

of Hill Military Academy and a very popular member of the younger set.

This coming week Misses Barbara and Jean Mackenzie, daughters of Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, are to leave for Rosemary, an Eastern finishing school.

Mrs. Paul Custer returned Friday evening from Seaside where she has been spending her Summer vacation.

Madame von Bolton, Miss von Bolton and Miss Nicholson are visiting in Victoria and Seattle.

Mrs. F. G. Buffum and Mrs. Sarah Forbes have left for an extended visit in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keating have returned to North Bend after a several weeks' visit here. While in Portland Mr. Keating added a number of songs to his extensive repertoire, which most rank him among the most successful of the contemporaneous song-writers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kennard have returned from a several weeks' sojourn at Olympia.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wolfe, Miss Florence George and Stella Wolfe have returned to the city from Gearhart Park, where they spent the month of August.

Rev. W. G. Elliot left last week for a six weeks' trip to Boston.

Miss Mary Louise Emmons and Miss Alice Carey, of Riverdale, left this week for Wellesley, Mass., where they will attend school at Dana Hall.

Mrs. Arthur A. Greene left last night for her former home at Leocompton, Kan., in response to a telegram announcing the very serious illness of her mother.

Miss Alta Smith and the Misses Lucille and Elizabeth Parker have returned to Smith College, where they will soon commence the work of their senior year. Miss Marguerite Hume, another popular Portland girl and a member of the junior class at Smith; Misses Helen Bates and Ada Burke, members of the sophomore class, have also returned to college.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Moores, of Salem, were in the city last week, making arrangements to reside here in the near future. They were accompanied by their son, Gordon C. Moores, the popular football captain of the University of Oregon eleven, who came to attend the Gather-Chamberlain wedding.

Mrs. C. M. Noyes, wife of Captain Cyrus Noyes, is a guest of Mrs. G. O. Bailey. Mrs. Noyes who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Bohles, of Hongkong, recently made an interesting trip to Manila where Captain Noyes has a government position, going thence by steamer through the Suez Canal, the Mediterranean Sea and Atlantic Ocean to Portland, Me., her birthplace. Mrs. Noyes upon her return will have crossed the Pacific 24 times.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilbur, of Berkeley, Cal., are receiving congratulations over the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Wilbur, who is Mrs. Adolphus Elliot, has been a Summer guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Elliot.

Mrs. James Scarborough, a prominent Los Angeles singer, and Mr. Lella Pitner, a California artist, are guests of Mrs. George H. Fairbrother.

Mrs. I. D. Peters left on Friday for the East, where she will visit in New York, Washington, D. C., and in her native state, Michigan.

Miss Elizabeth Norcross has returned from a visit with her parents at Carlisle, Pa.

A number of the University of Oregon students of the Kappa Sigma fraternity entertained their pledges with a dinner on Thursday at Richards.

Mr. Zera Snow and Mr. C. Mac Snow have returned from a trip to Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. Thomas O'Day and Miss Helen Eastham have returned from a fortnight's visit to Victoria.

Miss Edith McGinn is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Shea.

Miss Marion Bauer, who has spent the Summer with her mother, Madame Bauer, returned last night to New York, where she will resume her classes in music. Miss Bauer is a sister of Miss Emile Frances Bauer, who is a successful journalist, and of Miss Flora Bauer. The Bauer girls have taken a new apartment at the Knickerbocker, No. 23 West Ninety-seventh street, New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis, of San Francisco, have returned to Portland to reside. Mrs. Ellis will be remembered as Miss Helen Lytle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lytle.

On Thursday James and Arthur Rosenfeld leave for John Hopkins. On Saturday last Mason Ehrman left for Yale, and on Tuesday Herbert Sichel started for Amherst.

Miss Carolyn Holman, whose wedding to Dr. Ray Matson will take place Wednesday afternoon, has been tendered a round of showers. Miss Bessie Allen, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, gave a pretty Japanese shower in the bride's honor on Monday, the guests arriving in Oriental costumes. Decorations were Japanese posters, chrysanthemums, cherry blossoms and flags. Refreshments were served in a miniature tea garden. On Wednesday morning a most original kitchen shower was given by Miss Sadie Knapp, followed by bride, Miss Daisy Dean gave a cup and saucer shower, and Miss Anne Shea a miscellaneous shower. Yesterday Miss Allison Benson gave a luncheon, followed by bride, which was an extremely artistic affair. Masses of yellow sunflowers were placed in brass bowls, and a huge heart composed of vivid yellow flowers was suspended from the chandeliers. Place cards were arrows.

