

LITTLE MISS HELEN LADD, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. J. WESLEY LADD

THE new Masonic Hall has been chosen for the second and last assembly, on Thursday, April 23, which will be one of the smartest dancing parties of the year. The patronesses are to be Mrs. Theodore D. Wilcox, Mrs. Richard Koster, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. William H. Warren, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. K. A. Mackenzie and Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth.

It will be a glad news to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Chasney Winslow, whose marriage was recently celebrated in Switzerland, are expected to return in the near future to Portland, where they are to reside. They, however, have not as yet sailed from Europe owing to the fact that Mr. Winslow has been ill.

After a pleasant month in Egypt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Robertson, Miss Nan Robertson, Mary, Dave and Jack Robertson visited in Jerusalem and spent also a fortnight in Greece, leaving thence for Naples. They are now in Rome, where they will remain until Easter.

Miss Henrietta and Miss May Felling will leave soon for St. Paul where they will visit Major and Mrs. Cabell. Later they will go to New York, where they will remain until mid-Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rush and their daughter, Miss Alta Rush, are to leave for a tour of the world, sailing from New York on the 16th. Miss Brady, an aunt of Miss Rush, is at present a guest at their residence. Upon their return home, via the Orient, they will be joined by Miss Brady in Japan. While abroad they will do much motoring, and incidentally purchase a French car, which Miss Rush, who is a clever chauffeur, will drive. Miss Hazel Chant, a Spokane debutante, is at present a guest at the Rush residence.

Miss Hazel Dolph, who is a favorite among both the younger and older sets, returned last week from a delightful visit East. Miss Dolph left early in September, going East with her brother, William Vanderbilt Dolph, who entered Williams College at that time. She again visited her brother en route home, and in the interim was entertained in Washington, Rochester and New York, being in Gotham during the opera season.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rush on their tour of the world, their residence on Everett and Twentieth-third streets is to be occupied by Mrs. A. M. Williams formerly of The Dalles, the mother of Mrs. George Marshall and Mrs. Russell Swall. Mrs. Williams has recently resided in Seattle, where her handsome daughter, Miss Florence Williams, is a great favorite. Miss Williams has lately returned from a motor trip through California with Seattle friends. While south she received many attentions from a guest of her sister, Mrs. Dunne, formerly Miss Jeannette Williams. Mrs. Williams left recently for the East, where she will attend the graduating exercises of her son, Robert Williams, at the University of Virginia. Mr. Williams is a Stanford man.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick B. Gifford are cruising on the Mediterranean en route to Egypt.

During her brief stay, Mrs. Patrick Campbell was invariably the cynosure of all eyes wherever she appeared. Her gown, however, was not particularly noticeable for its smartness, being cut on severe lines and invariably of somber hue, with one exception, a Copenhagen blue voile, with plumed hat to match, which she wore when driving about the streets and park in a victoria. Whether driving or dining, Mrs. Campbell was at all times accompanied by her famous little Japanese terrier, Pinky Panky Poo, who is now 17 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. James McL. Wood will leave soon for San Francisco to be present at the time of the reception of the fleet. While there they will visit with Lieutenant Wiley, U. S. N., brother-in-law of Mr. Wood, who is well known here, having visited on several occasions in Portland with Mrs. Wiley, who was Miss Bertha Wood. Lieutenant Wiley is now attached to the battleship Kentucky and is detailed on a three years' cruise. In the interim Mrs. Wiley is living abroad, where the children are at school in Switzerland.

MARION ALLISON SCOTT, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. SCOTT, AND GRAND DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. HW SCOTT

On the last of this month Andrew Kerr will sail for Scotland, visiting his old home at Newton Stewart.

Mrs. G. Walter Gates was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon on Friday, which she gave for Miss Dorothy Kinney, of Salt Lake. Additional guests were Mrs. George Marshall, Miss Fanny Brown, Mrs. James Dougherty and Miss Alice Sanbury.

