HEARST PAPERS SPREAD ANARCHY

Murder of Father Heinrichs Is Attributed to Their Slanders.

MOTIVE GREED FOR MONEY

Organ of Catholic Church in California Scores Principal Yellow Papers Without Mercy as Panderers to Vile Passion.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—(Special.)—The Monitor, the official organ of the Catholic Church in California, in its issue today publishes an editorial condemning the Hearst newspapers as largely responsible for the anarchistic outbreaks in America today. Special reference is made to the assassination of Father Leo Heinrichs in Denver. In part the editorial says:

"We are glad to see the New World, of Chicago, the official organ of Archbishop Quigley, issuing the same warning to its people against Hearst's Chicago American that we have given time and again against the Examiner, of this city. If civilized society would successfully combat the forces of anarchy and immorality, it must put a curb on such instruments of danger as these papers are.

Ella Wheeler a Horrible Example.

"Hearst's Examiner, right here in San Francisco, last January published an article by Ella Wheeler Wilcox in which she said:

"'I believe every child born of a mother who loves its father is legitimate in the eyes of God,' a doctrine which simply blows morality to bits. Yet this Wilcox woman is featured day after day in that paper as a favored and authoritative contributor.

"This degrading speech made by a shameless woman was soon followed by another from the same pen, to illustrate which a cartoon was published, representing Catholic monks reveling around the burning of a woman at the stake, and two weeks later the patrons of the Examiner were treated to a picture of a monk with a woman clasped in his arms. But these are only a few instances.

Slander on Monks.

"Hardly a day passes which does not see some filthy editorial, cartoon or news item printed in the Hearst papers. Yet their words are devoured by the people, to whose lowest passions they appeal. How can purity or morality grow in the homes where such reading is the daily food of the household?

"Was it merely a coincidence that a few weeks after the Hearst slander on the monks a Franciscan priest was murdered at the altar?

"But it is hunger and need that make anarchists, you argue. What, then, makes hunger and need? Greed for money, and such journals as the Hearst papers have but one aim and object—the making of money. There is no more degraded money-grabber in the world today than Hearst, for he coins his money out of the lowest passions of the people.

Have Wit of Evil One.

"We warn the Catholic people of America against the yellow press, and principally against the Hearst papers—there are several of them. They have the wit of the evil one and will stop at nothing to beguile the public into buying them.

"L'Asino is not the only dangerous paper circulating in San Francisco. Again, in all seriousness, we say, let the Catholic people take warning against the Examiner, nor be fooled by its cunning. Catholic men and women should fear to bring such a journal into their homes. They are taking a great risk in doing so. We have said this time and again. The warning cannot be too often repeated and emphasized."

COLLINWOOD BURIES DEAD

FIXES TOTAL NUMBER DEAD IN SCHOOL AT 174.

Boy Who Jumped Dies—Many Bodies Wrongly Identified—Children to Build Memorial.

CLEVELAND, March 7.—The total number of dead as a result of the burning of the Lakeview school in Collinwood, last Wednesday, is now thought to be 174. Of this number the bodies of 167 have been found. The bodies of six other children are believed to have been burned to ashes. This is the opinion of the village officials, who have compiled what is supposed to be a complete list of the missing.

The death list was increased early today by the death of Glen Barber, 10 years old, who succumbed to injuries sustained when he leaped from the second story of the doomed building, while his schoolmates rushed headlong into the flames in the lower hallway.

Of the bodies recovered 147 have been identified. The last identification was established late today, when the body of Richard Kelly, the 10-year-old son of Walter Kelly, marine editor of the Cleveland Leader, was picked from the ruins.

This was another day of funerals. Throughout the day about 70 bodies were buried. More than 40 were interred yesterday. There will be several more funerals tomorrow.

It is believed by officials in charge of the bodies that mistakes have been made by parents who claimed the little blackened remains during the excitement of the first day or two, and that they took possession of bodies that were not those of their dead children.

The Village Council of Collinwood has purchased a small tract of land in the village cemetery, where all bodies of the unidentified will be interred.

A movement has been started among the school officials of Cleveland to have the school children of this city erect a monument to the memory of the little ones who lost their lives in the ill-fated Lakeview school fire.

BLAZE IN APARTMENT HOUSE

Occupants Flee in Terror to Street in Night-Clothes.

LOS ANGELES, March 7.—The Rowan, a six-story apartment-house, at 123 South Hope street, was partially destroyed early this morning by a fire that originated in an explosion near the heater in the basement. The flames shot up the elevator shaft, for a time imperiling the lives of 130 occupants of the building, who fled to the street in their night-clothes.

