

Miss Carrie Gilson, Miss Abbie Atwood, Mrs. Ernest Nickerson, Miss Henrietta Felling, Miss Ella Hirsch, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. Walter Burrell, Mrs. Mar- tin Winch, Mrs. Whitney L. Boie, Mrs. E. Hamilton, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Richard Nunn, Mrs. William L. Brewster, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Mather, Mrs. Ham- iltion Corbett, Mrs. Herman Metzger, Mrs. S. Rosenfeld, Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Miss Jewel, Miss Hamlin, Miss Von Bolton, Mrs. Pope, Miss Frances Warren, Mrs. F. J. Jennings, Mrs. Frank Dayton, Mrs. W. T. Hume, Mrs. E. H. Levy, Mrs. Clarence Sewall, Mrs. E. J. Labbe, Miss Marshall, Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mrs. James Honeyman, Mrs. Dan Moore, Mrs. Robert F. Hall, Mrs. W. P. Gordon, Mrs. S. R. Johnston, Miss Gila, Miss Eleanor Gile, Mrs. A. C. Pantan, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Thomas M. Anderson, Mrs. Adolph Eckum, Mrs. J. G. Gould and Mrs. J. N. Teal. Among the men who are pursuing the study with gratifying results, are Dr. Otis, Dr. H. C. Jefe- ferd, Everett Ames, Frank Dayton, Harry Sladen and Frederick G. Sykes.

also including Penryhn Stanlawa, the artist, and Harry Leon Wilson, the author of "The Spenders" and other well-known books. NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Murlark Hall was the scene of a very pretty party Monday evening when the Centennial Girls entertained with a dancing party in their usual charming manner. There were about 300 guests present, which just about comfortably filled the hall. The patronesses were Mrs. H. Wetzel, Mrs. E. Long, Mrs. A. M. Winters and Mrs. W. T. Kearns. The club members are the Misses Lilla T. Winters, Ada M. Matthews, Gertrude D. Wetzel and Myrtle E. Long. The closing party will be given the latter part of April.

A delightful evening was spent at a birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Walter Anthony, Wednesday evening, March 4, at her home, 419 Guild street. Miss Florence Melniss, Walter Anthony and Robert Henderson rendered vocal selections and Miss Sadie Melniss played the accompaniments, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Anthony, Sr. and Mrs. Paul Anthony, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Halne, Mrs. Haine, Mr. and Mrs. Mc-

EXCLUSIVE WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S OUTFITTERS

SILVERFIELD'S
FOURTH AND MORRISON STREETS

LARGEST AND LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST

YOUNG WOMEN WHO APPEARED AS GEORGE AND MARTHA WASHINGTON AT A RECENT PARTY GIVEN FOR THE PORTIA CLUB AT THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. G. B. CELLARS, IN IRVINGTON.

INDIVIDUALITY IN APPAREL FOR WOMEN

When looking through our extensive showings of beautiful apparel for women one of the first things to impress itself clearly on one's mind is the individuality of the styles. Every new model that is shown by us has been a study. It has been selected with a view to "DRESS WOMEN CORRECTLY," and in carrying out this policy we are kept on the alert to secure the very newest ideas evolved in the minds of the leading foreign and American designers. TAILORED SUITS FROM $25 TO $125.

Big Showing of Suits at $25

Special attention is called to this medium-priced line for this week. The collection of styles is very large and varied; semi-fitted, seven-eighths fitted and tight models, conspicuous among them being the many styles taken from imported novelties, such as the butterfly styles with the CORRECT large sleeves and the pointed coat effects.

These may be had in two-toned colorings in stripes; shadow-stripes in all colors; also in Panama and serge materials and in chalk-line stripes—$25.

SILK DRESSES $25.00.—Four of the very smartest styles in a soft, pliable taffeta silk. They come in all street and evening shades, and in such a wide range of designs that among them can be found something suitable for either quite dressy or informal wear.

