

Mabel Vane, the Triplet family with their trials and their joys, were set forth with a power for both comedy and pathos only to be expected from a consummate actress, and the smiles and tears of her hearers were absolutely under Miss Noyes' control. Miss Noyes' reading was preceded by a piano solo by Miss Frances Bachelor, who played a Brahms rhapsody with splendid technique and intelligent interpretation.

Miss Belle Rosenthal has returned from Los Angeles.

A wedding of interest to Oregonians was that of Miss Grace Elliot, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Elliot, to Richard Gordon Scott, which took place Friday evening at the Unitarian Church. The ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, William G. Elliot, and the benediction pronounced by her father. The church was charmingly arranged with wild flowers by the girl friends of Miss Elliot. The bridesmaids were Miss Henrietta Elliot and Miss Alice Strong, gowned in dainty white net over a foundation of pink. The ushers were Van Anderson, Dr. Robert Ellis, Minot Davis and Robert gene Amesbury, Harry Syverson and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Redmond. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Crawford celebrated the 20th anniversary of their wedding at their home, 383 Grand avenue, North, last week, when a large number of their friends called and presented them with handsome pieces of china. The house was tastefully decorated with Oregon grape interspersed with apricot blossoms. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Zante, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alexander, Patrolman and Mrs. R. H. Craddock, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pettie, Mr. and Mrs. F. Kenniston, Mr. and Mrs. A. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Dillon, Alex. Frazier, Mrs. J. J. Mackay, Miss Grace Mackay, Miss Etta Moore, of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Lena Craddock.

Mrs. A. B. Manley entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club with a delightful luncheon served at 1 o'clock. The decorations were of Oregon grape; covers were laid for 25, some members being absent on account of illness. The club opened the session at 2 o'clock. After the transaction of usual business the following program was in charge of the hostess: "Lockhart's Life of Scott," Mrs.

EXCLUSIVE WOMEN'S and CHILDREN'S OUTFITTERS

SILVERFIELD'S FOURTH AND MORRISON STS.

LARGEST and LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST

Ready-to-Wear Spring Models

Another Spring season fully launched. The advancement in tailoring, in fabric, weave, finish and shade is so great that it is apparent we have taken a big stride forward since even last season. Here are becoming Suits for women and misses—all the new and authoritative styles and colors, and each one an exceptional value at any of the following prices:

$25, $27.50, $30, $35 and up to $100

Among the new Spring models the Butterfly style has won approval already; suits with Prince Chap coat are greatly admired; and other creations of carefully-tailored suits found at Silverfield's have been recognized as the best styles shown in Portland, and each one is priced unusually low. Each day brings us additional arrivals, all of which are expressive of the season's newest style features in design and material. THE ASSEMBLAGE IS WELL WORTH INSPECTION.

Tailored Suits In Mature Styles for Small Women

Are an important new feature of the Junior Garment Section. On a scale so broad that it eclipses all past efforts to supply the needs of women of small stature, we have arranged this special feature of the junior garment section. Small women will have an opportunity to select from a full line of mature styles, in sizes that assure perfect fitting.

$25, $27.50, $30, up

OUR NEW SPRING MILLINERY

Our Millinery Department is brimming over with the very latest creations in fashionable headgear for ladies—every new, desirable style, every new shape, in new straw and horsehair braids; numerous new style ideas from Gage Bros., of Chicago. THE MERRY WIDOW SAILOR. IN ALL PREVAILING COLORS, and our unequalled line of Trimmed Hats, including wonderful creations of flowers and tucked and shirred chiffon. Prices range from $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, up to $15.00.

New Artificial Flowers

We have just received and placed on exhibition a complete assortment of artificial flowers, for trimming purposes. We have flowers of nearly every description, of every blend of color—roses, violets, daisies, poppies, wall flowers, fancy foliage, etc.

Spring Veilings

AN IMMENSE VARIETY We have a great number of new arrivals in Veiling in a wide variety of weaves and meshes; plain and dotted nets in all the newest shades for the Spring season. An early call will afford you a glimpse of this fine assortment while at its best.

Remodeling and Repairing of Furs at Reduced Prices

Bring in your Fur Garments now and have them reconstructed in the latest fashions at greatly reduced prices. Satisfaction guaranteed. Great reduction on every fur garment in our magnificent stock.

WE PAY THE HIGHEST PRICES FOR RAW FURS. BY SELLING DIRECT TO MANUFACTURERS, SUCH AS THE SILVERFIELD COMPANY, YOU WILL SAVE THE MIDDLEMAN'S PROFIT. SEND FOR NEW PRICE LIST.

FLOWER GIRLS AT THE ALLY-PRINCE WEDDING TUESDAY.