The only person injured was a woman who sprained her ankle in jumping from the building. The house was leased by Mrs. C. F. Lemon, a second cousin of Rear-Admiral R. D. Evans. The loss amounted to about $5000.

FIRE NEARLY PROVES FATAL

Destroys Dancehall and Sleeping Inmates Are Saved by Firemen.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—In a fire which probably started from the spontaneous combustion of rags soaked in paint and oil, in the rear of the Midway dance hall and saloon at 475 Pacific street, this morning, three buildings were completely demolished and several sleeping people narrowly escaped death from the flames. Fire Chief Cook, from the Jackson-street station, who answered the alarm and went into one of the burning shacks in search of women who were supposed to be sleeping there, nearly succumbed to the stifling smoke and fumes from the red-hot corrugated iron and was obliged to crawl on his hands and knees over the floor, which threatened to collapse at any moment and precipitate him into the flaming furnace.

That there were no lives lost is due to the vigilance and promptness of the fire department officers, who dragged the sleeping and dazed people out of their beds and forced them out of the windows into the net in the hands of firemen in the street below.

The property loss was about $25,300.

The buildings destroyed were the Midway dance hall, the Free theater and the Whosoever Will Mission. Above the Free theater, four men and women, vaudeville performers, were fast asleep in their rooms, with the doors locked. These were broken in by the firemen with axes and the people rescued. May Wilson, one of the women saved, thought that three other women were in the building, and it was in searching for them that Chief Cook was nearly caught by the flames. He proved, however, that Miss Wilson was mistaken.

Condition of Chicago Schools.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Immediate official investigation of the provisions for fire protection in the Chicago public schools was ordered yesterday by the school management committee of the board of education. A board consisting of E. G. Cooley, superintendent of schools; Dwight H. Perkins, school architect, and T. B. Waters, school engineer, will make an exhaustive examination of the fire escapes, stairways and exits at the various schools, test the efficiency of the fire drills and investigate any violations of the city fire ordinances that may be found. The committee also voted to amend the rules of the board so as to make it the personal duty of each school principal to see that all exit doors, inside and outside, are unlocked during school hours. Delegation of this authority to a subordinate or a pupil will be considered a grave misdemeanor. Heretofore it has been the duties of engineers and janitors to see that exit doors are unlocked.

Blaze in Apartment House.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The residents of the 30 apartments in the Buena Vista apartment buildings at Buena Terrace and Clarendon avenue fled panic-stricken today when a fire, which broke out in the basement from a lamp explosion, spread with great rapidity through the building. None of the tenants was injured. Loss, $15,000.

PAY MORE FOR INSURANCE

Independent Foresters Will Raise Rates Next June.

TORONTO, Ont., March 7.—When the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters meets in June it will ratify an increase in rates and rescaling of charges to members dating to 1899 that will materially affect 260,000 members of the order.

The new members will be put on the scale of charges of the National Congress fraternal table, which will be an increase over the rates put in force by the I. O. F. in 1899. The most striking change will be that affecting charges to the older members that came into the order prior to 1898. They will be asked to pay, either in a lump sum or in another way, enough to bring them up to date in comparison to what the rates charged for at their age by the order are now.

Those who cannot pay the increased rate will have the face value of their policy correspondingly decreased.

NOBLEMAN DIES UNKNOWN

Thought Irish Earl Was Buried in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7.—A man who died at the Kansas City General Hospital on February 12, last, and was buried here unidentified, is believed to have been Francis Patrick Clements, aged 22 years, brother and heir of Charles Clements, earl of Leitrim, of Donegal, Ireland. The body was exhumed this afternoon and answers the description of Francis Patrick Clemenis as far as received. Lord Leitrim's brother had been missing since May, 1907.

Johnson Silent About Boom.

ST. PAUL, March 7.—Governor Johnson last night declined to make any statement of his attitude in regard to the action of the Minnesota Democratic State Central Committee. His private secretary, F. A. Day, who is chairman of the State Committee, said to the Associated Press:

"The Governor is not ready to make a statement yet. I doubt very much whether he will make any statement as to his position until after the state convention. I presume there is considerable interest in the East as to what position he will take in view of the action of the committee yesterday, and while that action practically placed him in the Presidential field, I know he will not say anything now."

Dabney, who own considerable property in this city, in California and Oregon, has been settled out of court. The brothers disagreed over property in Aberdeen and the suit has been pending for over a year. Messrs. Joseph and A. R. Dabney reside in Oakland, Cal., and Richard Dabney in Portland.

DEMANDS ARE MADE

Japan's Minister Presents Ultimatum to China.

FORCE AS LAST RESORT

Unless Tatsu Maru and Cargo Are Restored With Indemnity and Apology, Hostilities May Result Before Long.