Mr. Lawrence Selling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Selling, has been spending a portion of his vacation in Portland, but leaves shortly for Maryland to enter his senior year at Johns Hopkins. Dr. Frank J. Sladen has also returned to Johns Hopkins to assume the position of resident bacteriologist.

NANCY LEE.

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles. KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

MRS. ALICE BROWN MARSHALL Teacher of Piano

Our assemblage of models has been the delight of thousands of Portland ladies. We extend an invitation to every lover of pretty hats to be our guest during this exposition of French and American millinery models. A range of prices that cannot be found elsewhere, and every hat has the touch of correct and dashing style that is always characteristic of SILVERFIELD'S. We have also just received a fine line of misses' and children's School Hats. Prices from $2.50 to $7.

Never before have we been in such complete readiness to handle a season's business as we are this Fall. Every single line seems complete, down to the smallest detail, and each line is being daily augmented by styles and ideas bought by our New York buyer as soon as shown in the fashion centers of the East. In this way you are enabled to keep in direct touch with the latest styles seen on the streets of New York City. Although our styles are exclusive, our prices bear comparison with any in the city.

Silverfield's Exclusive Garments

Never cease to endeavor themselves to persons with refined taste for exquisite tailoring, gracefully expressed. In our Fall showing this is even more noticeable than ever. They are everything that they should be to gratify the desire of every woman who reserves in her heart (and wardrobe) a place for strictly tailored suits and finds in the SILVERFIELD garments the high esteem to which they are justly entitled. Every style that is correct can be found here. Prices range from $25.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, to $45.00 and upward.

Then there are skirts in men's gray materials, colored stripes and plaid novelty cloths, taffeta silk and Panama skirts in black and colors; novelty mixtures in grays and plaids; full-plaited models, with folds of the same. $5.00 to $20.00

Miss L. Pearl Goulet played the wedding march from Lohengrin. After the ceremony Miss Ruby Goulet, soprano, sang "O Promise Me," following which a reception was held. Later a buffet dinner was served. Mrs. D. A. Dinmore, of Salem, Miss Marie Rockwell, and the Misses Goulet assisted in serving.

The bride was attired in white lingerie linen, elaborately trimmed with Valenciennes lace and she carried white carmine. The parlor was decorated with ferns, smilax, verbenas, roses and Oregon grape with purple grapes on it. The dining-room was in purple and white, out of compliment to the bride, who is an Elk. From the electrolers to each of the four corners of the table were garlands of smilax. The centerpiece was a large bouquet of purple asters on a round glass which gave the effect of a lake. Around the mirror were smilax and heliotrope. Pink and green candles and sprays of heliotrope were placed at intervals on the table. Present at the ceremony were Mrs. Mary Davis, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker, of Salem, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Dinmore, also of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlegel and little Palmer Schlegel, Miss Millie Pennard, J. A. Pennard, Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bates, Miss Marie Rockwell, the Misses Goulet, Mrs. J. Olsen, Miss Edith Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wolfe and George Bancroft. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will reside here.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year was solemnized on Thursday morning, August 12, at 9 o'clock, at St. Joseph's Church, in which Miss Othella Dresser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Dresser, and Florence A. Sullivan were the principals. Rev. Father De Roo officiating. Miss Dresser is the eldest daughter of Ferdinand Dresser, a prominent Portland grocer, and was born and raised in Portland, being a graduate of St. Mary's Academy. Mr. Sullivan is the cashier and assistant manager of the Portland Lumber Company and is also a graduate of the law school of the University of Oregon and a member of the Oregon bar. The bride wore a going-away gown of blue broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Osanna Burke acted as bridesmaid and R. A. Sullivan, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony the party proceeded to the Dresser residence at 474 Broadway, where the wedding breakfast was served, the members of the immediate families being present. The house was beautifully decorated with white roses, smilax and potted plants in honor of the occasion. Present at the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left Portland at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for Seattle. They will spend several weeks visiting points of interest about Puget Sound and British Columbia, after which they will be at home to their friends in Portland.

