Oregon Music Festival to Be Held in April

CHORUS OF 300 VOICES, AND CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ARE FEATURES

THE advent of Herr Adolph Rosenbecker and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the latter consisting of 65 musicians, may be expected in the Armory, this city, April 10-11-12, to take part in Oregon's Annual Music Festival. The vocal soloists will be: Genevieve Clark Wilson, soprano; Rose Lutiger Gannon, contralto; John B. Miller, tenor; and Arthur Middleton, bass. A chorus of 300 voices will assist.

The concert of the first evening will be mainly orchestral, the chorus, however, will appear in Max Bruch's short cantata "Fair Ellen," which with its stirring dramatic music, is sure to please. The next afternoon, that of Saturday, an orchestral concert will be given, and in the evening the chorus attraction will be A. Goring Thomas' "The Swan and the Skylark," which is the most pretentious work after the "Messiah," to be presented. "The Swan and the Skylark" has never been heard in this city, and probably never before on the Pacific Coast. It is not often given, owing to the great difficulties of the chorus work, but has been presented in Eastern cities by the big oratorio societies, and is included in the repertoire of all oratorio singers of note. The music is beautiful, going from the sadness of the death chant of the Swan, which typifies death and despair, to the joyousness of the Summer Song of the Skylark, which typifies joy and triumph. The text is selected from Hemans, Keats and Shelley.

The stellar event of the festival, will be the presentation of the "Messiah," Palm Sunday afternoon. It has been many years since the "Messiah" has been given in this city, with a large chorus, and coming as it does, as a celebration of Palm Sunday, it promises to draw out the biggest crowd of the event. The chorus will give six numbers, including the best choruses in the oratorio, and the soloists will give the usual solos. The chorus will hereafter, until further notice, meet for rehearsal every Monday and Wednesday nights, at 8 o'clock at Eilers' Hall, Park and Washington streets, under the direction of W. H. Boyer. It is hoped to have a chorus of 300 voices, and new members will not be received after Wednesday night, March 11. More tenors and contraltos are specially desired.

ROSE LUTIGER GANNON, CONTRALTO, WITH CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

INDIVIDUAL CREDIT

The whole world operates on credit. Why shouldn't the individual? The average man can't possibly pay cash for everything he wants. What right, therefore, has the merchant to make borrowing any harder for his customers than the banks make it for him? A study of the subject reveals the fact that credit on commodities is a National necessity. We not only proceed upon that basis of relief, but we make our credit system clean, comfortable, dignified and desirable. Ours is not the old plan that made life a burden for buyers. It has experienced an uplift, and it is recorded for the good it will accomplish, not only for you, but for us.

ANNUAL DINNER OF CLUB

New Feature by Men of First Congregational Church.

An occasion of unusual interest was the regular monthly meeting of the Men's Club of the First Congregational Church last Monday night. This meeting resulted in the inauguration of what the club designs shall be an annual literary and social function hereafter, to be participated in by all members of the church and congregation. It is the determination of the club to dispel the idea which prevails in some minds that churches are ecclesiastical cemeteries, and to demonstrate by precept and example that the "glad hand" of welcome will be extended to all who come within the range of its membership.

Plates were laid for more than 300 men and women Monday night, and an excellent dinner served by a score of active young men, after which an informal programme was rendered as follows: Zither solo, John Boeckli; base solo, Stuart McGuire; acts in ventriloquism and impersonations, W. A. Coughlan. Following the exercises, Harold G. Rice gave an interesting and instructive illustrated lecture on "The First Rush to Nome in 1900," he being among the first to go there from Portland with a stock of merchandise. The lecture was illustrated with lantern slides of views taken at the time. The closing feature of the evening was the presentation to the church of a life-size bust portrait of the recent pastor, Rev. Elwin Lincoln House, D. D., the donation of Dr. Henry W. Coe, by M. C. George. The response was by E. B. McNaughton, president of the Men's Club, on behalf of the trustees, and also by Dr. Dyott, the present pastor.

Drinks Poison in Saloon.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., March 7.—Walter Phares, 21 years old, committed suicide this forenoon in a Main-street saloon by drinking carbolic acid. No cause is known. He stayed home last night and his brother came downtown with him this morning, when he seemed in good spirits.

A FEW MORE DAYS OF REAL PIANO BARGAINS

You Must Decide Quickly if You Want One of These Pianos.

Sherman, Clay & Co. have offered the piano-buying public the last few days some genuine values in slightly used pianos and the way these pianos have been sold shows that real bargains in pianos are quickly recognized.
