WORLD EXPEDITE FILLS—Councilman Kellaker thinks it shortsighted policy to hold up the granting of the permit to the Pacific Bridge Company to use East Salmon and East Sixth streets for tracks for dump cars.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL EXERCISES—Lincoln memorial exercises were held last night in Carpenters' hall on Grand avenue and East Pine street, by Sumner Post, G. A. R. It was an open meeting and well attended by members and friends.

MULTNOMAH CAMP SMOKER—Multnomah Camp, No. 7, W. O. W., will give a smoker on Feb. 22, at 8 P. M. The temporary organization of a push club has been formed at Sunnyside, a meeting of citizens having been held for that purpose last Wednesday night.

LOTTERY GAME IS RAISED—In a raid made last night, at 243 Couch street, by Detectives Price and Coleman, Gen. Lee, an aged Chinaman, Joe Negroni, a Frenchman, and James Kilroy, a young American, were arrested and taken to the police station.

ARRESTED FOR PITY THEFT—Tony Ceria, an Austrian, aged 50, was arrested yesterday evening by Policeman Nelson at the corner of 17th and Taylor streets, near the proprietor of a 10-cent store, who alleged that some weeks ago Ceria entered his place of business and stole a carpenter's level and a scarf pin.

DEATH OF EMORY BARNER—Emory Barner died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. M. Thomas, 1190 Garfield avenue, at 10 o'clock on the evening of Feb. 12, 1905, at the age of 77 years.

DEATH OF J. W. PITTOCK—Former Resident of Portland Passes Away in California. John W. Pittock, son of Mrs. Anna Pittock and the late Robert Pittock, of San Diego, passed away Sunday, January 19, at Claremont, Cal., where he had gone a month previous for the benefit of his health.

LOOKING TOWARD OREGON. Interurban Railway Promoter Pays Portland a Visit. Merle J. Wightman, vice-president and chief engineer of the Seattle-Tacoma Short Line Interurban Road, now being constructed between the cities on the Sound, is expected in Portland Monday morning for the purpose of investigating local street railway conditions.

In the meantime make up party for a delightful course dinner in the quiet elegance of the Lenox Grill.

CLEARINGS WILL INCREASE—Beginning tomorrow morning, with the two closed banks reopened and doing business, the bank clearings of the city will increase perceptibly. The figures for this week will probably come near to the high figures of the same periods of last year.

LECTURES ON CITY MAKING—Henry Watson Cornell, of Chicago, will deliver an address tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium on "The Science of City Making." Among the subjects dealt with by Mr. Cornell will be the following: What are the most progressive cities of this country doing to build up their business interests and attract new industries? what new ideas are being worked out by commercial associations? are trade excursions profitable? is the better plan in extending industries to increase the productive capacity of present plants or invite competition? and are branch plants good things to foster?

VETERAN MISSIONARY DEAD—Mrs. Mary E. Hiatt, who had been an evangelical worker for the past 40 years, died in Pocomtous, Ia., last Friday. Mrs. Hiatt was the mother of Mrs. Eleanor H. Boyd, who is visiting at 594 Fifth street this city with friends, and who is the wife of Colonel L. F. Boyd, former Mayor of Spokane. Mrs. Hiatt had been engaged in missionary work in the United States and Canada. She was in Portland on several occasions and made addresses at the Y. M. C. A. and in the Methodist churches, of which denomination she belonged. She was born in Okaloosa, Ia., in 1841.

FUNERAL OF JOHN G. WELLS—The funeral of John G. Wells, who was killed by Patrolman Hepper, while engaged in holding the latter up as a practical joke, was held from the chapel of J. P. Finley & Son yesterday afternoon. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and relatives of the deceased, and a number of police officers. The interment was at Greenwood Cemetery. Rev. J. W. Whitcomb officiated at the funeral. A movement whereby it is hoped to secure funds to relieve the widow and large family left by the deceased.

WILL ENLARGE SCOPE OF BUSINESS—J. G. Mack & Co., the well-known carpet firm, has decided to enlarge their business and add a complete and modern line of furniture. J. G. Mack visited Chicago, New York and Grand Rapids on a purchasing expedition and the goods will soon arrive. The Neustadter building, corner of Fifth and Stark streets, will be the new home of this firm, who will open for business at that location about April 1. Mr. Mack found business quiet in the East and dealers were willing to make great concessions for cash.

HUGHSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY—Professor B. Hughson, principal of the Portmouth school, pleaded not guilty before Justice of the Peace Reid, where he was arraigned yesterday on a charge of having beaten on Arthur Matthews, a pupil. The case was set for trial for February 23, as young Matthews is confined in a hospital. Dan J. Maloney has been paid dollar for dollar. Everything is moving along nicely, and we are more than satisfied with our progress. Many of Portland's leading business men called and congratulated us, while scores of outside people have written us, praising us for what we have done for depositors in the old bank.

REOPENING OF OREGON TRUST BANK Has Reassuring Effect. The reopening of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank by the German-American Bank did wonders in restoring public confidence during the merger. Hundreds were made happy by receiving money from the merger. No better evidence of the fact that the public has implicit confidence in the banks of Portland could be cited than the fact that many depositors of the old Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, after receiving their money, at once opened accounts with the German-American.

CONFIDENCE IS RESTORED. Reopening of Oregon Trust Bank Has Reassuring Effect. DEATH OF J. W. PITTOCK. Former Resident of Portland Passes Away in California. John W. Pittock, son of Mrs. Anna Pittock and the late Robert Pittock, of San Diego, passed away Sunday, January 19, at Claremont, Cal., where he had gone a month previous for the benefit of his health. Deceased was 77 years of age, and a native of Portland, Or. For the past two years he had been in very poor health, and went to San Diego about a year ago from Lewiston, Idaho, where he was engaged in the real estate and insurance business. Mr. Pittock was a member of the First Congregational Church of San Diego, and leaves a large number of friends both in San Diego, Portland and Lewiston, Idaho. He was a nephew of H. L. Pittock.

LOOKING TOWARD OREGON. Interurban Railway Promoter Pays Portland a Visit. Merle J. Wightman, vice-president and chief engineer of the Seattle-Tacoma Short Line Interurban Road, now being constructed between the cities on the Sound, is expected in Portland Monday morning for the purpose of investigating local street railway conditions. He will probably remain here several days, and may visit Astoria, where he has a scheme under consideration for the construction of an interurban railway.