Strong. Mr. Scott was attended by his brother, Christian Scott, Misses Clara and Ruth Elliot, niece of the bride, were the flower girls, attired in dainty lingerie frocks. The bride was gowned in her mother's wedding gown and veil, and carried a shower bouquet of amaryllis. Miss Elliot recently returned with her mother and sister from an interesting trip abroad, where they spent some time in Scotland as a guest of their brother, Samuel Elliot, who is attending Oxford, having been a fortunate winner of a Rhodes scholarship. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will reside at Grants Pass.

Miss Elizabeth Driscoll entertained a number of her friends last Friday evening at her home, 128 North Seventeenth street. Cards were played until a late hour, after which a dainty supper was served. Those present were: The Misses Sallie, Katherine and Margaret Madigan, Katherine Foley, Bertha Smith, Mary Brady, Gussie Blanche, Katherine Driscoll, Marie Driscoll, M. Madigan, W. J. Madigan, J. Finn, E. Mullen, Mr. Giddings, Mr. De Keyser, F. Leahy, E. Ryan, J. Limestone and J. Driscoll.

Lincoln-Garfield Women's Relief Corps Sewing Club met at the home of Mrs. Pool, at Woodstock, on Tuesday, February 25. The regular corps meeting will be held Tuesday, March 3, and a large attendance is expected. Special business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young gave the principal and teachers of Thompson School, of which Mr. Young is janitor, a pleasant surprise on Friday, February 21, the occasion being Mr. and Mrs. Young's 25th wedding anniversary. After an impromptu programme, including speeches and music, refreshments were served. Those present were the teachers: the principal, G. E. Jamison, Mrs. Jamison and Miss Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young gave the principal and teachers of Thompson School, of which Mr. Young is janitor, a pleasant surprise on Friday, February 21, the occasion being Mr. and Mrs. Young's 25th wedding anniversary. After an impromptu programme, including speeches and music, refreshments were served. Those present were the teachers: the principal, G. E. Jamison, Mrs. Jamison and Miss Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young gave the principal and teachers of Thompson School, of which Mr. Young is janitor, a pleasant surprise on Friday, February 21, the occasion being Mr. and Mrs. Young's 25th wedding anniversary. After an impromptu programme, including speeches and music, refreshments were served. Those present were the teachers: the principal, G. E. Jamison, Mrs. Jamison and Miss Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young gave the principal and teachers of Thompson School, of which Mr. Young is janitor, a pleasant surprise on Friday, February 21, the occasion being Mr. and Mrs. Young's 25th wedding anniversary. After an impromptu programme, including speeches and music, refreshments were served. Those present were the teachers: the principal, G. E. Jamison, Mrs. Jamison and Miss Jamison.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The Corralte Club gave a colonial party Friday evening, entertaining their husbands and guests at the home of W. M. Killingsworth in Walnut Park. The hostesses were gowned in colonial costumes and each represented some standard book. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and making books from magazine pictures. The dining-room was appropriately decorated with flags and bunting. The National colors, dainty refreshments were served, after which short speeches were made by Mrs. E. C. Rossman, president of the Corralte Club, and Mrs. W. M. Killingsworth. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Rupert, of Oak Grove; Mr. and Mrs. J. Bullitt, Mr. and Mrs. Lea, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. D. Chambers, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Rossman, Mr. and Mrs. Baldo, Mr. and Mrs. Killingsworth, Miss Killingsworth, Miss Jarvis, Miss McCollum, Mrs. Strelbig, Mrs. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Shanks, Dr. F. Jones, Mr. R. Alexander, and Mrs. E. Jarvis.