Cards were received this week for the wedding of Miss Lacey Stuart Johnson, of Virginia, to Preston W. Smith, which is to take place in Washington, D. C., at St. John's Church on the 20th of April.

Miss Johnson is a member of one of the oldest families of Virginia. The wedding, which is to be a smart affair, is to take place at the home of Miss Johnson's aunt Max, who is well known here, having visited on several occasions in Portland with Mrs. Wiley, who was Miss Bertha Wood. Lieutenant Wiley is now attached to the battleship Kentucky and is detailed on a three years' cruise. In the interim Mrs. Wiley is living abroad, where the children are at school in Switzerland.

Mr. Frank Wilder, who left some weeks ago for Europe with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Blyth and their small son, has returned. As yet the Blyths, who have now a second son, are still in England, though they are planning to return this Summer.

A number of friends were at the depot last evening to bid bon voyage to Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Mathers, and Miss Martha Hoyt, who left for San Francisco, prior to sailing for a 10-weeks' trip to Tahiti.

Mrs. L. H. Tarpley and Miss Genevieve Thompson left for San Francisco, where they will visit for some weeks to come. Nearly the Old Ladies' Home tea at the Hobart Curtis is the principal event of Easter week, and this year is to be no exception to the rule. The reception committee will be composed of the president, Mrs. F. J. Mann, and vice-president, Miss Edith Nicholson, with the following additional hostesses: Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. Robert Livingston, Mrs. H. L. Pitlock, Mrs. H. C. Eckenberger, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, Mrs. James F. Felling, Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. Martin Welch, Miss Abbie L. Arwood and Miss Henrietta Palling. The programme is to be under the direction of Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, the candy booth to be under Miss Edith Houghton, the refreshment table in charge of Mrs. Herbert Holman, and the refreshments under the direction of Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Mrs. J. G. Gaud. The following matrons are to serve at the tea tables: Mrs. Charles C. Curry, Mrs. John Eben Young, Mrs. Walter V. Smith and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, assisted by Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Marjorie Noble, Miss Maida Hart, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Caroline Kamm, Miss Eva Jones, Miss Mildred Nichols and Miss Dorothy Holbrook. The tea is to be given on Monday, April 20, from 2 till 5 in the drawing-rooms of the Hobart Curtis.

Miss Floretta Emure, of Astoria, is the guest for a fortnight of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot.

Miss Laura Dunne has been the honor guest at a number of small affairs. Miss Ethel Shea entertained Thursday with a plate shower and bridge. At bridge Miss Ditchburn and Miss Howell were the prize winners. The guests were Miss Delta Watson, Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Harry Humphrey, Mrs. Otto, Mrs. Lucille Dunne, Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. Millard Holbrook, Miss Annie Shea and Mrs. S. C. Spencer.

Next week there will be considerable entertainings for Miss Dunne. Monday evening Mrs. Harry Humphrey will entertain at cards, and Tuesday Mrs. George Barker (Miss Sophie Groat) will give a luncheon at the Portland, followed by a bridge at Miss Delta Watson's home.

Enthusiasm is still being manifested among the members of the Portlantiety Dancing Club, which was held on Monday last at Murlark Hall. In spite of the counter attraction of Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the attendance was excellent, while a number of dances, besides the class and several supper parties followed. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson Ellinger were dinner hosts that evening, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, and Mr. and Mrs. John Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Inesley, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock and Dr. and Mrs. Skene. Dr. and Mrs. George Whitesides entertained also on Monday evening. A supper party following had as its hosts Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Stout, whose guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mum, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheney.

Dr. and Mrs. George Whitesides were also supper hosts at their residence.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Lang and Miss Gladys Lang have returned from a visit in St. Paul with Mrs. Dittmer (Miss Madeline Lang), who with Mr. and Mrs. Dittmer and their attractive child, is to visit here this Summer.

The first concert of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, which was such an artistic and financial success, is to be followed by an evening performance to take place at the Hall on Thursday, April 30. Mrs. Walter Reed contracts, and Henry Bettman, violinist, are to be the soloists.