Johnson-Carter. At high noon, Wednesday, September 4, Miss Mabel Lankton Carter and Dr. E. D. Johnson of Portland were married at the Mount Hood ranch of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carter, of Hood River, Rev. W. C. Gilmore, of Hood River, officiating.

The ceremony was particularly unique and impressive, it being held in a most charming spot in the adjacent woods. The bride and groom were dressed in white serge, the bride carrying a glowing bouquet of Autumn leaves. Following the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate members of the family, a delicious wedding breakfast was served. The dining-room was daintily decorated in festoons of pink and white sweet peas and trailing vines, and the rest of the house was a profusion of Autumn leaves. The bride, who is an accomplished reader, has been for several years a teacher of dramatic expression in a Southern college and at Willamette University. Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, after a few days' sojourn near Mount Hood, will leave for a three months' trip to New York, where the groom, a prominent physician of Portland, will pursue study in association with the leading men of his specialty. No cards.

Foot-Preschern. A group of intimate friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Penfield, 72 East Couch street, on Wednesday to celebrate the wedding of Seman Foot to Miss Marie A. Preschern. The bride and groom took their stand beneath a canopy of Oregon grape and white asters, while the Rev. W. H. Foukes, of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride, a beautiful blonde, was becomingly attired in white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. Mr. Foot's home is in Valdez, Alaska, where he has large interests, while his wife comes from Roseburg, where her relatives reside. At the close of the ceremony the party sat down to a choice wedding breakfast.

Colwell-Bassler. One of the pretty weddings of the season occurred last evening, when Miss Ivey Bassler, of Milwaukee, Wis., was united in marriage to F. M. Colwell, of this city, the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Hattie Gore, of Denver, Colo., and the groom by Carl Mallory, of this city. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enrique Mallory, 634 Wygant street. Among others, the following relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Payson, Miss Lena Payson, Miss Zella Payson, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Colwell, Mrs. DeWitt, Mrs. F. Bailey.

(Concluded on Page 6.)

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Stafford, No. 44 East Twelfth Street, Who Was One of the First Prize Winners at the Baby Show.

follows: Frank Zimmerman, president; E. J. Jaeger, vice-president; Dr. G. H. Warden, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Albert Andrews entertained Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyce, and her sister, Mrs. Jean Boyce, of Los Angeles, with a luncheon of ten covers. The guests were: Mrs. E. Godfrey, Mrs. William Godfrey, Mrs. John O'Brien, Mrs. Louis J. Wilde, Mrs. Ulysses A. Wynn, Mrs. Robert Tucker and Mrs. Walter O. Poor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Penne entertained at their home on West Park street Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Hare, who have apartments at the Foley home, Twelfth and Yamhill. The evening was spent in playing 500 and music, and followed with a Dutch luncheon.

Mrs. Pearl de Haas entertained five tables of 500 at her home on East Eleventh street Thursday afternoon. Favors were won by Mrs. Sam Archer and Mrs. Macklin.

WEDDINGS.

Baker-Davis. Last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Clair Ashe Baker and Miss S. Willamette Davis were married at the home of the bride, 406 Felling street, Rev. G. W. Elliot, Jr., of the Unitarian Church, officiating. The bride and groom entered the parlor as

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

MRS. ALICE BROWN MARSHALL Teacher of Piano

Studio, Room 216, Tilford Building, 407 MORRISON STREET.

Pupils will be received Tuesdays and Wednesdays 10 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 P. M.

Mrs. Marshall has an enviable reputation as a teacher and pianist. At the World's Fair, Chicago, in 1893, she won a medal and diploma for superior excellence. At the St. Louis Exposition in 1904 she was awarded a diploma for her work. She has studied and taught for many years the leading methods of European work.

Clarence Eddy, the noted organist, says: "I am glad to recommend Mrs. Alice B. Marshall as a refined artist, and most conscientious teacher of the piano."

William H. Sherwood, America's greatest pianist, says: "Mrs. Marshall is a born teacher. She has knowledge of the best modern methods. She is a lady of very artistic acquirements and musical taste. She plays with rare sensitiveness, expression and conscientiousness."

The Chicago Chronicle says: "Her playing is characterized by delicacy of touch, by exquisite phrasing and poetic technique. There is poetry and individuality in her work, the chief charm of her playing."