New Arrival of Separate Dress Skirts

New Spring tailor-made Skirts, made of the best serge, mixtures, Panama and voiles, in a great variety of styles, both pleated and gored, $8.50, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $20.00

New Spring Coats for Misses

A new shipment of Spring Coats in light, mannish mixtures and plain colored serges, for misses. They are the correct thing in cut and tailoring, semi and tight-fitting styles, in short and half lengths, $6.50, $7.00 AND $7.50

REMODELING AND REPAIRING OF FURS AT REDUCED PRICES.—Bring in your Fur Garments now and have them reconstructed in the latest fashions at greatly reduced prices. Satisfaction guaranteed. Great reduction on every fur garment in our magnificent stock.

HIGHEST CASH PRICE PAID FOR RAW FURS. SEND FOR NEW RAW FUR PRICE LIST—FREE ON REQUEST

THE PRELIMINARY OPENING OF MILLINERY MODELS

As the Easter exhibit will be later than usual this season, we have planned this display for the benefit of those who desire to select a new Spring hat early. French Model Hats, a variety of new ideas from the foremost American designers, together with a collection from our own work-room.

In Untrimmed Hats and Materials we show the very latest ideas. Newest colors in straw shapes and braids; also complete new lines of Flowers, Foliage, Wings, Fancy Feathers, Ostrich Plume in the new shades.

Mothers, Are You Interested?

In stockings that are good? In stockings made of the best yarn? In stockings colored with pure dyes? In stockings that do not wrinkle or sag? In stockings that do not need supporters? In stockings that do not need garters? In stockings adjustable to any figure? In stockings that button to the waist and stay buttoned?

Then, buy FAY IDEAL STOCKINGS for the children. The ideal stocking, Summer or Winter, for comfort, durability, economy and health. Never wrinkle or come down. Made of best yarns. ASK TO SEE THEM. THIRD FLOOR.

Kamm, Gerald Thomas, Clarence Eubanks and Mason Wittenberg. The patronesses were Mrs. John H. Burgard, Mrs. A. E. Bitterfeld, Mrs. A. E. Hammond, Mrs. G. H. Thomas, Mrs. F. W. Kamm, Mrs. E. G. Clark and Mrs. H. Wittenberg.

lania, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, Misses Florence and Sadie Melniss, John Melniss and Misses Agnes and Nellie Henderson.

Mrs. C. E. Wolcott left on Thursday for a trip to California.

The music department of the Woman's Club entertained their friends last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. F. M. Branch, Mrs. A. E. Hiddell and Mrs. A. E. Price were the hostesses for the afternoon, serving dainty refreshments at the close of the following programme:

Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunway entertained Tuesday informally for Mrs. Frederick Sidney, a daughter of Jennie June, the authoress and founder of the National Council of Women. Mrs. Sidney is a member of "The Walls of Jericho" company, her stage name being Vida Croly. In 1887, Mrs. Dunway was hostess at a reception at the old St. Charles Hotel entertaining for Mrs. Croly (Jennie June) and on Tuesday last Mrs. Dunway again asked a number of the same friends whom she had entertained over a quarter-century ago to meet the daughter of the well-known authoress.

At the home of Ellis McLean, 35 Grand avenue, north, Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Church of Good Tidings, the birthdays of Judge S. Bullock, leader of the Veteran Male Quartet, composed of retired musical leaders, and William McLean, son of the host, was celebrated. The rooms of the house had been handsomely decorated for the event with evergreen and Oregon grape, interspersed with flowers of the season and potted plants. The members of the quartet were present and rendered several selections, much to the delight of the company. Judge Bullock, the leader, receiving much honor. The remainder of the programme was: Piano solo, Miss N. Meyer; recitation, Miss Leola Andrews; violin solo, Miss Barton; baritone solo, C. Lady; readings, Mrs. Edwards; vocal solo, J. Holroyd; Rev. James D. Corby, pastor of the Church of Good Tidings, made appropriate remarks congratulating Judge Bullock on the attainment of his eighty-first birthday, which was responded to by Judge Bullock, Tokens of esteem were presented Judge Bullock and Mrs. McLean. One of the happy

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Kuetner have returned from Elton Court to the new Nortonia.

