ROMBERG AT ACCOUNTANCY.—S. F. Major, a commercial traveler, who resides at 48 Taylor street, is the latest victim of the conding stranger game, according to a report made at the police station yesterday. Major met a man on the train while coming to Portland from Chicago, and this obliging person confided to him that he was a dentist. Major met the fellow on the street last Friday and accepted his invitation to have a drink. Major now asserts that the fellow drugged his drink and then robbed him of his pocketbook containing $100 and other valuable papers. Major reported the affair to the police but refused to give the name of his light-fingered friend.

Her ancestors were early New England settlers who had moved South, but returned to the North because of their opposition to slavery. Mrs. Thomas was educated at Earlham College and was married in 1866.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 21.—Lieutenant-General Stoessel, who yesterday began to serve ten years' imprisonment for cowardice and treason in surrendering Port Arthur, occupies a room in the Fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, adjoining that of Rear-Admiral Nebogoff, who is serving a life sentence for surrendering to the Japanese in the Sea of Japan. The room is about 20 feet square and overlooks a little garden in which the officers are permitted to promenade. Stoessel's family has received permission to furnish his cell. The officers in the fortress run a private mess of their own, and to this General Stoessel has been admitted.

The General's transfer to the fortress was unexpected. He persisted until the very last in hoping that the Emperor would pardon him, in order to secure a room for the new prisoner, two officers who had served under Admiral Nebogoff were dismissed of their room.