Miss Agnes Hill, the bride-elect, has been the motif the past week for many dainty affairs. Her wedding to Mr. Horace Chapman is to take place Easter Tuesday at 3:30 P. M. at Trinity Church. The nuptials will be unique from the fact that in lieu of having bridesmaids, four matrons and brides are to compose the bridal cortege, all wearing their wedding robes. They are to be Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby (Miss Daisy Freeman), Mrs. Walter Gadsby (Miss Beatrice Hill), Mrs. L. Nathan Sweet, and Mrs. Ambrose Scott (Miss Frances Honeyman). Miss Judith Scott is to be maid of honor, and the ushers will be Mr. Benjamin Gadsby, Mr. Arnold Rothwell, Mr. Walter Gadsby and Mr. Ambrose Scott. Mr. L. N. Sweet and Mr. Chapman. The most elaborate affair last week for the bridal party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby at their attractive home on Oregon street, which was lavishly arranged with early Spring flowers. On Friday afternoon Misses Eva and Mildred Long entertained for Miss Hill with a luncheon, and the same afternoon a bride party was given in her honor jointly by Mrs. John H. Scott and Mrs. Leslie Scott at the former's residence. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. F. H. Hill was a bride hostess, and in the evening Mr. Arnold Rothwell entertained the bride party at his apartments on Willamette Heights.

A theater party at Mrs. Patrick Campbell's performance of "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbsmith," followed by a supper at the Portland Grill, included Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer.

A most auspicious musical event was the opening concert Friday night at the Armory of the first annual music festival of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Portland Choral Society of 300 voices, which was a great musical and social success, and won many compliments. The orchestral programme was a treat, as was also the singing by the Portland chorus of Max Bruch's cantata, "Fair Ellen." Yesterday afternoon a popular orchestral concert was given and in the evening a symphony orchestral programme, with a fine rendition of that choral gem of Goring-Thomas, "Swan and Skylark." This afternoon the "Messiah" will be sung, and tonight the festival closes with the most pretentious concert of all, participated in by orchestra and soloists.

Madame Von Bolton and Miss Von Bolton and Miss Nicholson entertained 30 matrons yesterday afternoon at tea. An interesting form of entertainment was the reading of several personal letters from Miss Wilson and Miss Patton, two brilliant English women relative to the third tour of the world which they have recently completed. Mrs. Daniel Shindler and Miss Ione Dunlap poured tea.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Laura Dunne, the eldest daughter of Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunno, to John Kerr, a nephew of Governor Chamberlain, which is to take place Wednesday, April 22, at the Dunne residence, on Seventeenth street. Miss Lucille Dunne is to be the bride, and Mr. John Kerr, of San Francisco, the best man. Miss Ethel Shea is to be the other attendant, and is also to sing.

The annual baseball game under the direction of the Fruit and Flower Mission Day Nursery, is to be held on the Multnomah Field, on June 21. The game last season was most successful and largely attended and this year is to be again

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS.
W. G. SMITH & CO.
WASHINGTON BUILDING,
Cor. Fourth and Washington Sts.

The Store Noted for Best Goods at Lowest Prices

The New Reduced Price List NOW READY Write for It FOR MAILING

Our Annual EASTER SUIT SALE Starts Tomorrow

We want every woman in this city and surrounding territory to view this splendid showing of high-class wearing apparel. Come whether you care to purchase or not—it's always a pleasure for us to show our goods. Starting tomorrow morning this Great Easter Sale will continue throughout the week and the values we offer are exceptionally good ones—even for us to offer. Only a few of the bargains are listed in this ad—you'll find hundreds more throughout the store equally as good, if not better. No charge will be made for necessary alterations. Included in this sale are about 30 high-grade sample suits—this season's very best styles and colorings—which we are going to close out at 60c on the dollar.