PEKIN, March 7.—Japan's ultimatum in the case of the Japanese steamship Tatsu Maru was presented to the head of the Chinese Foreign Board yesterday, and today the board has the matter under consideration.

The Tatsu Maru was seized off Macao on February 7 by Chinese custom's cruisers on the charge that her cargo of arms and ammunition was intended for Chinese revolutionists, although consigned to a merchant of that place. The steamer is now being held at Whampoa, on the Canton River.

The irreducible minimum of the Japanese claims is the restoration of the steamer, as well as of her cargo, and the payment of a full indemnity. Action is demanded within a "reasonable time." In case of default or postponement, Japan, according to the terms of her ultimatum, will "take immediate action."

Japan expects a reply by tomorrow. She will not tolerate China's offer to investigate the case. She insists upon an apology for the hauling down of the Japanese flag on the Tatsu Maru and she will not accept mediation, affirming that China is in error and that the facts are incontrovertible.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister to China, in delivering the ultimatum, made reference to Japan's sympathy for China in the matter of contraband traffic in arms and explained that China could not expect mediation so long as she did not admit the participation of the Portuguese.

THE SAME OLD MINISTER WU

Asks More Questions Than He Answers at Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Minister Wu Ting Fang, who returned to the United States as China's diplomatic representative, after several years' absence, arrived in Washington tonight, and was met by the Chinese Legation staff and driven to the legation, where he received the representatives of the press.

As of old, he was the interviewer, particularly when the questions addressed to him approached the subject of the present trouble his country is having with Japan over the seizure of the Tatsu Maru on the charge of smuggling arms into China for the supposed benefit of revolutionists. In fact, he has changed very little. He appeared to be just as anxious to absorb information and just as keen to raise an issue with those who undertook to satisfy his appetite for news.

After the subject of the seizure of the Japanese steamer had been brought up a number of times, Mr. Wu finally said that he had been traveling so long that he knew little about the controversy, but he did not believe the situation to be as serious as it had been represented in the press. He declared his intention of awaiting definite information from his government before discussing the question.

There was one subject the Minister discussed willingly, and that was the advancement that is being made in China. He said that, if he had not been there himself, he could not conceive of the progress that has been made in the last decade, and especially the last four or five years. The world does not realize it, he said, and cannot know that the nation is alert in a truly modern sense. He thought his country would take rank with the most powerful nations within a short time.

These expressions were interspersed among his questions and were used chiefly to circumvent the curiosity shown by his questioners as to what China is likely to do in regard to Japanese commercial aggression and the demands of the latter government in regard to the Tatsu Maru case. Plainly the inference was that he expects his government to take a firm stand on all of these questions.

Mr. Wu said he would call on Secretary Root at once, with a view to having his credentials presented to President Roosevelt at an early date.

ONLY USE FORCE IF NEEDED

Japan Promises Patience, but Insists on Her Demands.

TOKIO, March 7.—"Tokio will not resort to force in connection with the seizure of the steamer Tatsu unless compelled to do so by the action of China."

This statement was given to the Associated Press correspondent today by a high authority in the foreign office, who, continuing, said:

"We propose to exercise the utmost patience and fully understand the difficulty the central government of China has in dealing with Viceroys who possess extensive constitutional powers. It is quite apparent that the Viceroy of Canton acted hastily in relying upon information which stated that the Tatsu was engaged in smuggling arms. He conceived therefore that he had a right to seize the vessel when the facts show that the vessel's papers, including a manifest of arms consigned in regular form to a firm in Macao, were entirely legal. A representative of the firm at Macao boarded the vessel accompanied by the Portuguese authorities before her seizure by a Chinese vessel. She was undoubtedly then in Portuguese territorial waters. The claim of Japan that this is a clear case of violation of her national rights and an insult to the flag was proved by the Chinese themselves in offering to restore the ship together with a further promise received today to reprimand the officers who lowered the Japanese flag. Notwithstanding this, while we are determined not to concede what we believe is proper, but to ultimately enforce our demands, should China refuse to listen to reason, the world may rest assured that Japan will not act hastily, but will weigh her future actions with the utmost deliberation."

This interview was given after a cabinet meeting and conferences. Foreign Minister Hayashi said later to the Associated Press correspondent he had reason to believe it was then determined not immediately to reinforce the cruiser Idzuma, now at Canton. But that the Idzuma, which was used as a training vessel, would remain there a few days longer.

Today's advices from Pekin contain an offer to punish officials connected with the seizure and also a statement from Yuan Shi Kai that he desired further time for consideration of the Japanese demands. This will be granted by the Japanese government and it is confidently believed that an agreement will finally be reached between the Viceroy of Canton and the central government.