Miss L. Pearl Goulet played the wedding march from Lohengrin. After the ceremony Miss Ruby Goulet, soprano, sang "O Promise Me," following which a reception was held. Later a buffet dinner was served. Mrs. D. A. Dinmore, of Salem, Miss Marie Rockwell, and the Misses Goulet assisted in serving.

The bride was attired in white lingerie linen, elaborately trimmed with Valenciennes lace and she carried white carmine. The parlor was decorated with ferns, smilax, verbenas, roses and Oregon grape with purple grapes on it. The dining-room was in purple and white, out of compliment to the bride, who is an Elk. From the electrolers to each of the four corners of the table were garlands of smilax. The centerpiece was a large bouquet of purple asters on a round glass which gave the effect of a lake. Around the mirror were smilax and heliotrope. Pink and green candles and sprays of heliotrope were placed at intervals on the table. Present at the ceremony were Mrs. Mary Davis, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker, of Salem, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Dinmore, also of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlegel and little Palmer Schlegel, Miss Millie Pennard, J. A. Pennard, Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bates, Miss Marie Rockwell, the Misses Goulet, Mrs. J. Olsen, Miss Edith Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wolfe and George Bancroft. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will reside here.

Johnson-Carter. At high noon, Wednesday, September 4, Miss Mabel Lankton Carter and Dr. E. D. Johnson of Portland were married at the Mount Hood ranch of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carter, of Hood River, Rev. W. C. Gilmore, of Hood River, officiating.

The ceremony was particularly unique and impressive, it being held in a most charming spot in the adjacent woods. The bride and groom were dressed in white serge, the bride carrying a glowing bouquet of Autumn leaves. Following the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate members of the family, a delicious wedding breakfast was served. The dining-room was daintily decorated in festoons of pink and white sweet peas and trailing vines, and the rest of the house was a profusion of Autumn leaves. The bride, who is an accomplished reader, has been for several years a teacher of dramatic expression in a Southern college and at Willamette University. Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, after a few days' sojourn near Mount Hood, will leave for a three months' trip to New York, where the groom, a prominent physician of Portland, will pursue study in association with the leading men of his specialty. No cards.

Foot-Preschern. A group of intimate friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Penfield, 72 East Couch street, on Wednesday to celebrate the wedding of Seman Foot to Miss Marie A. Preschern. The bride and groom took their stand beneath a canopy of Oregon grape and white asters, while the Rev. W. H. Foukes, of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride, a beautiful blonde, was becomingly attired in white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. Mr. Foot's home is in Valdez, Alaska, where he has large interests, while his wife comes from Roseburg, where her relatives reside. At the close of the ceremony the party sat down to a choice wedding breakfast.

Colwell-Bassler. One of the pretty weddings of the season occurred last evening, when Miss Ivey Bassler, of Milwaukee, Wis., was united in marriage to F. M. Colwell, of this city, the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Hattie Gore, of Denver, Colo., and the groom by Carl Mallory, of this city. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enrique Mallory, 634 Wygant street. Among others, the following relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Payson, Miss Lena Payson, Miss Zella Payson, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Colwell, Mrs. DeWitt, Mrs. F. Bailey.

(Concluded on Page 6.)

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Stafford, No. 44 East Twelfth Street, Who Was One of the First Prize Winners at the Baby Show.

follows: Frank Zimmerman, president; E. J. Jaeger, vice-president; Dr. G. H. Warden, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Albert Andrews entertained Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyce, and her sister, Mrs. Jean Boyce, of Los Angeles, with a luncheon of ten covers. The guests were: Mrs. E. Godfrey, Mrs. William Godfrey, Mrs. John O'Brien, Mrs. Louis J. Wilde, Mrs. Ulysses A. Wynn, Mrs. Robert Tucker and Mrs. Walter O. Poor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Penne entertained at their home on West Park street Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Hare, who have apartments at the Foley home, Twelfth and Yamhill. The evening was spent in playing 500 and music, and followed with a Dutch luncheon.

Mrs. Pearl de Haas entertained five tables of 500 at her home on East Eleventh street Thursday afternoon. Favors were won by Mrs. Sam Archer and Mrs. Macklin.

WEDDINGS.

