Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Runyan entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mills, formerly of this city.

Miss Helen Worrell, one of the St. Helen's Hall girls who is leaving soon for the South, gave a luncheon on Wednesday at the Hotel Lenox grill in honor of Miss Edwina Mastick, whose engagement was previously announced. The luncheon was followed by a theater party at the Hollis. The guests consisted of St. Helen Hall and Omega Nu girls. Present were: Miss Leonie Fleury, Miss Hazel Kennedy, Miss Norma Lawler, Miss Kina McKelvey and Miss Irene Austin.

Dr. P. L. McKenzies home in Piedmont was the scene of a very pretty masque party last evening, the rooms being trimmed with hearts and porters of miniature hearts curtaining off the various apartments. It was a very happy and enjoyable affair. The evening was under the auspices of the young ladies of the Presbyterian Guild of Piedmont, and was one of the gayest Valentine parties of the week.

Mrs. Walter Moore Gadsby entertained very informally on Monday afternoon at her home on Twenty-fifth street, about 25 of her friends being present. Two recent brides of the season assisted in entertaining—Mrs. Ben Gadsby (Miss D. Freeman) and Mrs. Ambrose Scott (Miss Frances Honeyman). As a pleasant surprise to the guests, the engagement of Miss Agnes Hill and Mr. Horace Chapman was announced. A theater party was given in the evening, followed by a supper at the Grille. Those in the party were, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Runyan, and Mrs. Ben Gadsby, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gadsby, Miss Agnes Helen Hill and Mr. Horace Chapman.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The social and literary meeting of the Arbor Lodge Aid Society last Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. S. C. Beach was a decided success and largely attended. It was a very happy and enjoyable affair. The evening was under the auspices of the young ladies of the Presbyterian Guild of Piedmont, and was one of the gayest Valentine parties of the week.

The February '08 class of the Hawthorne School was entertained by Margaret S. Clement at her home on Friday evening, February 7. The evening was spent with games and music. The prizes were won by Mrs. C. M. Wright and Howard Hale and Donald Keys. The decorations were exclusively the class colors, baby-blue and white.

The invited guests were: Prof. J. T. Gregg; teachers, Miss M. F. Hamilton, Miss A. E. Gray and Miss H. P. Greffox; classmates, Mrs. Austin, Zella Knox, Irene Branson, Genevieve Orton, Mollie Otto, Lottie Grantham, Maime Jones, Beatrice Locke, Genevieve O'Brien, Sylvia Edmiston, Juana Holm, Mildred Lawrence, Misses Lee, Emma Kilpel, Hedwig Knepper, Mabel Poor, Alice Camack, Charles Barrell, Ernest East, Melvin Warston, Julius Moreland, Herbert Griffith, Wayne Worthington, Gustave Drouillard, William MacKenzie, Roy Camp, James Hollington, Donald Keys, Albert Gervard Wild, Howard Hale and Frank Robinson.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 15.—(Special).—One of the prettiest and most novel of all the social events of the present season was the leap year party given by six of Salem's young ladies at the Lenox Hotel, Monday evening, February 9. The Misses Mildred Turner, Louanna Brown, Gertrude Idings, Yma Sherman, Mabel DeLong and Louise Hoyle were the hosts and Mrs. D. C. Sherman, Mrs. L. D. Aldrich, Mrs. C. A. Murphy and Mrs. W. J. Culver acted as patronesses. The room was beautifully decorated with greens and potted plants and punch was served by two little girls. The affair was strictly in keeping with the leap year spirit and the young ladies did the honors in a way that gave the guests a few pointers as to how to entertain. After the dance was over the young men were guests of the young ladies at a supper in a cafe. Several guests from Portland and other out-of-town places were present.

Dr. Mary Thompson was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Current Topics department of the Portman Social Club with Mrs. Culpam Wednesday afternoon. Some 25 ladies were present to listen to the programme of speeches, music and toasts. Mrs. Dayton, on behalf of the club, presented the doctor with a beautiful potted plant. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her sister, Mrs. Stewart.

Mount Hood Chete, No. 151, Woodmen of the World, on the anniversary of McKinley's birthday. The spacious East Side Woodmen of the World Hall had been decorated for the occasion with flags of all nations and everywhere in evidence was seen the "red carnation," now known as McKinley's flower. In the banquet hall covers were laid for the 450 guests. After supper dancing was enjoyed till a late hour. Much credit was given Messrs. E. E. Cornell, R. E. Woodworth, M. A. Wheeler, C. M. Fraser, M. S. Knapp, Marie Zellinger and W. W. Minar, committee, who had the social in charge. A committee, headed by George Washington Memorial event for the last Tuesday of February and a "Leap Year" party for the last day of the month.

