A large tea this coming week will have as its hostess Mrs. F. A. Nitchey.

Mrs. Herbert Schoenfeld, of Seattle, has been a guest while here of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McDonell. Mrs. Schoen-

American Beauty roses were profusely used as table decorations. Present were Mrs. R. R. Hoge, Mrs. E. W. Mc-Cord, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. W. A. Mears, Mrs. J. B. Sharp, Mrs. D. B. Wells, Mrs. Allen Wright, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. J. H. Dewson, Miss Col-gate, Miss Mathews and Mrs. S. H. O. Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Colegate enter. Mr. and Mrs. Colgate entertained with bridge on Monday Mr. and Mrs. S. H. O'Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McCord, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Meers, J. B. Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dewson, - VI V

Mrs. Newell Barnard and Miss Nell Lockwood, formerly of Saginaw, Mich., were hosts on Wednesday last at a were nosts on Wednesday last at a bridge party at their Twenty-fourth-street residence. Their guests were Mrs. Millard Holbrook, Mrs. Frank Ransom, Mrs. J. W. Alexander, Mrs. F. A. Nitchey, Mrs. Carpenter and Miss Edith Scheurman, both of Saginaw, Mich. Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. T. T. Strain, Mrs. Williams, Leviter, Mrs. Williams, Leviter, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. T. T. Strain, Mrs. William Jenkins, Mrs. Learnard, wife of Captain Learnard, of Vancouver Barracks; Mrs. J. Smith, Vancouver Barracks; Mrs. J. Smith,
Mrs. Oscar Overbeck, Mrs. George Barker, formerly Miss Semele Groat; Miss
Mabel Ransom, Miss Edith Ransom,
Mrs. Otto Prael, Miss Maud Hahn, Mrs.
S. Chapman, Miss Laura. Dunne. The house decorations consisted of chrysanthemums, nasturtlums and Autumn leaves.

The wedding day for the marriage of Miss Gertrude Schacht and Mr. Burn Wagner has been set for December 11.

Mrs. H. M. Carlock and daughter, Marcelle, have returned from a three weeks solourn at the Mineral Spring of Carson, Wash,

Mrs. Robert Bealey has sent out cards for a bridge party this com-ing week. Walter Bealy is also aring week. Watter Beary is also arranging for a fancy dress ball to be given at their new Portland Heights residence. On Thursday afternoon Mr. Donald Bowles entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bealey at his apartments at Wellington Court.

Two large card parties were given last week in Irvington, one by Mrs. George McGowan and the other by Mrs. Bennet Fleckenstein,

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Cathe causes and society of the Ca-thedral will give a charity ball on Fri-day at Murlark Hall for the benefit of the Oswego orphanage. The society is planning to furnish 100 bear in the dormitory of this institution.

Mrs. Dom J. Zan is receiving much Mrs. Dom J. Zan is receiving morn attention socially in New York as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. Z. Mitchell, who is well known here as she at one time resided at the Hobart-Curtis, Mrs. Mitchell is giving a large luncheon this week for Mrs. Zan at the Country Club.

Mrs. Walter Reed and Miss Vida Reed spent last week at Stanford Uni-versity, guests of Harold Reed.

As in former years the annual benefit of the Women's Exchange was a pronounced success socially. The patronesses at the performance of the "Nightingale," which was given this year for the very worthy charity were Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. H. L. Pittock, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. H. L. Pittock, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. H. W. Carbett, Mrs. H. C. Bowers, Mrs. A. J. Meter, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcher, Mrs. T Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Miss Falling, Mrs. J. N. Teal and Mrs. Arthur Minott. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wilcox enter-tained in one of the boxes Miss Wilcox. Dr. Holt C. Wilson and Charles Hol-brook. In Mrs. Helen Ladd Cortest's hox were Miss alsa Wood, Miss Frances Wilson, Gerald Beebe and Eliott Con Mr. and Mrs. J. Poulson enter-a charming three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hopkins at their Medford ranch, coming down to attend the horse show. Mr. and Mrs. Muss Prances Lewis entertained Miss alto came down for the event, and Wile here will visit with Mrs. one of the losses and with her were Hopkins' mother and father, Judge and Mrs. J. H. Woodward, at their picturesque househoat.

