RECEPTION TO MRS. MOORE—An elaborate reception was given yesterday by the Women's Club at the residence of Mrs. P. J. Mann in honor of Mrs. Phillip N. Moore, of St. Louis, the vice-president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, and president of the National Association of Collegiate Alumnae. Mrs. Moore has received a number of social courtesies since her arrival in the city. She is a woman of marked mental attainments, is well poised and has a charming manner. On Friday afternoon the Oregon branch of the Federation of Alumnae entertained for Mrs. Moore at the residence of Mrs. Ralph Wilbur. The guests at the reception yesterday included members of the Federation of Clubs of this city, of the Collegiate Alumnae and Vassar students. Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Vassar and one of the three alumnae regents of the college. Receiving with Mrs. Mann were Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Frederick Evans Eggert, president of the Women's Club; Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, president of the State Federation; and the members of the executive board. The decorations for Mrs. Mann's attractive drawing-rooms were quantities of ferns, palms, roses, sweet peas and star clematis. In the dining-room arranged with a profusion of Caroline Testout roses, presided Mrs. McKinley Mitchell, Mrs. Millie Perkins, Mrs. A. Staiger and Mrs. Flora S. Hubert.

BEWARE OF THE GET-RICH-QUICK SCHEMES, wildcat real estate dealers, bogus timber locators and the something-for-nothing operators, that are denning here in such large numbers. Good real estate properties in the City of Portland are the best investments to be had, and are far ahead of any flimsy schemes and stock-jobbing concerns. It will pay purchasers to go to the reliable dealers, who are well acquainted with the city and the prevailing values, and who are being steadily patronized, while many others are here to reap what they can in a hurry and get away, and in many cases feeding the unsuspecting and confiding public. We have been in the real estate business in this city for about 20 years, and intend to remain here. Everything we have is here, and intending purchasers are referred to on getting the best advice and assistance in making investments in the City of Portland. Nonresidents from other parts of the state and upper country are making investments in the city, knowing that it is going to make a great city. All such are invited to write to or call upon us, and receive references referred to any bank or business house in the city, as to our reliability and methods of doing business. Charles K. Henry & Son, 122 Third street, Portland, Or.

REV. MR. MONTGOMERY RETURNS—Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, East Pine and Thirteenth streets, returned Friday from Mount Jefferson, where he and his family spent a month. Rev. Mr. Montgomery climbed over different portions of the mountain, but owing to adverse conditions, did not reach the summit, although he was within 300 feet of the top. On one occasion he got up to the 200-foot altitude, but a fog coming up, the party was compelled to descend. Rev. Mr. Montgomery says he greatly enjoyed his vacation and acquired a pretty familiar acquaintance with Mount Jefferson without reaching the summit. He will resume his work at Third Church today.

BOYS ACCUSED OF STEALING BIKES—Police detectives late yesterday afternoon arrested Lee, Claude and Ross Hickman, 14, 12 and 10 years old respectively, and charged them with the theft of 17 bicycles. Portions of many wheels were confiscated and are held as evidence. The boys were arrested at their home, 325 Cherry street, Albina. They will be taken before the Juvenile Court, the father of the boys is a carpenter, and is separated from his wife. She has been forced to work to earn a livelihood, and during her absence, it is said, the three brothers pilfered. Their guilt is said to extend to the numerous thefts of bicycles occurring here of late.

LOT-BUYERS and home-builders contemplating the purchase of one or more residence lots, either for a home site or for speculation, should inspect the new addition in Irvington, lying between East Seventh and East Thirteenth and Thompson and Brazee streets. This property is the best improved residence neighborhood within easy walking distance of the center of the city. Sewer, gas and water pipes are laid to each lot, streets are being fully improved, concrete sidewalks and curbs already laid, parking done, shade trees planted and growing. All these are done and paid for. There are certain building restrictions, which will insure a very desirable class of residences. Why should you go out in the country and pay inflated prices for lots in unimproved areas with only vague promises of improvements, which may never be completed? We consider this one of the most desirable residence sites in the city, and invite the closest inspection. For prices and terms, call upon Charles K. Henry & Son, 122 Third street, Portland, Or.

