GERMAN MASS MEETING.—A mass meeting of Germans from all over the state will be held this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at Turner Hall, Fourth and Yamhill streets. The object of this meeting, which is to be held under the auspices of the Portland Consolidation of German-Speaking Societies, is to foster a more harmonious feeling among the Germans and German-speaking Americans. The following program will be given: Orchestral selection, opening of meeting by President Otto Kleemann, song by the Helvetia Singspiel Club, address by John F. Reimscher, song by Arion, address by Rev. Father Hildebrandt, of Oregon City, song by the singing section of the Portland Social Turn Verein, address by Rev. August Krause, oratorio selection, address by Ernest Paucilly, mass song, "America," in German.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.—Rev. John M. Dean, of Seattle, who is conducting a series of evangelistic meetings in Central Baptist Church, East Ankeny and East Twentieth streets, will preach at the services tonight in that church on "Hopping Between Two Twigs." He will also preach sermons on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights. The subjects of these sermons are as follows: Monday, "Asleep in a Barber's Chair;" Tuesday, "Ploughing Through Church Members;" Wednesday, "Jailed, But Not Jail Birds;" Thursday, "The Vocabulary of Evasion;" and Friday, "Quack Comfort." A special choir and soloists will participate at each service.

INTERESTING SERVICE.—The Rev. Benjamin Young, D. D., will deliver a very interesting and helpful sermon, at Taylor Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. His subject, "Christ and the Common Man," will afford opportunity for many side lights on character and the relation of the average man to the world. The Saviour was over the champion of the common man, and this sermon will be of inspiration to those who attend. Strangers in the city are always accorded a welcome at Dr. Young's church.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY ALUMNI TO ORGANIZE.—At a meeting of some of Columbia's old students, at the university a week ago, it was suggested that an Alumni Association should be formed. A preliminary meeting will be held at the Commercial Clubrooms, Sixth and Alder streets, Tuesday evening, February 25. The temporary committee is composed of Thomas Fox, Louis Cronan, Joe Wiley, Fred Weber, F. A. Martin and W. J. Sheehy, temporary chairman.

HOLD ANNUAL PRIZE MEETING.—The Women's Missionary Society, of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church, will hold its annual prize meeting, at the church, at 7:30 tonight. Rev. Frank W. Bible, who has just returned from Hongkong, China, where he has been engaged in missionary work for some time, will make the principal address. There will be special music and other items of interest on the program.

WILL DISCUSS SINGLE TAX.—People's Forum, has changed time and place of meeting to Selling-Hirsch building, Tenth and Washington streets, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Walter Thomas Mills will speak on the single-tax amendment, the question of the hour. Rabbi Jonah E. Wines, president, will preside. This will be an interesting meeting. Free discussion to follow the address.

HAND-WROUGHT JEWELRY EXHIBIT.—William H. Moore, of New York, whose exhibit of jewelry and silver wares in the Manufacturers' building at the Exposition, is so well remembered, will continue his exhibition of hand-wrought jewelry in his individual designs, Monday and Tuesday, parlor G, Hotel Portland. A. B. STEINBACH returned yesterday from an extended trip to New York and other Eastern cities. He reports that the business outlook for the Spring and coming Summer are good if not better than ever; money is plentiful and Eastern manufacturers feel very confident of the future.

DEATH OF T. A. CAHILL.—T. A. Cahill, living on the corner of East Ankeny and East Twelfth streets, died at St. Vincent's Hospital, Friday night. He was taken sick two weeks ago and removed to the hospital Wednesday. Mr. Cahill was born in Oswego, N. Y., July 21, 1848, and came to Portland a year ago to take charge of the Racine Sattley Company. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. E. L. Davison, of Rochester, N. Y. and Miss Mary Mackenzie Cahill, of Portland. He was a member of the Masonic order. The funeral will be conducted from the residence tomorrow.

BISHOP SCADDING RETURNS.—Bishop Scadding returned Friday night from Spokane, where he attended a conference of the bishops of Boise. Spokane and Olympia. This meeting was called for the purpose of discussing plans for the establishment of a theological seminary at some point in the Pacific Northwest. Bishop Scadding will preach at this morning's service in Trinity Church. Tonight he will conduct confirmation services in All-Saints Cathedral.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DORAMUS.—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Doramus, who died at her home on Wilberg Lane, February 19, was held Friday afternoon, at the Mount Tabor Methodist Church, Rev. J. W. McDougall officiating. Mrs. Doramus had been a resident of Mount Tabor for the past 22 years, was 85 years old, and the mother of the late Isaac Kay, of Mount Tabor. She is survived by her husband, M. Doramus, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Cook, of Everett, Wash.

MRS. LOUISE B. NETHERTON BURIED.—The funeral of Mrs. Louise B. Netherton, who died February 18, was held yesterday afternoon, from her late home, 866 East Flinders street, Rev. W. H. Heppie officiating. Lone Fir Cemetery was the place of interment. Mrs. Netherton had been a resident of Portland for nine years and was 41 years and 8 months of age. Her husband and one son, Wesley Netherton, survive.

CHANGING OF OWNERSHIP.—The Mirror barber shop, the finest tonsorial parlors in Portland, and located on Washington street, opposite the Merchants National Bank, changed hands, Friday, February 22, when the new proprietor, extends a hearty welcome to the old patrons of the shop and respectfully solicits the patronage of Portland's citizens. Mr. Waldock has been proprietor of one of the leading shops in Spokane, and fully understands how to conduct a first-class establishment. The Mirror barber shop is a beautiful shop, strictly sanitary in its appointments, and none but strictly first-class workmen preside over their chairs. Mr. Waldock intends making this city his permanent home, and will bring his family here just as soon as he has disposed of his Spokane holdings. Please call and call again. Yours for prompt and first-class service, The Mirror barber shop, opposite Merchants National Bank, W. E. Waldock, Prop.

SEEKS NEWS OF FATHER.—Mrs. Grace Winkler, of Chehalis, has written to The Oregonian requesting information as to the whereabouts of her father, Elmer Eugene Thayer, who has not been heard from directly for 15 years. Mrs. Winkler has information that her father came to the West some years ago and believes that he may be in Portland.

MULTNOMAH CAMP HOLDS SMOKER.—Multnomah Camp, No. 7, Woodman of the World, held its annual smoker, at East Sixth street, Friday night that was well attended. Through the courtesy of the Multnomah Athletic Club several boxing contests and wrestling matches took place on the program.