In Mrs. C. H. Lewis' box Miss Prances Lewis entertained Miss Sally Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Tucker and John Lewis, Mrs. S gmund Frank held Mrs. A. J. Meler, Mr. and Wrs. Abe Meler. Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Mcier. Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns had the other losse. other loge.

> A inrgely attended event of the week was the Scottish Rite Masons ball given on Friday at the Temple on Lownsdale and Morrison streets, which Sawyer, of Indiana; Mrs. Paxton and Mrs. Mercereaux, of New York City. With Mrs. J. G. Mack were J. C. Carlson, Mrs. Henry McCraken, Colonel John McCraken, W. H. Raymond and Judge George H. Williams.

With Mrs. A. S. Norton the first night and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Buffum were Mrs. Sarah Bradbury Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Garah Bradbury Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Geattle.

With Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Downing were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton and Mr. and Mrs. Oskar Huber.

A recital on Monday of both musical and social importance is to be given at the residence of Mrs. Emma B. Carroll, when a number of the girls of the younger set are to appear in programme.

A pretty luncheon of 14 covers was given last week by Mrs. W. H. Colgate in honor of Mrs. Joseph K. Clarke. American Beauty roses were profusely used as table decorations. Present were Mrs. R. R. Home Mrs. E. W. Mass Mable French.

Miss Elenor McDonald, who will be remembered for a clever portrayal of the role of Robin Hood at the al fresco from Europe, and with her mother is occupying apartments at the Hill Ho-tel. Besides being gifted histrionacally, she is most accomplished other-wise. Miss Mae Donald is a Wellesley girl and was formerly associate editor of the Pacific Monthly. NANCY LEE.

· EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

On Friday evening, November 8, Hassale Ledge No. 15 of the Independent Order of Oddfellows gave a stag cial, it being the first of a series entertainments to be given by the lodge throughout the Winter months. The programme consisted of a tenor solo by W. E. Gloss; remarks on, "Oddfellowship, Its Objects and How to Attain Them," by Grand Master Richard Scott, of Milwaukee; bass solo by Fred P. Holm; remarks to Visitors," by Wellington N. Shenefield; fancy club swinging, by Tom O. Brown; "Why Members Don't Come to Lodge," by Ed T. Taggert; "Why Members Should Come to Lodge," by Mr. Raker, of Woodlawn; duet by Messrs. Powell and Eastman; declamation, by Dr. S. W. Stryker; baritone solo, by George Evans. After which all those present adjourned to the banquet hall and sat down to a light luncheon,

The Mizpah Social Club held its reg-ular meeting November 7 at the home of Mrs. Marshell, Archer Place, with

P* TALENTED YOUNG SOPRANO

Miss Tillle Schomus.

The Sacred Heart Church choir rendered beautiful music during the forty hours' devotion which ended last Sunday. Miss Tillie Schomus is the principal singer in the choir. She possesses a sweet and pleasing soprano voice which is greatly appreciated by many music lovers. Miss Schomus has talent and ambition, and a brilliant future is preMail Orders Promptly Attended to Satisfaction Guaranteed

The Fashion Center Entire Corner Fourth and Morrison

SILVERFIELD FU

Not for a generation has any fur attained the universal popularity that Natural Mink and Black Lynx have at the present time. Mink Coats of the latest conception, some of very fancy and elaborate construction, others plain and practical, we are selling in numbers that would have greatly surprised the fur trade in former years. Black Lynx Pelerines, broad on the shoulder, fur-lined and satin-lined. Scarfs of the most bewildering designs. Muffs in shapes and effects never before dreamed of, we are selling as fast as inferior furs sold in former years. Mink Fur is the best for wear, lasting many years-soft, glossy and silky, with beautiful harmonizing color. Its richness and intrinsic value are readily apparent. A stock of precious furs cannot be manufactured at short notice, not even in a few weeks. We have devoted some time to manufacturing the finest Mink obtainable and at the lowest prices. We accordingly feel confident that our showing is the finest and most reasonable in the country.

