MISS LISA WOOD, Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. E. Wood. From a Painting by C. Lillian Housell.

THIS early plan is being formulated for the Summer vacation, showing there is to be an unusual season to Europe and the Orient. This coming week Mr. and Mrs. George Good and Miss Frances Lewis are to leave for New York, sailing on the 19th for Europe, where they are planning to remain six months or a year. Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Mather and Miss Martha Hoyt are other prominent Portlanders who will be conspicuous by their absence from the various functions for some months. Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns will also spend the Summer abroad, taking with them Miss Anita Burns, who is at Star Club. Mrs. Richard Koshler and her daughter, Miss Lee Koshler, are also to join the colony abroad. On this coming Saturday Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Mather and Miss Martha Hoyt are to leave for San Francisco, sailing thence on the 10th for Hawaii. They are planning to tour the islands, where the climate is said to be ideal. The trip is to consume two months and a half.

Mrs. Charles Lutz is soon to be a hostess at her delightful morning entertainments, when her guests are seated at tea and to view the exquisite varieties of Spring flowers in the garden and conservatory of Mr. and Mrs. Lutz's handsome residence at Hillside.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Leonard recently left in their large touring car for California, where they will motor as far as the Mexican border, in company with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Stubbs.

Miss Amy Helms left on Thursday for Missouri, where she is to visit Captain and Mrs. George Willis Helms, who are stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. She is the very recent bride, was formerly Miss Richard Joseph. Miss Helms acted as one of the bridesmaids on that occasion.

It will be pleasant news to learn that Mrs. Louisa Gerding, who has been extremely ill with typhoid fever, while visiting in California, is now said to be convalescing, though her progress has been slow.

Mr. Drake O'Reilly is another Portlander who has been ill in California, with typhoid. He, however, has entirely recovered and has returned home after his long illness at Collins Springs.

A supper party at the New Norton hotel, following the performance of Mary McManis in "Glorious Hours" including Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koshler, Miss Fullin, Mrs. David Robertson, Miss May Felling, Mr. August Berg and Mr. Carl Smith.

Though many handsome floral arches are to be arranged for the coming Home Festival, both public and private plans for the first permanent arch have been made by Dr. and Mrs. Henry Walsh, who will be adjacent to their residence on Twenty-fifth and Lovick, spanning the street. The arch will not only be artistic but unique from the fact that it is to be composed of various flowers and vines, which will thrive during the only four seasons of the year. During the arrival it is to be covered with Caroline Testout roses, which no doubt will present a most attractive appearance. MISS ALICE HOWE, OF CARLTON, OREGON, a popular guest among the Portland Younger Set. From a Painting by Lily V. Oryan.

In the near future for the East, sailing on the first of May for Europe, where they have previously visited on a number of occasions and where they have many friends. They will spend the Summer in England, where their pleasant trip. Several affairs have been given in honor of the departure of the Misses Marshall, namely a luncheon on Thursday, which had Madame Von Bolton as hostess; a luncheon on Thursday, given by Mrs. E. L. Thompson; a dinner with Mrs. Robert Hall as hostess, and a luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. W. H. Marshall. On Monday of last week the Misses Marshall entertained at bridge for Mrs. H. A. Bodine, who leaves for Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gales and Mrs. Mabel Devers, who, with her parents, is making a tour of the world, writes from Hongkong of their pleasant trip. They have since left Japan for India and Egypt. Miss Harriet Kinney is another Portland girl who has been visiting in Hongkong.

A typical Spring wedding, lavish with flowers, was that of Miss Maud Hahn and Mr. Clarence Booth Lamont of Seattle, which took place last night. However, owing to the Lenten season, the decorations at the church were extremely modest, but the handsome residence on the Cornell road was a bower of glowing yellow tulle, yellow tulle and jonquils being used in great quantities. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John E. Simpson, at St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Mr. Lamont was attended by Mr. F. Lyman Palmer, of Virginia, and the bridesmaids were: Mr. Ralph Hahn and Mr. T. S. McCreath. The two bridesmaids, Miss Ethel Shea and Miss Maud Howell, made a stunning appearance gowned in a rich yellow satin empire costume with plumed picture hats of black, and arm bouquets of black-eyed Susans. Miss Della Hahn was the maid of honor in a dainty frock of white flannel over foundations of yellow chiffon and taffeta, worn with a smart white hat trimmed with white and yellow hydrangeas. The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a handsome shimmering gown of an ivory tint of satin, cut on the semi-empire lines, with a full length panel of lovely old lace. A filmy veil, with a cluster of orange blossoms, enveloped her figure and fell in graceful lines to the hem of the court train. During the ceremony Miss Edwina Maschick sang "I Love You Truly." Little Anastasia Norton was the flower girl, attired in a cunning frock of valencienne lace with a broad sash of yellow.

of her Portland acquaintances and devoted scores to her devoted friends and relatives in her Eastern home. Mrs. Sawyer was a woman of remarkable ability, possessing qualities of refinement, ambition and exalted purpose. She was married after having lived a life of successful activity in educational lines, to Colonel James A. Sawyer, of Sioux City, a man of social, financial and religious prominence. Colonel and Mrs. Sawyer were the parents of Mrs. Fletcher Linn, of Portland, and Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyer, of De Pauw University, Greencastle, Ind. Mrs. Sawyer was a direct descendant of the literary clan of Ferguson, of Scotland, and also a direct descendant of the illustrious and charming Elizabeth Patterson, the Baltimore belle and wife of Jerome Bonaparte.

