SOME DONT'S FOR STAGE-STRUCK GIRLS

A FEW GENTLE WORDS OF ADVICE FROM LOUISE KENT OF THE BAKER STOCK COMPANY

"S OME Don'ts for Stage-struck Girls" is a subject upon while Miss Louise Kent, of the Baker Stock Company believes she could write a big. fat. bulging book

"I do not mean," said Miss Kent to an Oregonian reporter, "to make a sweeping criticism of the matinee maid n general. No. indeed! Why, bless their little romantic hearts, the matinee would we do without them? If we didn't know they were sitting out there in front, intensely interested, and loyally devoted to us individually, how do you suppose we would ever manage to put suppose we would ever manage to put any spirit into our work, or any romance into our little make-believe love scenes? No, indeed! There's nothing wrong with the matinee maid in general, nothing in the world: but among them, you know, there is always a sprinkling of foolish ones that come under the head of 'stage-struck.' These are the ones to whom I would address my list of 'don'ts.'

'The stage-struck girl.' continued the willowy ido of juvenile femininity, 'is not so consplcuous at the theater: it is upon the street that she looms up most foolishly. You can pick her out at a dis-ishly. You can pick her out at a dis-tance of two blocks, and when she ap-proaches more closely, the certainty be-comes positively appalling; it's not only the big bunches of drooping estrich the big bunches of drooping ostrich plumes, or long fluttering veil draped a la widow's weeds, nor the tapping high heels of extravagantly arched and be-buckled slippers; these things merely make one smile. One does not smile, however, when looking upon the crude misuse of the eye-brow pencil, or the startling effect of blonds eyelashes daubed with brunette coloring, and it is positively distressing to see the havor of the rouge-pot at work, under ob-viously amateurish direction, upon a fresh, young, rounded cheek. "Now if girls feel that they have got to do these things," sald Miss Kent, nestly, "why under the sun can they not do it right? Where on earth do they get the idea that they must attempt stage make-up, if they would enhance their charms at all, when going out into the full glare of daylight and into the unsympathetic crowds of the streets and If a young girl thinks it neces sary to touch up a bit, that is not so very reprehensible, if only she will give a little attention as to how it should be done, and not, under any circumstances, take any suggestions from the stage."

"In the first place, stage make-up, or any detail of it, requires certain lights to produce any but a grotesque effect, and without these lights, the stage manner of shading and touching up the eyes, for instance, would produce an effect opposite to the one intended. This is particularly true of the line under the lower evelash

Under no circumstances should the eyes enamel upon your cheeks, and don't apply Under no circumstances should the eyes be lined or the lashes touched for the street, and unless one's brows are very scant or so fair as to be almost invisible, one should not attempt to assist Nature by brush or pencil. Unless one is very skillful, such artifice is easily detected, and if once begun, it must be kept up to avoid a conspicuous difference.

"My advice," said the actress, as she took up a rabbit-foot and hand mirror, to pose for the camera man, is to use no pose for the camera man, is to use no rouge at all, and never to attempt penciling the lashes for the street.

"But if you are going to do it anyway."
she continued, "then in the name of common-sense, and as a concession to Mother iet black coloring of any kind upon taffycolored brows or lashes.

"I have known girls," Miss Kent declared, "to use anything from stove-pol-ish to a burnt match for emphasizing their lashes and brows, and it seems to be a common impression that the proper ma-terials can only be obtained in black. As a matter of fact, the dealers carry pen-cils and the mixtures which are to be applied with a little brush in every concelvable tint, and as to powders and rouges there are a dozen different shades and varieties, each one suitable to only certain complexions. For the ordinary type of woman, however, a little cold cream, well rubbed in and well wiped off again, fol-will produce the best results and soften the face wonderfully. If one is extremely the face wonderfully. If one is extremely 5, sine declares is but a mild hint of pale, a touch of rouge (never of the enamel sort) is permissible, but this should be applied where Nature places her bloom, high up about the cheekbone, and should never be spread in two great artificial patches all over one's cheeks. The selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the control of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of a rouge suitable to the comparison of the selection of plexion, if one would escape detection, is important, too, if one must use it. The rabbit-foot and powdered rouge, by the way, has no place off the stage, and must e banished from the dresser accessories if one wishes a natural effect."

