CHAS. J. O'TOOLE & CO.

IS there any one in Portland or vicinity, either a resident or a stranger, who does not think that all mining propositions are fakes or wild gambles, and who has a few hundred dollars to invest in a small, legitimate gold placer mining company, capitalized for only $100,000, with the chance to get in now at only a few cents advance above the original promotion prices paid for the stock? All bills paid up to date; hydraulic plant installed ready to operate as soon as the snow melts; money in bank to meet all expenses for the next two months; no liens against the company or property; a very little more money needed for working capital and to complete the purchase price of the claims; with the chance for large returns this summer.

The property has been favorably reported on by three mining engineers.

No triflers or stock jobbers need apply, or investors with less than $175. Best references furnished and exchanged.

Arrange for personal interview or leave name and address. G 704, Oregonian.

ESTABLISHED family hotel and dining room, right centrally located, long lease and low rent, well worth $10,000; can be purchased at $7000. None better on the market. Be sure and investigate.

$12,000 buys an old established hotel, barroom in connection; has made fortune for present owner, who wants to retire.
