FRED L. OLSON
Candidate for Re-election
Justice of the Peace.

Reindorsed by the Municipal League.

To the Public.
I respectfully submit that it is your sacred duty, as good citizens, to investigate the standing of every candidate and especially the official conduct of those seeking re-election. If you find that I, as Justice of the Peace of the East Side Court, have at all times honestly and conscientiously done my duty and you feel that I consider all public offices public trusts, then I respectfully ask you to re-elect me. If not, kick me out. That is your plain and only duty. If you would have a greater city, morally and commercially, you must have officials who know and dare do their duty. This I have tried to do.
Very respectfully,
FRED L. OLSON.

His Platform: The Oath of Office.

CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE, DEPARTMENT NO. 1

LAWRENCE A. McNARY.

Portland, Or., March 24, 1905
Mr. Lawrence A. McNary,
My Dear Sir:--

I understand you are a candidate for Judge in Department No. One of this Judicial District. I want to indorse your candidacy, and say that you were City Attorney of this City for three years while I was Mayor, and I had an excellent opportunity to judge of your qualifications for that office. It affords me pleasure to add that you were an honest and efficient officer, and, with an unblemished reputation, have in my judgment the abilities and legal attainments which a candidate ought to have to be elected Circuit Judge in this District.

Yours very truly

Geo. W. Williams

LOU WAGNER, FOR CONSTABLE

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

GUS C. MOSER FOR CORONER

For Republican Nomination,

Dr. JOHN S. STOTT

A Physician Should Be Coroner.

Dr. Stott was the first candidate for Coroner to declare in favor of a public morgue, his announcement appearing in The Oregonian Feb. 22. I have consulted no undertaker, or other person, or persons, especially interested in the conduct of that office, concerning my candidacy, and if I am nominated and elected, I shall endeavor to distribute the patronage of the office impartially among the several undertaking establishments of the city. I am, in fact, at present of the opinion that the establishment of a public morgue, if not an immediate public necessity, very soon will be. Such an institution would obviate many annoyances to the Coroner and public in general, and do away with many embarrassments and political preferences that have in times past obtained in this county in connection with the Coroner's office.

VOTE FOR HIM
"HE'S THE MAN"

"Very respectfully,
"J. S. STOTT, M. D."
