PREACHER'S STRIKES VACATION.

Rev. S. C. Lapham, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, has returned from a most strenuous vacation. He was away three months and every minute of the time he put in well. He covered nearly 1000 miles on bicycle, horse-back and on foot. besides several hundred miles by rail.
Most of the time he spent in the wilds of the Cascade Mountains. He visited Mount Adams and explored an untrodden wilderness there and at the sources of the Cowlitz and Klallam rivers. Returning, he went to Southern Oregon and spent several weeks at and near Crater Lake.
He met with some hardships, but he enjoyed every moment of the time.

FUNERAL OF MRS. NANCY DEAN.

The funeral of Mrs. Nancy Dean was held yesterday afternoon from the Central Methodist Church in Albina. Interment was in Lone Fir cemetery. Rev. T.
J. Abbot conducted the services. Mrs.
Dean died September 12, at her home, 963 Vanocourt avenue, as the result of a stroke of paralysis two years ago. She was born in Ohio, 60 years ago, and was married to Samuel Dean in 1838. In 1839 they came to Portland and resided here until Mrs. Dean's husband's death. She was survived by her two sons, Elmer Dean, of Portland, and Fred Dean, of Leonard, Texas. When a child of 12 years Mrs. Dean married with the Methodist Church and retained her membership to the end of her life.

WASHOUT IN EAST OAK STREET.

A big washout in the new embankment at the intersection of East Oak and East Seventh streets was caused yesterday by the bursting of a water main on East Oak street. The water saturated the dirt of the embankment and a section about 25 feet across slid down into the ditch, carrying out over 1500 cubic yards of material.
The slide is on East Sixth street, which is soon to be filled, so that the damage is not as serious as it might have been.

HOME FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

J. B. Harrington has just returned from San Francisco, where he spent two months, but returns better satisfied with his own city than ever. Mr. Harrington says that money is being spent like water in San Francisco. Sky-scrapers are being erected and automobiles crowd the streets. Mr. Harrington prefers Portland with its more conservative methods.

BUY NOW AND SAVE MONEY.

We must have more room. Our holiday orders for diamonds, silverware, cut glass, jewelry, etc., are arriving daily and we are overstocked. To get rid of some of our present stock we make a great concession in price this week. A word to the wise is sufficient. Leffer's, jewelers and diamond merchants, 272 Washington, near Fourth.

REHEARSE THE FURRIER.

On exhibition several novelties in fine furs, originated and manufactured exclusively by him.

these at his new store, 565 Washington st., corner 11th. Mr. Reiner has been in the business for 30 years and is considered an expert fitter and designer.

PORTLAND MAN EXAMINED.

J. Horace Silles, well-known young man of this city, met with a serious accident near Gresham, Or., last week. He was struck by a rolling log and sustained numerous bruises. Mr. Silles is in the cordwood business. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is fast improving.

afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Many prominent members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union were present, among them Mrs. L. H. Addison, state president; Miss Lucy Broad, world

Unruh, National lecturer. Mrs. Crafts delivered an interesting talk on Sunday work in which she is interested. Miss Broad also made a few appropriate remarks. Rev. E. Nelson Allen, of the Hawthorne Presbyterian Church, was present.

HOLD AS A TRESPASSER.

In capturing J. L. Mayne in the basement of M. Seller & Company's wholesale home, the police believe they have apprehended a basement thief who has been operating in this store and perhaps in others. Mayne was caught yesterday morning by Detectives Jones and Eichenor and locked up on a charge of trespass. It is probable that this will be charged to a more serious charge. A search was made of Mayne's home and articles of small value thought to have been taken from the Seller store, were found. Mayne is an electrician.

DEATH OF MORITZ COHN.

A well-known resident of Portland, died yesterday. His name was Moritz Cohn, born in 1850 and later returned to Buffalo, N. Y., where he resided for many years. Afterwards making his home in Philadelphia. He returned to Portland with his wife, who survives him, five years ago.
He was born in Germany and was aged 32 years and 6 months. He was the father of S. Moritz Cohn, Mrs. M. G.
Cohn, Mrs. A. L. Schwartz and Mrs. G.
A. Metzger, of Portland, and Mrs. Peter Geurtz, of Tacoma.

WILBUR GOES TO LOS ANGELES.

Louis J. Wilbur, who is to be president of the German-American Bank, the purchase of which Mr. Wilbur has just concluded, left last night for Los Angeles to look after business matters there. He will also discuss the management of the Portland bank with those interested with him in the deal. The transfer of the bank will take place tomorrow morning. S. A.
Rice has been placed in charge of the bank until officers are elected. Mr.
Wilbur will be away for two weeks.

PORES AS GAME WARDEN.