Baker-Davis. Last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Clair Ashe Baker and Miss S. Willamette Davis were married at the home of the bride, 406 Felling street, Rev. G. W. Elliot, Jr., of the Unitarian Church, officiating. The bride and groom entered the parlor as

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Silverfield's Fall Millinery

Our assemblage of models has been the delight of thousands of Portland ladies. We extend an invitation to every lover of pretty hats to be our guest during this exposition of French and American millinery models. A range of prices that cannot be found elsewhere, and every hat has the touch of correct and dashing style that is always characteristic of SILVERFIELD'S. We have also just received a fine line of misses' and children's School Hats. Prices from $2.50 to $7.

New Fall Styles in Skirts

Skirt styles for Fall are not confined to any one particular fabric or scheme of color, but embrace a diversity of kinds in as many different styles as there are people to wear them. Our voile selections include silk-lined and unlined models, in black, blue, brown, tan and gray, including the light shades for evening wear. Some are trimmed with wide taffeta folds, while others are trimmed with taffeta in various ways—

$10.00 to $50.00

Then there are skirts in men's gray materials, colored stripes and plaid novelty cloths, taffeta silk and Panama skirts in black and colors; novelty mixtures in grays and plaids; full-plaited models, with folds of the same. $5.00 to $20.00

Rev. W. C. Gilmore, of Hood River, officiating.

The ceremony was particularly unique and impressive, it being held in a most charming spot in the adjacent woods. The bride and groom were dressed in white serge, the bride carrying a glowing bouquet of Autumn leaves. Following the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate members of the family, a delicious wedding breakfast was served. The dining-room was daintily decorated in festoons of pink and white sweet peas and trailing vines, and the rest of the house was a profusion of Autumn leaves. The bride, who is an accomplished reader, has been for several years a teacher of dramatic expression in a Southern college and at Willamette University. Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, after a few days' sojourn near Mount Hood, will leave for a three months' trip to New York, where the groom, a prominent physician of Portland, will pursue study in association with the leading men of his specialty. No cards.

Foot-Preschern. A group of intimate friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Penfield, 72 East Couch street, on Wednesday to celebrate the wedding of Seman Foot to Miss Marie A. Preschern. The bride and groom took their stand beneath a canopy of Oregon grape and white asters, while the Rev. W. H. Foukes, of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride, a beautiful blonde, was becomingly attired in white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. Mr. Foot's home is in Valdez, Alaska, where he has large interests, while his wife comes from Roseburg, where her relatives reside. At the close of the ceremony the party sat down to a choice wedding breakfast.

Colwell-Bassler. One of the pretty weddings of the season occurred last evening, when Miss Ivey Bassler, of Milwaukee, Wis., was united in marriage to F. M. Colwell, of this city, the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Hattie Gore, of Denver, Colo., and the groom by Carl Mallory, of this city. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enrique Mallory, 634 Wygant street. Among others, the following relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Payson, Miss Lena Payson, Miss Zella Payson, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Colwell, Mrs. DeWitt, Mrs. F. Bailey.

(Concluded on Page 6.)

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Stafford, No. 44 East Twelfth Street, Who Was One of the First Prize Winners at the Baby Show.

follows: Frank Zimmerman, president; E. J. Jaeger, vice-president; Dr. G. H. Warden, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Albert Andrews entertained Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyce, and her sister, Mrs. Jean Boyce, of Los Angeles, with a luncheon of ten covers. The guests were: Mrs. E. Godfrey, Mrs. William Godfrey, Mrs. John O'Brien, Mrs. Louis J. Wilde, Mrs. Ulysses A. Wynn, Mrs. Robert Tucker and Mrs. Walter O. Poor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Penne entertained at their home on West Park street Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Hare, who have apartments at the Foley home, Twelfth and Yamhill. The evening was spent in playing 500 and music, and followed with a Dutch luncheon.

Mrs. Pearl de Haas entertained five tables of 500 at her home on East Eleventh street Thursday afternoon. Favors were won by Mrs. Sam Archer and Mrs. Macklin.

WEDDINGS.