On Thursday evening, March 5th, a number of friends of Miss Lydia Johnston tendered her a surprise party at her home, 190 Russell street. A most enjoyable evening was spent, with music and cards, which were played at four tables. The first prize was won by Miss Anna Koepf, and the consolation prize by Miss Marie Auer. Dainty refreshments were served at tete a tete tables. Present were Madame L. Summers, Mrs. Emily Johnston, the Misses Frieda Rathjinn, Marie Auer, Mrs. K. Buehler, Anna Kamp, Viola Godshall, Anna Koepf, Isabel Blackhall, Anna Feldman, Leona Blackhall, Lydia Johnston and Anna Johnston. Messrs. L. G. Brodner, N. Blackhall, William Beal, H. E. Crain, M. S. Cadonaw, H. M. Hawarth and Fred N. Bay.

Mr. Hal Beach and Mr. Victor Fisher, of New York, who visited here for a few days last Fall, are again in Portland for a brief time. Mr. Fisher is a son of Hugo A. Fisher, the artist, and a brother of Harrison Fisher, whose drawings have won international fame. In company with his father and brother, Mr. Fisher and Mr. Beach have recently returned from a most interesting trip abroad. The party

As a surprise to him the friends of Walter Courter gathered at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Nettie E. Courter, 90 East Eleventh street, to celebrate his birthday. The guests were agreeably entertained by music, the feature of the evening being a violin solo by George Anderson. Later refreshments were served. Those present were, Misses Lizzie McCarthy, Pearl Parsons, Mable McCarthy, Marguerite Sullivan, Kathleen Cooper, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Donagh, Pearl Shaw and Lillian Hall, Oregon. A. M. McCarthy, Fred Parsons, Mr. Lakin, Oscar Long, Robert Alton, Will Graham, Harry Donagh, Fred Elchenlaub, George Anderson and Will Beckerson, of Oswego; J. M. Straight, Oregon City.

FORMER PORTLANDERS WHO WERE MARRIED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

A quiet but pretty wedding occurred in San Francisco last Wednesday when Miss Estelle L. Kennard became the bride of Clifford H. Fuson. The wedding took place at high noon in the First M. E. Church, the Rev. Dr. Bennett officiating. The groom was attended by N. J. McDonald, of the St. Francis Hotel, while the bride was attended by Miss Etta C. Ramsey.

FORMER PORTLANDERS WHO WERE MARRIED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

The bride, with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Kennard, came to San Francisco some two years ago and has during that time won a large circle of friends.

features was the reading of an original poem by Mrs. June Ordway in commemoration of the birthday of Judge Bullock.

At the close of the programme, Mrs. McLean, the hostess, served refreshments.

The Mothers and Teachers' Club of Arleta School held a reception at the new school building, Friday, February 28, from 3 to 5 o'clock. All guests were met at the doors by ninth-grade pupils, who formed the escort and conducted them through the building until they reached the assembly hall, where they were met by the president, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar. Mrs. Dunbar was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Dr. Bartel, Mrs. Huggins, Mrs. Doran, Mrs. Hayes, and the teachers. Over 100 were in attendance.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Miles. After the business session the following programme was in charge of the hostess: Quotations from the writings of Fredrika Bremer, in response to full call; sketch of Fredrika Bremer, Mrs. Francis Miles; prototypes of the novel, Mrs. A. J. Stiles; reading of a selection by Fredrika Bremer, Mrs. Hayes; "Relation Between the Novel and Its Prototypes," Mrs. Gilman; "The Novel Before Scott," Mrs. G. C. Schelmer; "Romance and Drama in English Literature," Mrs. A. A. Bailey; "Manners and Customs in the Eighteenth Century," Mrs. E. Chipman. Refreshments were served during the social hour. Mrs. Strickland and Mrs. Dillon were guests of the club. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. H. J. Jackson at the Ladd farm on March 10. Take the M V cars.

On Thursday evening, March 5th, a number of friends of Miss Lydia Johnston tendered her a surprise party at her home, 190 Russell street. A most enjoyable evening was spent, with music and cards, which were played at four tables. The first prize was won by Miss Anna Koepf, and the consolation prize by Miss Marie Auer. Dainty refreshments were served at tete a tete tables. Present were Madame L. Summers, Mrs. Emily Johnston, the Misses Frieda Rathjinn, Marie Auer, Mrs. K. Buehler, Anna Kamp, Viola Godshall, Anna Koepf, Isabel Blackhall, Anna Feldman, Leona Blackhall, Lydia Johnston and Anna Johnston. Messrs. L. G. Brodner, N. Blackhall, William Beal, H. E. Crain, M. S. Cadonaw, H. M. Hawarth and Fred N. Bay.

