concert, to be given on Tuesday, the 19th, at Murlark Hall.

Friday Mrs. E. B. Coman left for Oakland, where she will visit her two daughters, Mrs. Charles W. Jones (Miss Julia Coman), and Mrs. Robert Yates (Miss Helen Coman).

"Heloise and Abeiard," one of the latest booklets published by Paul Elder & Co. in New York, is from the pen of Elia Costilla Bennett, who is well known in Oregon and California. She has cleverly woven into verse the love letters of these two historic lovers, whose history is too well known to need further comment. This is Elia Costilla Bennett's initial book, and Costilla Bennett's initial book, and she is to be congratulated upon the manner in which the letters are written. The book has been dedicated to Miss Constance Mattingly, of this city.

Mr and Mrs. George Langdon are en route East, where they will visit in New York for a period of two months. Mrs. Ross Plummer, Mrs. Langdon's daughter, will occupy their residence during that period.

The first informal party of the Con-cordis Club was given on Wednesday evening and largely attended. Bridge was played.

Captain and Mrs. J. Speier have as their guest Mrs. Speier's mother, Mrs. S. H. Solomon, of Leavenworth, Kan. Mrs. Solomon and Mrs. Speier will receive on the first and third Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo A. Avery, of Detroit, Mich., have been guests at the Portland Hotel the past seven days. Mr. and Mrs. Avery who spend their Winters abroad are now on their way around the world. Their sons, Waldo Avery, Jr., and Sewall Avery, who is president of the United States Gypsum Company, of Chicago, are to accompany them as far as cago, are to accompany them as far as San Francisco to bid them bon voyage on their long trip. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs entertained in their honor

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook are now oc-cuping their attractive new residence on Portland Heights which is opposite that of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Charlton.

The portrait which appears on today's page of Miss Cornella Cook is a charming bit of color which is unfortunately lost by reproduction. Miss Cook who is attending school in the East, is a dainty brunette with rich brown hair and handsome eyes. The miniature is painted in a simple Empire frock of rose pink chiffon.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Blake are visiting at present in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. George W. McBride, wife of ex-Senator McBride, who returned to Port-land after an extended visit in the East, was taken ill shortly after her arrival and for the last seven weeks has been in a hospital. Scnator and Mrs. McBride have taken a residence for the Winter on Nineteenth and Laurel streets, Portland

Mrs. N. E. Ayer has returned from a several months' visit in Bangor, Me., and New York City.

The football season is now at hand and the number of games scheduled for the the number of games scheduled for the coming months are eagerly anticipated. The first interstate intercollegiate game ever given in Portland is to be held on the Multnomah field, October 25, between the University of Oregon and the University of Idaho. Many of the Eugene residents and University of Oregon students and University of Oregon students. fients are to come down for the event.

An announcement of a wedding which came as a complete surprise was that of Miss Edna Irvine, of Corvallis and Horace W. Kerr, which occurred at Madison, Wis., on Tuesday, October 1. The bride, a petite demi-blonde, is highly accomplished and is popular here where she has visited considerably. For the last few years Miss Irvine has appeared on a petite demi-blonde, is highly accomplished and is popular here where she has visited considerably. For the last few years Miss Irvine has appeared on the stage, coming West for her vacations. The wedding is a culmination of a romance begun some time ago. Mr. Kerr is a son of President and Mrs. Kerr, of the State Agricultural College, and until the announcement of his wedding had planned to go East to attend Columbia. The marriage involves the state of the property of the interesting city and the columbia carriages. planned to go East to attend Columbia. The marriage involves the retirement of the bride from the stage, where she had made a most successful beginning.

Miss Susie Stott, who has been ill at St. Vincent's Hospital, is now rapidly convalescing and has returned to her residence.

Cards are out for a tea to be given Oc-tober 21 by Mrs. Harrison Gray Platt, of Mount Tabor.

A number of informal affairs have been given for Miss Anderson, of Walla Walla, who is a guest of Miss lise Koehler. Miss Anderson and Miss Koehler were college friends at Briar Cliff.