CARS COLLIDE ON GRADE—Because of a miscalculation of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, failed to properly adjust his brakes when he ran ahead to assist the motorman of car No. 266, a collision resulted yesterday morning. Becoming loosened by means of air leakage, car No. 163 started down the Corbett street hill and ran a distance of eight blocks at tremendous speed, crashing into car No. 140, telescoping and completely wrecking it. The crews jumped and, there being no passenger cars, the cars were removed. The cars were damaged.

The club plans holding regular meetings hereafter.

REV. W. L. UPHAM RESIGNS—Rev. W. L. Upham, who has been pastor of the Mississippi Avenue Congregational Church, has tendered his resignation, which was accepted. He will deliver his farewell sermon tonight. Rev. Mr. Upham will enter the mission and Sunday-school work in Eastern Oregon September 1. For some time he has had difficulty with his throat which interfered with his preaching. As the atmosphere in Eastern Oregon is lighter than in the Willamette Valley, he hopes to receive benefit from the change.

THAT beautiful knoll on the west slope of Mount Tabor, facing on the car line, having been subdivided in small tracts and offered for sale at $500 for 5000 square feet, has unexcelled view, also a building restriction, thus making it the choice residence location. Make your selection early. Terms easy. One-fourth cash, balance 6 per cent. F. W. Torgler, 106 Sherlock building.

APPOINTED NOTARY—Certificate was issued yesterday to Richard L. Meade as a Notary Public.

CALAMITY-HOWLERS, trouble-borrowers and pessimists, stand up and take notice. We have just succeeded in closing another of the largest and most important real estate transactions of the season, being the sale of the half block on the north side of Clatsop street, between Third and Fourth streets, to M. Barde & Sons, for $10,000. This was not the closing up of an old deal, which had been pending for some time, but negotiations were begun for the first time only on Wednesday, the day of the bank failure, and closed up the following Friday. This was done in the face of the uncertainty due to the so-called "rich man's Wall-street panic," and the uneasiness caused by the failure of the reckless bond-buying, stock-jobbing concern, mis-called a savings bank. It goes to show that others besides ourselves have confidence in the future growth and business prosperity of Portland, and are not hesitating about putting money in Portland real estate. Remember this, if you have your money invested in real estate in Portland, all the bond-buying, stock-jobbing, syndicate-promoting concerns in the country could close their doors, and you would still hold your property. If you wish to make some good investments in real estate, call and see us. We also have daily many calls for income-bearing property and desirable residence properties, ranging from $200 upward. Let your property with us, and we will sell it for you. Charles K. Henry & Son, 122 Third street, Portland, Or.

RENTS ARE HIGH—This is a common remark in Portland and still Mr. Rent-payer, you who have paid rent for years will not take the opportunity to buy a lot and build a home with the same amount of money which you are now paying out in rent. Five years ago you could have built for less money than you can today, but if you wait another five years, it will cost you considerable more. In Rosemead, the beautiful addition, where artificial and concrete conditions are unsurpassed, you can buy a lot and build a residence on terms to suit you. If you are interested, make an appointment in person, or by phone with Mr. F. R. T. Schikora, sales manager of Rosemead, who will take you in an auto on a tour of inspection. To out-of-town buyers we will allow railroad fares from their homes to Portland and return, not to exceed a total of 1000 miles; we will also pay hotel expenses. Write for full particulars. The Rosemead Estates of the Jacobs-Stine Company are on Fifth and Alder streets, opposite Meler & Frank store. Phones, Main 6983 and Home phone A 181.

DEATH OF HAROLD N. ROSEMER—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosmer, who reside at 504 East Thirtieth street, will sympathize with them in the death of their young son, Harold Nicol Rosmer, who died at his home at the age of 10 years 7 months and 14 days. Cash or Payments

Very few piano buyers pay cash for their instruments. The great majority buy "on time," making cash payments from $10 to $25 and upward, and paying the balance in monthly payments. Our terms will enable any one whose means are limited, and whose intentions are honest to own a good piano. If you have an old instrument we will take it at its full value as part payment for new one. If you buy a piano in this way you will not miss the money you pay for it, as its purchase will tend to help each member of the family to acquire the habit of saving. You will be surprised to see how quickly the time will pass—how soon you will be the owner of a fine piano, and for with it in the least working on you or your household.

In all the years of our business career we have never taken undue advantage of any of our patrons who may have met with misfortune.