Miss Adeline Dewart was hostess at an early Valentine party on Tuesday evening of this week, given at the war's beautiful bungalow at East Eighth and Alameda streets. The decorations, done in red, apropos of Saint Valentine's day, and the ever-popular red hearts, were a most pleasing effect. Several interesting games were given their initiation and L. L. Reed, baritone, sang two numbers. Miss Dewart was ably assisted by her sister, Ella and her brothers, Harry McL. Dewart and Herbert R. Dewart. The prizes were awarded after a witty speech by A. P. Block-Kinley. Among those present were: Misses Gertrude Baumgartner, Anabelle Royal, Mary Trowbridge, Mabel Starbird, Lucie Baxter, Frances Baxter, Dewart, Ella Dewart, Messrs. Lloyd Reed, A. P. McKinley, Green, Roy Searle, Wheelock, Harry Dewart and Herbert R. Dewart.

Women of Woodcraft, Portland Thimble Club, No. 3, held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the Woodmen Temple, 123 Eleventh street. Business of importance was transacted, after which a social hour was held. The object of this club is both fraternal and charitable. Grand Guardian Van Orsdal, also Grand Manager Sumner were present and gave short addresses, which were much appreciated. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mary E. Hurley, 134 East Sixteenth street, on Wednesday, February 19, at 2:30 o'clock. P. M. All members are requested to be present prepared to work. All neighbors of Woodcraft are eligible to membership.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Joplin entertained jointly the Oregon Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Confederate Veterans. The following programme was given: Piano solo, by Mr. George H. Stovall; vocal solo, by Mr. Richard J. Taylor, in which Miss Beulah Caldwell, Mrs. Sophia W. Maguire recited charmingly "My Old Valentine," also several humorous selections of dialect, in which she excels, fairly captivating her audience. Brief remarks were made by Dr. Y. H. Neagle and Judge Haynes. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Quil Vise Club, with their husbands and friends were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. Leach, corner Alberta street and Williams avenue, February 13, by Mrs. W. W. Lyon and Mrs. J. Leach. The house was beautifully decorated with the favors of the season. The merry crowd was entertained by the vocal and instrumental music given by Misses Florence Leach, Winnifred Evans and Mr. Winfield Leach, and by the club singing given by Harriet Leach and Merle Olmsted. The dainty lunch was presided over by Mrs. W. W. Lyon and Mrs. J. Leach.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. A. R. Manley. A short business session was followed by a reading of "Prometheus Unbound" by Mrs. Mary Scott Myers, and a criticism on Shelley by George L. Knapp, read by Mr. Frank Miles. A very interesting informal discussion on Shelley's life and work, led by Mrs. Gilnes, was next in order. Selection from "Prometheus Unbound" was read by Mrs. Mary Scott Myers. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Marvin Pugh, 528 East Everett street, February 19, Take M. V. or M. C. cars.

The social department of the Epworth League of the Taylor-street M. E. Church held a Valentine social on Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church, which was largely attended. The room was decorated with 400 hearts cut from red hearts and pink carnations. Refreshments were served to all present and a Valentine was delivered to every person in attendance. The social was given by Mrs. J. Leach and Mrs. A. K. Marriott. The decorations were planned by the Misses Powell.

The music department of the Women's Club gave a pleasing programme Thursday afternoon in the Women of Woodcraft Hall. Those in charge of the programme were: Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Cushman, Mrs. Riddell and Mrs. Branch. The prizes were given by Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Riddell and Mrs. Branch. Miss Leota Siegner and Mrs. Martin, two of Portland's talented readers, added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

The Present Day Club held its regular meeting Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. H. L. Chapin, 715 East Madison street. The afternoon was given over to the study of Oriental rugs, many of which were on display. Mrs. Gilnes gave a valuable paper describing the different kinds of rugs and their characteristics, which she was able to show by those on exhibition. Mrs. Graves played and Miss Werlein sang.

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Margaret McNell at her home on East Mill street, when a number of friends were entertained St. Valentine's evening. Present were: Misses Nell Younger, Eva McNell, Dolly Armstrong, Mae McNeill, Agnes Foster, Dolly Blair and Anabel McNeill; Messrs. Arthur Peterson, Wm. McNell, Dugan Maris, Tom Carney, Grant and Tom McNell, Frank Callahan and Eugene McNell.

James M. Johns, of Arlington Record, is here for the reunion of his children. They will meet at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. O. Ralston, 69 Market street. The family consists of C. A. Johns, of Baker City, Or.; Viola McKinley, of Centerville, Wash.; Dorcas Neal, of Burns, Or.; Carl Johns, of Burns, Or.; and Ada K. Ralston, Mrs. Johns died in Salem on June 25, 1890, and this is the first union of the family since that time.

The girls of the membership committee are planning an especially good time for the Y. W. C. A. "at home" from 4 to 6 P. M. today. By special request Mrs. Emma Gillespie will give a talk on "Steps to the Throne of the Queen." The musical programme is as follows: Miss Stella Shorey, vocal solo; Miss Lenora Gregory, violin solo; John Claire Monteith, vocal solo. All young women are cordially invited to this "at home" whether members or not.

