

kindergarten, representing as she did the viewpoint of the mother.

One of the pleasant gatherings of the mid-winter season was held at the home of Claire Blaker, 414 West Ninth street, Vancouver, Wash. The occasion was a party given by the Y. C. A. for girls. The rooms were gaily decorated in blue and white, the club colors. The electric lights were shaded in blue, crepe paper was suspended from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms. The social festivities were interspersed with music and dancing. The reception committee consisted of the Misses Marcel Hilstrom, Claire Blaker and Zillah Crawford. The refreshment committee was composed of the Misses Freda Bler, Fanny Stanton and Mary Palmer. The club members are the Misses Mabel Hilstrom, Freda Bler, Floy Darnell, Fanny Stanton, Violet Lee, of Portland; Mary Palmer, Claire Blaker, Frances Stanton, Zillah Crawford, Hania Mayer, of Portland; Ruth McGoldrick, Grace Stucker, of St. John; Nellie Preble, Portland; Magd Lee, Portland, and Norma Sparks. The invited guests were Carolyn Johnston, Pierson Randall, Dexter Smith, Paul Darnell, Harry Miller, Roy Weston, Henry Trombley, Sidney Khorle, Stewart, Robert K. Hayner, Jr. The Moore, Reine Sparks, Wendell Phillips, George Sutherland, Walter Stanton, John McTary, Roy Fletcher and Basil Thompson.

The regular February meeting of the Women's Press Club of Oregon occurred Monday evening, February 3, at 41 Seiling-Hirsch building, the Woman's Tribune headquarters. The club members greeted a very interesting programme. The feature of the evening was a discussion, Miss Anne Shannon Monroe leading with a paper entitled, "A Defense of Present-Day Literature." H. H. Bushnell, editor of the Tradesman, followed with "A Flea for Fewer and Better Writers." The discussion was open for the remainder of the evening. Every one present adding to the fire of comment pro and con. Mr. Bushnell most ably answered Miss Monroe's arguments, and, all together, while perhaps no definite decision was arrived at for the future of literature, a most enjoyable evening was added to the club's record. Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby hospitably served refreshments.

The meeting of the Porthomah Study Club, Wednesday afternoon, was made most interesting by a talk on kindergarten work by Miss Mathews of Helen's Hall. Miss Mathews, in addition to being a most entertaining speaker, is in love with her work, consequently her presentation to the hearers, Miss Mathews, with a wide experience in this work and conscious of the still greater field it is fitted to occupy, hopes to have a home established in some way—the establishment of kindergartens in the public schools of Portland. This is in keeping with the spirit of progress of the club. The club enthusiastically endorsed the suggestion.

The current events department of the club will meet February 12 with Mrs. Culpin, 11 East Thirtieth street.

An old-fashioned surprise party given Mrs. J. L. McLoughlin by her friends at the home of Mrs. M. A. Butler, 283 East Burnside street, last Saturday night, was an enjoyable affair. Five hundred was played during the early part of the evening, followed by favorite selections by Mrs. McLoughlin, who is an accomplished pianist, and vocal solos by Miss Ethel Gray. Mrs. McLoughlin will leave soon to join her husband, who has gone into business at Seattle. During her brief residence here she has endeared herself to her friends by her many sterling qualities. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyer, Mrs. William Conover, Mr. and Mrs. William Hargrath, Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. M. A. Butler, Mrs. J. L. McLoughlin, Miss Ethel Gray, Miss Ella Butler, Mr. Kenneth and Mr. Cleland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kenworthy celebrated their crystal wedding Thursday, February 28. The early part of the evening was spent in playing five hundred, after which the guests repaired to the dining-room, which was decorated in red, gold and white, where a sumptuous repast was served. Oregon grapes were used in the drawing-room and parlors. The reception hall was a bower of green. Mrs. Kenworthy, assisted by Mrs. Coleman, received the guests. A. H. Kenworthy first prize. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Kerr, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Banks, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wood.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club spent a delightful afternoon in the study of Shelley at the residence of Mrs. George Boynton. The following programme was given by Mrs. Jackson: Dowden's Life of Shelley; Mrs. Glime; Comparative Study of Wordsworth, Keats and Shelley; Mrs. C. Croyster; Browning's Impressions of Shelley; Mrs. Frank Miles; Shelley's Letters to Thomas Peacock; Mrs. A. A. Farber; Greek Spirit in Shelley; Mrs. Fugh; Mrs. Grace Watt Ross read a number of selections from Shelley in pleasing style. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Grace Watt Ross and Miss Miller, of Lebanon, were guests of the club. The club will meet with Mrs. A. B. Manley, 662 Williams avenue, February 11.

