LARGE ENROLLMENT IN SUNDAY SCHOOL—A feature of the Sunday school in the Second Baptist Church, East Ankeny and East Seventh streets, is that the proportion of young men and young women in the school is much larger than for boys and girls. The average Sunday school has its largest membership in the primary and junior department, but in this school the young people make up half the enrollment. One class of young men enrolls 60 members, and there is a young ladies' class of about the same size. There is a generous rivalry between these classes as to which shall have the largest enrollment. JOKER SEVERELY PUNISHED.—Jack Dunn, a mechanic, laughed most heartily at the Fire Department Friday night, turning in an alarm from an East Side box he caused several companies of firemen to race through the cold to Grand avenue and East Morrison streets. Now the firemen are having their turn at laughing for when Dunn was taken before the Municipal Court yesterday forenoon for trial the court sentenced him to 30 days in the City Jail. Dunn testified that it was only a drunken jest but the court said that this made the offense so much the worse.

BRING DEMOCRATS HERE. President Hodson of the Portland Commercial Club has addressed a letter to James Charlton, chairman of the Trans-Continental Passenger Association now in session at San Diego, requesting that a special rate be given delegates to the Democratic National Convention, to be held in Denver next July, which will enable them to visit Portland and other points in the Pacific Northwest at the conclusion of the session. The letter was written at the suggestion of members of the Commercial Club at a meeting held in the clubhouse Friday night. KILLED BY LOCOMOTIVE.—Donato Katko, a young Russian, was run down and killed by a switch engine in the Northern Pacific terminal yard yesterday forenoon. The engine, passing by on a flying switch, the workman stepped aside to let the engine pass and then returned to his work, not observing that the engine started back and backed up. He was knocked down and fearfully mangled. The body was removed to the morgue.

PROMISE TO IMPROVE GAS.—The Portland Gas Company has promised that it will furnish a better quality of gas for illuminating purposes within 90 days, a communication from Manager H. M. Papp having been received by the Board of Health yesterday morning. Machinery to the value of $30,000, he said, is being installed which will separate the sulphur from the product, which has caused many complaints. SUNDAY SCHOOL PAPER IS OUT.—The Sunday School Optimist is the title of a new eight-page monthly paper published by the Oregon State Sunday School Association. This paper aims to present news and information relative to the Sunday school movement in general and particularly in Oregon. Rev. Charles A. Phipps, fieldworker for the state association is editor.

ACCEPTS CALL TO GRESHAM.—Rev. Thomas J. Elkins, of Portland, has accepted a call to become pastor of the Baptist Church at Gresham. Mr. Elkins and his family will remain in Portland until arrangements can be made for them in their new field. Meanwhile, Mr. Elkins will assume charge of the Gresham Church. WEDDING CAMP, No. 65, W. O. W., invites all Woodmen, and the general public to a series of free entertainments, given by Professor Rasmus, next Friday evening, February 7. Dancing will be included after the performance, in their hall at Eleventh and Washington streets. Dr. H. J. Harris, Consul Commander; A. L. Barbour, clerk.

COMPLETING LIBRARY BUILDING.—The building to be occupied by the East Side Branch Library will be completed and ready for occupancy within a short time. It stands on the corner of East Eleventh and Alder streets. It is a frame building, one-story, 70x30 feet in size, and of rustic design. Though the cost was small the building will be a neat and comfortable structure. It will be well lighted from all sides and heated with a furnace. O. B. Tolison is the contractor. About 2000 books will be kept at this branch and books not in the collection will be supplied from the West Side. For the use of high school students many reference books will be kept. The location is central and convenient to the school houses, and not far from the business center.

WILL VISIT MANY LODGES.—Grand Master Richard Scott has arranged to make the following special visits to Oddfellow lodges during the present month: February 20, Alta Lodge, No. 145; February 21, Adams, No. 74; February 22, Chosen Friends, No. 23; February 23, No. 18; February 25, Elkhorn, No. 106, and Baker City, No. 25; February 26, Ontario, No. 90; February 27, Burnt River, No. 86; February 28, Union, No. 23; February 29, Chosen Friends, No. 190. All these lodges are in Eastern Oregon. Grand Secretary E. E. Sharon expects to accompany Grand Master Scott into Umatilla County, which is his old home.

LAYS OUT CLUB GROUNDS.—Newell & Gossett, engineers and surveyors, who have the contract for laying out the 90-acre tract of the Country Club, near Rose City Park, are at work on the ground, establishing grades and driveways. The tract is being cleared preparatory to the development of the plans for driveways and lawns. It will probably take nearly three months to put the grounds into proper condition. A 12-foot arched roadway will be provided for automobiles and carriages. Construction of the buildings will be begun as soon as the grounds have been prepared.