IN POPULAR-PRICED FURS

Similar in color and texture to mink, we have a large assortment, including Japanese Mink and blended Brook Mink, made up in a way that we can thoroughly recommend, at the lowest possible prices. We can save you money in Furs.

Rare Showing of Beautiful Novelty Coats

The collection at SILVERFIELD'S will be at its best this week. Everything that's new, if stylish, in the way of a stunning Coat, may be found among them. The distinguished foreign ideas and the best American creations-medium-priced coats and the more expensive novelties. $35.00, $40.00, up to $100.00.

Tailored Novelty Suits, $50, $70 and $85

There is so much style in these suits that they will appeal to women who appreciate correct tailoring and perfect lines. Every detail of their designing makes them high class. These are made of the very finest materials, and are the latest style innovations.

SILK VELVET TAILORED SUITS, $45 to $65

These are very stylish Dress Suits, with the new short coats that are the most favored styles for many occasions, and are so becoming to many women. They are very attractive coats, plaited and trimmed with either lace, embroidery or braid, and they have full plaited skirts. Made of silk velvet, in black and all dark and medium colors.

New Tailored Suits, $25, $30, $35, $40

We have many new ideas in Tailored Suits to show tomorrow at the above prices. Some new things for the Winter season in jaunty tight-fitting or semi-fitting strictly tailored Suits, in all lengths.

There is also a collection of Military Euits, and braid-trimmed and embroidered styles. These come in black and all the medium colors, for street wear as well as all the pastel shades.

Greatest Perfection in Millinery

True perfection in Millinery can only be attained by careful hand work, intelligently performed. With us, the rare good taste expressed in the adoption of the materials to each individual hat never fails to please. Our millinery was never more beautiful. Prices from $5, $7.50, $8, $10 to $50.

MANY SPECIALS FOR MONDAY

Send for Our New Fur Style Book Season of 1907-1908—Free on Request

26 members present. They decided to give a whist social Thursday, November 21, at 2 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Belding, 90 Nebraska street, and all are invited. Business over, the club played whist, Mrs. McCarty receiving first prize, Mrs. Buckley second and the consolation falling to Mrs. Vose. Refreshments were then served. The next meeting will be held December 5 with Mrs. Knott, at $25 East Twelfth with Mrs. Knott, at $35 East Twelfth street. New members were: Mrs. Chip-chase, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. Varley, Mrs. Vose, Mrs. Daley.

A Halloween perty wis given by Eliza-beth Mathlesen at the home of her par-ents, Thursday evening, October 31. The house was artistically decorated with Autumn leaves, jack-o'-lanterns and other Halloween decorations. Games appropri-ate for the occasion were enjoyed. Those ate for the occasion were enjoyed. Those in attendance were Misses Hazel King. Ethel Adams, Leona Kistler, Ruby Goodrich, Maud Timmons, Laura Lingaas, Kitty Brandes, Jennie Lingaas, Mrs. W. H. Lehman, Mrs. A. Heydt, Mrs. F. Orth, Messrs. A. J. Howard, William Smith, John Lingaas, Arnold Moore, Robert Henderson, Earl Timmons, Dave Andrews, Harry Davis, William Mathlesen, D. Heydt, William Lehman and C. Plopper.

The "Merrymakers" were charmingly entertained by Miss Hazel Lee, one of their members, at her home, 674 East Seventh street, Halloween night. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves and festions of green and gold. The evening was pleasantly passed with appropriate games and music, and at a late hour a function was served. Those present were Miss Munro, Miss Edith Rothrock, Miss Grace Cawthorn, Mrs. J. B. Hayland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sut-B. Haviland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sat-terlee, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Binford, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Binford, Clyde Shields, George Munro and L. Stone:

A reception was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Cottel, 895 Kelly street, to the 20 new members recently received into Central W. C. T. U. as a result of the membership contest. A delightful evening was spent. Mrs. Ada W. Unruh, president of the Central Union, made an address, speaking of the work of the Union during the past year and the success of her predecessor, Miss ida Barkley, who had been an efficient president for the past two years. Several musical numbers were given and refreshments served.

