COMMERCIAL CLUB INVITED.

The Commercial Club has received a communication from Fisher Harris, president of the Trans-Missouri Dry Farming Congress, inviting the local organization to send delegates to the second session of the congress, to be held in Salt Lake City, January 22-25. Among the matters to be considered are the best methods of reclamation of the lands of the semiarid West, the determination of the best agricultural methods where crop and live stock are raised, the establishment of experimental farms to determine the limitations of scientific soil culture and seed selection, the direction of state and Federal experiment stations or private enterprises.

FATHER BEUTGEN GOES TO EUROPE.

Rev. Father Beutgen will leave Sunday evening for Europe, where he expects to spend a four months' vacation. He will visit Karlsruhe, Rome and the Holy Land. Father Beutgen is one of the most widely-known priests of Oregon, having worked in nearly all the missions of the Oregon diocese. In Portland's early days the Rev. Father was president of the Young Men's Catholic Literary Society, the first ever organized in Portland at old St. Mary's. He was also an active member of the Father Matthew Temperance Society and delivered the oration at its first celebration. He was the first resident priest of Coos County, where he erected two churches, one at Marshfield and the other at Cape Blanco. The Cape Blanco church is the most westerly church in the United States. People who have heard Father Beutgen preach say he is one of the best speakers among the clergy.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Woodcraft Camp, No. 65, Woodmen of the World and Royal Circle Women of Woodcraft will hold joint installation ceremonies Wednesday evening, January 8, at the W. O. W. Temple, 28 Elvengrove street. This will be one of the principal events of Woodcraft in the city for the season. Woodcraft Camp has the largest active membership of any camp in the state and Royal Circle is an up-to-date circle, and those who attend this celebration will be sure of a good time. All friends of the order are invited. The Women of Woodcraft have prepared a programme of more than usual merit and after the ceremonies are over there will be dancing. Lucie's Orchestra will furnish the dance music.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF RED MEN.

The Past Schems' Association of Oregon held its annual rollcall meeting on Tuesday evening, January 7, in its quarters in the Mulkey building. There was a large gathering that comfortably filled the rooms. The principal part of the evening was given to the serving of a banquet, during which toasts were responded to by many prominent members. The Past Schems' Association is an organization composed of past officers of Oregon tribes in the Improved Order of Red Men, and has been in existence for about 15 years.

ANTI-TREATING CLUB TO MEET.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Cathedral Men's Club, held Friday night, it was decided to send out letters to the various centers interested in the anti-treating movement, inviting them to send delegates to a meeting of the Cathedral Men's Club to be held Thursday night, January 30, at which time it is proposed to organize a club, to be the anti-treating club, and formulate plans for a general anti-treating movement.

PATRIOTIC CLUB BANQUET.

The American Patriotic Club will give its seventh annual dinner, at the Hotel Portland, Saturday, January 18, 1908, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. This event is to celebrate the birth and life of the American great statesman, Daniel Webster. Eloquent speakers have been secured to respond to appropriate toasts, among whom will be George H. Williams, Charles E. Wolverton, W. D. Wheelwright and George W. Hazen constitute the committee in charge of arrangements.

WILL REPEAT "MESALAH."

The official board of Taylor Street Episcopal Church, has requested Professor W. H. Boyer, to repeat the "Mesalah" which was recently given by the choir of the church under Professor Boyer's direction. It is proposed to give the oratorio in the near future at the Sunday morning service. There will be a choir of 50 voices and an orchestra of 15 pieces.

BURGULARY VISIT DUNN'S RESIDENCE.

The residence of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Dunn was visited by a burglar on Friday night while they were entertaining at dinner. The thief made his entrance by climbing up on the veranda and entering through a second-story window. All of Mrs. Dunn's handsome jewelry were stolen and a leather case containing some rare photographs.

Slocum, retiring president, made a felicitous address reviewing the work of the lodge during the past year. The doctor was followed by other speakers in happy strain, and the social session was continued until a late hour. The lodge now has a membership of over 700 in good standing, with several thousand dollars in the treasury.

DRUGGIST WITHOUT LICENSE ARRESTED.

Samuel Helford, who conducts the Grant Pharmacy, at First and Grant streets, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant issued by District Attorney Manning, which charges Helford with conducting his place without a license. The complaint against Helford was filed by John M. A. Lane, secretary of the Oregon Pharmaceutical Society. This is one of a very few instances in which complaints of this character have been made in this city. The law is very stringent in its provisions for licensed druggists, the minimum punishment for such an offense being a fine of $500. Helford was taken to the City Jail but was later released on bond. He maintains ignorance of the regulations and says he was waiting for an opportunity to take the prescribed examination.

LUCAS AND WILSON ARRESTED.—Bob

Lucas and W. C. Wilson were arrested early yesterday morning by Policeman Hansen, at Corbett and Bancroft streets, and charged with being suspicious characters. Wilson had a revolver in his possession. When arraigned in the Municipal Court Wilson was recognized as having been arrested last year charged with attempting to burn a printing establishment. Lucas is a familiar figure in the Police Court. Both men were held pending investigation of their actions during the past week.

NEW RULE ON O. W. P. LINE. Passengers Will Be Taken Aboard Only at Terminus. Hereafter passengers desiring to board O. W. P. cars on either First and Second streets must wait until the cars reach the end of the run. Passengers entering cars must also do so at one end instead of swooping down on both front and rear as soon as the car comes to a stop. This is to permit passengers on the car to alight without being compelled to fight off the mob of commuters who are eager to get seats for the outbound trip. Not only has a bulletin been issued by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, announcing these regulations, but uniformed employees of the company will enforce them. If they need aid from the police to carry out the orders just issued, carmen are instructed to call upon the officers.

WATCH REPAIRING.
