FOR SALE—TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER FOR SALE.

I wish to call your special attention to the present action of Congress relative to the Oregon R. R. land grant." It is now evident that the people will get these valuable lands. The so-called "innocent purchasers" played their winning card and failed. Attorney Townsend is the right man and in the right place. I have a few more of these valuable claims not yet filed upon; some are well timbered, others will make ideal farming lands; my prices for filing and locations are $25, $50, $75, $100; I guarantee all I promise or money cheerfully refunded.

3 timber relinquishments, Josephine Co.

3 homestead relinquishments, Hood River district, containing 5 million feet; this land is valuable after timber is removed and merits your time for investigation; price only $5 per acre.

2 claims, 9 million feet; settle on until April 14, Land Office will accept filing on that date; these are two choice and valuable claims; price $1450.

I have options on deeded timber at prices ranging from 35c to $1 per M., and in quantities large and small. Have for trade an 8-room house for good timber relinquishment; value about $2000.

GEO. W. DOUGLASS,
318 Worcester bldg.

TIMBER LANDS.

Large and small tracts, relinquishments. 165 acres, Curry Co., about 3 miles to ocean, on good stream; cruise over 5 million ft. saw timber; good location; ½ cash; price $3000.

320 acres, Wash. Co., 10,000,000 ft. saw timber; six miles west of Forest Grove; good soil; make good farm when timber is removed; price $7000.

If you want relinquishments, I have all kinds and all prices and can suit you.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

COURTNEY'S.

Things are on the uplift; the depression of the past few months is over; everything, from a commercial standpoint, is improving; the merchants and other business men are showing greater activity in their different businesses; the demand for high-grade, competent men in every line is growing daily and we feel confident April, 1908, will show conditions generally not much different from April, 1907. The following positions we are unable to fill from our files:

BUYER AND MANAGER.

P 237—Calls for experienced dry goods man who can take charge of this department in store in town of 10,000; must be up-to-date and have salesman's ability; good personality; this is an exceptional opportunity for a live man to grow with the business; prefer a man who has held this position in a town in interior; salary to start $1200 and increase if you are alive.

MANAGER.

P 326—Want competent life insurance man, capable of taking charge and managing life insurance company; Oregon man if possible; executive ability, who knows this business.

These are a sample of the high-grade positions we are constantly being called upon to fill, and if you are a competent, high-grade man in your particular line, call and talk over our method of placing men with firms needing them.