A very pleasant social event was the Halloween party given by Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Moore, of 595 East Couch street, to a number of their young friends. The parlors were very prettily decorated with Autumn leaves, with here and there an artistic reminder that this was the night when witches and ghosts held their annual gatherings. During the evening the guests employed their time by prying into the future, ac-cording to ways hallowed by tradition, with results that were apparently sat-

Those present were Miss Iva Gordon, Miss Myrtle Buchanan, Miss Edna Dal-ton, Miss Julia Charman, Miss Ethel Albright, Miss Minnie Shotts, William Logan, Mortimer Latourette, Captain Loomis, Emil Gordon, Mortimer Cockrel, Reese, of Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. C. E. Runyon entertained the Zona Bridge Whist Club Monday, at her home, 252½ Sixth street, with a very elaborate luncheon. The dining-room was tastefully decorated with Autumn was tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves and sweet peas. After luncheon, bridge whist was played, Mrs C. C. Hickok winning the prize, Those present were Mrs. W. N. Chatten, E. B. Gaze, Robert Lutke, G. W. Simpson, J. Closset, Charles Emery, C. C. Hickok, McKinley Mitchell, Charles E. Runyon, B. F. Weaver, R. D. Cannon and R. P. Graham.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. Crofton. After the conclusion of regular business, the hostess took charge of the following programme "Outline of the Reign of George IV... Mrs. Brynton: "Queen Caroline," Mrs. Jackson; "Princess Charlotte," Mrs. Miles; "William IV.," Mrs. Stiles; "Industrial Development," Mrs. Pugh; "Constitutional Reforms," Mrs. Bailey. Refreshments were served during the social hour. The club will meet November 12 with Mrs. Crossies at Welliamer. ber 12 with Mrs. Crogster, at Wellington

A "Philathia" class for young ladies was organized at the Immanuel Baptist Church last Sunday. This class has for its object a better social life, a better un-derstanding of the Bible, and the develderstanding of the Bible, and the development of a consistent Christian character. The following officers were elected for the year: Teacher, Mrs. C. Oldermann; president, Miss Hazel Oldermann; vice-president, Miss Edna Osburn; secretary, Miss Lenna Cleave; treasurer, Miss Fibel Stark; rangeter Miss Hettle Dunis Ethel Stark; reporter, Miss Hettle Dunn.

Ethel Stark; reporter, Miss Hettle Dunn.

The second five hundred party of the "Merry Twelve" was held with Mrz. N. W. McBride, 251 Wasco street, Thursday afternoon, Prizes were won by Mrs. McBride and J. C. Pritchard. The members of the club are Mesdames Jackson, Henkle, Seefring, Curtis, Morris, Harklerode, Sullenberg, Boggess, Pfeidner, Comter, McBride and Pritchard, The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Carrie Courter, 405 Manhattan street.

A Halloween party was given to Miss Emma Flover, of San Francisco, at the residence of Miss Georgledean Tilden, Thursday evening. October 31. Among those present were Misses Emma Plover, Lottle Segur, Audrey Templeton, Georgledean Tilden, George Tilden, Mr. Sterling, Don Sharlock, G. G. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Segur, Mr. and Mrs. G. De Spange, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Berry and Harry Gray.

On Saturday, November 2, On Saturday, November 2, a very pleasant party was given at Marguerite Hall by a merry party of young people. The hall was attractively decorated in the club colors, pennants and Jack-o'-Lanterns. The spirit of Halloween was carried out through the entire evening. At half-past 10 appropriate Halloween refreshments were served in the banquet hall.

