TAFT MEN ACTIVE IN HUGHES' STATE

Pledge All Republicans to Ohio Man as Second Choice in Convention.

GAME IS CERTAIN TO WIN

Assures Taft of Empire State Delegation as Soon as Its 78 Votes Are Needed—Governor Will Get Complimentary Support.

BY LLOYD F. LONERGAN.

NEW YORK, April 4.—(Special Correspondence.)—"As a Republican voter I heartily favor the nomination by the Chicago convention of William H. Taft for President, and desire my name to be enrolled."

"I favor the nomination by the Chicago convention of Charles E. Hughes for President, as a Republican voter; heartily approve the policies of Theodore Roosevelt. My second choice for the nomination is William H. Taft, of Ohio."

These are what might be called "Exhibits A and B of the Taft organization of the State of New York," which has opened headquarters at No. 170 Broadway. It represents a new idea in politics. The men back of it are not looking for delegates. To quote a follower of the race tracks, "they are playing for place money."

On January 23 Secretary Taft wrote his famous letter to Congressman Herbert Parsons calling off the fight on Governor Hughes in the New York County Committee.

In Hands of Unknown Men.

It is a significant fact that the big politicians of the Empire State are not noticeable figures in the Taft organization of the State of New York. Most of the men on the executive committee are practically unknown to the average voter. One of the executive committeemen is Samuel R. Betts. Mr. Betts is the partner of James S. Sheffield, Fire Commissioner of the city under Mayor Strong at the same time that Roosevelt was Police Commissioner. The two men became warm friends at that time and have maintained cordial relations ever since. Mr. Betts' presence on the committee is taken in many quarters as indicative of the fact that the President is interested in the organization.

The chairman of the executive committee is Louis C. Hay, who is constantly on duty at the headquarters. Very little is known about Mr. Hay's political affiliations. He simply describes himself as "a staunch Republican and a warm admirer of Secretary Taft."

"Our office in this city," explains Mr. Hay, "is merely an incident. We will open headquarters in practically every center of population in the state and push the work vigorously. It is our intention to bring out the strength of Mr. Taft in New York and show people that it exists. A great many persons have had the idea that the militant Republicans are solidly lodged behind Governor Hughes. This is not true, and we will easily prove it.

Taft Has Made Good.

"The Governor is deserving of all praise for the business-like administration he has given the people at Albany. He also deserves the gratitude of the people for his conduct of the gas and insurance investigations. But where he has demonstrated his ability in a few things, Secretary Taft has 'made good' in a great many widely separated spheres of activity.

"Governor Hughes has a local reputation, Secretary Taft's fame is not only National, but world-wide. That is why, without in any way attacking or belittling Hughes, we claim that Taft is the man the people demand as the successor of Theodore Roosevelt. Secretary Taft has told his friends that as Governor Hughes is a candidate, nothing must be done to take his home delegates away from him. I think everybody will agree that this is the most magnanimous thing ever done in political history."

"Then it is not the purpose of the organization to obtain delegates?" Mr. Hay was asked.

"Well," was the cautious reply, "if we can get the New York delegation to vote for Mr. Taft on the second or third ballot, there might be an advantage in that."

Here Is the Explanation.

This last answer explains the whole scope and purpose of the Taft organization, and is the worst kind of a black eye to the Hughes movement. The 78 votes of New York will be cast for Hughes on the first ballot, unless he should withdraw before the convention meets. But the party leaders, who will control that vote, want to make it clear when the time comes to shift that they are acting "in response to the dictates of the Republican party."

Canvassers in the employ of the "Taft organization" are making house-to-house visits throughout New York. Some of the men are organization workers, who labor without pay. Others presumably are drawing a regular stipend, and the expense must be enormous. It has not yet developed who is meeting the bills.

Every canvasser is armed with the two sets of blanks described above. Each man he meets is told of the manifold abilities of Taft and an effort made to secure his signature to "Exhibit A." Sometimes this succeeds, often it fails. In the latter case more argument results.

How the Work Is Done.

"Hughes is a good man and would make a fine President," remarks the caller. "If Taft should fail to land the nomination, I do not believe there is anybody his friends would turn to any quicker than they would to Hughes. Fairbanks is impossible. Cannon is too old, Knox, La Follette and Foraker are not in the running at all. You must always remember in politics that the man you want cannot always land the nomination he is after. That is why it is wise to have a second choice. Now, who is your second choice?"

And then the talk continues. In many cases staunch Hughes men have admitted that with Roosevelt out of the race and Hughes unable to land enough votes, they would prefer Taft to any of the other candidates, whereupon the visit concludes with a new signature to the list under "Exhibit B."

An assembly district leader in New York County, who is working with the Parsons faction, admitted today that the plan has met with success far beyond his most sanguine expectations.