The annual meeting of the Consumers' League will be held on October 28 in the Portland Hotel. Miss Carrie Flanders, Mrs. Elmer Colwell and Mrs. Gordon Vor-hees compose the committee for the com-

Miss Clementine Barman who, with her aunt. Mrs. I. Kauffman, is spend-ing a year abroad, has met many in-teresting foreigners in her travels and has been extended a number of hos-pitalities. Mrs. Kauffman and Miss Barman have been again to Paris and Barman have been again to Paris and at last accounts were with a large party that made the Rhine trip.

The Irvington Tennis Club on Friday night held its first of the season members' night. The Hawaiian girls were present, and were introduced and welcomed by Governor Chamberlain. They sang several native songs. Dancing was the feature of the evening, with Sam T. Lockwood, C. K. Henry and C. E. Fields in charge.
On Hallowe'en night a domino party will be given.

The two subscription dances will be given on November 22 and January 17.

Mr. Howard Holland, Waldo A. Avery, Jr., of Detroit, and Edward de Schweinitz, of New York, have moved from the Norton and taken bachelor apartments, having rented the Willamette Heights residence

Mrs. A. G. Barker left last week for the Middle West, where she will remain for six months.

The visiting Hawaiian girls have been the guests at a number of affairs since their arrival less than a fortnight ago. The largest reception in their honor was given Tuesday afternoon by the Women's Club at the residence of Mrs. P. J. Mann. The seven girls from the islands re-ceived in the drawing-room with Mrs. Mann and afterward sang a number of the attractive Hawaiian melodies. Mrs. the attractive Hawaiian melodies. Mrs. Warren E. Thomas had charge of the musical programme. Those participating were: Mrs. Blanche Kofold, soprano, from Seattle; Miss Mary Cahill, violinist, from Omaha; Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, contralto, and Mr. John Claire Monteith, tenor. Mrs. Mann's residence was artistically decorated for the occasion and a number of the prominent women of the chub assisted in receiving and served in club assisted in receiving and served in the dining-room.

Mrs. A. B. Steinbach and her daughter Miss Gertrude Steinbach left on Thursday for New York City, where they are to spend the Winter. En route they will the home of Mrs. G. H. Thomas, 487 E.

Mail Orders Promptly Attended To Satisfaction Guaranteed

SILVERFIELD'S

The Fashion Center Entire Corner Fourth and Morrison Sts.

Our Order Department

Fur Coats Re-Made and Furs of All Kinds Repaired and Remodeled at Most Reason-

New Styles in Waists

Messaline Silk Waists, with laces and insertions set in to carry out the completed design; soft, pretty White Net Waists, combined with cluny and interlined with either china silk or mull; many effective styles in best Taffeta Silk Waists, in fancy or tailored designs, with inverted plaits or embroidered yokes; stunning Plaid Patterns and Allover Lace Waists in novel styles. Special showing this week at $7.50, $8.50 and $9.50.

Sweaters and Knit Auto Jackets

Special showing of the newest weaves and designs in Women's Sweater Jackets or Auto Coats, made from the best Australian lambswool, in single and double-breasted styles. Built for style and comfort. White, Oxford, gray and cardinal. $6.00, $6.50 and $7.50.

SILVERFIELD FURS

MERIT MADE THEM FAMOUS

FUR ESSENTIALS

Looks and Wear are the characteristics of Silverfield Fur Garments.

Modish styles, Fur that won't lose its lustre-Fur Brilliancy and Thickness that remain for years, despite the most strenuous wear-are in each garment bearing the label "Silverfield Furs."

For the fur that is used in Silverfield Fur Garments is selected fur, from the famous fur markets of the world-London, Nijni Novgorod, Leipsic and from the great Northwest of America.

And the most recent European styles are carefully observed and followed. "Silverfield Furs" are Fur Standard, recognized the world over.

