

pretty shower given by Mrs. K. S. Ervin and a large reception Friday afternoon given by Mrs. Stovall, the president of the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, of which Miss Meacham is a member.

The domino party given by the Concordia Club last evening (Washington's birthday) was one of the largest and most successful dancing parties of the year.

The regular monthly tea at the Patton Home on Tuesday was unusually well attended. A musical program, both vocal and instrumental, was given under the direction of Miss Millie Perkins.

Mrs. Frank Freeman is again to be a bridge-hostess this coming week.

Mrs. and Mrs. John H. Burgard, who have been spending a month in Southern California, have returned.

Mrs. S. W. Church and Misses Ruth and Genevieve Church left Wednesday evening for Soledad, California, where they will spend the next two months.

Mrs. C. E. Wolverson was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday at the Hobart club. Lovely Spring flowers were the table decorations.

Mrs. A. L. Hexter entertained with bridge Tuesday afternoon. The prize-winners were Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, Mrs. A. Oberholzer and Mrs. Ben Neustadter.

Mrs. I. Kauffman and Miss Clementine Hartman are at present in Germany, but will leave shortly for France, visiting in Paris and London prior to sailing on February 26 for America.

A prominent wedding of the week was that of Miss Helen Lucille Palmer, a niece of Mr. Samuel M. Mears, who was married on Wednesday evening at Trinity Church, to Mr. Martin Albert Schacht, Dr. A. A. Morrison officiating. The ushers were: Mr. Henry Meers, Mr. Arthur Seeley, Mr. Floyd Cooke and Mr. David Jordan. Mr. Arthur Meers acted as the best man and Miss Rose Schacht was the bridesmaid. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. S. M. Mears. The bride, who is a petite brunette, made a pretty picture in a gown of ivory lace over a shimmering satin, with trimmings of old point lace from her mother's bridal robes, with which she wore a handsome diamond brooch of her grandmother's. A reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Meers. The bride's mother, Mrs. Morris Palmer, who came out from the East for the occasion, was distinguished in black velvet, elaborated with bonnet lace. Mr. and Mrs. Schacht have gone to the Puget Sound cities, and will take up their residence on their return at 771 Everett street.

Mrs. John J. Flinn, wife of the nonagenarian, Rev. John J. Flinn, celebrated recently her 82nd birthday. On this occasion, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway read a charming poem of her own composition in honor of Mrs. Flinn.

An enthusiastic card party, at which there were over 500 matrons present, was given Friday afternoon at the Masonic Temple for the benefit of the educational loan fund for the State Federation of Women's Clubs. The arrangements of the floor committee, under Mrs. S. M. Blumauer and Mrs. J. Mann, were admirable. In the receiving line were Mrs. Spaulding, chairman of the loan fund committee; Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, president of the State Federation; Mrs. Frederick Egbert, president of the Woman's Club; Mrs. Ben Selling, president of the Council of Jewish Women; Mrs. A. Stiles, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club; Mrs. Cartwright, vice-president of the Forestry Club; Mrs. Sherman, vice-president of the Portnomah Club, and Miss Mathews, president of the Froebel Association.

Mrs. Charles F. Beebe was again a bridge-hostess this past week, entertaining with six tables. Prizes were won by Mrs. A. L. Hexter, Mrs. William Jones, Mr. George Taylor and Mrs. T. E. London.

Mrs. Charles Scadding was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday at the Froebel club.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the leading social events of the season at Albany was the annual dancing party given Friday night, February 21, at the Delta P. I. a local society of the Linn County city. Bussard's Hall, which was the scene of the party, was beautifully decorated, and the entertainment was a notable feature. The party was a brilliant affair in every detail, being enjoyed by many prominent young people of Albany and other Valley cities.

The patronesses were Mrs. E. W. Langdon, Mrs. E. D. Cusick, Mrs. S. S. Train, Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. B. Stupp, Mrs. Pratie Beam, Mrs. William Fortmiller and Mrs. T. G. Hopkins.

The hostesses were the members of the Delta P. I. Mrs. Owen Beam, Mrs. Charles H. Stewart, Mrs. Willard L. Marks, Misses Grace Langdon, Arlene Train, Frances French, Lydia McDonald, Rhoda Stalnaker, Nellie Miller, Cora Stevens, Bessie Cameron, Christine Pipe, Ina Redfield, Cordelia Dawson, Margaret Cline, Grace Bennett, Inez Taylor, Vesta Wallace and Oreta Fortmiller.

