

TAXES COMING IN

Total Collections in February, 1907, Exceeded Already This Month.

DISCOUNT OF 3 PER CENT

Three Forces of Deputies Work Night and Day Preparing Statements for Mailing—Receipts to Date, $235,000.

With three shifts of men working day and night making tax statements, Sheriff Stevens and his chief deputy in the tax collecting department, S. B. Martin, are meeting the unprecedented rush of taxpayers who are taking advantage of the 3 per cent rebate plan this year.

While payments on taxes have been received only during the past two weeks, the total receipts were greater at the closing hour last night than during the entire month of February last year.

In all, the sum of $235,000 was shown on the books as having been paid into Sheriff Stevens' hands and delivered over by him to the County Treasurer.

The tax roll of this year is just 25 per cent greater than last year's, and the standing of the rate of tax is somewhat increased valuation is shown on all real estate, especially inside the boundaries of School District No. 1.

Rate Lower, Valuations Higher. On learning that the rate was a fraction lower, many taxpayers were re-joining earlier in the month of a payment to be paid out the year.

Residents of District No. 1, in Multnomah County, are paying $14.50 on the $1000 this year. Their neighbors in District No. 2, St. John, pay $16.18.

Two statements showing the wide extremes in the possession of property were made out yesterday. One was on the O. R. & N. line in Oregon, and with an assessed valuation of $18,875,500, the personal tax alone was found to be $224,842.28.

CARSON, Wash., Feb. 14.—(To the Editor)—I note with pleasure what you say in yesterday's paper in your leading editorial, under the heading of "A Remarkable Expression" in your comments upon an article in the New York Independent of February 8, in which were published many letters, and dealing with the living issues involved in the Presidential campaign.

In the matter of Presidential candidates who are now in the limelight, permit me to say that I think Hughes entirely qualified, and the most available candidate. Ever since he was elected as independent, I was very impressed with the contents of the letters as reflecting the public sentiment of the thinking reading people of our country.

I have little faith in the result of the polling of the United States Senate and House of Representatives concerning the availability of Presidential candidates. Of what authority does the Oregon delegation predicate its faith that Oregon will go for Taft? I note, with feelings of pleasure, the hearty response and rousing cheers that greeted the mere mention of Hughes by Judge Lowell, of Pendleton, when addressing the Commercial club in honor of Lincoln's birthday in Portland, and I take this as an index to the feeling on the part of the common people.

Hughes is not only an able man, but a clean man, and his every public utterance denotes the fact that he is not the kind of man who seeks his own nomination. Should he be nominated it must be the result of the people rather than the work of the politicians, and some very many of the people are going to have something to say about the coming Presidential campaign.

LAW ABUSED BY FRIENDS INITIATIVE USED TOO FREELY, SAYS GRANGE SPEAKER.

Mrs. M. L. Johnson Advises Voters to Favor Only Those Bills They Thoroughly Understand.

"The greatest danger to the integrity of the initiative and referendum law is only from its friends and not from its enemies," was the declaration of Mrs. Margaret L. Johnson, a member of Milwaukee Grange, yesterday afternoon in her address before the organization.

Mr. Johnson said that the law was enacted in Oregon only after a hard struggle, and that now at the hands of its friends it is being impudently being overworked and loaded down with imperfectly framed and ill-considered bills.

Small Depositors Are Made Happy

There's a Reason

HUNDREDS of small depositors were made happy the past week by receiving sums less than $25, and as soon as this class has been paid we will begin paying larger sums, and keep it up until every depositor in the absorbed institution has been paid dollar for dollar.

WE ARE ANXIOUS to do this as quickly as possible, and desire the hearty co-operation of all in our work. Drop in and see us and ask to be shown our splendid fire and burglar-proof safe-deposit vaults, where boxes may be secured from $4 up per year.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. Henry Cobb, a prominent merchant of Salt Lake City, is a guest of his aunt, Mrs. Moritz Cobb, of 729 Marshall street.

A Valentine social was given at the First Congregational church last evening by the young people of the church. After the games and music, refreshments were served. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Dr. William House was called to Burlington, Wash., last night to take part in a consultation with several physicians in an obscure nervous case. Dr. House will return on Monday.

Among the representatives to the district meeting of the B'nai-B'rith being held in Portland is Jesse E. Marks of Salt Lake City. He is a stranger in this city, for he was brought here by his parents when he was 2 years old, in 1846, and lived here while his parents operated a grocery store on the street The Oregonian in which the assassination of President Lincoln was announced. Mr. Marks said in the tribune that the Bay City is something marvelous. He will remain for some days in an effort to trace out the old lines of the city when he lived here, back in the 60's.
