THAT summer has well-nigh run its course is evident. Last week the students began to prepare to return to schools and colleges, and the influx from beaches and mountains began. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the interest at the Irvington tennis courts during the first days of the tourney was disappointing, but the attendance has increased with each succeeding day. As a fitting finale, an informal tennis dance is to be given at the pretty club this coming Saturday for the tennis devotees and their friends.

From last accounts, Mr. Drake C. O'Reilly and Mr. Arnold Rothwell were in Paris, and from there were to motor on the Continent. In London they were joined by Harrison Randolph, of the University of Virginia, who, it will be remembered, visited Dr. Archibald Stewart during the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Mr. Rothwell is to sail for America on the 14th of the current month. As yet, Mr. O'Reilly's plans for returning are indefinite, as it is expected that Mr. Burpee, another Portland bachelor, who is traveling abroad, will join him.

The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Blake, of Spain (the latter formerly Miss Ruth Maxwell) has been the signal for a number of informal affairs since their arrival on Wednesday. Mrs. Blake is more slender than formerly, and makes a handsome appearance in her chic European gowns. Dr. Frank J. Sladen arrived recently from Baltimore, Maryland, and is the guest of his parents, Captain and Mrs. Sladen, on Flanders street. Dr. Sladen is a Yale man and also a graduate of Johns Hopkins, in which institution he has acted in the capacity of house physician the last two years. Upon his return, Dr. Sladen is to assume a flattering position at Johns Hopkins, to which he was recently appointed.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster have returned to the Nortonia, after their usual summer programme of visiting in Victoria. On the 20th Mrs. MacMaster will accompany her mother, Mrs. Fender, across the continent, stopping en route at Boston, where Miss Katherine, the eldest daughter, will attend Miss Chamberlin's school. Just prior to the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. MacMaster are planning to occupy their handsome home near the Golf Links, which will be adapted for entertaining the gallery alone being 130 feet long. Architecturally, the residence is built along the lines of the low, rambling English country homes.

After an interesting Eastern visit of several months' duration, Miss Katherine Sitton returned home last week. Miss Sitton visited also in the large Southern cities, where she received many social attentions. While in Decatur, Ill., she was a guest of Mrs. Powers, who will be remembered as the charming Miss Belle McKee.

It will be interesting to the many friends of Mr. Frank L. Cum, who was a popular guest this summer, to learn that he has been selected to play the leading man part with Sarah Truax in the "Spider's Web" in lieu of the juvenile role, which he had previously expected to assume. Apropos of theatricals, Mr. Franklin Jones, also a popular bachelor, is now rehearsing the juvenile lead in "Brown of Harvard," which Portlanders will be given an opportunity to witness this winter at the Helix.

Cards are out for a reception on Friday night to be given by Mrs. L. B. von Oll Clarke and her son, Mr. Dudley Randolph Clarke, in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Marguerite Chamberlain, and her fiancé, Mr. Rowan Gaither, of Mississippi.

Dining with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burrell at the Portland Grill on Wednesday were Captain William Bidle, former attaché at Berlin; Mrs. Bidle, Captain and Mrs. Voorhees and Miss Katherine Brown, of Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and Miss Claire Wilcox returned from their beach home on Monday.

Mr. Tom Karl, the tenor of Bostonian fame, with his son, Dewey, are residing at the Nortonia. Mr. Karl will be accompanied by Barnabee, McDonald and Jessie Bartlett Davis, who composed the original quartet of that famous company. And his presence here after a decade has been the signal for a number of happy reunions.

Three prominent Briar Cliff girls have been guests at the Hotel Portland this past week, Miss Ruth Wood, Miss Elizabeth Carson and Miss Amy Echeleman, who were chartered on their trip West by Mr. and Mrs. Wood, of Philadelphia. The girls, who were college friends of Miss Ise Koehler and Miss Anita Burns, were shown a number of attentions during their brief visit. Mr. Burns entertained for them with a luncheon at the Hotel Portland Grill on Wednesday, taking them later motoring in her car.

Miss Wynn Coman has returned from a trip to New York City where she was a guest of her sister, Miss Martha Coman, at Sea Gate, New York Harbor. Since taking up her residence in the East Miss Martha Coman has attracted attention in the journalistic fields by her clever articles in Eastern magazines and the New York Herald.

Mrs. Robert Lewis and children and Miss Martha Hoyt returned home yesterday from several weeks' sojourn at Seaside.

Miss Lisa Wood and Miss Margaret Walter are enthusiastic over their very interesting trip through Eastern Oregon, where they went with Colonel C. E. S. Wood. They are planning to remain some weeks longer riding horseback and enjoying simple life.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., have returned to their home at Dallas, with their guest, Miss Anderson, of Minneapolis, for whom a number of pleasant things were done while a guest of Mrs. George Willard Brown and Mrs. Gerlinger, Sr. Miss Anderson is a handsome girl and clever musician.

Mrs. George Wentworth, Jr., leaves tomorrow for Hood River where she will spend some weeks.

Miss Josephine Smith and Mrs. Whetnam, of London, returned on Monday from Hay Creek, where they have visited Mr. and Mrs. Edwards at their ranch, which is the scene again this week of another large house party. Mrs. Whetnam, who is the daughter of a prominent London banker, left immediately for the East where she is to be joined by Mr. Whetnam.

Mrs. Richard Koehler and Miss Ise Koehler, who have been spending the summer at Gearhart Hotel, returned home the early portion of the week.