An unknown man, badly under the influence of liquor, created a public nuisance on the corner of Third street at 8 o'clock last night, by entering the place and announcing himself to be a deputy Game Warden. He flushed a badge, and threatened to arrest every one connected with the shop for some imaginary violation of the fish laws. A "John Doe" warrant was issued for his arrest.

OVERCOME BY GAS WHILE ASLEEP.

Mrs. C. I. Driscoll, of 517 Montgomery street, was overcome by gas in her sleeping room Friday night, a gas jet having been accidentally turned on when she retired. Her husband, who occupies the other room, found her unconscious when he awoke yesterday morning and summoned a physician. Mrs. Driscoll was not in such bad condition, but is now out of danger.

CIGARETTE STARTS BLAZE.

Three awnings on the Stark street side of the Chamber of Commerce building caught fire yesterday afternoon causing a large crowd to collect. The Fire Department quickly extinguished the blaze. A lit cigarette thrown away by a careless smoker started the fire, it is thought.

FILE AN ANSWER TO SUIT

PACIFIC TELEPHONE & TELE-GRAPH CO. MAKES REPLY.

Attorneys Enter Into Lengthy Discussion of Constitutionality of Initiative and Referendum.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph

Company yesterday filed answer in the Circuit Court to the suit instituted by the State of Oregon to recover $500, or 2 per cent of the gross earnings of the company, as provided for in the act initiated by the people in June, 1904.

The counsel for the company entered into a lengthy presentation of their contention that the Initiative and Referendum amendment to the constitution of the state of Oregon is in violation of the constitution of the United States, inasmuch as in the creation of new states the Federal basic law provides for representative bodies empowered to enact laws for the several states and that no state has the legal right to evade that responsibility.

It is alleged that the Initiative act destroys the purpose of the Legislature. It is argued that the Initiative purports to create a Legislature of the entire mass of the voters of the state, making it impossible to determine the qualifications of members of the Legislature and of Representatives to Congress, thus violating Art. I Sec. 2 of the Constitution of the United States.

In all some 50 violations of the Federal and state constitutions are alleged to be made in the Initiative and Referendum amendment to the constitution of the state. E. S. Pillsbury, of San Francisco, Harrison Allen and Carey & Kerr are the attorneys of record in the case.

Among the more important points raised in the answer are the fact that the referendum deprives the State Legislature of the power to consent to the purchase of places in the state for forts and arsenals; deprives the State Legislature of the power to prescribe the time, place and manner of holding elections for Senators and Representatives to Congress; and is violative of the power to direct the manner in which the state shall appoint electors for President and Vice-President; of the power to consent to the junction of the state with other states or parts of states; of the power to apply to the United States for protection from domestic violence; of the power to apply to Congress for conventions to propose amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to ratify such amendments; and that the Initiative is un-Republican and is violative of a Republican form of government.

It is further alleged that the 2 per cent tax act violates the provisions in the 14th amendment to the constitution in that it deprives the people of company of equal protection of the laws and of the privileges guaranteed in said amendment. The tax act is alleged to be null and void because the people who passed it acted in the capacity of legislators without having been sworn in as legislators.

From the fact that questions are raised involving construction of the Federal Constitution, final determination of the case will doubtless be made in the Supreme Court of the United States.

GREATEST HIT.

Portland Men Haven't Been So

Thoroughly Pleased in Years.

Robinson & Co. have certainly made the hit of the season with their "Cambridge Correct Clothes," an entirely new importation; the point that strikes every man who is really a judge of clothes is their superior style, quality and the very reasonable price. One would naturally expect them to cost a third more. The location, 284-291 Washington street.

Hat Was From Fraley's

Becoming Tilts and Noddan's natural beauty.

Fraley's millinery is causing a distinct sensation among Portland women who admire the most artistic concoction of Parisian designers, but who do not feel like putting a fortune into a hat. This firm has certainly made a record already this season for bringing out the most beautiful models in so large a variety as to afford becoming styles for each type of face. The day has passed when a woman must wear a hat of the prevailing fashion regardless of whether or not it is becoming. It is a fine art, acquired by the best designers, to adapt the style to the individual, and at this.
Fraley's designers are adepts.
Women who usually experience difficulty in adapting themselves to the new modes have no such experience here. The salesroom is so large, light and airy that one is really rested by a visit there. The great variety is not only noticeable in styles, trimmings, early-to-wear hats, street hats, dress hats, evening hats, plumes of unimaginable fluffiness, flowers, etc., but in the prices that maintain. One can find a very neat street hat of correct style and dainty colors for $1.75, while for the ultra dressy occasion, a hat that expresses the most magnificent combination of artistic designing and bewitching fashion can be purchased for $50. The "early wear" section is particularly notable for the tasty street and suit tailored hats priced at $6, $7 and $8. The