As a surprise to him the friends of Walter Courter gathered at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Nettie E. Courter, 90 East Eleventh street, to celebrate his birthday. The guests were agreeably entertained by music, the feature of the evening being a violin solo by George Anderson. Later refreshments were served. Those present were, Misses Lizzie McCarthy, Pearl Parsons, Mable McCarthy, Marguerite Sullivan, Kathleen Cooper, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Donagh, Pearl Shaw and Lillian Hall, Oregon. A. M. McCarthy, Fred Parsons, Mr. Lakin, Oscar Long, Robert Alton, Will Graham, Harry Donagh, Fred Elchenlaub, George Anderson and Will Beckerson, of Oswego; J. M. Straight, Oregon City.

The handsome new home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pasted, 120 Garfield avenue, Piedmont, saw the gathering of a bevy of friends on Friday. The date was the birthday of the hostess and the anniversary was celebrated by a luncheon. The tastefully arranged table was decorated with a profusion of Spring violets. The guests included Mrs. Goodnooth, Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Hillinger, Mrs. Cornwall, Mrs. Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Paton.

ing was spent with music and singing. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chard, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rosler, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. George Leach, George Leberg and mother, Mrs. Whitmarsh and daughter, Mrs. Dr. Olmstead, Mrs. Gus Anderson, the Misses Nettie Hanson, Alice Gray, Ethel Rosseter, Winnie Evans, Helene Coffin, Catherine Dinneen, Lottie and Florence Leach and Winfield Leach.

"Ye Ladye Betty" girls of the West Portland High entertained with an informal colonial dancing party at Miss Philomene Barnes' home on Saturday last. The costumes worn were similar to the ones of Colonial days. Those enjoying "ye summons" of the "Ladye Betty" were: Messrs. Jack Hickson, Guy McIntosh, Everett Peterson, George Hastings, Llewellyn McKinley, John Wil-

Thursday evening, March 6, Professor and Mrs. Krohn entertained the Multnomah Club basketball team at their home, East Twelfth and East David streets. A very pleasant evening was spent. The piano playing of Robert Krohn, Jr., and the singing by Mr. Dan Bellinger was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Big Morris, by his numberless funny stories, made a decided hit. On leaving the club boys gave three cheers for Professor and Mrs. Krohn and the Multnomah team. Those present were: Messrs. Hal Beach, Dan Bellinger, Bert Allen, Harry Livingston, Big Morris, Harry Fisher, Art Allen, Ralph Knight and Charles Barton.

Portland Resident Who Celebrated Her Sixty Birthday on Monday.

Friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson gathered at her home in Mount Tabor on Monday, March 2, to honor and congratulate her upon reaching her sixtieth birthday, March 1, 1908. Well and alert and with sunny countenance, she was alive to the spirit of the occasion and keenly enjoyed the company of loving friends. Those present were: Mrs. William Lee, Mrs. Laidlaw, Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Tibbitts, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Bartel, Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Dr. Botkin, Mrs. E. E. Lytle, Mrs. John Barrett, Mrs. D. Doud, Mrs. J. Hodson, Mrs. Rathbun, Miss McAdams, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Hanson.

son, Allen Noyes, Harry Meier, Thurman Starker, Newton Smith and Maurice Barnes. The club members are as follows: Misses Addie Bowie, Nellie and Lottie Banfield, Nellie Hemenway, Juanita Hart, Pearl McKenna, LeConie Jamieson, Winifred Shaw, Bertina Beckerson, Ruth Beach and Philomene Barnes.

The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Froebel Association was held Friday in the kindergarten at St. Helens Hall. The president, Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews presiding. Encouraging reports were made by the committees on civic improvement, Juvenile Court and publicity. The latter reported that public sentiment was growing more favorable toward making the kindergarten a part of the public school. This will be one of the questions to be voted upon at the June election. The association pledged its support to the Rose Festival in response to an invitation from President B. McClelland. The next meeting will be April 2, when the election of officers will occur.