FIRST SHOWING OF NEW SPRING STYLES

NEW SPRING MILLINERY

ON MONDAY we will have an advanced showing of new Spring Millinery. Of special interest are the very stunning flowered hats or turbans, which promise to be the season's favorite. Some very select styles in these, new ones being added every day. The tailored Hats were never smarter than this season. As usual, they are the early Spring Hats, and as such, should receive your admiration

NOTICE

To the ladies who plan and make their own hats, we call particular attention to our splendid showing of untrimp'd shapes in Chip, Straw, Milans and Braid, and our beautiful display of Flowers and Foliage, which is most comprehensive and prices most reasonable.

DESCRIPTION can hardly do justice to the dainty charm and wide variety of style innovations of this season's creations in Women's Apparel. Never before has the choice been more varied or the styles more becoming. New and original ideas are apparent in each garment, and there is not a single feature that will fail to meet the highest ideals of expectation.

Pretty and dainty Silk Dresses, stunning foulards and jaunty Jacket Suits in the most fashionable cuts.

NOBBY JUNIOR JACKET SUITS—A new adventure in tailored Suits, light mixtures for misses' ages 12 to 16 years. See them.

NOBBY SPRING JACKETS in short, tight or semi-fitting styles, in pretty mixtures.

NEW GORED SKIRTS—(10 to 30 gores), in fancy mixtures, open in front and habit back. Also new arrivals in "little women's" skirts.

Of special interest will be the showing tomorrow of NEW TAILORED SUITS AT $25, $35, $40

The collections are so large and varied that every one may find just the style that is most becoming.

Tomorrow we are to have our first Spring showing and we wish the ladies of Portland to consider this as a personal invitation to visit our store and see the new creations. The many style changes and great varieties of new fabrics that have been brought out makes this showing of special interest, giving one a splendid idea of the season's requirements.

WEDDINGS.

Bellman-Henderson.

One of the prettiest weddings of the winter season occurred on last Wednesday evening, when Miss Verita Mary Henderson was united in marriage to Lloyd Everett Bellman, of Eugene, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bluford D. Sigler, 40 Tenth street, Rev. William S. Gilbert, of Astoria, officiating. The decorations were entirely white and green, an abundance of Oregon grape, cedar and ferns being intermingled with carnations and narcissus. An artistic and elaborate drape of ferns made an effective background for the bride party, while overhead was a canopy of green from which hung the wedding bells. The bride, who is a strikingly pretty brunette, was gowned in white organdie, handsomely trimmed in lace and embroidery. She wore a circlet of lilacs of the valley in her hair. Her bouquet was of white carnations with streamers of lilacs of the valley held by narrow ribbons. Miss Myrtle Eva Kaye, of Eugene, made a winsome bridesmaid, attired in a dainty gown of pink mesaline, with bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Bollman was attended by Percy Milne, of this city. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Caldwell, Mrs. Percy Milne and Miss Juanita Miller assisted in receiving. Miss Miller caught the bride's bouquet, and to her also fell the ring in the bride's cake. The money was found by Bruce Montague, the thimble by Sherman Miles. Out-of-town guests were Frank Bellman, of San Pedro, Cal.; Senator M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, Or., who is an uncle of the bride; Miss Juanita Miller, of Lebanon, and Mr. Callison, of Eugene.

After March 15 Mr. and Mrs. Bellman will be at home at 30 East Seventh street, Eugene, Or.

John Rambo Cooper and Miss Mabel Mayes were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, in St. John, Sunday, Rev. E. M. Johnson officiating. The house was decorated with evergreens and Chinese lanterns. A number of guests were present and the young people received many presents.

Conrad Knipfel and Miss Flossie Handman were married at the home of the bride's parents, 517 Oswego street, St. John, Sunday, February 9, Rev. L. E. Young officiating. Both are well known young people of St. John.

Day-Cain.

L. P. Day, of Wasco County, and Miss Minnie Cain, of this city, were married at the residence of Dr. J. Whitcomb Broucher, 28 Eleventh street, Sunday afternoon, February 9, Dr. Broucher officiating.

Jensen-Pasche?

Karl E. Jensen and Ida M. Pasche were married at the home of John Hansen, Second and Oak streets, last Sunday, Rev. O. Hagoes, of the Norwegian Lutheran Church officiating.

Dickman-Dullum.

Herman Dickman and Ella Dullum were married at the home of Gus A. Carlson, 156 Corbett street, last Monday evening, Rev. O. Hagoes, of the Norwegian Lutheran Church officiating.

Samson-Dean.

K. H. Samson and Miss Eleanor Dean were married Wednesday night, February 12, at 653 Washington street, Dr. J. Whitcomb Broucher officiating.