Among the guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cusick, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Olin E. Stalnaker, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. George Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Rocky E. Mason, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. W. C. Adams, Fred Maude Laughland, Vera Woodworth, Zona Haight, Evaline Merrill, Madge Mayo, Edith Yetter, Laura Anderson, Ella Bailey, Anna Flinn, Sheller Peacock, Edwin Fortmiller, Irvin Schultz, Fred Weatherford, Walter Stuart, John M. French, Owen Beam, Charles H. Stewart, Willard L. Marks, Frank M. H. Ellis, Harry Schlosser, Roy Nutting, Herman Stalnaker, Duncan Monteth, Elvin Crutchfield, Earl Fortmiller, Elbert Warford, of Albany; Dr. C. D. Adams, Dick Hathaway, Theodore Garrow, Wayne Stewart, F. L. Greenough, of Portland; Merle Chesman, Charles M. Snow, Victor Veight, Varied Beam, Curtis Coleman, Roy Walker, Everett Sherk, Stanley Young, Elmer Paine, Gwynn Watson, of Eugene; Ralph Cronis, of Salem; R. E. Willis, of Corvallis; Wayne Starnard, of Brownsville.

The Washington supper and entertainment at the White Temple last Friday evening was by far the most successful of these annual affairs given by the ladies of the church. Over seven hundred people were in attendance, and the occasion was a highly enjoyable one. A regular "way down East" supper was served in the lower temple, by Puritan maidens, with a large number of Colonial matrons in charge. Old brocades, satins, patches and powder were present everywhere, while many old family heirlooms of great beauty were resuscitated to grace the ladies for this occasion.

After the supper, the large company passed to the Sunday-school room, which had been effectively decorated with flags and bunting. The opening feature was a grand march, led from one side by George and Martha Washington, and on the other by Thomas Jefferson and his wife. The part of George was presented in a very dignified and acceptable manner by Dr. H. P. Shepherd, resident in Continental uniforms and peruke. Martha was a success by Miss Clara L. Webb, in a handsome gray satin Colonial gown en train. Dr. Brougher as Thomas Jefferson was greeted with generous applause on his appearance in satin brocade, ruffles and silk stockings, but, of course, he was not as "ruffled" as he looked. Mrs. Brougher as Mrs. Jefferson was very charming in brocade and rare black lace. The following ladies formed the escort of the distinguished party, and were all attractively gowned in Colonial style: Mes-

Miss Vivian Marshall, of this city, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Telford Hamilton, of Pittsburg, Pa., who is accompanied by her aunt, Miss Marshall will visit Philadelphia, New York, Washington, D. C., and other places of interest in the East, and spend several weeks in Los Angeles and Berkeley before returning to Portland.

James Osborne, Wightman, Runyan, Pearey, Allen, McGuire, Jamieson, Slegner, Johnston, Stone, Heintz, Winters, Dresser, Stiles, Round, Francis, Gates, Woodworth and the Misses McDonald, Viereck and Barber.

The following programme was presented, and was enthusiastically received, all having to respond to one or even two encores: Selection, Veteran Double Quartet; vocal solo, Miss Ethel Shaw; violin solo, Waldemar and Mrs. B. B. Adams; Sylvia McGuire; solo, Miss Nona Lawler; selection, Double Veteran Quartet.

Delightful music was rendered throughout the evening, and the entertainment by an orchestra composed of the Misses Erma Rounds, Inez Bushnell, Eida McDaniel and Myrtle Cody.

