MISS MAUD HAHN WHOSE ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED TO MR. C. B. LAMONT OF SEATTLE

THE stellar event of the near future will, of course, be the Assemblies, cards for which were sent the subscribers this past week. In past years the Assemblies were the ultra-smart event, and the announcement that two are to be given this year insured a razer season. Unusually elaborate are the plans for the ball which is to be given at the Portland Hotel on Friday evening, February 14. The patronesses include: Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. R. Koehler, Mrs. H. L. Corbett, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. C. P. Beebe, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. W. H. Warren, Mrs. W. C. Alford, Mrs. J. W. Ladd, Mrs. J. C. Almsworth and Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie.

One of the smartest affairs of the year was the dancing party given on Thursday at Marlark Hall by Dr. George F. Wilson and Mrs. Frances Wilson. Strictly speaking, the affair was not a debut, yet it was the first large formal reception given in Miss Wilson's honor, and it was therefore made the occasion for sending flowers galore, which were artistically massed from floor to ceiling and formed a charming foil for the receiving party. Palms and greens were used in profusion. One of the alcoves attractively arranged with Turkish rugs and divans served as a rendezvous during dancing, and here also tables were arranged for bridge. Unusually pretty gowns were in evidence. Miss Wilson was handsome in a shimmering gown of yellow satin cut empire, with a graceful empire in her coiffure, and she carried a shower bouquet of lavender peonies. Miss Virginia Wilson wore a gown of black lace with a bon of turquoise velvet; Mrs. S. B. Linticum, a lovely Empire gown of delicate rose pink satin; Mrs. J. Westler Ladd, an imported ivory tinted satin handsomely embroidered with a cloth of gold and out on the Empire lines. Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond was in black lace dress with chiffon and elaborated with Duchess lace. Mrs. William MacMaster wore a gown of rich lace worn with an antique necklace of pearls; Mrs. Richard Koehler, black chintilly lace over white chiffon, with diamond ornaments; Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, a mauve satin Empire, worn with diamonds and pearls; Mrs. A. A. Morrison, white mottled satin with trimmings of rose point; Miss Caroline Burns, pale blue chiffon but Empire; Miss Marion Jackson, a striking gown of Nile green with a pastel trimming of panne velvet; Miss Carrie Flanders, white lace and an arm bouquet of pink buds; Mrs. W. B. Ayer, a charming shade of pale blue in a soft satin; Miss Inez Barrett, black net gown with a silver cigarette in her coilture; Miss Morris, of Duluth, a pink chiffon Empire worn with antique pearl comb in her coiffure; Miss May Montgomery, a handsome gown of lavender panne velvet; Mrs. Charles Scadding, an embroidered gray silk combined with lace; Mrs. William Muir, yellow satin brocade elaborately trimmed with rose point; Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw, shell pink crepe; Miss Clementine Wilson, white lace with a suggestion of delicate blue velvet; Mrs. Walter V. Smith, a Dresden gown trimmed with splendid old lace and worn with a necklace of pearls; Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, white lace with diamond ornaments; Miss Frances Lewis, a delicate peach pink over chiffon, the corsage trimmed with dusky roses of white satin; Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, a becoming gown of black lace; Mrs. Dorothy Holbrook, white chiffon and an arm bouquet of brilliant red buds.

An engagement which came as a complete surprise was that of Miss Maud Hahn, the second daughter of Mr. Henry Hahn, to Mr. C. B. Lamont, of Seattle. Miss Hahn, who is one of Portland's prominent girls, at one time attended Stanford. Her eldest sister was recently married to Lieutenant Harry Westervelt Gregg, of the Fourteenth Infantry, and is now en route to the Philippines. Mr. Lamont is a Cornell man of the class of '79 and a member of the Phi Gamma Delta society. He is prominent in Seattle society, a civil engineer, and president of the Pacific Engineering Company. The wedding will no doubt be a large affair and is to take place Easter week.

An engagement of interest to many is that of Miss Nancy Perkins, daughter of one of the United States Senators from California, to Cleveland L. Baker, Assistant District Attorney of Tompoh, Nev. Mr. Baker has visited here on numerous occasions when he has enjoyed the hospitality of Stanford men, among whom he is a favorite. Both Miss Perkins and her fiancé are popular socially in San Francisco. The latter has distinguished himself frequently in the various amateur mandolin albums, as he is undeniably gifted musically.

Miss Perkins has spent several winters in Washington, D. C., where she was a belle. Vice-President and Mrs. Fairbanks giving several affairs in her honor. Miss Perkins recently took a trip abroad under the chaperonage of Mrs. Fairbanks.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. C. Alford asked about two innumerable friends of her mother, Mrs. Philip Schuyler, to tea. The occasion was Mrs. Schuyler's seventieth birthday, but the affair was a complete surprise.

As a decoration for the tea table were six miniature cakes bearing the usual number of candles, presiding there were Mrs. W. S. Ladd and Mrs. H. W. Corbett. In the library tea were served by Mrs. Rodney Gilman and Mrs. George Horvath. Other assisting in receiving were Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Mrs. S. G. Wheeler and Miss Henrietta Felling.

