WEDDINGS

Ghormley-Strange.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. D. W. Kinnaird, of Canemah, when her daughter, Miss Mae Strange, became the wife of J. Carlos Ghormley, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Ghormley, of Portland. The ceremony, which was witnessed only by the relatives of the contracting parties, was performed by the Rev. A. J. Montgomery, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of Portland. The bride wore a pretty in a gown of white seolein and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Beatie Ghormley, sister of the groom, who wore gray crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Fowler, of Portland, acted as best man. The bride party entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. Myrtle Ennis, of Portland. The impressive ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of white roses, white chrysanthemums and ferns. A wedding breakfast was served after the marriage ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ghormley left for a wedding trip on the Sound. They are now residing in Portland for the present. The Kinnaird home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the parlors being in white chrysanthemums, white roses and ferns, while pink was the predominating color in the dining-room, pink sweet peas being used in profusion. Presents were Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Ghormley, Miss Beatie Ghormley, Everest Ghormley and Mr. Fowler, of Portland; William Strange and daughter, Miss Mary Strange; and William Strange, of Clackamas; Mr. and Mrs. S. Enis, of Portland; Mrs. E. J. Marshall, Fred Strange, Tom Kinnaird and Mrs. D. W. Kinnaird, of Canemah.

MARRIED IN THEIR OWN SUNNYSIDE RESIDENCE

MR. AND MRS. ELSWORTH PICKEL.

One of the week's notable home weddings was that of Mrs. Mattie Blanchard to Elsworth Pickel, in their beautiful new residence in Sunnyside, on Thursday evening. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. L. Minacre, of Immanuel Baptist Church. The artistic rooms of the new residence were prettily decorated with Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. The bride is well known as a musician of talent, and the new benedict is receiving congratulations from a wide circle of friends, who know him as an artist of unusual skill with the brush, a clever art-photographer, and a successful and prosperous inventor, who is enjoying royalties from no less than half a dozen ingenious inventions, which he has patented. Mr. and Mrs. Pickel are now enjoying a honeymoon trip, which includes a cruise up the Columbia in an extended excursion to Puget Sound. They will be at home to their friends after November 15, at Sunnyside, No. 1029 East 85th street.

pastor of the M. E. Church, officiating. The wedding was a pretty home wedding. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lambert, Mrs. C. Q. Lambert, Miss Florence Smyth, Beatrice R. Sturb, Ethel Frazer and Mrs. Caldwell. The wedding presents from those present and others include many fine cut glass articles and silverware. Sweet peas and chrysanthemums were the decoration flowers. The bride was dressed in white mull with white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Page will spend some time in British Columbia, a time which they will be at home in Portland.

On the evening of October 30, Jacob Henry Beiser and Miss Amelia Weigft

The Meier & Frank Store Surprise—and Conquest

THE opening week of our Special Exploitation Display and Demonstration was a triumph—a complete, absolute triumph! From the opening hours of the demonstration until the store closed evenings our Corset Section has been thronged with delighted women—and not a single one of this enthusiastic throng failed to be very strongly impressed with the novel and exclusive feature of

IRRESISTIBLE AND THE Gossard CORSETS They Lace In Front

The single fact that they lace in front makes them superior to all other corsets. The principle of construction is right—right for grace—right for health—right for style.

"They Lace In Front"

Every figure—any figure—will fit the "Gossard" Corset. It emphasizes individuality, being the foundation and permitting the final touch of exclusive character to either simple or elaborate toilette. As the most intimate accessory of women's apparel it meets and joins the wearer's figure in quite a personal way, associating itself so closely and finely that the "Gossard" and its wearer are one. The regard of the wearer for her "Gossard" Corset comes as near true friendship as can exist between animate beings and inanimate objects. For the woman of generous proportions—the woman over 140—when hips need a refining line, with waist wanting shapeliness, and bust correction necessary, we have the model—one model that will do all these. If one only, either one, of these difficulties is to be improved, we have that model, too. For mademoiselle or madame of slight or slender figure, or just beyond the pale of either, be it a rounded effect that you require, a slight restraint, a direct line for emphasis, a curve for harmony, that model we have conjured for your need; evolved it, not by chance, but by the calculating plans of science, abetted by a wide experience that taught the need.

These Corsets sell at the reasonable price of $5 and up. Economical women will find that one Gossard Corset at $5 is actually cheaper than five ordinary corsets at $2 each.

The Most Beautiful Corset in the World

In corsets, as in the production of anything combining art and beauty, there must be one most beautiful. The Venus de Medici, standing for all ages as the most beautiful representative of the female form, is an ideal figure, a composite of the measurements of many women with as near perfect forms as could be found. As the sculptor worked, harmonizing many beautiful curves, until the one perfect form was chiseled from the marble, so worked Mmes. Margaine La Croix and Foulde de Grasse, measuring here and there, taking this curve and that line, combining for "L' Irresistible" and "The Gossard" all the beauties of figure in the most perfect models of Paris, until they produced this one most beautiful corset. And so, too, does every woman who wears this unapproachable corset achieve a beautiful figure, for your lines yield without discomfort and follow the harmonious outline of this perfect production. Can you afford to miss our Special Exploitation Display and Demonstration? Remember, it is under the personal supervision of Mme. Redding, the personal representative of The H. W. Gossard Co., who will be with us only during this week. Come to our Corset Section tomorrow if you can.