Baker-Davis. Last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Clair Ashe Baker and Miss S. Willamette Davis were married at the home of the bride, 406 Felling street, Rev. G. W. Elliot, Jr., of the Unitarian Church, officiating. The bride and groom entered the parlor as

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Silverfield's Ladies' Outfitters

The Women's Store Fourth & Morrison

Ladies' Outfitters Leading Furriers

Superb Showing of New Fall Fashions

Never before have we been in such complete readiness to handle a season's business as we are this Fall. Every single line seems complete, down to the smallest detail, and each line is being daily augmented by styles and ideas bought by our New York buyer as soon as shown in the fashion centers of the East. In this way you are enabled to keep in direct touch with the latest styles seen on the streets of New York City. Although our styles are exclusive, our prices bear comparison with any in the city.

Silverfield's Exclusive Garments

Never cease to endeavor themselves to persons with refined taste for exquisite tailoring, gracefully expressed. In our Fall showing this is even more noticeable than ever. They are everything that they should be to gratify the desire of every woman who reserves in her heart (and wardrobe) a place for strictly tailored suits and finds in the SILVERFIELD garments the high esteem to which they are justly entitled. Every style that is correct can be found here. Prices range from $25.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, to $45.00 and upward.

Then there are skirts in men's gray materials, colored stripes and plaid novelty cloths, taffeta silk and Panama skirts in black and colors; novelty mixtures in grays and plaids; full-plaited models, with folds of the same. $5.00 to $20.00

Rev. W. C. Gilmore, of Hood River, officiating.

The ceremony was particularly unique and impressive, it being held in a most charming spot in the adjacent woods. The bride and groom were dressed in white serge, the bride carrying a glowing bouquet of Autumn leaves. Following the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate members of the family, a delicious wedding breakfast was served. The dining-room was daintily decorated in festoons of pink and white sweet peas and trailing vines, and the rest of the house was a profusion of Autumn leaves. The bride, who is an accomplished reader, has been for several years a teacher of dramatic expression in a Southern college and at Willamette University. Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, after a few days' sojourn near Mount Hood, will leave for a three months' trip to New York, where the groom, a prominent physician of Portland, will pursue study in association with the leading men of his specialty. No cards.

Foot-Preschern. A group of intimate friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Penfield, 72 East Couch street, on Wednesday to celebrate the wedding of Seman Foot to Miss Marie A. Preschern. The bride and groom took their stand beneath a canopy of Oregon grape and white asters, while the Rev. W. H. Foukes, of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride, a beautiful blonde, was becomingly attired in white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. Mr. Foot's home is in Valdez, Alaska, where he has large interests, while his wife comes from Roseburg, where her relatives reside. At the close of the ceremony the party sat down to a choice wedding breakfast.

Colwell-Bassler. One of the pretty weddings of the season occurred last evening, when Miss Ivey Bassler, of Milwaukee, Wis., was united in marriage to F. M. Colwell, of this city, the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Hattie Gore, of Denver, Colo., and the groom by Carl Mallory, of this city. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enrique Mallory, 634 Wygant street. Among others, the following relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Payson, Miss Lena Payson, Miss Zella Payson, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Colwell, Mrs. DeWitt, Mrs. F. Bailey.

(Concluded on Page 6.)

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Stafford, No. 44 East Twelfth Street, Who Was One of the First Prize Winners at the Baby Show.

follows: Frank Zimmerman, president; E. J. Jaeger, vice-president; Dr. G. H. Warden, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Albert Andrews entertained Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyce, and her sister, Mrs. Jean Boyce, of Los Angeles, with a luncheon of ten covers. The guests were: Mrs. E. Godfrey, Mrs. William Godfrey, Mrs. John O'Brien, Mrs. Louis J. Wilde, Mrs. Ulysses A. Wynn, Mrs. Robert Tucker and Mrs. Walter O. Poor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Penne entertained at their home on West Park street Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Hare, who have apartments at the Foley home, Twelfth and Yamhill. The evening was spent in playing 500 and music, and followed with a Dutch luncheon.

Mrs. Pearl de Haas entertained five tables of 500 at her home on East Eleventh street Thursday afternoon. Favors were won by Mrs. Sam Archer and Mrs. Macklin.

WEDDINGS.

Baker-Davis. Last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Clair Ashe Baker and Miss S. Willamette Davis were married at the home of the bride, 406 Felling street, Rev. G. W. Elliot, Jr., of the Unitarian Church, officiating. The bride and groom entered the parlor as

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles.

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Announcements and Invitations for WEDDINGS

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate