MILDRED JOSSELYN, WHO HAS RETURNED TO A THIRTIETH AFTER HAVING SPENT THE HOLIDAYS HERE

MISS DOROTHY JOSSELYN, DAUGHTER OF MR. BENAGE JOSSELYN, THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE PORTLAND RAILWAY LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY

THE stellar reception of the year was undoubtedly that given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Solomon Hirsch at their handsome new residence on Washington and St. Clair streets, which is ideally adapted for entertaining of this sort. Receiving with Mrs. Hirsch in the reception-room, with its hangings of old rose brocade, were Miss Ella Hirsch, Mrs. M. Blum, of San Francisco, and Mrs. Joseph Rothchild, also of the Bay City. In the music-room were Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. Marcus Fieschner, Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. L. Fieschner, Miss Chadwell, and Miss Mae Hirsch. In the latter room, with its beautiful Turkish rugs and tapestries, purchased while the late Mr. Hirsch was minister to Turkey, the decorations were of flaming poinsettias. In the dining room, yellow was the color note, and here quantities of Golden Gate roses and daffodils were arranged.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis and Miss Mae Falline, assisted by Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Claire Houghton and Miss Frances Jacobs. In the library punch was served by Mrs. J. N. Teal and Mrs. James Laddlaw, assisted by Miss Effie Houghton, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Florence Wolfe and Miss Flora Fieschner.

Several hundred guests called during the afternoon, and the gowns and jewels were exceptionally handsome. Mrs. Hirsch was gowned in amethyst satin, with pearls and diamonds; Mrs. Blum in black velvet, with beautiful jewels; Miss Hirsch, Dresden chiffon; Mrs. Rothchild was handsome in pompadour silk, with trimmings of cloth of gold and diamond necklace; Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, white embroidered batiste, with pearls; Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, white chiffon, with smart circle of orange-toned velvet, diamond ornaments; Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, pompadour gown and jewels; Miss Falline, imported gown of robin-egg blue satin; Mrs. I. N. Fieschner, gown of point applique, with necklace of beads and lovers' knot of diamonds; Miss Flora Fieschner, rose pink satin, cut princess; Miss Claire Houghton, silver pink crepe; Miss Effie Houghton, Persian liberty satin; Miss Muriel Williams, yellow princess gown; Miss Mae Hirsch, lingerie gown, embroidered with a gold thread; Miss Frances Jacobs, lingerie gown over pink chiffon; Mrs. Marcus Fieschner, black spangled robe, with ornaments of diamonds; Mrs. I. N. Lipman, delicate blue satin marquisette, princess, with jewels; Miss Leslie Knapp, imported empire gown of shadow satin; Mrs. Joseph Teal, white lace, with diamonds.

Miss Hazel and Miss Leslie Wedder, two of the very prominent girls, are contemplating shortly a tour of the world. Miss Leslie Wedder is to leave this week for Boston, where she will visit Miss Theodora Bush, who visited here last summer as a guest of Miss Marjorie Hoffmann, going thence to visit her sister, Miss Clara Wedder, at North Hampton, who is attending Burnham, preparatory to Smith College have been guests at large Eastern house parties over the holidays. Miss Leslie Smith has been entertained at Amherst by Miss Melville Emerson, and Miss Isabella Gault was one of a large house party at Annapolis, and also visited with Miss B. Mead, at New London. Other Portlanders visiting at Annapolis were Miss Florence Tongue, daughter of the late Congressman Tongue, of Hillsboro, who has been making rapid strides in music under the direction of Miss Villa Whitney White, in Annapolis. Wallace Baker was also entertained at Annapolis during the holidays.

A banquet to Secretary Taft and 70 members of his party was given in St. Petersburg, Russia, recently, by Dr. W. D. Carlisle, of Portland, who for some years has been one of the American colony at St. Petersburg.

Mrs. E. B. Carroll has recently purchased an extensive orchard in the Hood River Valley which will be managed by her son, Mr. Phillip Carroll. Mr. Carroll, who recently arrived from the East, ranks as one of the popular bachelors, being a West Pointer and having had the advantage of European education and extensive travel. He is most enthusiastic over his chosen vocation of horticulture, and will spend a great portion of his time at "Carrollton," the new country home.

Incidentally orcharding is becoming very popular with prominent Portlanders, and each Spring there is quite an exodus to these country estates, which are frequently the scene of jolly house parties.

One of the smart dancing parties of the Winter was given on Thursday evening, at Murlark hall, by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Vail, which will be managed by her son, Mr. Phillip Carroll. The decorations consisted of a profusion of palms and fragrant cedar. A huge wreath of English holly suspended in the center of the hall attached to which were scarlet Christmas bells. Turkish rugs and tapestries decorated the walls and at intervals were placed baskets of poinsettias. Miss Claire Wilcox assisted in receiving in a chic Parisian frock of Valenciennes lace.

Among some of the very attractive gowns was that of Mrs. A. A. Morrison, of black velvet with trimmings of Irish point lace; Mrs. Frank Hart, white lace; Miss Martha Hoyt, a smart satin gown of a delicate turquoise tone; Miss Barbara Croker, in a strikingly pretty, dewdrop net elaborately trimmed with swan-down; Miss Ise Koehler, in her debutante costume of white point de spirit, with Napoleonic wreaths of pink Cecil Bruner huds; Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, in a delicate pink panne velvet; Mrs. Richard Koehler, blue satin chiffon; Mrs. H. W. Corbett's toilette of black lace over white; Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, pearl gray faille and chiffon, with Venetian lace trimmings; Mrs. Howard Mather's striking white satin, trimmed with black lace; Mrs. W. B. Ayer, white satin trimmed with iridescent embroidery; Mrs. George Good, white silk; Mrs. Thomas Sharp, white satin, trimmed with duchess lace.

The invitational list included Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kollock, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. David Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lea Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Dr. and Mrs. K. A. J. One of the largest receptions of the Winter season was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Frederick Eggert, president of the Women's Club, in honor of that organization. The affair was held in the drawing-room of the Portland Hotel, which were decorated handsomely with palms, rubber plants, azaleas and Easter lilies, the club colors of green and white being faithfully carried out. In addition huge baskets and brass jardiniere filled with flaming poinsettias added a brilliant dash of color and suggested the Christmas season. The club flower, Oregon grape, combined with potted plants, was used effectively as decoration for the mantels. Many handsome gowns were in evidence, the president, Mrs. Eggert, received in a gown of black lace over chiffon with a necklace of diamonds, and was assisted by the first and second vice-presidents, Mrs. Robert L. Liska and Mrs. P. J. Moffat. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. H. W. Coe, Mrs. A. Staiger and Mrs. Rose Hoyt, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Gilie, Miss May Flynn, Miss Zitporah Harris and Miss Elizabeth Sharp, all daughters of club members. Punch was served by Mrs. C. N. Rankin and Mrs. T. W. Ladd. Various members of the club assisted in receiving the guests. Wilder's orchestra furnished the music.

Wednesday, January 8, has been chosen as the wedding day of Miss Mazie O'Brien, of San Francisco, and Mr. Brandt Wickersham. On their return to Portland they will reside at the Mordaunt apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Jr., (Miss Margaret Morrison) chaplained a dinner at the Portland Hotel on Monday evening, which included Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Caroline Burns, Mr. Edmund Koehler and Mr. King, of Toledo, O.

A wedding to be celebrated today in New York City is that of Mrs. Margaret Chapman Hastings and Mr. Frederick V. Patten, which takes place at the Church of the Transfiguration. Mrs. Hastings is the widow of the late Ernest Hastings, formerly leading man of the Backus stock company.

General and Mrs. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Biddle and Miss Becky Biddle, who have recently returned to Portland after an extended stay at the Columbia River, have recently taken apartments at Alexandria Court.

Miss Mary Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingston, left on Saturday for Newton, Mass., where she will enter school at Mount Ida, near Lowell. Miss Livingston accompanied her across the continent. A number of jolly farewell affairs were given in honor of these two girls prior to their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicolai (Miss Bessie de Bevoise), Mr. and Mrs. William McCord and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman O'Gorman left on Saturday in the latter's large touring car for California, where they will motor from place to place, as fancy dictates.

Mrs. Mary V. Shelby and her daughter, Miss Annie Blanche Shelby, who have been visiting in California for some months, are now at the residence of Mrs. D. Jay, 22 Eleventh street.

Mrs. E. E. Courson, who since the origin of the Camaraderie Club has acted as patroness, entertaining for the club at her residence on New Year's eve, when the new year was ushered in with a lively Virginia reel. Present were Miss Cummins, Misses Veda and Shannah Cummins, Miss Helen Brigham, Miss Mabel Ayers, Miss Ethelwyn Harris, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Geraldine Courson, Arthur Fields, Ray Fields, George Steadman, Frank Howell, Curtis Sargent, Lou Centro and Elmer Young.

Mrs. S. F. Chadwick and her daughter, Miss Mary Chadwick, of Salem, have returned from an extended tour of the East and South. Their itinerary included St. Louis, Memphis, Washington, New York, Buffalo, Chicago and the Jamestown Exposition. They visited besides Covington, Va., the girlhood home of Mrs. Chadwick, from which she had been absent for 60 years.

An evening of unalloyed fun and merriment marked the very pretty cotillon given Monday evening by Jessie Colgate, Hoyt Colgate, Wayne and Earl Coe at the new residence of the latter's parents on Twenty-fourth and Lovejoy streets. About 30 children from the younger Portland Academy set were present, who conducted themselves with as much poise and dash as their grown-up sisters and brothers. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Colgate. The german was given under the direction of