The Wednesday Evening Five Hundred Club gave a most enjoyable progressive dinner party last week. The first three courses were taken at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mendonca, Mr. and Mrs. George Sillitter and Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith. The final course was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare, where the dining-room was beautifully decorated with violets, after which toasts were given. The gentlemen, who received some delicate tributes by Mrs. Yates, were followed by Mrs. Hare, who responded to the subject, "The Ladies." The president, J. N. Brown, responded to "The Club," and gave a much-needed history of the three years of the club's life.

The February '99 class of the East Portland High School, entertained in honor of the February '98, at Ringler's Hall, Saturday evening, February 1. The hall was appropriately decorated with pennants and streamers. A most pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The patronesses were Mrs. H. H. Herdman, Miss Cora E. Paltee, Mrs. J. E. Werlein and Mrs. C. E. Phelps. The class of Alvin K. Bradford, president; Goldie Grisson, vice-president; Margaret Thomas, secretary; Max Sommers, treasurer; Elizabeth Lewis, sergeant-at-arms; Waldo S. Miller, editor; Roy Hatfield, Ruth Owens, George Mallet, Marguerite Mathiot.

A Mendocino afternoon was given at the First Congregational Church Wednesday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid. A short sketch of Mendocino's life was read by Miss Elizabeth Johnson; vocal solos by Miss Carrie F. Spaulding and violinists by Miss Cornelia Barker; accompanists, Miss Johnson and Miss Aida Broughton. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Harding, Himes, Hutchinson, Hare, Hodgson, Hudson, Jenkin and Jackson. Miss Spaulding, formerly of Baker City, attracted much favorable attention by her singing. She has recently returned from two years' study in Berlin.

Master Curtis Hoare entertained 12 of his little friends Saturday, January 25, at his home, 229 Pettygrove street, it being his ninth birthday. Miss Julia Hoare received and Mrs. Bertha Adkins presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Hazel Manning and Carrie Fors, a rendered several piano selections. Those entertained were the Misses Bessie Land, Hazel Manning, Ruth Fors, Carrie Fors, Julia Hoare, Masters George Norvak, Walter Norvak, Sigmond Norvak, Felix Fors, Harry Land, Arthur Adkins.

A very enjoyable entertainment and dance was given Sunday evening, February 2, at the Auditorium Hall, by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Basg Israel Society. Among the musical numbers was a pretty little song by Miss Minerva Holman, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. Holman. A few words by M. G. Greenberg and songs by Miss E. Abrams and Charles Greenberg, also a recital by Miss H. E. did make a very interesting programme. Those on the social committee were Mrs. F. Blank and Mrs. E. Holman.

The Mizpah Social Club met with Mrs. Chursky at 283 Marshall avenue, Thursday, February 6. Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Hayner, Jr., each gave a short reading. Wilson and Mrs. Hayner, Jr. were passed to each to be matched to find partners for luncheon, which was served at 4 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Hayner, Jr. The new members were Miss Hawes and Mrs. Howell, of Estacada. The club will hold its next meeting March 5 at Mrs. Smith's, 266 East Gilliam.

Tuesday, February 4, Mrs. A. T. Cotton, of Laurewood, entertained Laurewood Hive, officers and guard team, at her home in Laurewood. At 10 o'clock 22 tables sat down to luncheon. The tables were decorated with pink carnations. A very dainty lunch was served by the hostess and her daughter, Mrs. Marshall, of Portland, and Mrs. Norris, also of Portland. Mrs. Norris received the first prize at whist and Mrs. Porger the second. Mrs. Stocomb received the consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Johnson, at their home on Portland Heights, on January 21, celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding. Present were Rev. and Mrs. William H. Heppie, Mr. and Mrs. John Corlisk, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nottingham, Mrs. Annie Farley, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Stella Fording, Miss Margaret Sutherland. Miss Sutherland and Miss Fording entertained the gathering with songs.

