OFFICERS ARE ELECTED—New officers for the Multnomah Improvement Club were elected at the meeting held Friday night as follows: President, R. B. Mc-Callie, who had been vice-president; secretary, N. D. Bontgen; treasurer, C. E.
 Ziegler. At this meeting improvements under way and contemplated were discussed. A resolution was passed indorsing the action taken favoring the movement for the city to own and operate its own rockcrushers and furnish crushed rock to the city for street improvements.
 In regard to the proposed big fill on Cook-avenue gulch the committee was unable to agree on the street where the fill should be made. One faction favored the fill on Albina avenue and the other on Northwick street. It was decided to postpone final decision as to where the fill will be made until the members of the club could inspect both streets and advise of the City Engineer could be obtained.
 The board will work for a new high school.

LECTURES ON SALESMANSHIP—W. P.
 Olds, of Olds, Wortman & King, delivered a lecture Friday night in the Y. M. C. auditorium on "Retail Salesmanship," before the class in salesmanship in the Y. M. C. A. night school. Forty local salesmen were present in addition to the members of the class. The lecture was listened to with close attention. The speaker declared that the most important factor in promoting the growth of trade and that the salesman exercises wide influence in that respect, that the principles governing the successful career of a salesman are honesty, tact, politeness and perseverance.

KIND WORDS FOR PORTLAND—Kind words for Portland continue to be poured in from the Brooklyn League excursion party that lately visited the Rose City.
 Secretary John B. Creighton of that organization has just written to W. C.
 Beach of the New York Central Lines thanking him for a splendid bouquet of roses given Secretary Creighton upon leaving the city. Mr. Creighton writes that the Brooklyn party liked Portland better than any other city visited on the trip.

VISIT OF A PIONEER—Dr. A. B. and Mrs. Woodard, of Olympia, Wash., have been spending a few days among friends to this city. Dr. Woodard is a pioneer of 1852, coming to Oregon that year from Michigan in a company with James H. Olds, of Lafayette, Yamhill County.
 The other members of the company were Mrs. Betty Goodenough Woodard, Harvey R. Woodard and wife, grandmother and father and mother of Dr. Woodard, and two brothers, Theodore Palmer and Adelbert Eugene Woodard. The family spent the winter of 1852-53 at "Famon" and early in the Spring of 1853 removed to Henderson's Inlet (South Bay) Thurston County, Washington, and remained there until driven to Olympia by Indians in the Fall of 1853 upon the breaking out of the Yakima Indian War of 1855-56, and that city has been the family home up to the present time. Dr.
 Woodard spent three years in Portland, 1852-1855, in the photograph business, first with the late D. H. Hendee, and second with Joseph Buchtel; and then carried out that business five years at Olympia, after which he began the study of dentistry, from which profession, owing to advancing years, he recently retired. Now
