

Lipman-Wolfe's February Trade Sales

Great Annual Sale of Lace Trial Strips—17,000 Yards at Half Price

It is a commonly recognized fact that, as trial strips are the first pieces from the loom, extra care is taken with them. In fact, they are much more carefully woven than the regular goods. For this reason they are much sought for by all good stores, and greatly favored, indeed, is the one who secures them. Our European representative fortunately purchased no less than 17,000 yards of high-grade trial strips—the entire accumulation of two of the best foreign lace makers at less than half usual prices. On sale Monday morning.

Appliques, motifs, medallions, festoons, edges, bands, insertions, allovers, in Net, Venice, Filet, Baby Irish, Valenciennes, Net Top and other laces of every description. Divided into four lots, as follows:

25c Yard for Laces, Vals. to 75c
49c Yard for Laces, Vals. to $1.50

98c Yard for Laces, Vals. to $2.50
$1.98 Yd. for Laces, Vals. to $4.00

The season's newest and most desirable designs are fully represented. Laces will be greatly in evidence again this year for all purposes; the demand will probably exceed the supply.

New Goods in Every Department

Beau Brummel Lingerie Waists—the fad of New York and Paris. A new express shipment of the extremely popular "Papillon" Waists—one of the swiftest novelties for Spring, 1908.

New Tailored Suits for Spring, 1908, of Rajah Panama and Rajah silks. Also Jumper Suits of Rajah silks with the new butterfly sleeves.

Prettiest Valentines in Portland for pretty sweethearts. Also gift books for Valentines in Book Department—such as Riley's "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," "Love Songs, Old and New," etc., each with a ribbon, bearing the inscription, "To My Valentine."

Paris-American Model Suits for Spring, 1908, made by a New Yorker who spends most of his time and gets all his inspiration among French things. What Paquin thinks will be good in sleeves, what Francis has decreed in skirts—you will see in these suits. The prices are $50 to $75—not extravagant for finely tailored and exclusive novelty suits.

Beautiful new embroideries from France—many exquisitely hand-embroidered by the patient fingers of French needlewomen.

Exclusive showing of the swell new "College Widow" Belts—the novelty of the season. Also the smart "Captain Jinks" Belts.
