Why have the house, cellar and garret littered with old furniture. Old furniture, no matter how difapidated it may appear to you or how much out

There are men in Portland who make a business of buying old furniture, fixing it up and selling it to people who are glad to buy furniture cheaply.

The way to get in touch with the men who would buy your old furniture is to read in the classified advertising columns of The Oregonian, daily and Sunday. If you do not find the name of the man who will give you all you think your furniture is worth, place a small advertisement of your own. It will cost you only a few cents.