"The only danger to us from the Hughes boom," he said, "was that the voters for the Governor might later slip away to some candidate other than Taft. Parsons privately claimed that he mapped out this new scheme, but it is my opinion that it came from 'higher-up.'

The Taft organization is performing a great work for its standard-bearer. It is solidifying the 'second choice' of the party in this state, and doing so in a highly satisfactory manner.

Every Republican Sounded.

"Few people realize how thoroughly and systematically this work is being performed. Canvassers are at work everywhere and before the Chicago convention meets practically every Republican in the state will have been seen, if present plans are carried out. Hundreds of thousands of signed cards will be taken out to Illinois for the inspection of the delegates. Men from every section of the Union will see and realize that our voters here want Taft, and that it is only state pride that seems to make them stand for Hughes, even on a complimentary ballot.

"The result will be that Taft will be helped almost as much as if he had an instructed delegation from New York. It will not hurt him one bit to have the Empire State's 78 votes go to Hughes. What is it but a compliment, anyway? On the first ballot Hughes is bound to make a poor showing. Everybody will recognize that he has no chance for the nomination. What will our leaders do then? Naturally they will think of those hundreds of thousands of signatures, representing the second choice of the Hughes men. There will be no evidence that the party voters favor any of its other candidates. Under the circumstances the logical thing for them to do will be to vote for Taft. And how on earth can even the Governor's dearest friends blame them if they do so? Why, what else can they do?"

Loyal Few Embarrassed.

The few politicians who are loyally interested in the promotion of Governor Hughes admit that these odd new tactics have placed them in an embarrassing position. They are urging their followers not to pick any second choice, but to proclaim themselves as "For Hughes, first, last and all the time." The trouble is that they can only reach a comparatively small number of voters and are in no shape to make a house to house canvass along the lines followed by the "Taft organization."

It is admitted that the "second choice" proposition has fooled a good many voters, who fail to realize that they are injuring Hughes, the man they want to see nominated, by designating his principal opponent as his political heir.

"But what on earth are we going to do?" remarked one disgusted State Senator. "The other side has all the money and all the brains. We did have the public sentiment, but that is a mighty small asset, and we seem to be losing a little more of it every day. All the Parson's crowd want is an excuse to drop Hughes at the crucial moment. This Taft organization has given them the excuse and they will be prompt to take it. That is one of the safest bets you ever made in your life.

"Just as soon as Taft needs New York's vote he will get the bulk of it. We may hold it three ballots, we may hold it only two. The one fact that is very clear is that everybody will know that it belongs to Taft, and the men who will do most to elucidate this are the very ones bound by Hughes instructions.

Will Be Laughing Stock.

"We are going out to Chicago to make a holy show of ourselves. Take it from me that Parsons-Barnes and that crowd will laugh at us all the way out and all the way back.

"Politics is a funny thing. If there had been a straight out fight between Taft and Hughes in this state the Governor would have swept the primaries. Now that everybody has declared for him he has not got a look in. Machine politicians will always fight whether they need to or not. But amateurs are the easiest people in the world to fool. They loudly cry for Hughes and then so act that the delegates elected for the Governor are legally justified in turning over to Taft.

"Whats the use? But those other fellows do understand politics. I hate them but I cannot help but admire them."

BUILD BIG POWER PLANT

May Lead to Coos Bay-Roseburg Electric Line.

J. S. N. Smith, of Coos Bay, consulting engineer of the recently organized Coquille Valley Power Company, was in Portland yesterday on business in connection with that project. Mr. Smith reports that the surveys for the pipeline, powerhouse and flumes have been completed and that work on the plant will begin in about two weeks. The powerhouse will be located midway between Marshport and Roseburg on the old Coos Bay wagon road at the gorge near Brewster Valley. The transmission line will be 23 miles in length.

Power has already been contracted for by Myrtle Point, Bandon, Marshfield and North Bend. It is believed that the construction of the power system is but the beginning of the Coos Bay and Roseburg Electric Railway, appropriations for which were in part made last Fall by citizens of Roseburg, but on account of the unsettled conditions of finances the matter was abandoned. It has now been taken up by Eastern capitalists and there is every reason to believe that the road will be built.

"The construction of the Coquille Valley Power Company's plant," said Mr. Smith yesterday, "will result in giving Coos County a lighting and power system with a minimum capacity of 4000 horsepower. This amount can be increased to 12,000.

"There is no doubt but that the development of this power system will be of inestimable value to Coos County, which is already rich in natural resources, and with this cheap power can invite the attention of capital in converting such resources into manufactured products. The inauguration of such a system will within a short time transform the Coquille Valley into a busy center of industry and wealth."

Races at Southern Oregon Fair.