Mrs. A. E. Rooker is visiting in Oakland, Cal., a guest of Mrs. W. H. Mills and the Misses Ardella and Rosalie Mills.

Mr. Edward Grelle and his fiancée, Miss Bessie Henry, of San Jose, Cal., were the honor guests last week at a prettily appointed dinner which had as its hosts Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord.

Mrs. Frederick M. Sellar asked in a few friends Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Amy Sellar, of San Francisco, who with her mother, Mrs. Sellar, left last evening for California. Mrs. Emma B. Carroll was also an honor guest at this informal meeting. Miss Sellar has lived abroad and is a brilliant pianist.

Mrs. T. L. Elliot is visiting in California, with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Wilbur.

The fifth meeting of the fortnightly dancing class will be held on Monday evening at Market Hall. In spite of the Lenten season the interest is apparently unabated, though a number have temporarily withdrawn during this period.

Friends of Mr. Calvin D. Cady, of Boston, and Mrs. Cady will be pleased to learn that they are again to visit Portland this Summer, arriving in June as has been their custom for some years. Mr. Cady has recently been given the flattering position of lecturer of music at Columbia College, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Stoneman leave this week for San Francisco sailing after a brief visit in the Bay City for Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal H. Bacon, formerly of Kansas City, are recent arrivals in Portland. They have taken apartments at 714 Davis street.

Mrs. R. H. Hand has left for an extended Eastern trip, visiting in St. Paul, New York, Washington, D. C., Atlantic City and Boston, the latter city being the home of her mother. While in Philadelphia she will attend the graduation of her nephew, Horace Child, who will finish in June at the Jefferson Medical College. Mrs. Hand is to be accompanied east by little Helen Wetzel, who, owing to illness, has been taken out of school. She is to study music while in Boston under Professor Cady.

Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur and Mrs. J. W. Cook are spending the week-end in Salem, guests of Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Edwina Daisy Maschick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Maschick, to Mr. Gerald Anthony, of San Francisco, which is to take place Tuesday, April 21, at the First Unitarian Church. Miss Maschick, whose pleasing soprano voice has been heard on many occasions, has been a number of showers since the announcement of her engagement.

The Consumers' League is to meet this coming Wednesday evening at Trinity Parish House.

Mrs. Ralph C. Walker, of Irvington, entertained recently with eight tables of bridge in honor of two recent brides, Mrs. Benjamin Berger and Mrs. Curtis Sargent, Miss Edwina Maschick, whose pleasing soprano voice has been heard on many occasions, has been a number of showers since the announcement of her engagement.

Mrs. D. P. Thompson and Miss Genevieve Thompson have taken up their residence at the Wells apartments on Twenty-third street.

An event of interest will be the Easter Monday tea of the Old Ladies Home, which according to the annual custom will again be held at the Hobart-Curtis.

After a three weeks' visit with Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Jr., and Mrs. Katherine Lyon, Miss Edwina Maschick has returned to her California home. Miss Torney, who is an accomplished and attractive girl, has visited here before on several previous occasions.

Mr. S. W. Ehrman, of San Francisco, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, returned to California last evening.

A number of affairs were given this past week in honor of the approaching wedding of Miss Maud Hahn. Mrs. George Willard Brown was one of the hostesses, entertaining at four apartments for the bride-elect with bridge, preceded by a luncheon. The table decorations were unusually effective, the round table being covered with white lace over a delicate shade of pink satin. As a centerpiece a huge fawn-shaped case was filled with a mass of pink carnations, while the candelabra were capped in rose-tinted shades and quantities of tiny wedding bells were suspended from the chandeliers. Favor were miniature slipper. Present were Mrs. Mildred Holbrook, Miss Frances Jeffrey, Mrs. Alexander entertained for Miss Hahn and Mr. Lamont with bridge followed by a chafing dish supper. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Buffum entertained in their honor with a dinner and theater party followed by supper at the New Norton Hotel Grill. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Arthur McComb asked in a number of girls and matrons to bridge. At the completion of the game Miss Hahn was asked to cut the wedding cake which proved to be a handkerchief shower.

Silk Gowns for Easter. Every one of these silk gowns is an art creation of rarest elegance such as is to be seen in Portland only at the "House of Tone." They are made of the most exquisite Miraga, Poplin and French Foulard Silks in the princess, empire, and overblouse effects—modishly trimmed with the new Paisley and Broche satin bands—lace, velvet and Dresden silk, with fringes, braids, buttons—and in a number, touches of flame red are cunningly introduced. No possible description can do these gowns justice. Our windows give but a mere suggestion of their varied beauty. Prices most reasonable, considering the quality of materials and workmanship.
