THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, SEPTEMBER 22, 1907.

The Store Noted for Bect Goods at Lowest Prices PORTLAND AGENTS FOR WARNER'S AND THOMSON'S CORSETS SPECIAL SHOWING NEWFALL SUITS COATS MONDAY AND TUESDAY If you've a Suit or Coat to buy this season, buy it here. We guarantee you a saving of from 25 to 50 per cent on your purchase, besides offering unlimited choice of styles and fabrics. Special showing Monday-Tuesday New Tailored Suits for Women; latest styles and colors $15 to $65 New Tailored Suits for Misses; broadcloths, serges, cheviots. $15 to $40 New Tailored Coats for Women; all lengths and styles......$10 to $60 New Tailored Coats for Misses; all lengths and styles....$8.50 to $35 Table Linens Bargains in New

These special items on sale for 2 days only at prices quoted.

60-inch bleached Table Damask; fine 35c grade; 72-inch cream Damask; regular 75c grade; special.....50¢ 72-inch cream Table Damask; extra heavy, pure linen and best $1.50 grade; a yard....95¢ 18-inch Dice Table Napkins; regular 85c grade; extra special, doz. 65¢ 18-inch satin Damask Napkins; beautiful patterns; $1.35 grade; a

FALL DRESS GOODS Monday and Tuesday

We don't claim to have the cheapest Dress Goods in town, but we do claim to have the best. These special values for Monday and Tuesday. Samples sent. 48-inch Scotch Plaids in dust-proof Panama weave; all combinations; special, a yard$1.25 56-inch Tweed Cloaking in mixed plaid effects, light and dark and extra heavy; special, yard. $1.50 56-inch Novelty Cloaking in fine assortment of patterns, light and dark; special, a yard......$1.75 54-inch Kersey Cloaking in plain blues, tans, garnets, etc., splendid quality; special, a yard...... $2.50 51-inch Cream Bear Cloth, a standard $3.50 value; children's coats, $4.00 grade; special $3.50 54-inch All-Wool Broadcloth, sponged and shrunk, all

SEND FOR

NEW

REDUCED

PRICE

LIST

FROM LEFT TO RIGHT, NORMAN LANG JR., ROBERT LEWIS, CICERO HUNT LEWIS JR., SALLY LANG, AND KATHERINE AINSWORTH

. . .

socially depopulated condition. Just at present, however, all entertaining is in an unsettled state, owing to radical changes, which are invariably made at this season of the year, principally plans for the return to schools and colleges, etc. The leading magnet of attraction for the future will be the Sharp-Morrison wedding, on the lat of October. An in-teresting event in connection with the approaching marriage is the fact that Dr. Clampett, of Trinity Church, who per-formed the wedding of the bride-elect's parents in New York is to come North parents in New York is to come North to perform the wedding of their very popular daughter. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur entertained about 20 guests in compliment to her cousin, Miss Greely, daughter of Gen-Clampett, of Trinity Church, of San Francisco, who performed the wedding of the bride-elect's parents in New York is to come North to perform the wedding of their very popular daughter. Thursday af-ternoon Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur entertained about 20 guests in compliment to tained about 20 guests in compliment to her cousin, Miss Greely, daughter of Gen-eral and Mrs. Greely, of Vancouver Barracks, and Miss Morrison. Last evening both the bride and groom-elect were the honor guests of a dinner dance given at the Golf Club by Miss Carolyn Burns and Miss Lisa Wood.

Socially considered, the luncheon given by Mrs. Allen Lewis, was one of the most interesting events of the week just passed. The affair was given for Mrs.

passed. The affair was given for Mrs. John Effinger, of Honolulu, who has been a Summer guest of her mother, Mrs. George Flanders, in town and at Ecola. The dining-room table was partfularly attractive, the mahogany table serving as a foil for the centerplece of fruit of rich autumnal thus of gold, bronze and purple. Present were Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. Rohert Lewis, Miss Martha A. Hoyt, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzle, Mrs. David T.

ORTLAND is again taking on and in-habited aspect, after its weeks of socially depopulated condition. Just resent, however, all entertaining is in unsettled state, owing to radical nges, which are invariably made at and Mrs. George Weldler acted as god mothers,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Sr., Miss Frances Warren and Miss Grace Warren left Friday night for San Francisco, sailing from there on the Corea for a three month's tour of the Orient. bapltnwmeasFr A recent departure of Miss Jackson's is to paint large-sized water color portraits of the different ghris. She will com-mence shortly on one of these sketches of On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. E. C.

Sheviln, formerly of California, enter-tained with two tables of bridge in compli-ment to Miss Frances and Miss Grace Warren. Mrs. Sheviln is a recent acqui-Miss Hazel Crocker and one of Miss Maud Howell. sition to Portland and has made many friends since her arrival. Mr. and Mrs. Shevlin and children are occupying Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett's West Park-street

Maud Howell Captain C. P. Perkins, U. S. N., and Mrs. Perkins are prominent Californians who have been registered at the Port-land Hotei this week, and have been guests at a number of affairs. On Sun-day night Captain Werlich, U. S. N., and Mrs. Werlich were dinner housis in their honor, entertaining at the Portland Grill. Captain Perkins left the same night for Seattle, where he was detailed on official duty but returns today. Mrs. Perkins, who has the distinction of en-tertaining a number of titled visitors to California, has appeared while here in some handsome dinner gowns. Dining on Tuesday at the Grill she was attired in a princess gown of an undeniable Pari-sian stamp, a rich golden brown chifforn velvet hat of same hue laden with plumes, the sopia tone being carried with also with a full-length stole and muff of maribout feathers. Mrs. Hostetter, of Boston, and her two

AND MUFFS

We Make a Specialty of All

Choice and High-Grade Furs

Established 1870

JOHN P. PLAGEMANN, MANAGER. Northwest Corner of Fifth and Alder Streets. Send for Handsome Illustrated Catalogue.