Want This Nag?

This poor fellow is bound straight for the tallow factory, and it's a shame, because he's still a good horse. All he needs is a tub of oats now and then. Then he'll fatten up and look just as good as the dandy on the other. You can buy him dirt cheap if you can use him. He's advertised with lots of his brothers in the want pages of THE OREGONIAN EVERY DAY.

OR

This Fine Horse?

The fellow in this picture is a high-stepper. EVERY DAY some one meets with reverses—or gets tired of keeping horses—or is going to leave town and wants to sell out. Then the first place they think of is THE OREGONIAN'S classified pages. That's why you'll always find bargains in all kinds of horses in The Oregonian every day.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Proposals Invited.

NOTICE is hereby given that sealed bids will be received up to March 28, 1908, at 10 A. M., by the County Court of Crook County, Oregon, at Prineville, Oregon, for the building and construction of the superstructure to the new Courthouse as per plans and specifications thereof by W. D. Pugh, architect, which plans and specifications can be seen and examined at room 209 Fenton building, Portland, Oregon, up to March 21, 1908, and at Prineville, Oregon, from March 21 to March 28, 1908. Said superstructure to be commenced at the plate line of the basement, and consists of brick with stone corners, stone belt courses, stone windowcaps and sills and stone doorcaps, galvanized iron cornice; also include clock and clock tower. Vaults to be built with concrete floor and ceiling as specified. Foundations for vaults are completed. Certified check for 10 per cent of bid must accompany same.

SECOND.
Also bid to complete contract on basement as per specifications, which consists of rebuilding the steps on the front and two ends of the basement, concrete porches as specified in the original specifications, the relaying of the concrete floors in the jail and jailers' corridor, and the repointing of the basement, enlarging well hole leading into jailers' corridor, filling yard to grade line, removing all refuse materials from yard, and removing old Courthouse to the southeast corner of block. Bids must be in by 10 A. M. March 28, 1908, and certified check for 10 per cent of amount of bid must accompany bid. Plans and specifications can be seen and examined at room 209 Fenton building, Portland, and at Prineville, Oregon, as above mentioned.
The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids herein called for. Cash will be paid upon any contract entered into.
By order of the Court.
(Seal.) WARREN BROWN,
Clerk Crook County, Oregon.