MARSHFIELD, Or., April 4.—(Special.) The races at the Southern Oregon District Fair, to be held at Marshfield August 26 to 29, promise to be the best that have ever been held in this city. Seven of the Roseburg horses will be here and several of the California race horse men have signified their intentions of entering their strings. About a dozen horses are now being worked out at the track. The committee having in charge the arrangements for the fair will spend about $1500 repairing the fair grounds.

There is more immediate profit in an Evanston lot than any other subdivision in Portland. See it today. Take the "W W" car. The Spanton Company are the agents.

EX-PRIEST IS WED

Jeremiah Crowley, Unfrocked, Marries Stenographer.

BUSINESS MAN OF SEATTLE

Wedding Occurs at North Yakima and Ceremony Is Kept Very Quiet. Admitted by Brother of Girl. Attends Protestant Church.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The Record-Herald today says: Jeremiah Crowley the former Roman Catholic priest, whose criticism of church affairs and his fellow churchmen in the Chicago diocese brought him under the ban of an ecclesiastical interdict is now a married man.

The first announcement of the marriage of the former priest was made in the True Voice, the Roman Catholic periodical published weekly in Omaha, Neb. The paper received its information from Rev. J. C. McCarthy, the priest of the parish in Schuyler, Neb., of which Mrs. Crowley was a communicant.

Before the wedding Mrs. Crowley was Blanche Mac Leod and was employed as a stenographer in the office of Mr. Crowley. Crowley is now engaged in the real estate business in Ellensburg, Wash. Prior to leaving Chicago he was in the publishing business, his publications being books and pamphlets attacking the Roman Catholic clergy. The wedding ceremony was performed in Seattle, March 9.

Married in Yakima.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., April 4.—(Special.)—Jeremiah J. Crowley, an ex-Roman Catholic priest, who has quit the church and entered business life at Patterson, Benton County, was married in Yakima, March 9, to Blanche MacLeod, by Rev. S. J. Kennedy, of the First Presbyterian Church.

Living Very Quietly.

SEATTLE, April 4.—Mr. Crowley has lived in Seattle about nine months, and has during that time engaged in the real estate business. The ex-priest is now a member of the First Presbyterian Church here, and is an intimate friend of Rev. M. A. Matthews, the pastor.

Brother Confirms Report.

SCHUYLER, Neb., April 4.—D. D. MacLeod, Postmaster of Schuyler, today confirmed the report of the marriage of his sister, Miss Blanche MacLeod, to Jeremiah J. Crowley, an ex-priest. They were married two weeks ago.

DENOUNCE BUT KEEP PEACE

Socialists Condemn New York Police for Suppressing Meeting.

NEW YORK, April 4. — Without semblance of disorder and under the surveillance of police and detectives 1500 persons took part in a meeting of the Socialist party in the Grand-Central Palace today. The purpose was to discuss the attitude of the authorities in not permitting them to hold a public meeting in Union Square last Sunday and to let it be known that the Socialists were not in sympathy with the act of the bomb-thrower.

The police had warned the speakers against violent utterances and the speeches were mild. Robert Hunter, the Socialist who had been announced as one of the speakers, did not appear. Resolutions were passed denouncing the city officials for failing to give work to the unemployed and for withholding permission for the meeting in Union Square.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Anne Dillinger left last night to meet her brother in Los Angeles. Together they will make an extended trip through California and Texas.

Ralph D. Nichols, a Seattle lawyer and well-known Republican politician, was in the city yesterday on his way to Los Angeles, where he will spend a brief vacation.

Mrs. Charles S. Fee, wife of Traffic Director Fee of the Southern Pacific, is spending a short time in Portland on her way to Spokane, where she will meet her husband, who is coming west from Chicago. Mrs. Fee is traveling in the private car Sunset. Mrs. Fee will join her husband in Spokane tomorrow and the two will then return to Portland, reaching here early this week, spending several days in Portland.

Dr. Benjamin Young, of Taylor-street Methodist Church, returned yesterday from Eugene, where he delivered an address on "The Man of Nazareth" before the convention of the Y. W. C. A., now in session at that place. Dr. Young will occupy his pulpit this morning, speaking on "At the Wrong End of the Telescope." At the services tonight his subject will be "The White Thread in History."

Sacrifice Sale

TWENTY-ACRE SUBURBAN HOME

ONLY 19 MINUTES' RIDE

From business center of Portland.

For a short time only, this very convenient place can be bought for $10,500—upon terms if desired. The buildings thereon alone are worth $5000. The soil is very fertile, no rocks, no gravel; several acres in bearing fruit, the balance under cultivation. Do you know it takes 23 minutes to go to Irvington, where a single 50-foot lot sells at from $1000 to $1500, 20 minutes to Sunnyside, 34 minutes to Rose City Park, and so on down the line, whereas it takes only 19 minutes to get to this beautiful 20-acre home place? Note the above price. It's a sacrifice sale. My advise is, if interested, act at once. F BRESKE, 444 Sherlock building.