CANDIDATES FILE NOTICES.—Charles Maulie, East Side constable, has filed his declaration of intention of seeking Republican nomination for reelection to two aspirants for the office of Coroner likewise appeared at the Courthouse yesterday in the persons of E. E. Ericson and C. H. Dammach. Both are Republicans.

COMPLETING BIG FILL.—The fill across Stephen's Slough on the Oregon City branch of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company was practically completed last week. While the work was in progress the Oregon City and Estacada cars went around by way of Hawthorne avenue and Milwaukie street. As we shall occupy our new location at Fifth and Oak streets shortly, our present store is for lease and fixtures for sale. Apply at office 216 Washington street. Kilham Stationery & Ptg. Co.

HAVE FAITH IN PORTLAND

H. Liebes & Co., the Great Fur House, Install Expensive Plant. John P. Plagemann, resident manager for H. Liebes & Co., the largest furhouse in the world, is busy receiving the congratulations of friends and customers of the house on the magnificence of the furnishings and appointments of their permanent location in the Corbett building, Fifth and Morrison streets. No expense has been spared to make the new store and showrooms the best on the Western continent. The woodwork in the show windows and fixtures are solid mahogany, bleeding admirably with the buff tints of the walls and ceiling and polished hardwood floors. A private electric elevator will take the customer to a show room on the second floor, where varied assortment of choice furs and mounted rugs will be displayed. Two large reinforced steel concrete structures will be restored exclusively for customers who may desire at any time to store their furs. It was Mr. Plagemann's desire to make over his store as a place where the high reputation enjoyed by Liebes & Co. and with that end in view he visited the large Eastern cities to search for anything new that could possibly add to the attractiveness of their new home. H. Liebes & Co. have shown by this large outlay of money that the firm has confidence in the continued prosperity of Portland and the Northwest.

CHECK SPREAD OF MUMPS

Dr. Pohl Would Place Victims in Quarantine. City Health Officer Pohl is on the trail of the little microbe that causes mumps and if he has his way, she will check its career by applying the quarantine. She advocates that this disease be placed under the same rules that govern other infectious. In her report to the Board of Health, for the month of January, she says: "This highly infectious disease that has been particularly troublesome this month has been the mumps. This disease is not mentioned among the communicable diseases in our ordinance, although it is doubtful if there is any more communicable. The school attendance has been greatly reduced by this disease during the last few months and in the opinion of experienced teachers—which I concur—the same rules should be applicable to this disease as to all other infectious diseases."

HENEY AT WHITE TEMPLE

Will Speak This Afternoon Under Auspices of Y. M. C. A. This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Francis J. Heney will speak at the Y. M. C. A. on "Citizenship." Miss Ethel Shea is to sing a solo and some 50 prominent citizens have been appointed viceregents of this meeting. The condition of unemployed in Portland will receive some consideration during the meeting. All men are invited.

ONE MORE WEEK

Of Administrator's Sale. Owing to the great success of this sale and the delay in final settlement we have decided to continue the administrator's sale for one more week. This will be welcome news to thousands of Portland women, who recognize the great bargains we are offering. All special prices will hold good until next Saturday night. McAllen & McDonnell, the store noted for best goods at lowest prices.

PORTLAND CHAMBER LEADS

STANDS FIRST IN WORK FOR RIVERS AND HARBORS. Contributes More Than Any Other Commercial Body to Support National Waterways Congress.

That the National Rivers and Harbors Congress is under greater obligation to the Chamber of Commerce than to any other commercial organization or individual in the entire Union, is a statement contained in a letter received yesterday by the local Chamber of Commerce from J. F. Ellison, Secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress. The letter is written by Mr. Ellison in acknowledgment of the Chamber's contribution of $1200 to the expense fund of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Mr. Ellison also expresses his satisfaction with the action of the Oregon Congressional delegation in favoring the rivers and harbors bill. Mr. Ellison's letter is in part as follows: "The Portland Chamber of Commerce has again made its usual liberal contribution and sent it in a time when its need was greatest. You know, without saying, that not only the writer but everyone connected with the working details of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress are under obligations to the Portland Chamber of Commerce than to any other commercial organization or individual in the entire Union. I note therein that you are using every influence in your power to bring about the formation of a river and harbor bill at this session of the Sixty-sixth Congress, and that your members were a unit in favor of same. I am receiving similar communications from widely separated sections of the country, and undoubtedly we will be able to bring a very great pressure upon Congress for the formation and passage of a bill. Whether we will be successful or not I cannot at this time state, but most certainly Congressmen who never gave consideration to river and harbor matters before, are now beginning to realize that there is a great pressure being exerted upon them in favor of same."

