WEDDINGS.

Whitely-Meacham. Miss Frances Meacham was married to Mr. W. Frank Whitely on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets, Rev. Dr. Muckley officiating. The bride was charming in white messaline satin trimmed with rose point lace, and carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and bride roses.

J. Upton, Edward S. Taylor, James McKinnon, George H. Stovall, acted as usher. The bride was given away by her brother, Marion B. Meacham. The floral decorations at the church were very artistic, the color scheme being yellow and white. Immediately after the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride, at which relatives and intimate friends of the family were present. The wedding presents to the bride were many and beautiful. The young couple left for Seattle the following day, where they will remain for a few days before sailing for Alaska, their future home.

Prideaux-Roberts.

One of the pretty weddings of the season was solemnized at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Wednesday evening, March 18, when Miss Florence A. Roberts was united in marriage to Mr. J. Preston Prideaux, Rev. W. A. M. Breck officiating. The ceremony took place before an altar of greens and white carnations. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride entered on the arm of her brother. She was attired in a gown of cream albatross over white tulle, silk, trimmed with medallions and net, and wore a veil caught in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Lottie Robinson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a pink silk, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Marshall Grenfell, who acted as best man. The ceremony was performed amid a host of friends and relatives. The reception was held after the ceremony, at the home of the groom's parents. The home was beautifully decorated with daffodils and smilax.

Bond-Stewart.

A wedding of interest was that of Miss Elizabeth Stewart, of Forest Grove, to Richard J. Bond, of British Columbia, on Wednesday, March 18, at 2:30 A. M. Bales officiated. The bride was gowned in a brown traveling suit, and wore violets. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Flynn Lacombe, sister of the bride. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The couple left for Alaska via Seattle, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will make their home in British Columbia.

appropriating $150,000 for continuing the investigation for the protection of the lives of miners in the territories and the district of Alaska was called up, Senator Knox offered an additional amendment making the provision applying to the entire country. Mr. Teller declared that he would not consent to have the provision apply to Colorado, which he said had satisfactory mining regulations. Disclaiming that there was any intention on his part to interfere with the states, Mr. Knox said he believed the states would welcome such investigation. The amendment was finally agreed to.
