AMUSEMENTS. THE HELIO THEATRE (Fourteenth and Washington streets)—Herbert Kelsey and Edna Shand in "The Walls of Jericho." Tonight at 8:15. 5 o'clock.

DEATH OF EDNA WILHELMINA DOW.—After an illness of several weeks Edna Wilhelmina Dow, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dow, died at her home, 546 Clay street, February 24, aged 9 years, 2 months and 1 day. The funeral was held at the Zion Lutheran Church, on the following Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Behreine conducting the services. The remains were interred in Lone Fir Cemetery. The young girl had been a pupil at Ladd school for several years. She was much loved by her teachers and classmates, being of a very gentle disposition, and always faithful in her small duties. Six little dolls were presented as honorary pallbearers, and many beautiful flowers were sent by her little friends. During the last few days of her illness though unable to speak, she showed her perfect trust by folding her little hands in prayer.

BOARD OF TRADE JOURNAL.—The annual number of the Board of Trade Journal, which has just been received from the printers, contains much of interest regarding the resources of the various sections of the state and should prove valuable as an advertising literature. Most of the space is devoted to material covering each county in the state arranged in such a way as to appeal strongly to the prospective home-seeker. Several special articles covering financial, real estate and commercial operations in Portland are also included. Fred Muller, secretary of the Board, contributes an article on the plans of the organization which were recently inaugurated. The journal is illustrated with a number of halftone photographs of Oregon scenes. The newspapers have been dealing lately with the insurance situation of New York. Among other companies the Bankers Life Insurance Company, of New York, has received some mention. This company is in no way connected with the Bankers Life Association, of Des Moines, Ia., the annual report of which appears on page two of this issue. We furnish life insurance at cost with a low rate of expense and our new business written in Oregon last year amounted to $1,600,000. For further information apply to F. C. Austen, manager, 662-3 Oregonian building, Phone Main 1628.

The body was taken in charge by the Elks Lodge, of San Antonio. Mr. Thamm having been a member of that organization, and a member of the Portland lodge. CHAMBER LEAVES QUARTERS.—A five-year lease was yesterday signed by the Chamber of Commerce covering the quarters occupied by it in the Chamber of Commerce building. At an early meeting of the board of trustees consideration will be given to the matter of remodeling and refurbishing the present quarters. It is also proposed to begin at once the work of enlarging the permanent exhibit. In order to accomplish this the various counties of the state will be asked to contribute products. Special effort will be made to make the exhibit one of the most attractive on the coast, in anticipation of the large number of visitors who will pass through Portland next year on their way to the Seattle Fair.

CHURCH WILL CELEBRATE

Rev. E. Nelson Allen Completes Fifth Year of Pastorate.

Mr. Allen came direct from the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Kansas City, Mo., where he had been pastor for eight years, to the First Cumberland Presby-

He also participated in reform movements, including the Anti-Saloon League, of which he is still a prominent member. Services today will be appropriate to the fifth anniversary. In the evening the following will be the programme: "The Christian Endeavor," Miss Florence Williamson; "Women's Home Missionary Society," Mrs. H. L. Chapin; miscellaneous remarks, R. R. Steele; "Relation of the Church to Other Organizations and Movements," Rev. E. A. Starr; "What of the Future," O. M. Scott. Special music will be provided.