Suits $12.50
Women's and Misses' New Tailored Suits, in light and dark browns, navy, garnet, green, black, etc.—semi-fitted jacket and skirt, in full plaited styles—very best $18.00 values; Special Monday and Tuesday, $12.50

Fine Tailor-Made Suits
Our entire line of high-grade Suits, ranging in price from $27.50 to $35.00, on sale at twenty-three eighty-five. This lot takes in without reserve fully three dozen elegant new suits that haven't been in the house ten days, as well as a line of samples bought at 60c on the dollar. All popular styles are represented and a complete range of latest colorings. Choice, each, $23.85

$7 Silk Petticoats $3.98
The greatest Petticoat bargain ever offered by any store at any time. Made from pure taffeta silk, with silk under ruffles and deep flounce—a complete line of all the popular shades, including rose, gray, green, wine, black and blue—standard $7.00 values the world over. On sale Monday and Tuesday only at this special low price. Mail orders $3.98

Voile Skirts
Fine imported black voile Dress Skirts, made in the popular new gored styles, trimmed with bands of taffeta set with cluny insertion—very stylish and desirable and best regular $25.00 values. Monday $19.75 and Tuesday $19.75

White Waists
350 white lawn waists on sale Monday and Tuesday at half price. Come in long or short sleeves in pretty lace and embroidery trimmed styles or in the popular plain tailored effect with starched cuffs and collar—dozens of different patterns to pick from; best regular $2.00 and $2.50 value; each, $1.19

PARIS PATTERNS 10c MANY STYLES NOW READY
McAllen & McDonnell
Corner Third and Morrison Streets
PARIS PATTERNS 10c MANY STYLES NOW READY

"Merry Widow" Novelties

"Merry Widow" Veils, Scarfs, Ties, Hosiery, Belts, Belt Buckles, Back Combs, Purses and Parasols. If it's new, you'll find it here first, and our prices are always the lowest.

Bargains in Underwear for Women

Portland's leading Underwear store offers for tomorrow, Tuesday and Wednesday the following very special values. Read:
Women's and Misses' fine ribbed sleeveless Vests, best 17c grade, on sale Monday and Tuesday at, spec. 10c
Women's fine French lisle sleeveless Vests, in black, beautifully finished and standard 50c grade; spec. 19c
Women's and Misses' fine Swiss ribbed sleeveless Vests, with deep lace yoke—our best regular 20c quality; 2-day special 12 1/2c
Women's fine knit Union Suits—knee length, lace trimmed and splendid 70c quality anywhere. Monday and Tuesday 50c
Women's fine knit Pants, lace trimmed and our best 35c grade. On sale Monday and Tuesday, special, pair 25c
Women's jersey ribbed Vests in sleeveless and wing sleeves, lace trimmed or plain, also in out sizes; special 25c

Regular $1.25 Dress Goods 79c
a yard. On sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, any piece of $1.25 crepe de chine or voile, colors only, in the house at 79 cents a yard. Colors are tan, gray, champagne, blue and brown. Positively the best bargain in high-grade dress goods ever offered.

played by a team of bankers against a team of doctors and lawyers. C. where she has been a guest of her brother, Samuel Panton. While here she is to visit with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Panton.
Mrs. Matheson, of Billings, Mont., is to arrive on Wednesday from Victoria, B. C.
Miss Stella Frohman writes from St. Augustine, Florida, where she is at present with her mother, Mrs. I. Frohman, at the Hotel Ponce DeLeon. Since leaving here Miss Frohman has been pleasantly entertained while visiting in Pasa-

Easter Lingerie Waists

Sheer, dainty and becoming, always in perfect taste, nothing has yet been created that takes the place of these serviceable lingerie waists, especially for the Easter season. Made of fine French mull, handkerchief linen and allover embroidery, in styles distinctive of "The House of Tone" Sleeves both Mandarin and the new half-fitting, also epaulet shoulders. Trimmings of Fillet embroidery, Net, Cluny, Maltese, Point Vanise and Baby Irish inserts, tucks and plaits. Also popular tailored models in elegant linen with tucks and plaits that give the long-shouldered effect. A particularly complete assortment of these waists for

$1.50, $2, $3.00 $4.50 to $10.00

The Bartholomew Company

"The House of Tone" 392 Washington Street