The annual freshman glee at the University of Oregon, which was held last Saturday night, was one of the most brilliant social affairs ever given in the college town. The big armory was decorated with pennants, and the scene was one of gaiety. There were more than 400 guests participating in the grand march. Cecil Espey, a Portland Academy graduate, acted as floor manager, and the other members of the committee were Mary Howard, Hazel Brown, Ralph Cronise and Howard Drew. The patronesses were Mesdames Church, DeBar, Duff, Jones, Morey and Dearborn.

Among the Portland guests were Mrs. L. von Zoll Clarke, Misses Gertrude Elfers, Myrtle Sheldon, Dorothy Holbrook, Dorothy Morrison, Margaret Boot, Florence Lilburn, Ethel Clarke, Ruth Honeyman, Lessie Leadbetter, Nell Swart, Katherine Emmons, Jessie Bibee, Merle McKelvey, Maude Steadman, Rita Bernard, Ione Lambert, Eva Jones, Winifred Abbott, Thora Malin and Messrs. Howard Latourette and Blaine Hallock.

On Friday evening the Beta Epsilon Sorority gave a reception in honor of its guests, and the Tau Pi Sorority gave a similar affair on Saturday afternoon. The Sigma Nu Fraternity kept open house on Sunday afternoon.

The social affairs of the Oregon students are attracting more attention each year and are becoming immensely popular. The four big events of the year are the sophomore hop, which is always held early in December; the freshman glee, on the third Saturday in January; the junior prom., usually held in March, and the alumni ball during commencement week.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A very pleasant event occurred last Monday when a large number of the members of Mount Hood Circle, Women of Woodcraft, planned and carried out a surprise party at the home of Mrs. J. Ira Routledge, at East Twenty-ninth and Belmont streets. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Routledge, who is a very popular member of the order. About 25 of her friends suddenly appeared at her home, at 11 o'clock Monday morning, bringing with them refreshments and many intentions of having a good time, which were fully carried out. It was a most complete surprise to Mrs. Routledge and the day was pleasantly spent in card-playing, music and recitations. During the afternoon Mrs. Cornell, in a neat speech on behalf of the friends present, handed Mrs. Routledge a handsome cut-glass caraffe. Those present were: Mesdames Frazer, Howe, Gheman, Keenan, Wheeler, Elliot, Carls, Knapp, O'Brien, Lotrich, McGregor, Pelton, Shields, Richmond, Warden, Nonken, Cornell, Kenefick, Phillips, Morgan, A. Minar, E. Minar and Misses P. Minar, R. Minar, and Evans.

At the home of Mrs. George E. Tilden, 567 East Morrison street, the monthly tea of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Hawthorne Presbyterian Church, was given Tuesday afternoon and attended by 51 ladies of the society. Mrs. O. M. Scott, secretary, and Mrs. Lucas, treasurer, were present. An interesting programme was rendered. Mrs. W. D. Deavor rendered a solo, "Don't Cry, Little Girl, Don't Cry." She responded to an encore by singing "Goodby, Sweet Day." Mrs. Bertha Grimes followed with a solo, "Ah, 'Tis a Dream," and responded to an encore, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Miss Florence Smith, a well-known elocutionist, entertained the company with several selections in a most happy manner. Violet Hayes gave an instrumental solo most charmingly. The hostess was assisted in receiving the ladies by Mrs. McLeod. The reception lasted from 2:30 to 5 P. M., and was one of the most enjoyable in the history of the society.

One of the most delightful events in Salem society this season was the unique Chinese domino party given by Miss Eleene L. Fawk on Saturday afternoon, of this week, in honor of Miss Lenna Eleanor Cavanagh, who is to be married February 19, to Otho O. Regan. The Fawk home, at Nob Hill, was elaborately decorated throughout in Chinese effect. Two Chinese tots drew in a cart, ladened with china, as a gift to Miss Cavanaugh from her girl friends. Maidens gowned in Chinese robes waited upon the guests at numerous small tables throughout the spacious parlors. Rice novelties, ginger-root, wafers and tea were served in Chinese fashion. In the recieving line with Miss Fawk were, her mother, Mrs. Henry Harvord Fawk, Mrs. L. C. Cavanagh, Mrs. James Walton, Jr., of Tillamook, and Mrs. Claud S. Knight, of The Dalles.