and No. 3 shows the rabbit foot, which she condemns in active operation. In No. 1 she illustrates the long veil and the mournful, widow-like effect which seem to appeal strongly to the stage-struck mall, and which is expressive, Some of the mistakes through which stage-struck girls bring down upon themselves ridicule are illustrated by Miss Kent in the accompanying pictures. The big picture hat, with its clined to talk to him. She insists, it is said, that she will marry no one out of But the present Queen of Norway said the same thing until she found it meant not being married at all.

Miss Kent busy with the evelush brush

KING'S YACHT A FREAK

Admirals Succeed in Building $3,-

LONDON, Jan. 18.-When King Edward's present steam yacht, the Victoria and Albert, was launched it nearly cap-

$3,000,000 to the public, threatens to be an-

000,000 Monstrosity.

sized and had to be largely reconstructed to insure stability. The new 350-ton royal yacht, now being ullt for him on the Clyde at the cost of

A SCENE OF DOUBLE INTEREST

IF YOU WANT TO SEE THE NEWEST IN WEARING APPAREL VISIT THE STYLE STORE

A Word About New Arrivals

A scene of double interest is now represented at our CLOAK and SUIT ROOM. While many take advantage of the Special Clearance Inducements offered on our FALL and WINTER GAR-MENTS. Others are busy inspecting and trying on the Newly Arrived Models.

These garments are examples of the very latest creations of New York and Parisian designers, but style isn't all these beautiful garments have to commend them. They are tailored to the top notch of perfection—the fabrics the latest, the workmanship and trimmings of the best, and in fit they are beyond criticism. Our advance styles range in sizes from 34 to 46 in ladies' sizes-14 to 18 in misses' sizes.

Credit if Desired

You can arrange to pay for your new outfit in small weekly or monthly payments to suit your convenience. No extra charge for credit accommodation.

THE STORE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

WHERE Eastern Outfitting Co. Washington and Tenth Sts.

THE STORE WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

committee of Admirals appointed by admiralty to supervise the construc-

These Admirals have been applying These Admirals have been applying their ideas of cruiser designing to a royal yacht with the result that it promises to be one of the rarest marine monstrositles afloat—if it does float, which is still a matter of speculation.

It has a clipper bow with a round cruiser stern, so it presents a peculiar appearance.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING TODAY

teresting Features Promised for Mass Meeting This Afternoon.

The Y. M. C. A. has been having, since the first of October, a continuous run of interesting Sunday afternoon programmes interesting Sunday afternoon programmes for men. Today promises to be up to the standard. The new pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. M. Monroe, will address the men today on the subject, "C plus C." An excellent musical programme will be furnished by the Second Baptist quartet, consisting of Miss Agness Watt, soprano, Miss Emma Harlow, contraito, C. F. Brace, tenor, and R. R. Adams, bass.

The most famous story in all English

R. R. Adams, bass.

The most famous story in all English literature will be illustrated with a number of stereopticon views. Immediately following the address there will be a number of interesting features. First there will be the discussion group, led by General Manager Stone, which will discuss "the beatitudes" and try to find out whether it is practical today to try to live up to the standard of life that Christ set for us; second—another group will consider the question "Has Christi-Christ set for us; second—another group will consider the question "Has Christianity any Messeage for the Working Man?" For those who are musically inclined there will be a men's chorus rehearsal (the men's chorus is preparing to sing regularly at the men's afternoon gatherings and at other Association functions.) After these features the men come together again for an hour or so of good fellowship. Eating and singof good fellowship. Eating and sing-ing are to be the principal events. All men are cordially invited to be present for the entire afternoon.

Restore Advertising Banners. The Colton, Cal., Chamber of Con merce has requested the Portland Chamber to unite with it and other commercial bodies to have restored the advertising banners which several of the railroads no longer allow to be placed on their cars. The advertising value of these banners is referred to by the Colton correspondent, and the adoption of a banner of uniform size, to be placed on a certain section of the car, is also advocated.