Ringler's hall. One hundred couples were present. The evening's amusement was opened with a grand march. Among those present were Mrs. Alma Crockett, Mrs. Emma Cleaveland, Mrs. Dell Glick, Mrs. Ida Coffin, Mrs. E. MacPherson, Mrs. J. B. Coffey, Mrs. Lu Plinger, Adjutant-General Finzer, Miss Gladys Crockett, Misses Crissie MacPherson, Dorothy and Hazel Cleaveland, Ethel and Donna Guise, Genevieve Coffin, Genevieve Coffey, Emma Petch. The Gitanos Girls intend giving another party in the near future, owing to their initial success.

Thursday evening, March 6, Professor and Mrs. Krohn entertained the Multnomah Club basketball team at their home, East Twelfth and East David streets. A very pleasant evening was spent. The piano playing of Robert Krohn, Jr., and the singing by Mr. Dan Bellinger was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Big Morris, by his numberless funny stories, made a decided hit. On leaving the club boys gave three cheers for Professor and Mrs. Krohn and the Multnomah team. Those present were: Messrs. Hal Beach, Dan Bellinger, Bert Allen, Harry Livingston, Big Morris, Harry Fisher, Art Allen, Ralph Knight and Charles Barton.

The ladies of the Eastern Star were hostesses at one of the most delightful dancing parties of the season Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Woodman. The event being the last of the pre-Lenten social functions to be given by that popular organization. There were many prominent Masonic guests present and fully 25 couples enjoyed the dancing. Many unusually handsome gowns were in evidence and the occasion was a marked success from every point. The guests were received by the hostesses. The club makes announcement that there will be no parties during Lent.

One of the most novel stag events of the season was given by Webfoot Camp, No. 65, W. O. W. Friday evening. A series of moving pictures and views of war scenes were shown on the canvas and also scenes depicting a wrestling match in Portland between Fred A. Frieskorn and Charles Swanson. A number of speakers were introduced by Consul Commander Dr. H. J. Harris, among whom were Robert G. Morrow, Frank Motter, Gus C. Moser, Dr. Emmett Drake, Dr. H. P. Leonard, Past Consul Major William Reidt and Tom Wood.

Tuesday evening the Holy Name Society of the Sacred Heart parish on Milwaukie street, gave an entertainment in the club house that was attended by a large audience. Miss Harvas sang several selections most charmingly. Miss Schomus also received an encore for his vocal solos. The Schomus orchestra rendered a number of selections, and the Oregon Quartet delighted the audience with songs. Judge M. S. Munly delivered an appropriate address. F. Hennessy and James Rudiman were on the programme.

For the benefit of two needy families, a skin of beauty is a joy forever. Dr. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier. Removes Tan, Pimples, Redness, Moth, Freckles, Blemishes, and Skin Diseases. Cleanses every blemish on the face. It is the best skin treatment. It is the best skin treatment. It is the best skin treatment.

lles in Milwaukie a leap year party was given Saturday night, February 29, that was attended by practically every resident, the band hall being crowded to its utmost capacity. John H. Gibson, Cap Kerr, George Atwood, Arthur Dowling and Isaac Mullian were every resident, the band hall being

Thursday evening, March 6, Professor and Mrs. Krohn entertained the Multnomah Club basketball team at their home, East Twelfth and East David streets. A very pleasant evening was spent. The piano playing of Robert Krohn, Jr., and the singing by Mr. Dan Bellinger was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Big Morris, by his numberless funny stories, made a decided hit. On leaving the club boys gave three cheers for Professor and Mrs. Krohn and the Multnomah team. Those present were: Messrs. Hal Beach, Dan Bellinger, Bert Allen, Harry Livingston, Big Morris, Harry Fisher, Art Allen, Ralph Knight and Charles Barton.

The ladies of the Eastern Star were hostesses at one of the most delightful dancing parties of the season Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Woodman. The event being the last of the pre-Lenten social functions to be given by that popular organization. There were many prominent Masonic guests present and fully 25 couples enjoyed the dancing. Many unusually handsome gowns were in evidence and the occasion was a marked success from every point. The guests were received by the hostesses. The club makes announcement that there will be no parties during Lent.

One of the most novel stag events of the season was given by Webfoot Camp, No. 65, W. O. W. Friday evening. A series of moving pictures and views of war scenes were shown on the canvas and also scenes depicting a wrestling match in Portland between Fred A. Frieskorn and Charles Swanson. A number of speakers were introduced by Consul Commander Dr. H. J. Harris, among whom were Robert G. Morrow, Frank Motter, Gus C. Moser, Dr. Emmett Drake, Dr. H. P. Leonard, Past Consul Major William Reidt and Tom Wood.

