

silver and ochre, were also artistically used. After many pleasant games were enjoyed refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Vivian Greenwood, Alma Harder, Lena Laurich, Lillian Lindhe, Hazel Mann, Lillian Parcell, Jennie Phillips, Winnie Phillips, Blodwen Williams and Gladys Williams; Ernest Allebach, John Brown, Fred Gomes, William Hankel, Valentine Henkel, Walter Logus, George Prentiss, Jack Scott, Frank Soderback and George Wilkinson. This was the last party for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Lovell entertained a few of their friends in their beautiful Mt. Tabor home last evening, at Five Hundred. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Haak and daughter, who have purchased a new home, and who move to Mt. Tabor next week. The first ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Robert K. Oberkueffer, while the gentlemen's prize was captured by A. W. Jones. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Haak and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Oberkueffer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiedling, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dabney. All were very pleasantly entertained and a dainty luncheon was served.

The HeeHee Kalagranis girls greatly enjoyed an automobile party on Friday of last week. The young ladies in their light Summer dresses and automobile veils, made a pretty picture and attracted quite a bit of attention as the six fine automobiles drew up at the meeting point. The chauffeurs of the respective cars were united in their efforts to see that the ride was enjoyable, all of which was greatly appreciated by the young women who declared the trip one of the pleasantest events of the summer. Miss Eleanor Kurth, president, and Mrs. L. A. Cole, chairman of the picnic committee had charge of the expedition.

On Monday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison, on King's Heights, was a scene of merriment, when the V. L. A. and the A. L. A. were given a most enjoyable possession. Japanese lanterns were strung from trees and porch, and the lawn with rugs and pillows was much in favor. Music, games and tricks made the sport of the evening, after which refreshments were served by the hostess. The V. L. A. is one of the largest organized Bible classes on the Coast, and Mrs. Jamison is the teacher. Some college boys and girls, from Eugene and Vancouver, B. C., were guests of the class. The house decoration was a picture of sweet peas, the parlor being in white and the living-room in purple.

The pretty little cottage of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Burns was given over to the enjoyment of over 40 young people on Saturday evening, July 13, the occasion being a lawn party given in honor of Misses Elodie Burns and Alice Alban Moore, formerly of Portland. The large veranda and lawn were beautifully festooned with Japanese lanterns and baskets of ferns. During the first part of the evening croquet was played. Several musical selections followed and continued during the game playing, which proved to be an enjoyable feature of the evening.

The meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the A. O. H. last Tuesday night was largely attended. 67 members being present. The following persons were initiated: Miss Hagerty, Miss Dorney and Miss Malone. After the initiation a program was given as follows: Reading, Miss Dunning, dialogue, Miss Shagerty; dialogue, Miss J. Hickey and Miss N. Douglas.

On Tuesday evening, July 16, Mrs. H. E. Day of Donkey Island entertained the "Qui Vive" Club at the home "Content" of Mrs. Day, 1127 Francis avenue. The broad veranda was festooned with Japanese lanterns. A musical program was rendered in the early part of the evening by different members of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cellars entertained Judge Curtis C. Williams and wife, of Columbus, Ohio, this week, spending a few days at Gearhart Park. Mr. Williams is a prominent Democrat, having served two years as prosecuting attorney and five years as Common Pleas Judge. This was their first visit to relatives on the Coast.

WEDDINGS.

Herdman-Mogean.
An exceedingly pretty house wedding was held on Wednesday evening, when Miss Isabella Mogean and Mr. Hugh Henry Herdman were married at the residence of Mrs. N. J. Levinson, on Willamette Heights. The ceremony was performed by Dr. William H. Foulkes, assisted by Dr. J. R. Wilson. Miss Gertrude Yager, the bride's sister, acted as maid of honor and Albert W. Herdman, of Minneapolis, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine combined with rose-point lace, and wore a brooch of pearls, the gift of the groom. Her shower bouquet was of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Yager wore an attractive pink frock with a Dresden girdle and carried pink roses and sweet peas. The wedding march was played by Mrs. T. T. Davis. About 40 guests were present. The decorations for the hall were quantities of Papa Gontier roses and huckleberry, while the other rooms were profusely arranged with sweet peas. Mr. Herdman is the principal of the East Side High School, and the bride is a sister of Mrs. N. J. Levinson. Upon their return from a trip to Cloud Cap Inn, Mr. and Mrs. Herdman will reside at the Guillaume. Among the guests was Mrs. H. H. Herdman, of Morrisville, Ill., who made many friends here during her visit three years ago.

Avery-Gallagher.
A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Avery at Dayton, Or., on Wednesday, July 17, when their youngest daughter, Miss Myrtle May, and Frank R. Gallagher of North Yamhill were wedded at high noon by Rev. D. H. Leech of Woodburn, Or. The house was daintily decorated with white roses and ferns. Mrs. Frank Berry played the wedding march.

The bride, a pretty brunette, looked charming in a gown of white silk, trimmed in silver, stucco, lace and applique. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridegroom is engaged in engineering and general contracting in Portland. A wedding dinner was served immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher left on the 4:48 train for Portland, where they will be at home to their friends at 14 East Twenty-eighth street North. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. E. Gallagher, mother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gallagher, Homer Avery, Miss Mary Regdon of Portland and Mrs. R. S. Goodrich of Monument.

Allen-Fisher.
A very pretty wedding was celebrated Wednesday, July 3, at the residence of the bride at 145 East Thirty-third street, when Miss Phoebe Elizabeth Fisher was joined in marriage to Edgar Allen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ford of the Methodist Episcopal Church at 12:30 o'clock noon. The garden and conservatory gave up their fairest blossoms to adorn the already elegant rooms where the nuptials were to be performed, and the bride, handsomely attired in white silk and rare lace, made altogether a pleasing sight to the circle of immediate friends who were in attendance. After a wedding luncheon, which was presided over by Mrs. A. V. Wells and Miss Jean Milne, the couple took the afternoon train for an extended tour, embracing the Sound cities, British Columbia, then east to St. Paul, Chicago, Washington, New York and principal points East. After their return they will be at home to their many friends at Mr. Allen's beautiful home, at the seaside "Rustic Cottage," Seaview, Wash.

Thorsen-Larsen.
On the evening of July 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Larsen, on East Forty-eighth street, P. W. Thorsen and Miss Clara Marie Larsen were married. Rev. Edward M. Sharp, D. D., officiated.

The guests were the immediate families of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Thorsen will be at home to their friends after August 1 in the recently rented house 138 East Stark street.

Mr. Thorsen is an East Side merchant. Mrs. Thorsen is a highly esteemed Mount Tabor young woman and a worker in the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church. Her parents built themselves a new home in Monday afternoon at five o'clock, July 8, Rev. George Thompson officiating.