One of the most delightful card parties of the week was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Anderson at their home, 40 Miller avenue, Saturday, February 22. What was played during the evening, tally cards being of decorated. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Fenstermacher, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Baxter, Miss Gorrin, Fred Parson and D. Utter. The house was beautifully decorated in Oregon grape and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cleaton entertained Friday evening with six tables of five hundred. Mr. Dorgan won the prize at a guessing contest which preceded five hundred. Mrs. L. E. Smith and Mrs. Mendonhall, Dr. J. M. Yates and Mr. Mendonhall were the prize-winners at cards. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cleaton entertained Friday evening with six tables of five hundred. Mr. Dorgan won the prize at a guessing contest which preceded five hundred. Mrs. L. E. Smith and Mrs. Mendonhall, Dr. J. M. Yates and Mr. Mendonhall were the prize-winners at cards. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cleaton entertained Friday evening with six tables of five hundred. Mr. Dorgan won the prize at a guessing contest which preceded five hundred. Mrs. L. E. Smith and Mrs. Mendonhall, Dr. J. M. Yates and Mr. Mendonhall were the prize-winners at cards. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cleaton entertained Friday evening with six tables of five hundred. Mr. Dorgan won the prize at a guessing contest which preceded five hundred. Mrs. L. E. Smith and Mrs. Mendonhall, Dr. J. M. Yates and Mr. Mendonhall were the prize-winners at cards. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cleaton entertained Friday evening with six tables of five hundred. Mr. Dorgan won the prize at a guessing contest which preceded five hundred. Mrs. L. E. Smith and Mrs. Mendonhall, Dr. J. M. Yates and Mr. Mendonhall were the prize-winners at cards. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church had a very unique and pretty party on February 22 at the home of Mrs. H. A. Moore. The costumes worn by some of the ladies were genuine colonial clothes owned by their mothers and grandmothers. Jewelry of old style and setting was conspicuous on almost every one, and many exclamations of delight proclaimed them rare and beautiful. Grandmother's wedding dress and handkerchiefs were worn by Miss Palmer. A musical programme was rendered by Miss Connor, violinist, and Miss Von Grunewald, pianist, and Miss Elizabeth Young, vocalist. Refreshments were served in the dining-room. Those pouring tea were: Mrs. Foulkes, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. I. K. Moore and Mrs. Geary. Those assisting were: Miss McMichen, Miss Hinds, Miss McDarrel, Miss Hayes and Miss Moore. Miss Webber and Miss Palmer presided at the punchbowl.

A very pleasant surprise was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Eichenlaub, 14 East Thirty-fifth street, Monday

The Philatelic Club of the East Forty-fifth Street Baptist Church met at the home of Margaret Sword, 118 Spring street. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in studying the religious of China. Mrs. Sword served refreshments.

C. Barclay and Miss Mae Burgess were quietly united in marriage in the reception-room of the White Temple, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougner officiating.

Dr. William F. Coburn, an exceptionally strong speaker, will address the Y. W. C. A. on Sunday afternoon. Dr. Coburn is a Yale University. Splendid, enthusiastic meetings have been held by him over the country and Sunday's service will be a treat. Following is the musical programme: Piano solo, Carl Williams; soprano solo, Mrs. George C. Watkins; violin solo, Miss Lenore Gregory; bass solo, W. G. Mannan; recitation, Miss Hazel Hopengartner. The time is from 4 to 5 o'clock, giving opportunity for visiting afterwards. A light lunch will be served at the close.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mansfield, who moved to Portland from Nampa, Idaho, recently have taken apartments at the Brantree. Mrs. Mansfield, who is a native Oregonian and a graduate of the University of Oregon, edited the Wampa Leader-Herald for a number of years and achieved considerable success in her vocation. She is also a prominent club woman, having been president of the federated clubs of Women of Woodcraft, Portland Circle, No. 55, gave a jubilee and banquet to their members on Tuesday evening, February 25, in the Woodmen Temple, 123 Eleventh street, in honor of the consolidation of Juvenile Circle with Portland Circle. A short circle session was held and then a few invited friends were admitted and the following programme was rendered, besides many entertainers: Instrumental duet, Mrs. Blumenthal and Miss Vera Lund; recitation, Frances Johnson; elocution, Linden Cook, Hazel Isakson and Mable Duhon; vocal solo, Miss Mabel Orton; piano solo, Miss Esther Messenger; remarks by Grand Banker Burley and Grand Tinner Sentinel Mrs. Martin; piano solo, Miss Agnes Lawson. Then all repaired to the banquet hall, where a delicious supper was served. The next what party is to be given Tuesday, March 3.

PROMINENT PORTLANDERS WHO WERE MARRIED WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

On Wednesday evening, February 26, at the home of the bridegroom, 215 Division street, Jay Oliver and Hulda Sandstone were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Smith of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The parlors were tastefully decorated with ferns, ivy and Oregon grape. Promptly at 8:15 Edward Oliver played Wagner's wedding march, and the bride couple and attendants present in and under a wedding veil of white roses. The groom was attended by Will Spencer, and Mrs. Spencer attended the bride. After the ceremony a delightful repast was served. The guests were entertained by vocal and instrumental music by many of the local artists present. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will be at home to their friends after Sunday next at 757 Division street.

A beautiful home wedding occurred at the residence of George F. Barringer, 101 Seventy-eighth street, Portland, on Washington's birthday, February 22, when G. Frank Barringer was united in marriage to Miss Edna Gore, all of Portland. Rev. Gilman Parker, of Grace Baptist Church, officiated. Only the family of the bridegroom were present. After a wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Barringer left on their wedding tour, with the best wishes of all who were present. Mr. and Mrs. Barringer will be at home to their friends after March 1, at 1972 East Taylor street.