Tuesday evening the Holy Name Society of the Sacred Heart parish on Milwaukie street, gave an entertainment in the club house that was attended by a large audience. Miss Harvas sang several selections most charmingly. Miss Schomus also received an encore for his vocal solos. The Schomus orchestra rendered a number of selections, and the Oregon Quartet delighted the audience with songs. Judge M. S. Munly delivered an appropriate address. F. Hennessy and James Rudiman were on the programme.

For the benefit of two needy families, a skin of beauty is a joy forever. Dr. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier. Removes Tan, Pimples, Redness, Moth, Freckles, Blemishes, and Skin Diseases. Cleanses every blemish on the face. It is the best skin treatment. It is the best skin treatment. It is the best skin treatment.

Thursday evening, March 6, Professor and Mrs. Krohn entertained the Multnomah Club basketball team at their home, East Twelfth and East David streets. A very pleasant evening was spent. The piano playing of Robert Krohn, Jr., and the singing by Mr. Dan Bellinger was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Big Morris, by his numberless funny stories, made a decided hit. On leaving the club boys gave three cheers for Professor and Mrs. Krohn and the Multnomah team. Those present were: Messrs. Hal Beach, Dan Bellinger, Bert Allen, Harry Livingston, Big Morris, Harry Fisher, Art Allen, Ralph Knight and Charles Barton.

The ladies of the Eastern Star were hostesses at one of the most delightful dancing parties of the season Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Woodman. The event being the last of the pre-Lenten social functions to be given by that popular organization. There were many prominent Masonic guests present and fully 25 couples enjoyed the dancing. Many unusually handsome gowns were in evidence and the occasion was a marked success from every point. The guests were received by the hostesses. The club makes announcement that there will be no parties during Lent.

One of the most novel stag events of the season was given by Webfoot Camp, No. 65, W. O. W. Friday evening. A series of moving pictures and views of war scenes were shown on the canvas and also scenes depicting a wrestling match in Portland between Fred A. Frieskorn and Charles Swanson. A number of speakers were introduced by Consul Commander Dr. H. J. Harris, among whom were Robert G. Morrow, Frank Motter, Gus C. Moser, Dr. Emmett Drake, Dr. H. P. Leonard, Past Consul Major William Reidt and Tom Wood.

Tuesday evening the Holy Name Society of the Sacred Heart parish on Milwaukie street, gave an entertainment in the club house that was attended by a large audience. Miss Harvas sang several selections most charmingly. Miss Schomus also received an encore for his vocal solos. The Schomus orchestra rendered a number of selections, and the Oregon Quartet delighted the audience with songs. Judge M. S. Munly delivered an appropriate address. F. Hennessy and James Rudiman were on the programme.

For the benefit of two needy families, a skin of beauty is a joy forever. Dr. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier. Removes Tan, Pimples, Redness, Moth, Freckles, Blemishes, and Skin Diseases. Cleanses every blemish on the face. It is the best skin treatment. It is the best skin treatment. It is the best skin treatment.

Spring Opening

We desire to announce that our opening display of Spring and Summer Millinery will take place Monday and Tuesday, March 9 and 10, and extend a cordial invitation to our patrons and the public. We begin our second Spring season with a much larger stock and a more attractive store and are prepared to handle our rapidly increasing patronage more satisfactorily. All the season's latest creations in shapes and trimmings are displayed.

Rose City Millinery

TWO STORES

403 MORRISON, NEAR TENTH AND 595 WILLIAMS AVE., ALBINA

The "Lagenore" Elastic Corset

For ladies of good taste who desire comfort, perfect symmetry of form, grace of movement and deep breathing. These become realities when you wear the "LAGENORE" Elastic Corset.

Each corset is made to order from your measure, of the best quality of knitted silk elastic, and they outwear any other corset on the market.

Our corset specialist takes your measure at your home. Ladies out of town will be furnished with complete instructions for taking measurements. Write, call or phone.

Corset Department

GINNEVER & WHITTLESEY MFG. CO.

64 Sixth Street, Bet. Oak and Pine, Portland, Oregon