The S. F. H. Club met at the home of Mrs. R. W. Benjamin Wednesday, February 5. After a very enjoyable afternoon of refreshments were served. Mrs. C. F. Frazer won first prize and Mrs. J. B. Both the second. The members present were: Mrs. W. W. Christie, Mrs. R. W. Benjamin and Mrs. C. D. Love, Mrs. C. F. Frazer, Mrs. J. B. Both, Mrs. W. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Walter Webster, Mrs. W. A. Gill, Mrs. E. W. Ammer.

"The Nature of Love" was the subject under discussion by the Portland Fellowship Circle last Sunday. Dr. Mary A. Thompson, first woman physician in Oregon, was given the opportunity to address the circle in commemoration of her 83d birthday. Dr. Thompson presented her version of the subject as "Love the conquering power when we forget the lower self and cling to the higher."

About a hundred and twenty-five couples enjoyed a most pleasant time at the dancing party given by the O. E. S. Girls at Woodmen's hall, last Monday evening. Excellent music was furnished by Stiles' orchestra of seven pieces. The patronesses were: Mrs. W. J. Pullam, Mrs. E. P. Hitchcock, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. A. L. Runney and Mrs. L. Henry. The club is making preparations to give another party on Monday evening, March 2.

Mrs. Betty Lutz entertained with a very pretty luncheon on Monday at the Alexandra Court in honor of Mrs. Maurice Block, of Salt Lake City. Covers were laid for 12. Friends of Mrs. Block, Mrs. M. Lovinson, Mrs. Leon Rosenblatt, Mrs. M. Baruh, Mrs. J. Durkheimer, Miss Rae Harris, Mrs. James S. Freedman, Mrs. Sol Hart, Mrs. Mack L. Levey, Mrs. Leopold Samuel, Mrs. David Germaus.

The Portia Club met at the home of Mrs. L. B. Reeder on Tuesday, January 28. Five hundred was the game of the afternoon and prizes were won by Mrs. B. E. Haney and Mrs. George F. Brice, after which delicious refreshments were served. The club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. H. C. Baker, Twentieth and Hancock streets, on Tuesday, February 11.

The musical department of the Women's Club gives a programme day the first Thursday in each month. The programme last week, arranged by Mrs. Emily Hampson and Mrs. J. C. Bryant, was much enjoyed by all present, who expressed themselves as being more than pleased with the excellent work being done by the club this year.

The Valentine party and dance given by the Daughters of Erin, last Monday night, in the W. O. W. Hall, on Eleventh street, was most successful. The hall was decorated with Oregon grapevines and Valentine hearts and in the center of the hall hung a large silk American flag and silk flag of Erin. Prasp's Orchestra furnished the music.

The Friday Night Club will give a special St. Valentine's party on February 14, at Ringler Hall. The committee consists of Messrs. M. M. Ringler, H. A. Stiles, L. Thompson, C. Thompson and J. M. Reig. Patronesses are Mrs. M. M. Ringler, Mrs. H. A. Stiles, Mrs. E. J. Miller and Mrs. A. Woelin. Stiles' Orchestra will play.

The Philathia Club of the East Forty-fifth-street Baptist Church, met at the home of Clara Bushnell, 1255 East Madison street, on Friday afternoon. The club presented Miss Hattie Henwood with a gift of remembrance as she leaves soon for Spokane. Miss Bushnell served refreshments.

The Hi-yu-wa-wa Five Hundred Club was entertained last Tuesday evening by Miss Rachael Hallingby and sisters, at their home, East Twenty-fourth and Thurman streets. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The prizes were won by Mrs. H. B. Witter and Fred Wilhelm.

Mrs. H. Gordon Stratton, who has been visiting for two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stiles, 327 Gantenbein avenue, returned Monday to her home in Coquille. Mrs. Stratton has been extensively entertained by her friends during her stay.