Mrs. Holmes Langford announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Carolyn Holmes to Dr. Ray Matson. The wedding is to take place on September 18 at St. Matthew's Church. Miss Holmes is a popular and accomplished girl, and is a sister of Mrs. George Peters, who will entertain with bridge in honor of the bride-elect on Wednesday. Dr. Matson is a prominent Portland physician, a twin brother of Dr. Ralph Matson, whose wedding to Miss Parrari, of San Francisco, was celebrated last month upon his return from London where he studied bacteriology under an eminent English physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Balfour were prominent visitors of the past week and were entertained at dinner on Wednesday at the Hotel Grill by Mr. W. J. Burns. Mr. Balfour, who is a son of the late Mr. Balfour, of the firm of Balfour & Guthrie, is showing his charming English bride the West for the first time.

Miss Amy Newman returned to Fresno on Thursday after having spent the entire summer as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Julius Louison.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stone, of Chicago, their daughter Miss Inez Stone, who is a Briar Cliff girl, and their son William, who is to enter Yale this year, are guests at the Portland Hotel. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Stone were hosts at a dinner at the Hotel Grill in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. McEl Wood. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Wood returned the compliment, giving a prettily appointed dinner at the Waverly Golf Club.

Miss Clementine Barman, who is spending a year abroad with Mrs. L. Kauffman, is having a delightful time in Switzerland, where for the nonce they are domiciled in an artistic chalet in Lucerne, which city is at present exceedingly gay owing to the vast number of Americans spending the summer there. Mrs. Kauffman and Miss Barman return early this month to Paris. As yet they have made no plans for returning.

Miss Clara Lewis, a prominent singer of Seattle, is a guest of Mrs. A. S. Norton at the Nortonia.

After a winter spent in California and Southern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Travis have returned and are occupying apartments at the Nortonia. While residing in California Mrs. Travis devoted much time to horseback riding and to writing. The latter accomplishment having been inherited from her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Simpson, of North Bend, were registered at the Hotel Portland last week and were made the honor guests at a number of dinner and motor parties. Mr. Simpson, who represents one of the large lumber interests on the coast, is a brother of the handsome Miss Edith Simpson, one of the belles of San Francisco. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were dinner guests at the Portland Grill, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Keating, of North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs, Mrs. Beno, of Chicago, Mr. Howard Howland and Mr. Smith, of St. Joseph, Mo. The table was attractively arranged with an im-mens oval basket filled with maiden hair ferns and mauve tinted sweet peas, and the table strewn with bride's maid buds. Following the dinner the guests attended the circus.

Mrs. Sherman Hall, of Salt Lake, (formerly Miss Clementine Lewis) and her two small sons have returned from Gearhart Park, where they have occupied a cottage, and from Ecota, Mrs. Lewis' country home, where she has been a frequent visitor. Mrs. S. E. Linticum has taken for the remainder of the summer, the cottage vacated by Mrs. Hall.

Miss Constance McCorkle and Miss Delta Watson entertained the members of the Heehee Kalganite Club Thursday evening at their home on Marshall street. The honor guest of the evening was Miss McCorkle's sister, of Virginia, who is spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn returned from Southern Oregon the first of the week, and Mrs. Linn left immediately for Indiana in response to a telegram telling of the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. C. A. Coburn and her granddaughter, Miss Jean C. Slauson, spent several days last week at Oak Ridge Ranch, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paquet, on Sauvie's Island. Others present over the week end were Miss Vera Hill, of the Dalles, and Miss Mamie Myers, Miss Slauson, who graduated last year from the University of Oregon, has been appointed instructor of Latin at the Portland High School.

Mrs. George F. Russell, her mother, Mrs. Sylvester Penoyer, and Miss Nan Russell, returned yesterday morning from a trip to Yellowstone Park, leaving the same day for the beach.

Lieutenant Jackson has returned to Fort Leavenworth after a month's visit with his father, Colonel Jackson, and his sister, Miss Marion Jackson.

Mr. G. Lee Hynson leaves today for Philadelphia, where he will attend the Jefferson Medical College.

Miss Mae and Miss Clementine Hirsch arrived home last week from Gearhart Park.

Mrs. M. V. Shelby and her daughter, Miss Annie Shelby, left last week for California, where they are to visit for some months to come.

Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey have returned from a three months' European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Fletschner and Miss Flora have returned from a summer at the coast.

Mr. Howard Holland entertained at dinner Tuesday at the Rock Island Club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. John Keating, both of North Bend. Besides the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Judge and Mr. James Alexander.

Mr. Carl Sobeski, a singer and composer of Boston, is registered at the Hotel Portland. Mr. Sobeski has been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mears, to whom he brought letters from Solon Borglum, the New York sculptor.

Mrs. Walter Reed has returned from a short visit with Miss Kathleen Lawler at Long Beach and will assume her position as contralto at the First Presbyterian Church choir this Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Blumauer and their handsome daughter, Miss Hazel, have returned from a trip to Victoria and the Puget Sound cities.

Dr. and Mrs. Archibald Stewart have recently moved into their handsome Irvington residence.

Mrs. Katherine A. Daly is spending the month of August in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken entertained with an informal chafing dish supper on Friday at their charming bungalow opposite the Golf Club, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pease, of San Francisco.

Miss Judith Scott was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Friday in honor of Miss Frances Honeyman, whose wedding to Mr. Ambrose Scott is to be celebrated on Wednesday. Mrs. John Scott was also hostess at a luncheon in compliment to the bride-elect.

Miss Elizabeth Cadwell has returned from the summer school of Harvard and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Monde at their charming country home, "Grassy Hill," at Lynne, Conn.

Mrs. G. O. Wold, of Eugene, and her daughter, Miss Clara, have been the guests for the past week of Mrs. S. J. Barber. On Friday afternoon Mrs. H. Goddard gave a reception at her residence on Twenty-first street in compliment to the guests.
