STARS TAKE GAME

Beat Columbias One Goal in Hard Contest.

THE SCORE IS 6 TO 5

Columbia Defense Weakens in Last Half, While All-Star Forwards Bang Ball Through Just Enough to Win.

All-Stars 6, Columbias 5.

For the first time this season the Columbia Association football team, of the City league, tasted defeat, when yesterday afternoon an All-Star combination, taken from the Hornets, the Crescents and the Albina Thistles, nosed out a victory in a beautiful game of soccer. Play was on the whirlwind order throughout and it looked like a hands-down victory for the league champions until 20 minutes before the finish. Then their defense seemed to weaken in spots and the All-Star forward line, quick to take advantage of it, pumped through goal after goal, till the one necessary to win was banged into the net by Andrew Matthew.

The match was naturally the most spectacular of the season. The Columbia forward line, probably the five best combining forwards in the city, were at their best. So much stronger than usual, however, was the defense they went up against that five goals were the limit of their powers. Taking the game from end to end, they were superior to the All-Star forwards; the latter won the game because their defense in the last half did superior work.

The Columbias opened brilliantly. There was gloomy silence among the 250 spectators while they watched Burns, Dick and Stevenson get a goal each, for the Columbias are not favorites in local soccer circles. At half time the score was 3 to 0, and the All-Star backers concluded their coin was lost. Then the All-Star forwards commenced rushing things and excellent centers from the left wing enabled Harry Matthew to score twice. The Columbias, Dick making a sizzling shot, turned the score to 4 to 2. Kilpack scored with a fine cross shot, giving Pattullo no chance. Score, 4 to 3. With each All-Star goal, the spectators shouted themselves hoarse, gingering that aggregation to its best efforts. Tait then climbed over McNicholas, the All-Star goalkeeper, injuring him slightly and getting a goal besides. Score, 5 to 3. Then in little more than as many minutes, Harry Matthew poked past two more and the sixth and winning tally was secured when Andrew Matthew hammered back a ball that Patullo had just knocked out. Score, 5 to 6.

The whole All-Star defense played well. Rylance and Jago, at fullback, were particularly clever. John Dickson, at center half, was back in oldtime form, to the delight of his many friends. The Matthews were the pick of the forward line.

The Columbia forwards were uniformly good. Short was strong throughout at fullback. Young, who appeared in a Columbia uniform for the first time this year, was a bulwark in the first half.

Mountz, referee, used the rules in existence before the present London, Eng., code was generally adopted, as a result of which he allowed to go unpenalized many plays that local players have been used to having called fouls. This caused some confusion. Mountz, however, is a good and popular referee.

PLAY BASKETBALL ON SKATES

Hill Academy Defeated by West Side High School.

A large crowd witnessed an exciting game of basketball played on roller skates last night at the Exposition Rink, between teams representing the Hill Military Academy and the West Side High School in which the latter team was victorious. The score was 10 to 6.

Both teams displayed considerable skill at the game, and the reckless manner in which the youngsters covered the floor on skates was thrilling. This game is one of a series that is to be played at the Exposition Rink. Next week will witness similar games between the Multnomah Club five and the Y. M. C. A. and in all probability a return game will be played between the two teams of last night's contest.

Captain Hincks, Houston and Ben Hill played well for the cadets, while the stars for the High School were Davis, McGuire and Chapman. The teams lined-up as follows:

Hill Military.	Position.	High School.
Hincks (c)	Forward	Kiggins
Hughes	Forward	McGuire
B. Hill	Center	Jamison
Houston	Guard	(c) Chapman
Walker	Guard	Davis

Play Finals Wednesday Night.

The finals in the handball tournament at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, which were to have been played last night, have been postponed to next Wednesday night. The contest has narrowed down to two players, Sam Holbrook and Dick Jones, who will compete for the medal on the night mentioned. Both men are star players and the meeting between them should prove highly interesting.

Winlock Defeats Centralia.

WINLOCK, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special.—The Winlock Amateur Athletic Club won at basketball from Centralia High School tonight by a score of 14 to 13. This is the second consecutive game won from Centralia.

Two Officers Seek Re-election.

Lou Wagner, West Side Constable, filed his declaration of intention to seek the Republican nomination for re-election at the coming primaries. "Perform all the duties of my office without fear or favor" is his announced policy.

Fred L. Olson filed declaration of intention to seek the Republican nomination for re-election as Justice of the Peace, Multnomah County. "Justice to friends and enemies alike" is the way he sums up his official virtues.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A disturbance of large area, but of no great energy, is central off the North California coast. It will move slowly eastward and cause general precipitation in this district Sunday. The rainfall will be heaviest in Southern Oregon and rather light and scattering in Washington and Idaho. Nearly normal temperatures prevail throughout the district and the changes since yesterday have been small and unimportant.

FORECASTS.

For the 28 hours ending midnight, Feb. 9: Portland and vicinity—Rain; easterly winds. Western Oregon and Western Washington—Rain; easterly winds.

Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho—Rain or snow.

SPRING BARGAINS

According to our office record we have had just twice as many inquiries for real estate so far during this month as we had during the whole of February last year.

That looks encouraging, don't it?

Residences

$5,500—Handsome, modern and comfortable family residence on 19th st.
19th st. is one of the best built-up residence streets on the West Side.

$7,000—We'll sell this elegant residence of 8 rooms, with stone foundation and all modern improvements, on the installment plan.
Located in the fashionable part of 24th st.

$6,500—On 5th st., about 15 minutes' walk south from this office, beyond Jefferson; almost new, modern house of 8 rooms.
Handy to town and tastily built.

$7,500—In the best built and most fashionable section of Wasco st., with a quarter block of ground, and a new, modern and stylish residence of 8 rooms.

$12,500—If you want something real swell, with every modern convenience in its 9 rooms, including decorated walls; patent hot-water system and everything that goes to make an elegant home, you want to let us show you this house.

BUSINESS PROPERTY.

$6,000—Site for flats on 11th st., this side of Jefferson. Judging from what is asked for surrounding property, this site is worth fully $8000 or $9000.
Some income on it now.

$11,000—Fractional lot, with fine 2-story brick building, in the business district, about 5 minutes' walk from this office.
Price just ½ what adjoining property is held at.

$12,000—8 fine, new flats on Water st., 5 rooms each, baths, gas, cement front and sidewalks, and, best of all, an income of $1460 yearly.
