BUYS PARTNER'S INTEREST

KEATING & FLOOD NOW SOLE OWNERS OF LYRIC THEATER.

Thomas W. Murphy Sells Half of Popular Playhouse—Consideration Said to Be $10,000.

An important theatrical deal was closed yesterday when Thomas W. Murphy sold his half interest in the Lyric Theater to Dan Flood, one of the original lessees of that popular playhouse. The consideration is understood to have been $10,000 and the transaction involves the transfer of a half interest in the lease on the theater, which runs until 1910, and the equipment of the theater. Mr. Murphy bought Mr. Flood's half interest last April and after making a fine profit from the running of the theater, sells it back to him at a decided advance.

Mr. Murphy has purchased a lively stable and will engage in the horse business on an extensive scale. It is understood that there will be no change in the policy of the house and that the Lyric Company will continue. The other owner is Lawrence M. Keating, who is now managing the Columbia, in Oakland, and the firm name under which the Lyric was launched, Keating & Flood will be restored. The Lyric was opened in May, 1904, as a popular priced vaudeville house. A year or two later it was changed to a low-priced stock theater. In the three years and 10 months it has been running there has not been a performance every night and the house has never known a losing week. It is doubtful if this record can be duplicated by any theater in America.

ASK MILUKOFF TO RESIGN

Fight on Russian Leader May Destroy Douma's Usefulness.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 8.—The demonstration which took place in the Douma yesterday against Professor Paul Milukoff, leader of the Constitutional Democrats, arising from the ill-feeling created here by his recent lecture in New York on the political situation in Russia, engrosses the attention of the entire press of this city, which today united in denouncing an incident which tends to fan partisan enmity and endanger the chances of the Douma's success. The occurrences of yesterday probably will be followed up by a formal resolution censuring Professor Milukoff for lack of patriotism and unparliamentary conduct in visiting a foreign country to stir up a sentiment of hostility, while occupying a responsible position in Parliament. The participation of Octoberists in the demonstration of yesterday, under the leadership of Alexander J. Guchkof, is regarded here as showing that the feeling against Professor Milukoff is not confined to reactionary fanatics like Vladimir M. Purishkevich, but that it is shared by the members of the Constitutional Democratic party, which up to the present time has maintained amicable relations with the leader of the Constitutional Democrats. In some quarters Professor Milukoff is advised to resign and seek vindication at the hands of his constituents, but this he has declined to do and has announced his intention of insisting that the report of the Commission on National Defense, at which strategic questions will be discussed, be read at a close session of the Douma.

Large Land Deal.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—The most extensive land deal ever recorded in the Yakima country was closed today, when Tacoma and Seattle parties sold to the Hanford Irrigation & Power Company 1200 acres of land within two miles of the new town of Hanford for $222,000. This tract was purchased four years ago for a small fraction of the sum for which it was just sold. The sale included a permanent water right for the entire tract. It will be cut up into small tracts for orchards and fancy vegetables, for which that portion of the Columbia region is noted.

RAILS LAID FEBRUARY 15

NORTH BANK ROAD IS ALMOST READY FOR TRAFFIC.

Ballasting of Whole Road Will Be Completed Ten Days After Rails Are Down.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—It is announced by Mr. N. D. Miller, chief engineer of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle, that the laying of the rails on the North Bank road will be completed by February 15. There now remains to be laid six miles of track between Carson on the east end and the Cascades on the west end, which when completed will finish the track from Kennewick to Vancouver. The ballasting of the track out of Vancouver has been completed to Butler's Station, and from the east end is completed to Carson. It is thought by Mr. Miller that the ballasting will be completed on the whole road within ten days after the last rail is laid, in which event train service will be put on immediately and the road will then be in position to handle all the freight offered.

what arrangements will be made for handling the passenger traffic between Vancouver and Portland prior to the completion of the bridges.

Work on the bridges is progressing satisfactorily, but it is not expected that the line between Vancouver and Portland will be completed before the middle of the summer.

JUST ONE BANK GOES UNDER

Washington Bank Examiner Makes Public His Report.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—But one of the 132 state banks and three trust companies doing business in Washington failed to weather the recent financial storm, according to the first annual report of State Examiner A. W. Engle, advanced sheets of which were made public today. The report states that December 4 last his department took charge of the Citizens State Bank of Brewster, whose total deposits were but $25,000.

From June 12, 1907, when the department was organized, to December 31 last, 24 state banks were chartered and authorized and six others have incorporated to begin business. One state bank discontinued to become a private bank and seven state banks became National banks. Eighteen of the 132 state banks were formerly private banks. Since June state banks increased their capital more than $20,000,000 and August 22, 1907, the total individual deposits in state banks aggregated $75,221,115.43. Of this amount more than $2,000,000 was in savings deposits.

In his report Engle urges that trust companies which act as fiscal agent, etc., should not engage in banking and that similarly the saving departments of commercial banks must be separated from the general business of the bank.

S. C. Stuckey was elected director for seven years. The officers of the association are: O. E. Rippey, president; S. W. Sigler, vice-president; E. L. Barry, secretary; S. C. Stuckey, treasurer.

Team Pulls Him From Water.

SILVERTON, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—In crossing the Abiqua river the buggy in which Oscar Dick was driving went into a deep hole. Dick clung to the lines and the team pulled him from the water safely. He had spent the day in Silverton, and when he did not return to his home, about three miles from town, at night friends became alarmed, and instituted a search for him. He was found at the home of W. B. Robbins, unharmed, having started to drive to Marquam, to reach which place he had to ford the Abiqua.

Injured During "Rough-House."

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—During a college "rough-house" at the University dormitory today, Benjamin Groat, '09, one of the dormitory committeemen, received painful injuries to his right hand by being shoved through a window pane. Six stitches were necessary to bring the wounds together. Groat played guard this year on the varsity eleven.
