettily decorated.

Among the merry affairs of the younger set last week were those in compliment to the '67 class of St. Mary's Academy, the graduating exercises of which will be held Monday night, June 17. Miss Catherine O'Hara entertained the class at a luncheon, followed by a theater party at the Marquam on Saturday, June 8. The class colors of green and white were prattite. colors of green and white were prettily carried out at the luncheon in roses and ferns, with green and white favors of bon-bon boxes in miniature mortarboard cap design. The guests were Misses Katherine Boswell, Delia Brogan, Cecilia de Lorimier, Lucilie Dunne, Golda Goulet, Letitia Imbrie, Katherine Kern, Ethel Marsh, Estelle McKay, May Springer and Mildred Waite.

On Monday evening the class of '08 en-tertained the graduating class at the Academy, the tallyho party planned hav-ing been postponed. Wednesday evening Miss Mildred Walte gave a dancing party at the Irvington Club for the class. White syringa and ferns were used in the decorations, to represent the class colors. Parsons orchestra played for the dancing, in which about 200 guests partici-pated. Miss Lucille Dunne entertained the class at a launch party Thursday af-

Miss C. A. O'Reilly has returned to the Norton after a delightful eight months' trip to the Orient as a guest of Mrs. Morton, whose husband, Major Morton, is stationed in Manila.

Mrs. Charles Curray has given up her home at Twentieth and Kearney streets, and has taken apartments at the Hobart-Curtis.

Mrs. Holt C. Wilson was hostess at golf links tea given in compliment to her guests, the Misses Hastings, of Chlcago, Tuesday. The feature of the affair was the singing of Miss Elizabeth Harwas, who is soon to go abroad. Her numbers were "Night Song" (Ashford): "Alone Upon the Housetops." (Galloway): "For You." (D'Hardelot): "Des Gelsteagesang." (Haydn): "The Dawn," (D'Hardelot): "Tonight." (Zarde): "Burst Ye Apple Buds." (Emery), and "Spring's and Saturday of last week, and Monday

The Frank L. Smith Meat Co. Request the Honor of Your Patronage and Hope You Will Eat Smith's Pure, Fresh, Unadulterated

Oregon Meats

Every Day in the Year. We Are "Fighting the Beef Trust" and Eastern Meats. Pledge Us Your Word That You Will Eat Smith's Meats.

226-228 Alder Street, Bet. 1st and 2d Sts.

MRS HARRY MECRACKEN, MRS.E.H. MECRACKEN'S GUEST OF HONOR THURSDAY

We have the roses, thanks to the recent nipping tomperature, which back the budding, and we have the per fiesta spirit, thanks to the carnienthusiasts among us. It only rems for us to have the weather, be uncertainties of mood manifested the elements during the past week to occasioned fears for the fate of the ta management's well-laid plans, ch a shower or two, such as came of clear skies without warning the tweek would do much to man recent the succession of the succession of the fate of the ta management's well-laid plans, ch a shower or two, such as came of clear skies without warning the tweek would do much to man recent the patroniesses include Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Raiph Wilbur, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. L. H. Tarpiey, Mrs. Nelle Williams, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. John C. Ainsworth Mrs. Raiph W. Hoyt, Mrs. William C. Aivord, Mrs. George F. Wilson, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. James Zan and Mrs. Geo. E. Chamberlain. held back the budding, and we have the proper fiesta spirit, thanks to the carnival enthusiasts among us. It only remains for us to have the weather.

the elements during the past week are occasioned fears for the fate of the have occasioned fears for the fate of the flesta management's well-laid plans, which a shower or two, such as came out of clear skies without warning the past week, would do much to mar, or even ruin. It is to be hoped that the devout prayers of E. W. Rowe and his corps of assistants will bring sunshine. One of the most-discussed teatures of the four-day flesta period is the baseball game which will be played June 22.

This game will be not all burlesque, as it is rumored that the physicians, lawyers and bankers who comprise the two teams have gone into rigorous practice, with the intention of putting up a hard battle son was Mrs. Henry McCraken's recap-tion at her home, 251 St. Clair street, Thursday afterneon, from 3 to 6 o'clock. The function was in compliment to Mrs.

with numerous valenciennes ruffles. Miss Wood a charming coatume of rose India silk. The home of Dr. H. F. Fleckenstein, 437 Montgomery avenue, was a triumph in decoration Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Fleckenstein entertained 25 friends at bridge. The parlor and library were Geo. E. Chamberlain the four-day flests period is the baseball game which will be not all burlesque, as it is rumored that the physicians, lawyers and bankers who comprise the two teams have gone into rigorous practice, with the intention of putting up a hard battle on the diamond, and a number of those who will play are college men and were knights of the part alm maters. As the proceeds of the game will go to the Fruit and Flower Mission, the worthiness of which institution is well-known, the game will be not all burlesque, as in compliment to Mrs. Seattle Friday morning, on the new steamer Spokane, for a fortnight's tour because the continual process. The McCraken her charming daught tor-in-law of the hostess. The McCraken how example to Mrs. Seattle Friday morning, on the new steamer Spokane, for a fortnight's tour through Alaska. They will visit all the flower was a veritable bower of roses. Carnations and other blossoms, arranged most artistically, and with exquisite effect in the blending of the colors. Many on the limitation may be bad, and on the feet in the blending of the colors. Many on the diament of interest on Puget Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Rhiey-sailed from steaming on the new steamer Spokane, for a fortnight's tour through Alaska. They will visit all the flower was a veritable bower of roses. Alaska points to which convenient transportation may be bad, and on the return trip will visit the various points of interest on Puget Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rhiey-sailed from Hosters the death of a fortnight's tour through Alaska. They will visit all the Alaskan points to which convenient transportation may be bad, and on the return trip will visit the various points of interest on Puget Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rhiey-sailed from Hosters the well-daught for intrough Alaska. They will visit all the Haskan points to which convenient transportation may be bad, and on the return trip will visit all the flower the well also the feet in Scattle Friday morning, on the new steamer Spokane, for a fortnight's tour through Alaska. They will visit all the Alaskan points to which convenient transportation may be had, and on the Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metschan, of the Tacoma.