VISIT OUR FUR DEPARTMENT

And see the many new and novel styles and you will be impressed with the richness and superior quality of our Furs, linings and skilled workmanship of our factory. If you will permit our fur people to show you the garments your interest will be turned into absolute confidence.

EXCLUSIVE TAILORED GARMENTS New Styles in Dress $25.00, $35.00, $40.00 to $175

Our selection of Tailored Suits was never so complete and never embraced a greater number of smart styles than it does today. There are more suits of unusual style and in larger variety than ever before and these are made of the newest fabrics. The cut of the tailored lines and the general effect of their style is so different from the conventional that you will be impressed with their newness and individuality, and in viewing them note the countless little touches of fashion that are introduced into their making. Especially beautiful are the three-piece coat suits, in smartest long styles or the medium and shorter lengths. So many show the very large short sleeve, others the new ecclesiastical sleeve. The plainly tailored suit has an established place among fashionable women, and these are ably represented in this showing in the most beautiful colorings in plain weaves or exclusive fancy fabrics.

Many elaborately braided or trimmed styles also command attention for their becomingness to so many types of figures. You are sure to find here just the length, color and style to suit you individually.

Women's Costumes, $45, $55. $65 to $250

There are so many attractive dresses in the most correct style and in every fashionable material among these handsome costumes, modeled into the most favored lines of the season. Dresses for every occasion or street wear in silk or wool-the sheer and dainty or the practical.

Send for our handsome FUR STYLE BOOK, 1907-08. Sent free on request. Write today.

and Tailored Hats

Nowhere will you find a more notable range of designs in Dress Hats. Here are hats representing the consensus of true millinery style as produced in all the fashionable style centers of the world, and embodying the necessary elements of price and value in the largest possible measure. The maximum of style at the minimum of price is the dominating feature of tomorrow's display. From $5.00, $7.50, $8.00. $10.00 and upward.

New Arrivals in Babies', Children's Wearing Apparel

The cunningest little tots in the world are dressed every day at the Silverfield Infant Shop. We do not wish to be egotistocal, but we cannot resist telling you that we carry the finest line of garments for the little ones in the West, and the prices, too, are exceedingly low. Third floor.

visit in San Francisco with Mrs. Stein-bach's eldest daughter, Mrs. A. Hirsch-man. NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

the interesting city and then through the Barracks and on to the State School for the Deaf and Blind, where school for the Beat and Billio, where they were cordially received by Pro-fessor and Mrs. Clark. The commit-tee of ladies then escorted them to the St. Elmo Hotel, where they partook of a dellcious banquet. In the evening the visitors were the guests of the citizens at a reception in the rooms of the Columbia Club. Appropriate instru-mental music was rendered by the orchestra of the Fourtenth Infantry Band and beautiful vocal solos were sung by Miss Connolly, Miss Breslin, Mrs. Fred Olsen and Dr. Taylor. The Honolulu girls sang several sweet Hawalian melodies, which were re-Hawaiian melodies, which were received with hearty encores. The visitors expressed themselves as delighted with their cheerful welcome and voiced their hope to visit Vancouver again in the future. The visiting party consisted of Miss Saffery, Miss Lucas, Miss Rose, Miss Mundson, Miss Todd, Miss Lemin, Miss Dewight, Miss Sadler, Miss Aloiau, with Mrs. Weatherred as chaperon. Following is the committee of ladles who received: Miss Florence Heavren, Mesdames J. P. Stapleton, H. S. McIntyre, A. H. Fletcher, J. C. Wyatt, J. H. Jaggy, E. E. Beard, J. H. Elwell, A. B. Eastham, W. W. McCredie, J. C. Huston and H. C. Phillips. C. Phillips.

spent the Summer traveling through New Mexico and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. Also by Mrs. Doud, who spent the Summer on a tour of Europe. Mrs. A. L. Clark read an excellent paper, her subject being "Burning Repub."

