

Have You a Heidelberg Bank?

IF NOT

You are letting slip the greatest opportunity you ever had to start on the road to independence. Others are grasping this splendid chance, why not you? All you have to do is to pick out your lot or lots, pay us 10 per cent down, then take a Heidelberg Bank home with you; put in your spare change. At the end of the month bring the Bank to our office; our cashier will open it and credit the amount on your contract. You will be surprised how easy it is to save such a small amount. You probably fritter away in a year many ten-dollar notes, and nothing to show for them. Stop it, and in the years to come the satisfaction will be yours, the satisfaction of owning a home of your own, an absolute guarantee against the "rainy day" that is bound to come. Select your lot, we will make the rest easy.

Heidelberg Lots Are

50x100 to a 14-foot alley, with 60-foot streets, $350 and up. Only 20 minutes' ride from the heart of the city. Terms, 10 per cent down and balance $10 per lot per month.

Any Time Today

Take Alberta (A) car at Second and Washington streets, get off at Twentyfifth street. Free carriage to Heidelberg.

WHY NOT?

See Heidelberg Sunday. We know you will be as pleased as we are with this magnificent tract. In fact, if you had heard the remarks made by the people who went out there this week you would have thought they owned the tract; and a good many did own part of it before they left. Go out Sunday, look over the fruit-laden orchards, help yourself to the ripe juicy fruit, there's plenty of it. Ask yourself if there is a better place to put your hard-earned savings. You can have a lot with 10 to 12 fruit trees on it, of the very finest varieties, all in full bearing.

Come to the office and have a talk with us. We want you to understand our proposition thoroughly. Any lot in Heidelberg is within the reach of your pocketbook; a very little effort on your part, and your future independence is assured. Isn't that worth the little time it will take to investigate our offer?

FISH PRICES TO ADVANCE
Salmon Season on Lower Columbia Reopens Next Tuesday.
ASTORIA, Or., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—The Fall fishing season on the Columbia River will open at noon on next Tuesday and the lower river canneries which will probably be opened are the Columbia River Packers' Association plant at Eureka, McGowan's at Ilwaco, Meagher's at Brookfield, Warren's at Cathlamet and the Altona Packing Company at Altona. These plants are all on the Washington side.
As near as can be learned, none of the Oregon canneries on the lower river will be operated, but all the cold-storage plants will be in the market for steelheads, Fall chinooks and possibly silversides.
The opening prices have been fixed by the packers as follows: Silversides, 2 1/2 cents per pound; Fall chinooks, 2 1/2 cents per pound; steelheads, 5 1/2 cents per pound; tules, 10 cents each; dogfish, 5 cents each.
Owing to the shortage of the Coast pack in all classes of fish, and the high prices in the Eastern markets, all the packers are anxious to secure a Fall fish so the price fixed for silversides is expected to advance considerably over the rate agreed upon immediately after the season opens.
It is understood that Seufert and probably some of the other canners on the upper river will also operate their plants.
WOULD BRING HINDU HERE
Portland Man Writes Bellingham Mayor to Secure Farm Hand.
BELLINGHAM, Wash., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Mayor Black has an opportunity to establish an employment bureau and supply jobs to the few remaining Hindus of Bellingham. From Portland comes a request to the Mayor for a Hindu. S. C. Sturt, a farmer, wants a Hindu and he wants him so badly that he has appealed to Black in the following letter: "I have noticed that your city has a large number of Hindus you are trying to get rid of. I have a small ranch and I want to hire a man. Can you get someone to send me a good man by October?"
THEATER WALL COLLAPSES
Four Men Tumbled Into Mass of Timber and Brick.
BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 7.—Four men were injured this morning by the collapse of the front wall of the Lulu Theater, now in course of construction, on West Broadway, by Richard Sutton. The men were at work on the wall, 30 feet from the ground, when the structure suddenly toppled and precipitated the victims into a tangled heap of splintered timbers and brick. None were seriously hurt.
The cause of the collapse is said to be the wall not being able to stand the strain.
Schlitz' Manager Breaks Legs.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 7.—News has been received in this city that Mr. Uhlen, general manager of Schlitz Brewing Company, while starting on a hunting trip at Browning, Mont., was thrown from a horse and both of his legs were broken.