The Chinese Minister at Tokio held a lengthy conference with Baron Chinda, vice-Minister of the foreign office, this morning. During the session of the cabinet the Chinese Minister first contended that because Portugal held Macao waters under treaty, therefore the waters remained actually under Chinese sovereignty. Later, however, the Minister withdrew this contention when instances were quoted of other leases, those of Wei Hai Wei and Kiao Chau. The foreign office does not expect any further developments for a few days, the only points remaining undecided being the restoration of the arms which Japan continues to demand, also raising the Japanese flag on the Tatsu with appropriate ceremony.

ONLY SEVEN JAPS CAME IN

Immigration Rules Effective and Will Apply to Mexico.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Pacific Coast members of Congress have been informed that only seven Japanese, and these not laborers, have entered the United States this year, which is regarded as showing the effectiveness of the new emigration regulation which Japan has formulated and undertaken to enforce.

There is an apprehension that some Japanese laborers have entered the country through Mexico, but it is learned that Mexico is negotiating with Japan for practically the same regulations that have been applied to the United States.

MARION VOTERS DIVIDED

MANY REPUBLICANS FAVOR STATEMENT NO. 1.

Returns From Precinct Selection of Delegates to Convention Show a Variety of Views.

SALEM, Or., March 7.—(Special.)—Returns from the majority of the precincts in the county, up to midnight tonight, show that the delegates to the Republican county conference, to be held in Salem next Saturday, are pretty nearly equally divided upon the question of Statement No. 1, which is the sole issue in the Republican ranks in this county, and it is a question as to which way the "conference" will decide.

It is almost certain that no candidate or set of candidates will be slated or indorsed by the convention, and the only platform that Republican candidates for the Legislature will have to run upon is that which the convention chooses to adopt, or they may take their choice as to its indorsement or rejection.

This phase of the case regarding the Republican campaign developed at the meetings of the voters in the seven precincts of Salem tonight. The most pronounced sentiment, probably, was exemplified at the meeting in Precinct No. 2, where there was a large gathering of voters, and the question of whether or not the county convention should or should not indorse any particular candidate or set of candidates for the Legislature was argued at length. It was settled decidedly when the motion of Mayor George F. Rodgers, to the contrary, was adopted by a large majority, by acclamation.

Seventeen delegates were elected to the county convention from that precinct upon that understanding. The prevailing sentiment among the delegates elected to the convention appears to be in favor of the indorsement of the direct primary law as it stands upon the statutes, and, judging from returns from the precincts throughout the county, the party is pretty nearly equally divided upon the question of Statement No. 1 and anti-Statement No. 1.

REMARKABLE FEBRUARY SUCCESS

Our business last month, the shortest of the year, was 60 per cent greater than anticipated; it exceeded by thousands of dollars our most enthusiastic anticipations—although our calculations were made last Fall, when our new building was being erected, long before the business panic struck. We have proven that East Side people will patronize a FIRST-CLASS EAST SIDE FURNITURE STORE, and that they appreciate same. Also we have demonstrated that WEST SIDE RESIDENTS will gladly cross the river when they can save big money. In fact, the large volume of trade drawn from the West Side has astonished us. To one and all who have contributed to our remarkably rapid success we wish to express our deep sense of gratitude.

PARDON FOR ROBBER

Dick Fellows, Highwayman, Is Now at Liberty.

TERROR OF STAGE DAYS

Withal a Chivalrous Character, Who Never Troubled Women Nor Children—Was Model Character While in Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—(Special.)—Dick Fellows, the gentlemanly bandit, famous as Black Bart in the history of California stage robbing, was pardoned today by Lieutenant-Governor Porter, and will leave immediately for Kentucky, expecting never to look again upon the scene of his many crimes. A niece will arrive tonight from Kentucky, and with her the former highwayman will go back to his native state to remain until he dies.

Fellows has spent most of the last quarter of a century in jail after a career not equaled by gentlemen of the road since cavalier days. The tales of his exploits are almost history. He was a chivalrous rogue and never troubled women and children, always assuring them that they had nothing to fear. He is a well-educated man, conversant with several languages, and the son of a Congressman of Kentucky. Of recent years he has been the moral preceptor at Folsom Prison.

In his younger days, when he was "on the road," Fellows eluded capture time and again, making many escapes after capture, always taking to the road again. He terrorized whole counties and made stage traveling unsafe.

One story told of Fellows is that when he robbed a stage near Calleste, in December, 1875, his horse bucked him off when he was making his get-away, and with his leg broken he dragged himself through the rough country by his hands, carrying the express box with him.

Lieutenant-Governor Porter, acting in Governor Gillett's absence, granted Fellows a pardon this morning, in view of the fact that he is now 63 years old and has been a model of deportment in prison.