A SNAP PURCHASE MADE

The Realty Associates of Portland, Or., Make Exceptionally Fine Buy. This morning negotiations were completed for the purchase of the Bennett block situated at the corner of Morrison and Park streets. It has a frontage of 100 feet on Morrison street, and is improved with a three-story building. The purchase price was $250,000, considered by prominent real estate dealers as being considerably under the market value. They predict it will undoubtedly bring 25 per cent profit in the hands of the new owner, H. R. Reynolds, superintendent of the Realty Associates, in speaking of the purchase, said: "The associates have been negotiating with Mr. Bennett for the purchase of the property for the past week. On Wednesday we received information that the firm of Old, Wortman & King had signed a long-term lease for the property to be erected on the Penneyer block. We knew this would have a tendency to greatly increase real estate values on Morrison street between Sixth and Park. An offer of $300,000 was made by our company on that date and accepted by Mr. Bennett, but owing to some matters which had to be first settled, this transaction was not completed until this morning. The article which appeared in Thursday evening's paper regarding the purchase of the Bennett block by Mr. Burke was entirely without foundation. Mr. Bennett stated to us that he had received several offers since trying the property up with us last Wednesday, which were considerably in excess of the amount which he had agreed to accept from our company. This property was sold last August for $155,000. A deposit of $2500 was paid to Mr. Bennett but owing to the failure of one of the banks here, the sale failed to go through, and the $2500 was forfeited. Mr. Reynolds further stated that unless the property could be sold at a satisfactory profit before the termination of the present lease, which was but a short time to run, the Associates would probably erect a modern skyscraper on the site. Mr. N. W. Rountree, secretary of the Realty Associates, said: "In my opinion, Morrison street will be the city's leading retail thoroughfare. The bridge gives this street a decided advantage over Washington street, and Meler & Frank, Tull & Gibbs, Olds, Wortman & King located there, it will, no doubt, attract other high-class stores. The Bennett property is located in a splendid field of the postoffice, the Portland Hotel and the stores mentioned. This property was purchased at its assessed valuation, and amounts to just $1000 a front foot. Property relatively situated in any other locality on the Pacific Coast would easily bring from $2000 to $4000 a front foot. This is the Associates' third purchase of business property within the past 12 months, the others being the southeast corner of Second and Yamhill, and the Realy building, East Morrison and Grand avenues. The other executives of the Associates—R. D. Inman, president; Governor George E. Chamberlain, 1st vice-president; and Dr. Andrew C. Smith, treasurer—were interviewed on the subject, expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the purchase. The Realty Associates, of Portland, Oregon, make a specialty of buying, managing and selling business real estate. Their intention is to invest several millions of dollars in business real estate within the next few years. A deal of this capital will be brought from the Middle West and Eastern states. Portland certainly offers a splendid field for this class of investment."

END OF SILK-FRAUD CASE

Indictment Against Ex-Customs Official Is Dismissed. NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The once famous silk fraud cases had their end yesterday, when Judge Holt, in the United States Circuit Court, dismissed an indictment returned five years ago against John C. Brown, a former customs silk examiner, in which he was charged with having been criminally negligent of his duties as a customs official. Dismissal of the indictment leaves a peculiarly peculiar case. Brown had previously been tried on charges of having conspired to defraud the Government by passing entries of Japanese silk to underwriters to avoid the per-pound duty. He was found guilty and when sentenced to serve a term in Sing Sing fled to Canada, forfeiting a bond of $2000. He was arrested in Montreal, but his lawyers successfully fought extradition by the novel defense that the crime of which he was convicted, that of defrauding the Government through the internal revenue laws, was not one of the extraditable felonies mentioned in the treaty with Great Britain. Special Attorney-General W. Wickham then secured custody of Brown upon the plea that there was still an untried indictment against Brown in New York. Two weeks ago Brown was tried on this indictment, but the jury disagreed and now, owing to the technical character of the proof, Brown's lawyers have succeded in having the judgment dismissed. This brings up the peculiar situation, as Brown must now return to Canada to avoid serving his sentence on the previous conviction, and the law allows him "a reasonable" time to do so. Brown is reported to have already departed for this haven of refuge.