An exhibition of students' work in oil, pastel, charcoal and water-color, was opened yesterday at the studio of Mrs. Lillian Housell, room 49, Seiling-Hirsch building. The display, which will be continued all this week, is more than creditable.

Mrs. M. E. Worrell entertained at luncheon Thursday afternoon in Hotel Lennox Grill. Covers were laid for seven.

Master Ralph Jenning celebrated his 8th birthday last Monday with a party at his home on Tenth and Wasco streets.

Miss Margaret Porter, of La Grande, Or., was united in marriage to W. A. Black, of this city. The Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of the Third Presbyterian Church, officiated. The ceremony took place before an altar of green intermingled with pink and white carnations, canopied with a lover's knot of pink and white ribbon, the scheme of the bridal parlor being pink and white. Miss Bertha Walsinger, of La Grande, Or., and Miss Laura May, of this city, acted as bridesmaids. The bride was attired in a lovely gown of white and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The groom was attended by Harold Bain, of this city, who acted as best man. The ceremony was performed in the presence of intimate friends, after which the wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Black will make their home at 280 East Burnside street.

Floyd Zim Baldwin and Miss Luella Glenn, of Klamath Falls, Or., surprised their friends by bowing to the little Cupid's darts last Monday, when they were united in marriage in a ceremony of only a few intimate friends and near relatives at the residence of Judge George T. Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin is a native of this county, recently engaged in business, and is one of the leading boosters of the group of Klamath citizens who have been prominent in advertising this section by personal work. Mrs. Baldwin is the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Leonard, and was graduated from the Klamath County High School last year, after having gained distinction for her scholastic attainments both here and in the Willamette Valley, where she resided previous to coming to Klamath Falls. Apartments had been furnished in the Baldwin block for Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin.

Charles I. Roberts, senior member of the firm of Roberts & Hanka, of Klamath Falls, Or., and Miss Charles White, daughter of George W. White, president of the First National Bank of that city, were the principals in a beautiful home wedding at the residence of the bride's parents, which tended only by near relatives of the contracting parties. Notwithstanding the preparations made for this occasion, in which California and Oregon florists were called upon to assist in the decoration, knowledge of the event was kept from friends of the young people until the last moment, and came as a surprise in social circles.

Last Sunday morning, at the altar of Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. Clarence True Wilson united in matrimony George M. Wyatt and Miss Lona D. Jones, both of Portland, Or. The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock.

Lewis Swartz and Miss Caroline Bauer, both of this city, were quietly married Monday afternoon, February 6, in the reception room of the White Temple by Dr. Brougher. Only a few intimate friends were present.

Miss Fannie Rosenthal, of New York, and A. Weinberg, of Portland, were married Sunday, February 2, in New York City. Mr. and Mrs. Weinberg returned yesterday and will take up their residence at 266 Columbia.

Owens L. Wolford and Miss Ethel Smith, both of Salem, Or., were married at the residence of R. K. Payne, 231 Tenth street, Wednesday afternoon, February 5. Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating.

Robert Addison and Miss Frances Clymer, both of Salem, Or., were married in the reception room of the White Temple, Wednesday afternoon, February 5, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

Miss Adolphine K. Jenny and Wight W. Knowles were married January 21 at 411 East Alder street by Dr. Clarence True Wilson.

The wedding of Miss Julia Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reid, to Frank Bates will take place Friday, February 14, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Weinstein (the latter nee Heller) will be at home Sunday afternoon from 2 till 5 at 70 1/2 Hoyt street.

Sida de la Mer, Cateress, Main 474.

How often our mind turns back to the days of our childhood, when mother held us in her arms and sung us to sleep, with the many old-time rhymes and simple songs of by-gone days. The Ladies' Guild of St. Mark's Church has arranged for a children's song recital by Mrs. May Dearborne-Schwab, assisted by Mrs. Warren Thomas, accompanist, on Thursday evening, February 29. The entertainment will be given at Elber's recital hall, and will consist of a choice selection of children's songs, nursery rhymes and many old lullabies seldom heard nowadays. All are set to music of a character that will appeal to both old and young, and the entertainment will prove one well worth attending. Tickets can be obtained from any member of the Guild or at Woodard Clarke's.

