

WAST RETURN CASH

Receiver Loses Deposits Made After Bank Closed.

DEPOSITORS WIN POINT

Fourteen Who Joined in Suit Will Be Repaid Under Order Made by the Court in Savings Bank Case.

Fourteen depositors of the defunct Oregon Savings & Trust Company will get at least part of their deposits back Under an order issued in the State Circuit Court yesterday afternoon all depositors who put money in the bank after 3 P. M. of the last day of business, August 29, are entitled to receive the full amount of such deposits. Receiver Devlin accordingly will make the payment in full.

The receiver did not formally resist payment of these claims. After endeavoring to get the depositors to accept telephone bonds in lieu of cash and falling in that undertaking, the bank's receiver suggested that the case be taken into court in order to afford authorization for payment of the claims. This was done yesterday afternoon when Judge Gantenbein heard the facts in the case from Max G. Cohen, attorney for depositors, and promptly caused the issuance of the necessary order. The court's order is as follows:

Upon reading and filing the petition of L. P. Cudworth, Donau bankruptcy account by W. L. Palmer, Metzger & Co., R. Becker, William F. Kroll, Henry Kroll, Mrs. J. G. Crombill, Mrs. M. A. McIntyre, L. B. French, Frank Berkold, by J. L. Spencer, Oriental Importing Company, Mrs. T. Marshall, Mrs. Rose Wiesenback and Lillie H. Kemp, by Max G. Cohen, attorney for said petitioners, and it is satisfactorily appearing therefrom that Thomas C. Devlin has been appointed as receiver therein by order of this court, and that the said defendant, Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, has certain deposits and savings accepted by it after the suspension of business of said bank, and that the said receiver therein has placed such sums of money so accepted apart from all other funds as belonging to the petitioners herein; Therefore,

It is hereby ordered, that Thomas C. Devlin, as receiver of the said defunct Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, be authorized and directed to pay over to the petitioners herein the amounts of each of said petitions, as set forth in said petition.

The list of those who will profit by the order and the amounts each will receive, follow: L. P. Cudworth, $10; Donau Bankruptcy Account by W. L. Palmer, Metzger & Co., $100; R. Becker, $18.95; William F. Kroll, $71.70; Henry Kroll, $50; Mrs. J. G. Crombill, $150; Mrs. M. A. McIntyre, $3.42; L. B. French, $21.88; Frank Berkold, by J. L. Spencer, $30; Oriental Importing Company, $37.41; Mrs. T. Marshall, $40; Mrs. Rose Wiesenback, $140; Lillie H. Kemp, 165 North Fourteenth street, $35.

KALKOFEN IS FOUND GUILTY

Ex-Member of Fire Department Convicted on Statutory Charge. John Kalkofen, a member of the Portland Fire Department, was placed on trial and found guilty before Judge Frazer yesterday afternoon on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor child. Kalkofen is the freeman who was tried on a similar charge a few weeks ago and released by the jury in the case. At the time Judge Frazer scored the jurors. The authorities decided to take up a freeman before the court against the fellow, knowing him to be guilty. The girl in the new case is but 15 years old. Her testimony against the freeman was convincing.

STITT CAN'T FORGIVE HER

Sues for Divorce From Wife Whose Friend He Suspected. W. O. Stitt, the watchman who applied to the Municipal Court on Thursday for an order restraining John Kalkofen from escorting Mrs. Stitt to theaters, made a second appeal to the law yesterday, this time for a divorce. While the dove of peace seemed to have perched over the Stitt doorway following the Police Court proceedings, the head of the family must have reconsidered his grant of forgiveness of Thursday.

BOOKKEEPER GONE; CASH SHORT.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—L. A. Silverton, a 22-year-old bookkeeper for the Naylor Lumber Company, of South Prairie, is missing and the company checks have been found to be forged to the amount of $175. This is all that has been discovered so far, as the forgeries have been so clever as to almost defy detection.

SURVEYS IN GOLD BELT

Senator Bourne Will Urge Government to Continue Investigations. Prominent citizens of Oregon, notably Governor Chamberlain, Mayor Harry Lane, W. M. Ladd, F. M. Batchelor, R. W. Hoyt and others interested in the development of Oregon's mining resources, have requested that the United States Government continue its investigations, so well begun by Professor Lindgren, of the United States Geological Survey. It has been said that these investigations are to be completed at an early date, for as Professor Lindgren says in his preliminary report: "Four months is a short time to examine such an extensive territory, such a wealth of mineral deposits. . . . This report is only preliminary, reconnaissance work. . . . It has not been possible to visit all the mines and prospects." The following letter just received by F. M. Batchelor indicates that the much desired report, which will do a great deal toward establishing Oregon in her rightful place among the richest gold producing states, will in the near future be perfected.

TRAINS HIS OWN BLOODHOUNDS

DETECTIVE ANDY VAUGHN HAS PAIR OF PROMISING DOGS FROM KENTUCKY

BLOODHOUNDS OWNED BY DETECTIVE ANDREW VAUGHN.

SPOKANE is not the only town in the Northwest that can boast of bloodhounds, for Detective Andrew Vaughn has a pair of young hounds that give great promise. Seek and Find were bred in old Kentucky, and although they are only seven months old, they can take a trail that is several hours old and run the man to earth. Detective Vaughn is training the dogs himself and he is well pleased with them. He is just waiting for some crime to be committed, so that he can make use of his smokes. The other day the hounds were sent upon a trail four hours old and after tracking the man for several miles, over the hills back of the City Park, the dogs finally came to a halt under a tree, and to Detective Vaughn's surprise, the man was hiding among the branches.

ELK HERD IS CUT DOWN

Open Season Proves Disastrous to Antlered Herd in Blue Mountains. GRANITE, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—The open season for hunting elk, which has just closed, has proved quite successful from the sportsman's point of view, but has been equally disastrous to the elk. For a number of years 20 elk have been ranging on the headwaters of the Grand Bonds and North Fork of the John Day River, and with the opening of the elk season hunters flocked to that locality, each equipped to get the portion allowed him by law. At least 10 of the animals are known to have been killed during the season. And the others have been scattered over the mountains, till scarcely any trace can be found of them.

OLD TACTICS FOLLOWED

Party Leaving Shaniko in Automobiles Will Spy Out Routes and Hold Strategic Points Against the Rival Railroad. Equipped with automobiles for crossing the stretch of Interior Oregon from Shaniko to Klamath Falls, a party of engineers and surveyors, carrying field instruments and camping outfits, were justly away on a special train from Portland last night over the O. R. & N. by General Manager O'Brien. Their orders are to cross the state from north to south, with the supposed purpose of spying out the strategic points and holding them against the Oregon Trunk Line, the independent railroad that announces its intention to build up the Deschutes River from its mouth to Madras and on to Lakeview.

His Cigar Doesn't Taste Right

And Yet It Is the Same He Was Smoking With So Much Relish After Dinner, Last Night; Out of the Very Same Box, Too. IT ISN'T THE CIGAR—IT'S THE STOMACH. Every smoker has experienced this peculiar condition of the stomach and liver, the result usually of imperfect digestion of food. And the blame is usually put on the cigar and not where it belongs.

MAN AND WIFE FOR HALF A CENTURY

Such men are usually high livers, hard workers mentally, living under high pressure and high draught, and it doesn't take a great deal to disorder the stomach or render the liver torpid. They should make it a practice to use some tried and reliable remedy like Sturt's Dyspepsia Tablets, that will aid Nature and not force it and will take care of the sudden attacks of acute indigestion.