withstanding the fact that advertisements have been inserted in most of the Pacific Coast newspapers, calling for shipwrights and other labor needed to build the ship, it has not been practicable even to lay the keel.
The Department requires the services of such colliers very much and it must determine before Congress meets again whether the attempt to build ships in the navy-yards of the Pacific Coast shall be abandoned entirely or the work done by contract.
Work on the California and South Dakota and repairs on the Marblehead are almost suspended for the same reason.
TRY ADAMS IN KOOTENAI
Judge Wood Grants Change of Venue—Darrow Has Objection.
WALLACE, Idaho, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Steve Adams will be tried for the murder of Fred Tyler in Kootenai County at Rathbun, the county seat. The case has been under argument for several days and the decision to grant a change of venue was made by Judge W. W. Wood this morning. Judge Wood himself will preside.
The Kootenai County Court meets September 14, and Adams will be transferred to that place. An exception was taken to the decision by Clarence Darrow, and an appeal will probably be made.
MAY HUNT IN LOUISIANA
Roosevelt Considers Invitation to Extend Trip Southward.
OYSTER BAY, Sept. 7.—President Roosevelt is considering an invitation to go on a hunting trip into the Louisiana canebrakes immediately after his forthcoming journey down the Mississippi. In case he makes the trip farther south he probably will not return to Washington until about October 20.

ROOT FINISHES TRAINING
WILL RETURN TO DUTIES WITH RESTORED VIGOR.
Wins Commendation From Muldoon, but Paul Potter Breaks Rules and Is Called Pinhead.
NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Ruddy and lithe, Secretary of State Elihu Root today went through the severe setting-up exercises at Muldoon's hygienic institute at White Plains like a seasoned veteran. Able to go to sleep at 9 P. M. and get up at 6 A. M. and to work like a hod-carrier on an empty stomach until 8 o'clock, Mr. Root finished the last day of his term of treatment and packed up to return to his family and to his duties at Washington. The Secretary went to Muldoon's three weeks ago, suffering from insomnia, loss of appetite and nervousness. His physician, Dr. Gorham Bacon, had warned him that only a complete change could avert nervous prostration.
Besides restored health, Mr. Root takes with him the commendation of Mr. Muldoon for soldierly neatness in keeping his room and clothes in order. Major Maude, late of the commissary department of the British army, another of Muldoon's clients, also won commendation, but Paul M. Potter, the playwright, was caught with fruit, cigarettes and peanut butter in his bureau when Professor Muldoon and his drill sergeant, Dick Jared, made a search for contraband, and was publicly denominated a pinhead by Mamzelle, Muldoon's mess sergeant.

Grape-Nuts food is in the form of hard and crisp granules, intended to be ground up by the teeth. That work not only preserves the teeth but brings down the saliva, so necessary in the primary work of digestion.
Many people say (and it is true) that when they eat Grape-Nuts they seem able to digest not only that food but other kinds which formerly made trouble when eaten without Grape-Nuts.

Oregonian Publishing Co., Portland, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
In the Sunday Oregonian of Sept. 1st, we placed a six inch "ad" pertaining to our "Perfect" truss. Monday we received three returns and they are still coming. We consider your paper the best advertising medium on the Coast and wish to say we are more than pleased with the results.
Respectfully yours,
Ginnever & Whittlesey Mfg. Co.
F. O. Ginnever.
When it is taken into consideration that a small percentage of newspaper readers are unfortunate enough to need a truss, and that Monday last was a holiday, and the people generally were under the impression that all stores were closed, the above is a good showing of results.
No matter what the conditions are—if the article is needed at all and it can be purchased, The Oregonian will give results. This has been the experience of all advertisers, and it will be the experience of all new advertisers.