This next Sunday afternoon promises to be an especially attractive time at the Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Frances Gage, the Northwest secretary, will talk on her college, the subject being "The Girl in Cap and Gown." Miss Gage is a cheerful speaker and her subject is one to engage her best efforts. There is to be the following musical programme: Piano solo, Miss Greenwald; contralto solo, Miss Helen Copeland; flute solo, Miss Inez Bushnell.

Miss Martha Case was a visitor on Thursday.

Mrs. George Cornwall, of Piedmont, was guest at lunch yesterday.

Miss Alice Meehan, of Hillsboro, registered on Tuesday and will make her home here.

Miss Alice Landes, of Albany, came early in the week and expects to stay for some time.

Miss Caroline Burch from Rickreall came on Wednesday, and will probably be here several weeks.

At the Women's Union.

Miss George Cornwall, of Piedmont, was guest at lunch yesterday.

The A. S. Club will give its second dramatic entertainment next Wednesday evening, February 12, at Arion Hall, Second and Oak streets, followed by dancing, with music by Parsons. The members of the club who will take part in the comedy are Misses Jennie Rices, Evelyn Bauer, Caroline Schilt and Marion Feldman; Messrs. Leo Krause, Nissim Abrahamson, Emmanuel Kraut, Jack Feldman, Abel Levy and Maurice Taylor. As in the first entertainment when "Captain Racket" was given, Dr. William Rices is directing.

The Art Department of the Woman's Club will meet Tuesday at 2 P. M. in the art room of the Public Library. Subject: Color, tone, harmony, illustrated from Venetian, Dutch and French schools. Mrs. Webster will give an example of "How to Study Pictures" by giving the class the meaning of Carot's "Morning." The psychology department will meet at the close of the art class at 2:30 o'clock. Yoga's Philosophy will be continued and the reading will be from Dr. Lindsay's New Book.

The St. Lawrence Social Club will hold their regular card social at the assembly hall, corner Third and Sherman streets, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Progressive whist and five hundred will be played, followed by refreshments and dancing. Prizes will be given to those making the highest scores. All are invited.

A meeting of the Arts and Crafts Society is to be held Tuesday evening at the Art Museum, to which all are invited. A paper is to be read on the work of Mr. J. W. Wisner, and to be followed by a general discussion. An exhibition of the students' handiwork is to be shown.

Invitations have been issued for a Valentine party, which will be given by the Gazette Club in Ringler Hall, Grand avenue and East Morrison streets, on Thursday, February 12.

Invitations are out for a Valentine party to be given by the Misses McBride, 528 East Madison street, February 14, in honor of the H. C.

The E. S. A. C. girls have sent out cards for a character dancing party to be given Monday evening, February 18, at Ringler's Hall.

The Current Literature department of the Women's Club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. Bert M. Denison, 22 1/2 Sixth street.

The Bunker Hill Club is to give a party on Thursday, February 20, at the East Side Woodmen's Hall.

Mrs. A. S. Rosenthal will be at home the second Wednesday of each month at 609 Marshall street.

Mrs. E. J. Long, of New York, is on a visit to her brother, A. G. Ryan, of Pin Grove Farm, Powell's Valley.

Mrs. Walter G. Smith has taken apartments at Hotel De Coronado for a February visit at Coronado Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stone have returned from San Francisco and have taken apartments at the Alexander Tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kahn, of this city, sailed from New York on the Lusitania yesterday. The trip abroad is for Mrs. Kahn's health.

Miss Juanita Mae Miller, daughter of Senator M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, is in the city visiting at the home of Frank M. Minnie Hays street.

Miss Minnie Hays, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Denver, Colo., and Southern California for the last four months, has returned home.

Miss Minnie Hays, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Denver, Colo., and Southern California for the last four months, has returned home.

J. Clyde Cumming first rate clerk for the O. R. & N. and Southern Pacific, has gone to St. Paul to attend a railroad meeting, expecting to be gone about three weeks.

Willard R. Moore, of New York, whose art crafts exhibit at the Exposition is so well remembered by Portland people, will exhibit an exhibition of his work in hand-wrought silver in individual designs. In Portland the latter part of the month and the dates and place will be announced later in The Oregonian.

