Extraordinary Monday Alteration Sale In Every Dep't of the Store

For the past few days the Lipman-Wolfe store has been topsy-turvy. Half of the departments on the main floor have been changed and improved. Many departments have been enlarged. A new and commodious electric elevator has been installed on the Fourth-street side of the store, near the book department, going up to the third floor. The doors will open Monday morning on a newer and much better arranged store. Here and there, perhaps, carpenters will still be at work or finishing work being done. But the whole store will present a newer and brighter appearance.
As a special inducement to you to get acquainted with the new locations of departments and to sell extra amounts of goods that the work of arranging the new departments may be facilitated, we offer Monday this extraordinary ALTERATION SALE, giving many great bargains in every department of the store. Every corner of this advertisement is filled with news of greater bargains than usual. Do not miss a single one.