Judge and Mrs. William H. Hunt, of Montana, who return to their home next week, were made the honor guests at a dinner on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Zera Snow as hosts. Additional guests were Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Miss Martha Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer and W. D. Wheelwright.

The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Jones has occasioned some informal entertaining. Mrs. Du Mond is a daughter of Mrs. Jones and a sister of Mrs. Samuel M. Meares. This is their first visit since the Lewis and Clark Exposition when Mr. Du Mond arranged and directed the art museum. Mrs. Du Mond is herself a clever artist and it was while studying in New York she met and subsequently married the famous artist.

The interest in Skat grows apace and now the men as well as the matrons and girls are devoting themselves assiduously to its study. It being a comparatively new game, there is a spirit of friendly rivalry among the enthusiasts as to who shall give the initial party; however, several are being planned for the near future.

A pleasant surprise of the week was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Laura Gale Dunne, eldest daughter of Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne, to John Ker, formerly of Natick, Mass. Miss Dunne, who enjoys much popularity, made the announcement at an informal gathering of girls on Thursday at the residence of Mrs. George Willard Brown. As a result of this, Miss Maud Hahn also made known her engagement at the same time. Mr. Ker is a nephew of Governor George Chamberlain. His mother is at present a guest at the Chamberlain residence having come from Mississippi with Mrs. Chamberlain on her recent visit to her native state. Owing to Mrs. Ker's plans to return to her Southern home, the wedding is scheduled for Easter week.

This week Mrs. Richard Nunn will entertain informally in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Scadding. A few matrons are to arrive for bridge at 4 and later the men will join them to dine at 7.

A large bridge party on Wednesday was given by Mrs. Richard Nunn, to which 60 matrons were bidden. The affair was unique owing to the fact that each guest received a prize. For the 15 tables flowers were given as favors with the various colors which indicate the first second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second, thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, fortieth, forty-first, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fourth, forty-fifth, forty-sixth, forty-seventh, forty-eighth, forty-ninth, fiftieth, fifty-first, fifty-second, fifty-third, fifty-fourth, fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth, fifty-seventh, fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth, sixtieth, sixty-first, sixty-second, sixty-third, sixty-fourth, sixty-fifth, sixty-sixth, sixty-seventh, sixty-eighth, sixty-ninth, seventieth, seventy-first, seventy-second, seventy-third, seventy-fourth, seventy-fifth, seventy-sixth, seventy-seventh, seventy-eighth, seventy-ninth, eightieth, eighty-first, eighty-second, eighty-third, eighty-fourth, eighty-fifth, eighty-sixth, eighty-seventh, eighty-eighth, eighty-ninth, ninetieth, ninety-first, ninety-second, ninety-third, ninety-fourth, ninety-fifth, ninety-sixth, ninety-seventh, ninety-eighth, ninety-ninth, one hundredth.

Receiving with Mrs. Nunn was her mother, Mrs. E. B. Trovett, and her sister, Miss Trevett; assisting were Miss Maud Ainsworth, Miss Russell and Miss Clementine Wilson. The invitation list included Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. W. C. Alford, Miss T. B. Bolton, Mrs. W. D. Bolton, Mrs. Walter Burrill, Mrs. Barlett, Mrs. William Brewster, Miss Agnes Catlin, Mrs. Rupert Chipman, Mrs. Corbett, Chamberlain, Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Mrs. R. L. Barnes, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Frank Vincent DuMond, Miss Eleanor Gibb, Miss Henrietta Felling, Miss Carrie Glenn, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. Frank Hart, Miss Martha Hoyt, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Ella Hirsch, Mrs. Morton Insley, Mrs. J. K. Kollock, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. S. B. Linticum, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. T. W. B. London, Mrs. E. C. Meares, Mrs. Clarence Nichols, Mrs. O. Pelgram, Mrs. May Montgomery, Mrs. James McCracken, Mrs. William T. Muir, Mrs. A. C. Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier, their little sons and governess, left last week for Europe. They were accompanied across the continent by Miss Belle Dittendorfer.

General and Mrs. C. F. Beebe were dinner hosts last week, entertaining for Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff, of Minneapolis. The latter will be remembered as Miss Nellie Burdette. The other guests included Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox.

Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot gave a pretty tea on Tuesday afternoon to Mrs. Newman, who arrived recently from the East. The H. C. Campbell residence, which the Talbots are occupying for the winter, was attractively arranged with early spring flowers, and the tea table carried a yellow scheme of color, the centerpieces were capped with pastel shades, and a brass bowl of brilliant cut-foolies formed the centerpiece. Presiding here were Mrs. Robert Lewis and Mrs. John Eben Young. Among the guests who called were Mrs. Morton Insley, Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. John Answorth, Mrs. Gay Lombard, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Miss Caroline Burns, Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., Miss Miriam Strong, Mrs. Wallace McCamant, Mrs. C.