Mrs. Joseph Wood, well known in social and club circles in Milwaukee, Wis., is a guest of Miss Daniels, 166 North Twenty-second street. Mr. and Mrs. Wood were residents of Portland about 10 years ago, and at the time of Mr. Wood's death last July he was honorary Commissioner of Immigration for Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis P. Sargent, after a honeymoon spent at Del Monte, Cal., have returned and are now dwelling in their attractive new home in Irvington.

The bride was formerly Miss Eliza Harrison, of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Sargent will be at home after February 15 at East Twenty-fourth and Schuyler.

Miss Martha Case was a visitor on Thursday.

Mrs. George Cornwall, of Piedmont, was guest at lunch yesterday.

Miss Alice Meehan, of Hillsboro, registered on Tuesday and will make her home here.

Miss Alice Landes, of Albany, came early in the week and expects to stay for some time.

Advertisement for Silverfield's THE FASHION CENTER 4th and Morrison. Features: OUR INITIAL SHOWING OF Advance Spring Styles. Text: The woman of taste, she who desires to be well gowned, and who at the same time is wishful of exercising a due regard for economy, will make time this week to visit SILVERFIELD'S READY-TO-WEAR SUIT DEPARTMENT. The advance showing of SPRING SUITS just received, some of which may be found on exhibition in our corner windows, are again showing the DISTINCTION, the EXCLUSIVENESS and the ORIGINALITY THAT HAVE ALWAYS BEEN A CHARACTERISTIC OF THIS STORE. YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO VISIT OUR STORE AS OFTEN AS POSSIBLE AND ROAM AT LEISURE THROUGHOUT THE DEPARTMENTS, WHETHER BUYING OR NOT.

Early Spring Millinery. We have just placed on exhibition our first shipments of our stock of new Spring millinery, and cordially invite all to examine the various styles shown in our millinery department, which will be constantly added to by daily shipments from the East. First Floor.

Our First 1908 Shirtwaists. Are strongly featured by exclusive styles. The great variety, ranging from the simple tucked waist to the most elaborate trimmed French hand-made or American designs, permits of the widest possible opportunity for selection.

Factory Sale of Furs Still Continues. The odds and ends from our factory, consisting of uncalled-for orders and samples of Neckpieces, Ties and Muffs, in all desirable furs, FOR LESS THAN HALF PRICE for a few days. We are the largest fur manufacturers in the West, and the biggest buyers of raw furs. Highest cash prices for raw furs. Send for our price list. Now is the time to have your furs remodeled and repaired at reduced prices.

Advertisement for Electric Toaster. YOUR OPPORTUNITY. We are going to enlarge and need the room to work; goods must go to save breakage. HAND-PAINTED CHINA, CUT GLASS CROCKERY, GLASSWARE ART WARE, PLATED WARE, JARDINIERS ETC. LESS THAN FACTORY COST 25 to 100 PER CENT SAVED. SEE OUR WINDOW Elite China Shop 352 Morrison, Near Park. Quality and Price.

Advertisement for Spring Suits. Every Suit shown in this store was carefully selected, as though to fill a particular order, from the most beautiful New York models. Only the most modern fabrics and artistic styles are to be seen at "THE HOUSE OF TONE." Elegant Mannish Tailored Suits of serge, rajah, panama, casimere, hopsacking, etc. Many effectively trimmed in buttons and silk braid, cut reefer or with the English fly front (see illustration), in black, blue, brown and fancy light, medium and dark stripes, also shepherd checks, with kimono or butterfly sleeves. Prices $22.50 to $55.00. The Bartholomew Co. "THE HOUSE OF TONE," 392 WASHINGTON STREET

Advertisement for Electric Heating and Cooking Devices. Electric Heating Pads, Electric Flatirons, Electric Coffee Percolators, Electric Chafing Dishes, Electric Radiators, Baby Milk Warmers, Domestic Electric Motors. On Sale at the Company's Supply Department, 147-149 7th St. Call Telephones Main 6688, A5517 for information. Portland Railway, Light & Power Co.