PIANO RECITAL

OSIE BARTLETT EILERS RECITAL HALL' Washington and Park

Tuesday, Jan-28, '08, 8:30 P. M. Admission, 50 Cents,
Tickets on Sale at Graves' Music
Store and at the Door.
Patronesses — Mrs. Edward P.
Geary. Mrs. Hugh H. Herdman,
Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. John
K. Kollock, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs.
Robert Treat Platt, Mrs. F. H.
Rothchild, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

FERD. T. HOPXIMS, Prop., 37 Breat Jones Street, Kow York, Mrs.Ernest Harold Choate

VOCAL STUDIO 394 Salmon St.

Receives Daily, 4:30 to 7:30 P. M.

First Spring Suit Arrivals

"The House of Tone" has just welcomed an advance arrival of 40 beautiful new Spring Suits.

Rajah Panamas, French cassimeres, serges and Panamas in plain and fancy material, in all the dainty Spring colors, vie with one another for preference-all are ex-The Mandarin sleeves are introduced with the most English fly fronts and reefers are particularly charming. Prices, from $28.00 to $48.50.

The Bartholomew Co. THE HOUSE OF TONE 392 WASHINGTON ST.

charming Oriental effect-something different.

Nature, for goodness sake, girls, use such tints as conform to your own complexion. Don't daub carmen, or brilliant scarlet.

PORTLAND SOCIAL NEWS

Howell and wife will make their home Tena M., to H. S. Rudd, in Montavilla, Dr. William H. Heppe take place in the Spring, was the officiating clergyman.

Atkinson-Jackson. A very pretty wedding took place on Ladd's Farm, East Ankeny and Bast Thirty-ninth streets, at noon, Thursday, January 23, when Miss Jessie Maude Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J.

Jackson, was united in marriage to Wal-lace L. Atkinson, of Scattle Wash., by he Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church. Goff-Leitch. At the Grace M. E. Church manse January 20, at 7:30 P. *M., Dr. W. H.

Heppe united in marriage Madison L.

Goff and Miss Margaret Blanche Leitch.

Mr. Goff is a prosperous lumberman of Scattle and the bride one of the city's esteemed young women. They will reside in Scattle.

Knowles-Jenny. On the evening of January 21, Clarence True Wilson, paster of Centenary M. E. Church, united in matri-Knight W. Knowles and Miss Adolphine Jenny, at the bride's residence, 411 East Alder street. Mr. and Mrs. Knowles will reside in this city.

Sloan-Cummings.

Dr. William H. Heppe united in mar riage J. M. Sionn and Miss Lulu Cummings at the Grace M. E. Church manse, Monday evening, January 20, at 8:20 o'clock.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The wedding of Miss Elfrida Heller, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Heller, to Mr. Maurice Weinstein will take place today at 1:30 P. M. at the Synagogue Nevah Zedeck. A reception will follow until 5 P. M. at the family residence, 35 Jackson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hanson announ the engagement of their second daughter, Jennie, to Harrison B. Lancaster, of Spokane, the marriage to take place Feb-

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gram announce the engagement of their daughter,

Learn to dance correctly of Professor Ringler. Class or private lessons daily New term now beginning. COMING EVENTS.

A pleasant homelike time with fine music, a strong practical talk and a cosy social hour will be had at the Young Women's Christian Association this afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock, at the rooms on Sixth and Oak streets. Rev. Henry Marcotte will speak on "God's Preparation for His Loved God's Preparation for His Loved Ones." The following musical programme will be rendered: Piano solo, Miss Ethel Barksdale; vocal solo, Miss Pearl Chandler; selection. Veteran quartet; vocal solo, Miss Elise Just. During the first half hour the Drop-in Bible class will be conducted by Mrs. J. C. Clark, and in the story room Miss Alice Cornwall will tell one of her charming Scotch atories.

The annual officer's hop and send promenade will be given by the cadet officers and senior class of the Hill Military Academy, Friday, February 7, at the Academy armory, and promises to be one of the most brilliant social functions of the season. The cadets are already hard at work devising and plan uling decorations and it is their intention this year to eclipse any affair of the same kind previously given at the Academy. Mrs. A. R. Hill, Mrs. J. W. Hill, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mra J. K. Kollock, Mrs J. W. Ladd and Mrs A. E. Rockey will be the patronesses of the occasion. The invitations will be issued in the very

A concert is to be given at Trinity parish house on Wednesday, January 23, under the auspices of the Trinity choir.