A very enjoyable fancy dress ball was given by the E. S. A. C. girls last Monday night in Ringler's Hall. Many elaborate character costumes were worn by the dancers, and were very effective. Prizes were awarded to Miss C. Taber for best dressed woman (Colonial dame), William Hood (a Scotch country) receiving a prize for the best-dressed man. Miss Huffsmitth, as Buster Brown, received the woman's prize for best-sustained character; A. B. B. as a cowboy won the men's prize for best sustained character. Among the various costumes present were the following: Spanish girl, Miss N. Adams; Lyman, Miss E. Adams; Southern girl, Miss M. Brown; Southern girl, Miss M. Brown; clown, J. M. Brown; Scotch soldier, William Bruce; Western girl, Miss A. Adams; Southern girl, Miss M. Brown; farmer, A. B. Carter; Army officer, L. E. Cable; Martha Washington, Miss Esther Edwards; Red Cross nurse, Miss I. Ellis; Peggy from Paris, Miss R. Fitzgerald; sailor, C. Henry; Scotch dancer, William Hood; Euster Brown, Miss Huffsmitth; Valentine, Miss B. Holt; Spaniard, Miss R. Huffer; Colonial gentleman, F. Johnson; Mexican, B. E. Jones; sailor girl, Miss A. Libak; baseball player, E. McKenzie; Colonial gentleman, E. Manning; United States, Miss R. Massey; Night, Miss M. Massey; E. S. A. C. baseball player, W. Moreland; sailor, T. McKenzie; the gypsy queen, Edith Nordstrom; Egypt, Miss L. Pfander; Swiss girl, Miss F. Pfander; Japanese girl, Mrs. M. Ringle; colonial gentleman, Professor Ringler; ballet dancer, Miss L. Stahley; sailor, G. Rooney; Knight of Old, C. Sieberts; Turk, J. B. Shagle; cowboy, L. Street; music, Miss F. Shaw; Roman knight, A. Stopp; sailor, H. Sexton; Colonial dame, Miss C. Taber; cowboy, A. Woolen; Western girl, Mrs. A. Woolen. Stiles' orchestra furnished the music for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bliss celebrated their golden wedding Saturday night, February 16, with a reception at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Forney, Chehalis, Wash. The rooms were decorated with streamers of gold and white from the chandeliers to the corners, and the chandeliers were covered with cedar boughs. Swags from Oregon and Washington were also effectively used, making a pretty background where the couple stood to receive the congratulations of their friends, about whom callers thronged the evening. Mrs. Bliss carried bride's roses and yellow jessamine. Miss Marlan Forney and Miss Flora Schultz attended the doors. The former was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. Kate M. Steadman, of Portland. During the evening vocal music was furnished by Miss Beatrice Adams and Miss Maude Steadman, of Portland. Light refreshments were served. Sunday the family dinner was given at home together in 16 years. They are Mrs. Kate M. Steadman, of Portland; W. A. Bliss, of Schuyler, Neb.; Mrs. C. H. Forney and Miss V. Bliss of Chehalis. There are ten grandchildren, all of whom are living. Mr. Bliss was born in New York state and Mrs. Bliss in Indiana. They were married in Buchanan, Mich., February 16, 1858, and in November, 1887, removed to Lewis County, Washington, where they have since resided.

The ladies of the Portia Club, together with their husbands, were entertained on Friday evening by Mrs. G. B. Cellars and Mrs. J. E. Hosford at the home of the former. The little daughters of the hostesses, Miss Muriel Hosford and Miss Mary Cellars, attended as George and Martha Washington, received the guests. The house was beautifully decorated in flags, bunting and ferns. Five hundred was played, prizes being won by Mrs. George P. Brice and H. B. Adams. Delicious refreshments were served, after which toasts teeming with sparkling wit and humor were given by B. S. Pascoe, H. B. Adams, J. B. Hosford, G. W. Stapleton, John Manning and L. B. Reeder. The Portia Club, now in its third season, is an association of wives of attorneys, banded together for

SILVERFIELD'S FOURTH AND MORRISON STS.

IN THE NEW TAILORED SUITS FOR SPRING

SPECIAL ATTENTION HAS BEEN GIVEN TO CREATING AND DEVELOPING STUNNING NOVELTY EFFECTS

The style and shape of a suit are the two important features that first receive our attention. A garment that does not possess these requisites secures no notice here. This is an age of novelties, and it is upon our strong showing in this line that we ask your approval. The fact that we have long since established ourselves in the estimation of all good dressers as style leaders places us in an enviable position with leading designers as well as with the public. Makers look to us as a market for their best creations, and the extensiveness of our trade in this class of merchandise makes more reasonable prices possible.

For instance, until we demonstrated it, who would have thought of being able to see a line of novelty ideas in Suits at $25.00? No maker would have undertaken to give us exclusive fabrics and styles at this low price if he did not do an immense business with us in the finer lines—from $40.00 to $100.00.

Two smart ideas are here illustrated. The suit to the left is made of fine French serge and is $55.00. The one on the right is a stunning novelty in a fancy Scotch cheviot at $60.00. Others from $35.00 $40.00 UP