The club has prepared an attractive programme for the year which includes "Studies of Greek Mythology," "Character Sketches of American Writers," "History Sketches and Travel Description of Norway, Sweden and Denmark." Also a alientral musicale atternoon by Mrs. delightful musicale afternoon by Mrs. Amedee Smith and Mrs. E. C. Goddard. The members of the club are the Mes-dames J. E. Bennett, James Bell, George dames J. E. Bennett, James Bell, George Birrel, A. L. Clark, George A. Cooper, D. A. Doud, J. P. Finley, A. W. God-dard, E. C Goddard, M. M. Grant, F. S. Grant, H. A. Hale, J. A. Harrison, H. A. Keinath, E. L. Lane, I. A. McKenney, A. Muir, P. I. Packard, W. C. Pufter, S. A. Searle, I. A. Steadman, A. M. Smith, A. W. Smith, C. G. Tipton and Miss Anna Finley.

Oregon Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, were delightfully enter-tained on Friday afternoon at the horse of the president, Mrs. George H. Stovall, this being the first meeting since the election of new officers for the coming The president made an interesting address, outlining the needs of the chapter, and suggesting plans for the coming year's work.

An important bit of business was the election of a delegate to represent Oregon Chapter at the National convention, Daughters of the Confederacy, to be held at Jamestown, Va., in November. This honor was conferred on Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire, secretary of the local chapter.

After the regular business routing

Ankeny street, on Friday afternoon, October 25, at 2:30 o'clock, to which all Van Fleet, Frank Callahan, Amos Meinsoutherners are asked. Southerners are asked.

very pleasingly, Dr. Harry Stark favored the guests with a plano selection and the "Slave Song" was sung by Mrs. Olga Bartsch Lang, followed by a reading by Mr. Morris, after which a dâinty lunch was served. Those present were: Misses Lilla Winters, Clara Wilson, Doris Leon-ard, Mrs. Olga Bartsch Lang, Hortense Craig, Hilda Craig, Lucila Clemens, Messrs. George Morris, Dr. Harry Stark, James Sharp, John Freeauf, William Doolittle, Leroy Kadle, Stott Henrickson and Dan Johnson.

The New England Conservatory Club met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Berry Wednesday afternoon, October 16, the first Fall meeting, Mrs. Gertrude Glea-Robert' (Meyerbeer), Mrs. Slettin.

The Monday History Club held the first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. J. Allen Harrison. The roll call, "Summer Echoes," revealed many pleasant thoughts, especially those expressed by the president, Mrs. Kelnath, who spent the Summer traveling through New apent throu Frank Callahan won first prize at whist. Music and games made the evening pass very pleasantly. Dainty refreshments were served about 11 o'clock. Those present were: Misses

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Edward E. Wedemeyer Monday, October 14, when he entertained a number of his friends in honor of George H. Morris, of Cleveland, who is spending a few days in this city. The evening was spent with cards, and prizes were won by Miss Hortense Craig and William Doolittle. The remainder of the evening was spent with music and elocution, Dan Johnson rendering a solo very pleasingly, Dr. Harry Stark favored the recipient of many appropriate presents. After an excellent muscleal entertainment, refreshments were were: Miss Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. Were enjoyed during the social hour. About 30 couples were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Charlotte were injury and the surprise party. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Charlotte were injury and the surprise party. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Charlotte were injury and the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Charlotte were injury and the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Layton, Rae Zimmerman and Miss Masters, New Lagland. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Layton, Rae Zimmerman and Miss Masters, Smith, Single Huff and she were enjoyed during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Layton, Rae Zimmerman and Miss Masters, Smith, Single Huff and she were enjoyed during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Layton, Rae Zimmerman and Miss Masters, Smith, Single Huff and she were enjoyed during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of 785 Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Miss Layton, Rae Zimmerman and Miss Masters, Smith, Smith, Miss Marchand, Plant and Mrs. Smi ent were Miss Myrtle Huff, Miss Mar-gurite Moore, Miss Bessie Bennett, Miss Myrtle Sears, Miss May Brown, Misa Zella Edwards and Willie Bolland, Alva Davis, Harry Van Horn, Albert Hitch-cock, Harry Long, Vern Williams and Harry Ostrander.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henkle celebrated their twenty-seventh wedding anniver-sary on October 14, surprised and surrounded by 55 of their friends in their home, 603 East Eleventh street. fred Blauchoim rendered several selec-tions on the violin. Mrs. Ella Jones pre-siding at the plane. J. P. Stephenson read an original poem. A reading, "Dick's First Lesson in Shopping," was given by Madeline Angell. Miss Flos-sle Ferrier sang "O Promise Me," af-ter which Mr. and Mrs. Henkle repeated their marriage vows. Their guests presented a very handsome rocking