George Hugh Ferris and Miss Minnie Elizabeth Dutcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dutcher, were united in marriage Tuesday, February 18, 1908, at the parsonage of the Taylor-street Methodist Church, by Rev. B. F. Young. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris will be at home to their friends after March 15 at Seward Park, Astoria, Or. No cards.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, of 326 North Union avenue, celebrated their crystal anniversary Saturday evening, February 22. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion—the reception hall with ferns and Oregon grape; the front and back parlors in red, white and blue, and the dining-room with ferns, Oregon grape and cut flowers. The evening was spent with cards and music by Professor Yoder, assisted by Master Rinehart Brook and Hugh McKinney. Progressive whist was the game played. Mrs. Edward Thomas and R. H. Oliver won first prize. Luncheon was served in the dining-room at 11 o'clock. Many beautiful presents were received. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass, Eureka, Cal.; Mrs. Myrtle Mannus, Walla Walla, Wash.; Mrs. Earl Fields, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. Edward Thomas, Vancouver, Wash.; John Rinsinger and R. Rogers, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eccleston, Mrs. Mae Cook, Junction City, sister and brother of Mrs. Thomas. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Edward Thomas, Mrs. Earl Fields, Mrs. Frank Rodman and Mrs. Sadie Fall.

Captain and Mrs. Charles O. Hill celebrated their silver wedding Tuesday evening, February 25, at their home, 29 Eleventh street. Five hundred was played during the evening, prizes being won by Mrs. Hal A. Webber and Cord Semstake. Mrs. Bertha Carlson and Mrs. William James Reimold assisted the hostess in receiving. Music was furnished by Professor Webber's orchestra. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Bangs, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCord, Mr. and Mrs. Cord Semstake, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, Mrs. M. L. Kline, Miss Pauline Kline, Professor and Mrs. Hal A. Webber, Miss Bertha Carlson, Mrs.

The marriage of Miss Rose E. Coffey and H. Evre Powell took place Wednesday night at the home of the bride's father, Dr. R. C. Coffey. Miss Ada Coffey was bridesmaid and J. H. Sider best man. The bridal party was led by a company of young ladies—Misses Edwina Mashek, Della Watson, Margaret Gibson and Elizabeth Wolf—singing the bridal chorus from "Lodengrin." Miss Abbie Whitelake presiding at the piano, and the marriage ceremony was conducted by Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D. D.

The new Presbyterian ritual was used, and the house was beautifully decorated. The bride was dressed in a beautiful white chiffon dress trimmed in point lace, with veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a light blue organza dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mrs. Thomas Richardson and Mrs. E. P. Geary presided at the supper table, 53 of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom being present. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Powell will be at home at 482 East Couch street.

Mr. Powell, who is in business in this city, is a relative of the celebrated Major-General Baden-Powell, who so bravely held Mafeking during the British-Boer war. Both bride and groom are well known in First Presbyterian Church circles in this city, and also in Christian Endeavor work. Mrs. Powell is an excellent contralto singer and has been soloist in the First Congregational Church choir and elsewhere.

CELEBRATE THEIR CRYSTAL WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE THOMPSON.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, of 326 North Union avenue, celebrated their crystal anniversary Saturday evening, February 22. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion—the reception hall with ferns and Oregon grape; the front and back parlors in red, white and blue, and the dining-room with ferns, Oregon grape and cut flowers. The evening was spent with cards and music by Professor Yoder, assisted by Master Rinehart Brook and Hugh McKinney. Progressive whist was the game played. Mrs. Edward Thomas and R. H. Oliver won first prize. Luncheon was served in the dining-room at 11 o'clock. Many beautiful presents were received. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass, Eureka, Cal.; Mrs. Myrtle Mannus, Walla Walla, Wash.; Mrs. Earl Fields, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. Edward Thomas, Vancouver, Wash.; John Rinsinger and R. Rogers, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eccleston, Mrs. Mae Cook, Junction City, sister and brother of Mrs. Thomas. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Edward Thomas, Mrs. Earl Fields, Mrs. Frank Rodman and Mrs. Sadie Fall.

Change in Name

E. J. Carr has acquired the entire jewelry business of Carr & Beesley, 149 Sixth street, and will continue to carry a stock of jewelry, watches, silverware and unset stones.

E. J. Carr Manufacturing Jeweler 149 Sixth Street, Between Morrison and Alder, PORTLAND, OREGON

TAYLOR STREET Methodist Church SUNDAY, MARCH 1ST. Morning and evening, Evangelistic Services by Dr. W. F. Coburn, of Boston. INTERESTING — HELPFUL Bright Music Dr. Benjamin Young, Pastor.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever D. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER