TRAIL OF AUTO ACCIDENT.—"When the automobile accident Friday happened I was in the back seat of the auto, with Mrs. Clemson," said John D. Clarke, "When Mr. Clemson's auto struck Mr. Febrache, I jumped out, came around to the other side of the machine, and assisted Mrs. Clemson to alight. She was greatly excited and crying. We saw a physician in the auto and on his way to the hospital. Then Mrs. Clemson and I crossed the street and Mr. Clemson and home. There were no marked signs of disapproval by the crowd."

WAREHOUSE AND FACTORY SITES.—We have a number of fine warehouse or factory sites with railroad facilities, suitable for any size concern. We have single corners on Fifteenth street, also quarter blocks, half blocks, or, if need be, can supply a whole block. On Third and Second streets, with trackage, can supply a quarter block or half block, as may be wanted, the half block running through between both tracks. Also a number of very desirable factory or warehouse sites along the Salem electric line, on Water and Hood streets. Can supply quarter blocks, half blocks or whole blocks. Manufacturers or warehousemen wanting sites to build on, or to have buildings erected thereon, should call upon Charles K. Henry & Son, 123 Third street, Portland, Or.

Residence property is being sought for by new-comers, and we have a list of inquiries for good, well-built residences of medium cost on the West Side, and also in Irvington, Holladay, Hawthorne, Call and East Main streets. Desirable having desirable homes for sale, with prices reasonable, will find it to their advantage to list same with us, as we can promptly close a number of sales. Charles K. Henry, 123 Third street, Portland, Or.

TIMBER CLAIMS OR HOMESTEAD RELINQUISHMENTS.—Three young people are desirous of taking up either a good timber claim or homestead with good timber. Will pay good location fee, or will purchase relinquishment. Are already paid up on one claim, and are ready to take up another. Location of land, character of timber and quantity and mention where interview can be had. Address G. H. Oregonian.

WINGS GO UNDERGROUND.—While Front and First streets are torn up for the laying of new pavements, the wires of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. will be laid underground on those thoroughfares. President Joseph has given orders to arrange for the laying of conduits there as soon as the pavements are taken up.

Rev. John A. Stratton, of Chicago, temporary pastor of the White Temple, officiated. Only members of the families and intimate friends attended.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.—Hicks-Chatten Engraving Company are now fully established in their new building at the corner of Second and Alder streets. A great deal of money has been expended on the new quarters, making the largest and best-equipped engraving house on the Pacific Coast. A complete force of thoroughly competent workmen, together with new machinery, enables a greater output, as well as doing away with all annoying delays in not receiving orders when promised. "Printing Plates Finished on Time" is the motto of the new shop.

VICTIM WILL RECOVER.—Solomon F. Febrache, the Grand Army veteran who was badly injured at Third and Morrison streets Friday afternoon when he was knocked down and run over by an automobile owned and driven by J. G. Clemson, is resting easily at the North Pacific Hotel. Unless complications develop, he will soon recover.

NOON SELLER INTEREST.—T. J. Armstrong, for many years identified with the W. C. Noon Bag Company, has acquired the interest in the concern held by W. C. Noon, Jr. It is said that Mr. Noon has purchased a sawmill in the vicinity of Oregon City and intends to devote his time to that interest hereafter.

ROBINSON & CO.'S MOVE
 It was a good one for men who have learned that neat dressing is a requisite to business success. They've been moving to a new place, and we've moved our men's furnishings from their counters to homes as rapidly as sales could be made, but still there's a good selection of this very line—felt hats, negligee shirts, wash neckwear, summer underwear, serviceable belts, etc. Cross the street to 289 Washington and examine these goods, all greatly reduced in price.

DID YOU SEE THEM?
 Inspect those splendid new pianos divested from San Francisco, and being sold here at 37 cents on the dollar. Values remarkably starting at $200. $200 grades at $114. $300 grades at $171. $400 grades at $232. A sale never duplicated in this city before. They're going fast—you'll have to hurry. See our window, Ellers Piano House, Park and Washington sts.

Diamonds That Sparkle

That is What We Are All After When We Buy a Diamond.
 A DEAD STONE is one without any luster, although it may be nice and white, but not cut properly.

Are You a Judge of Diamonds?
 Can You Tell when a stone is cut as it should be? If it has a flaw, or any imperfections that lowers its value?

ARE WE RELIABLE? ASK YOUR FRIENDS
 If we are, give us a chance to show you some good values.

We Never Misrepresent, and any diamond which we sell carries with it the highest of guarantee. If you are in the market for a diamond, we feel sure that we can please you, not only with a gem, but as to price.

Have you ever examined the 20th century cut? Come in, we are glad to show you the difference in cut.

CITY PARK CONCERT TODAY

LIVING FRENCH COMPOSERS WORKS TO BE PLAYED.

"Dance of the Skeletons," by Saint Saens. Will Be Feature-Number of the Programme.

Works of three living French composers, Delibes, Saint-Saens and Massenet, will be the features of the band concert at the City Park this afternoon. The music will commence at 2:30. Bandmaster DeCaprio makes up his Sunday programmes largely of classical numbers, including thereby a development of popular taste for high-class compositions.

"Dance of the Skeletons," which is considered a masterpiece of vivid descriptive writing, will close the first half of the programme. The music conveys the antics of a company of skeletons, which rise from their graves in a country churchyard on a moonlight night, and hold high carnival there. Their dance gets wilder and wilder until the crowing of a distant cock warns them that the dawn is at hand, and the ghosts must lie low. All hurry back to their coffins, but one poor wretch loses his bearings and utters low moans of distress, until at last he finds his grave, and the last sound heard is the rattle of his bones as he drops into his waiting coffin.

The programme in full follows:
 "Coronation March" (by request).....Saint George Overture, "Pierrot" (new).....Messiaen "Miserere" from "Il Trovatore".....Verdi (by request)....."Dance of the Skeletons" (by request).....Saint-Saens Intermezzo, "Symphonique".....De Caprio Grand selection, "Sylvia" (new).....Delibes Grand concert for baritone, "Blue Bell" of Scotland.....De Caprio "Invitation to the Waltz" (by request).....Wagner March, "American Republic".....Thiele A. de Caprio, director.
