UNION MASS MEETING.—There will be a union mass meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the United Brethren Church, East Fifteenth and East Morrison streets. The principal address will be by Rev. A. A. Winters, of the First United Evangelical Church, Tenth and Sherman streets, who will deliver the principal address of the afternoon. The object of this mass meeting is to secure united action toward establishing headquarters for practical union work in Portland. It is desired to be in a position to care for the needy and for strangers in the city, and to find employment for men and women. It is also proposed to make arrangements for holding union street meetings.

MUSEUM OF ART TODAY.—The Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor streets, will be open this afternoon from 2 to 5 with free admission. This is the second Sunday opening during the present exhibition. On the former occasion there were about 300 visitors. This is the last opportunity to see the fine watercolors privately owned in this city which have been lent to the exhibit during the past three weeks. Two watercolor drawings by Turner have naturally attracted much attention. A fine Blommers, lent by Mrs. Walter Mackay, one by Blommers, great master, Israel, belonging to C. E. Ladd, a beautiful mother and child by James Marks, from Mr. Wood's collection, are finely treated interiors, while in landscape the Dutch school is admirably illustrated. Many beautiful examples by eminent Belgian, French, Scotch and American artists are also shown.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.—The Public Library now has telephons, Main 1556. If you wish to renew a book, call up the circulating department; if you wish to renew a children's book, call up the children's department; if you wish any special information, call up the reference department; if you wish to ask about the traveling libraries, or the school collections, call up the county department. Telephone numbers have also been installed in the branch libraries, Albina branch library, East 55th; East Side branch library, East 19th.

FUNERAL OF MRS. D. F. STEWART.—The funeral of Mrs. Emma Stewart, wife of D. F. Stewart, a pioneer of Prineville, Or., will be held this afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, from Finley's Chapel. The hour was yesterday changed, the funeral having been set originally for 10 A. M. Mrs. Stewart was 59 years of age and died at the home of a daughter, at 411 Third street, in this city, Thursday, the 29th of February, of which Mrs. Stewart was a member, will have charge of the services at Riverview cemetery.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.—The following are the new officers of the Woodland Park Club: President, C. L. Bonelli; vice-president, W. L. Green; secretary, Henry Denlinger; treasurer, Charles P. Holloway. The club will meet the first and third Thursdays of each month. The first measure undertaken was the circulation of a petition for a chemical fire engine. Street matters also will receive consideration and the filling of obnoxious gravel pits will be taken up at an early date.

BISHOP SCADDING ON SHINTOISM.—Right Rev. Charles Scadding will begin his Lenten course of sermons on "comparative religion" in St. Vincent's Cathedral, Thirteenth and Clay streets, at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Bishop Scadding will deal with this subject from a wide and generous point of view. Men are particularly invited to tonight's sermon will be on "Shintoism."