26 members present. They decided to give a whist social Thursday, November 21, at 2 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Belding, 90 Nebraska street, land; Mrs. Swain, of Chicago, and David logg gave a Hallowen party to a number of the control o of their Oregon City and Portland

> The Ladies' Auxiliary of the N. A. L. 2. gave a very pleasant Halloween party at the residence of W. H. Churchill. The house was decorated with Autumn leaves, jack-o'-lanterns' and pumpkins. An orchestra of eight pieces gave several se-lections, A neat sum was made for the The house was profusely decorated > with chrysanthemums and sword ferns and lighted with Japanese and Jack-o'-Lanterns. The evening was spent in games and music till a late hour. Refreshments were served with cider and

The J. F. F. Five Hundred Club was delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fredricks on Monday evening. The house was decorated with the club colors, red and white.

One of the pleasant Halloween par-ties was given by Adsen Gilman, at the home of his mother, Mrs. W. H. Steele, 413 Ebey street, to a party of young

WEDDINGS.

Hale-McConnell.

A very pretty Autumn wedding occurred on November 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McConnell, when their eldest daughter, Jessle, and William G. Hale were united in marriage. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. S. Miller sang "Until You Came," and a quartet composed of Professor Boyer, Celeste Dygert, Miss Prehn and Charles Cutter, rendered "Song is Sweet." Judge A. H. Frazer's daughis Sweet." Judge A. L. France's daughters and a sister of the bride played the wedding murch on violin and plane as the bride entered on the arm of her father bride entered on the arm of her father, attended by Miss Laura Fox as maid of honor, and the Misses Grace Kemp and Ethel McConnell as bridesmaids. The groom, accompanied by Dr. A. A. Atkinson, of California, who came to Portland purposely to attend the wedding of his old college friend, met the bride under a canopy of Autumn leaves, where a simple ceremony was performed. After congratulations a witty speech was given gratulations a witty speech was given by Fred L. Everson, a young attorney of Portland, and was responded to in the same strain by the groom. Many guests from a distance were among the hundred present. The bride is a popular con-traito singer. The groom was graduated from the Harvard Law Department in 1906. Miss Louise Glover caught the bride's bouquet. Many handsome presents were received.

Murtha-Crouter.

The wedding of two of Baker City's well-known young people took place last Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Crouter. in Baker City, when Miss Fidelia R. Crouter was united in marriage to Thomas F. Murtha, Rev. F. L. Hayden officiating. The bride was handsomely gowned in a white silk gown trimmed Dr. Ice, George Kellogg and Elmer Kellogg, or Oregon City, and Miss Elsie T. M. Kellogg, on Crescent Heights, in place with white American Beauty Tifft, Miss Carrie Beard, Miss Pearl one and a half miles east of Oregon roses. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and was attended by Miss quet of pink roses. The only jewelry worn by the bride was a diamond brooch, a gift of the groom. Leo Brown was best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The bride is a member of one of the pioneer families of Eastern Oregon and was born and reared in Quaker City.

The groom is a member of the Baker Mercantile Company, one of the largest establishments in Baker City.

Ford-Ground.

Marcus A. Ford and Miss Velma V Marcus A. Ford and Miss Veima V. Ground were married last Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents at Monmouth. The ceremeny was performed by Rev. E. C. Wigmore, of the University of Oregon, and was witnessed by a large company of relatives and friends. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white lace over silk and carried an arm homeset of his and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. She was escorted by her father to the floral bower in the parlor of the old home where she was met by the groom and an impressive ring marriage service was witnessed. The home was decorated with white and green mingled with Au-tumn leaves and red borries. A bountiful luncheon was served at 13 o'clock, after uncheon was served at 12 o'clock, after which the bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Fortland, where they will make their home. Mr. Ford is the son of ex-Sheriff Ford, of Polk County. and his wife is the youngest doughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ground, well-known pioneers of Monmouth. Dukes-Cockrell.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dukes, in Hood River, Sunday, November 3, at 12 o'clock, when Mabel Cockrell, of Albany, and H. Maltimore Dukes, of Portland, were united in marriage of Rev. Mr. Gillmore, of First

(Concluded on Page 5.)