The Friday Night Dancing Club, at Ringler Hall, January 31. Professor Ringler, floor manager, Stilles' orchestra.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Tolman leave to-day for a trip to Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Meredith, of Mrs. Ada G. Wyman, of Lafayette, Salem, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. was here over Monday night, visiting pure powder, in faint flesh-colored tint,

Otto W. Metschan at 607 East Morrison

Dr. C. L. Haynes has returned from Mrs. Ella Shirner, from Collins Wash, was a transient on Thursday. William Travis. Jr., left last week for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts arrived at

Mr and Mrs Graham Dukehart are re congratulations over the arrival

Mr. and Mrs J W Hickman are oc

D. K. Campbell, Jr., of Portland, is a guest at Hotel Dei Coronado, Coro-nado Beach, California. Leo Hartstein, who has been living in Pendleton the past six months, has returned to Portland. E. I. Bartholomew is in New York

Mrs. J. G. Nichols, Miss Carrol Mc-Collom and Miss Edna Alderman joined Mrs. Walter Reed's Tuesday Afternoon Club at the last meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Patterson, who recently removed to Spokane, have tak-en an apartment at the Westminster in that city, for the Winter. Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons left last night for San Francisco, en route to She was accompanied by Mrs. R. W. Emmons, of Seattle,

Mrs. W. M. Sevirsky left last night with the Ad Men's excursion for San Francisco, where she will spend the next 30 days visiting her mother and father.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eastman, of San Francisco, arrived in Portland a few days ago and will spend about eight weeks visiting friends and rela-The Royal Order of Scottish Clans, of Scattle, have engaged Mrs. Walter Reed to sing at its big celebration of Burns' birthday, January 29, at the new Moore Theater. Mrs. J. F. Kerrigan and daughter Lotta have just returned from an extended trip through China and Japan. On their return trip they spent a fort-night in Honolalu where they were ex-tensively entertained by their friends.

At the Women's Union.

Mrs. Mamle Bollman has been here the last week.

her two daughters, the Misses Lulu and Mattie Wyman. Miss Verna Witham is residing here while attending the Ladd school.

Mrs. L. Sargent, of Grave Harbor Miss Cora Gansmiller, who had been on a three weeks' visit to her home, returned on Monday. Miss Kathryn Nicholson, from Kalis-pell, Mont., came on Thursday, and expects to remain for some time.

Miss Eva Davich, from Astoria, was here over Sunday on a visit to the Misses May and Louise Knutsen. Miss Stella Jonsrud, of Barton, came this week, and is making her home here while attending a business college.

WANTS ENGLISH HUSBAND

Princess Patricia of Connaught Is Consumed With Hopeless Passion LONDON, Jan. 18-Princess Patricia of

Connaught is the handsomest member of the English royal family. She is tall, stately, has an elegant figure, deep blue eyes, full of thoughtful-ness, almost melanoholy, and an expres-sion that gives color to the story that she is consumed with a hopeless passion for a young English peer who does not recip-rocate, but prefers the stage door of the theater to the private entrance to the ourt.

If she depended on her parents, Princess Patricia would have what is colloquially called a "rather thin time." Both are extraordinarily close. The Duke is said to be a prey to the mania that possessed George III. his direct ancestor, that he is a pauper. Duke and Duchess are always planning to be entertained and never to give any party in activation.

when they wanted to spend last Winter on the Mediterranean without cost the Duke went there ostensibly as inspector-general of the army to inspect the garri-

Another inspection this year would have been rather too transparent a device, so he got War Secretary Haldane (whose devotion to royalty will land him in trouble before long, and has evoked strong criticism in the radical press) to create for him the new office of Lord High Commissioner to the Mediterranean, with a residence at Malta, and the use of a navy dispatch boat for yaching.

When the King of Spain came to England in search of a bride and was intro-