The Research Club of the First United Presbyterian Church gave its opening night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Barnes, Monday night, October 14. The programme was under the direction of the Koinonia Men of the church, who gave a musical and literary programme asisted by Miss Hildreth, planist, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Clarence Tripp, Miss Louise Stewart, Miss Winifred Hawley and the Lachene Quartet. Sixty young people were present. The Research Club meets every alternate Monday night during the Winter. October 28 the club meets with the Misses Hawley in the study of a modern newspaper.

One of the pertilest affairs of the season was a dancing party given by Miss Lillian and Louis Gevurtz, in honor of their visiting friends in this city. The party was given in the Gevurtz Hall, on Front and Gibbs streets. The hall was beautifully decorated with vine maple Lilla T. Winters, Myrtle E. Long, Ada M. Matthews, Marguerite McNeill, Ger-trude Kurth and Joe Kelleher, Messrs.

the evening in the adjoining hall, which favors were steins and Japanese fans, neatly attached to the programmes. About 30 couples were present.

Smith, Master Raleigh Stinson, Clifford Stinson, Ervin Grossmueller, Joseph Nixon, Merle Fisher, Morris Fisher, Ger deau Roeder and James Blakely.

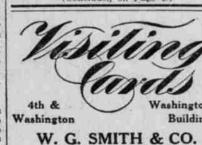

Tuesday afternoon at the Patton Home a surprise was given Mrs. L. Lambert, matron. It was the anniversary of her birthday, and through her many acts of kindness the old people are very much attached to her, and joined together and gave her a very pretty silver tea set and several other presents which she greatly appreciated. The evening was spent in music and recitations.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. Balley. The following programme was given, under the direction of the hostess: "England's Troubles With American Colonies," Mrs. Crogster; "In-"Irish Legislative Independence," Mrs. Miles; "New England." Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Jennie Blakely, Dorothy Smith, Ruth Smith, Master Raleigh Stinson, Clifford dancing and billiards more street, where a late hour.

The musical department of the Woman's

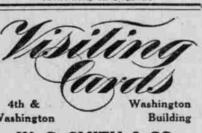

Announcements and Invitations for

We are prepared to execute orders for superior copperplate engraving in the latest Tiffany styles

WEDDINGS

KILHAM STATIONERY & PRINTING CO. 246 Washington St.

Miss Edith Kelly

TEACHER OF PIANO AND Leschetizky Method. Studio 401 Fliedner Building.

Three Fifty-One Washington Street

Monday Tuesday

Exceptional Sale of 100

Ladies' and Misses' Tailor Made Suits

$19.00 Each

Genuine Mandarin Coats at $15.00 Each $25 to $35

Store Opens at 8:30

HATS FOR THE HORSE SHOW

Portland's first Horse Show will undoubtedly be a grand success. Beautiful women, handsomely gowned, will be in evidence, but the effect of a handsome gown is lost if the hat worn is unbecoming. There is no reason why any women should wear a hat that does not harmonize with herself and her gown if she will inspect our stock of stylish, dressy creations, designed especially for this occasion, in all the latest shades of brown, green, navy and garnet. If you want a hat to match your gown, get it at

McCreedy & Campbells

400 Washington Street, Corner of 10th

We make a specialty of designing hats from your own particular creation.