

MISS LAURA GALE DUNNE, DAUGHTER OF COL. AND MRS. DAVID M. DUNNE, WHOSE WEDDING OCCURS WEDNESDAY EVENING.

present were: Miss Judith Scott, Mrs. Walter Gadsby, Mrs. Ambrose Scott, Misses Mildred and Eva Long, Mrs. A. C. Patton, Mrs. John Scott, and Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby. Bridge was played for the remainder of the afternoon.

Mrs. C. H. Lewis gave a luncheon at her apartments at the Oranocade last Monday afternoon, to announce the engagement of her sister, Miss Ethel Merton Hays, to Francis Willard Bond, of Portland. It was a prettily arranged affair, the table decorations being in the most delicate style.

Mrs. Albert Cohen of San Francisco, formerly Miss Carolina Barucha, of San Francisco, is a guest for a few days at the home of Mrs. James Timonah Barrett.

Mrs. Vida Reed returned last Tuesday evening from a visit to Oswego, Idaho, with her mother, Mrs. Walter Reed, who is a guest at the Nortonia Hotel.

Much interest is taken in the dance to be given Thursday, April 23, at the new Masonic Hall, for the benefit of the Baby Home. Prominent matrons are interested in the success of the affair, and have been busy making arrangements for the decorations to be in elaborate style.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas entertained last week the artists of the Symphony Orchestra with automobile rides, showing them the city, over which they were enthusiastic. Monday evening the orchestra played in Tacoma, but Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Miller remained in Portland, and were entertained at Steinway Hall with an informal musicale.

Mrs. Edwin Baird Mastick and Miss Harriet Marie Smith, whose weddings are to occur in the future, have been the motif for much entertaining of an informal nature.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the popular English actress, was much feted while appearing in San Francisco, where she is a decided favorite. Mrs. Campbell this year, as on previous visits, has been the guest at a number of affairs at Burlingame, the smart English colony, where she is always entertained by Mrs. Francis Carlson, formerly Miss Paulina, of Chicago, for whose family the Pullman cars were named. Mrs. Carlson has been frequently called the prototype of Mrs. Campbell, the resemblance in face and face being decidedly pronounced.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Judge are spending a few days at the beach.

Miss Josephine Smith will return tomorrow from a fortnight's visit with her sister, Mrs. Katherine Leslie Warren, of Astoria. Mr. Warren is slowly recovering from a mild attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. S. W. Church and her daughters, Misses Genevieve and Ruth, have returned from a two months' visit in California.

The last of the series of Scottish Rites at home will be held at the cathedral, Morrison and Lowndes streets next Friday night. The patronesses will be Mrs. J. J. Keady, Mrs. R. Martin, Jr., Mrs. C. E. Kinnon, Mrs. E. B. Colwell, Mrs. R. D. Cannon, Mrs. H. P. Palmer, Mrs. Philip New, and Mrs. J. P. O'Donnell.

Mrs. Frederick Speert has sent out cards for a musical in honor of the Women's Club.

Mrs. C. E. Smith and her young daughter, Miss Helen Smith, are at present in Naples.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wentworth, Jr. (Miss Lucy Sifton) left on Friday morning for Michigan, where they will visit for some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Wentworth, Sr.

Cards are out for a bridge party on Thursday, with Mr. John A. Shepard as hostess.

Mrs. J. H. Page has sent out cards for a bridge party on Wednesday at her residence on Portland Heights.

Any number of affairs were given during the past seven days for Miss Agnes Hill and her fiancée, Horace E. Chapman, whose wedding is to take place on Tuesday evening at Trinity Church, and to be followed by a reception, which will include only the relatives and bride couple. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chapman gave a dinner party in honor of the bride and groom-elect. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gadsby, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby, Miss Judith Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Knutson, Miss Mabel Ayers, Miss Ethel Honeiman, Arnold Rothwell, Fred Malors and Dr. Kenney. On Tuesday Mrs. Harry Nicolai, the former Miss Beatrice DeBavoise, was hostess at a luncheon in compliment to Miss Hill, when her guests included Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby, Mrs. Ambrose Scott, Mrs. Walter Gadsby and Mrs. A. C. Patton. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Sweet gave a large table party for Miss Hill and Mr. Chapman, the bridal party and several additional guests. On Thursday evening Miss Judith Scott, who is to act as the maid of honor, was hostess at a bridge party and supper at her residence on Morrison and Twelfth streets, which was an exceedingly pretty affair. A color scheme of pink was carried out in the decorations and menu. Prizes were won by Miss Ayers and Ambrose Scott. The hostess was given in an imported costume of white chiffon elaborately embroidered, and the groom's suit, Miss Hill, in an attractive, brown-satin frock of point d'esprit cut on the semi-empire lines. In addition to the 12 members of the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, Misses Mildred and Eva Long, Miss Ethel Honeiman, Miss Mabel Ayers, Harry Stevenson, Craig McMicken, Edward Jorgensen, Gerald Goddell, Dr. Homer I. Kenney and Dr. Sabin.

On Wednesday Miss Mabel Ayers gave an elaborate luncheon of 11 covers at the Nortonia Hotel with Miss Agnes Hill as the guest of honor. The favors were tiny suitcases filled with rice, which was showered upon the bride-elect. Those present were: Miss Judith Scott, Mrs. Walter Gadsby, Mrs. Ambrose Scott, Misses Mildred and Eva Long, Mrs. A. C. Patton, Mrs. John Scott, and Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby. Bridge was played for the remainder of the afternoon.

Mrs. C. H. Lewis gave a luncheon at her apartments at the Oranocade last Monday afternoon, to announce the engagement of her sister, Miss Ethel Merton Hays, to Francis Willard Bond, of Portland. It was a prettily arranged affair, the table decorations being in the most delicate style.

Mrs. Albert Cohen of San Francisco, formerly Miss Carolina Barucha, of San Francisco, is a guest for a few days at the home of Mrs. James Timonah Barrett.

Mrs. Vida Reed returned last Tuesday evening from a visit to Oswego, Idaho, with her mother, Mrs. Walter Reed, who is a guest at the Nortonia Hotel.

The Store Noted for Best Goods at Lowest Prices

PARIS SEAM-ALLOWING PATTERNS, TEN CENTS EACH

Monday Morning Begins the Greatest Sale of Dress Goods Ever Held in This City

THOUSANDS of yards of this season's finest and best dress fabrics on sale at practically one-third off regular values. Women who are acquainted with this great dress goods store will be prompt and take advantage of the splendid bargains offered. To our hundreds of out-of-town friends we issue a special invitation to share in these most remarkable values. Express charges will be prepaid on all bills amounting to $5 or over. SEND FOR NEW REDUCED PRICE LIST

27-INCH WHITE RAJAH 73c On sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday - 27-inch White Rajah Silk in a fine quality and weight, best regular $1.00 grade. A snap.

36-inch Mixed Suitings for children in stripes, checks, plaids, etc., the best regular 50c quality. On sale Monday and Tuesday at, special, a yard, only 25c

36-INCH TAFFETA SILK 93c 36-inch Black Taffeta Silk, free from filling and warranted best regular $1.25 quality, on sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday only at this very low price.

44-inch French Chiffon Voile in black and colors; our own direct importation and the identical quality other stores sell at $1.75 a yard. On special sale for 3 days at, a yard, $1.23

44-inch Copenhagen Stripes Suiting, 44-inch Copenhagen Panama, 44-inch Golden Brown Panama, 44-inch Golden Brown Panama, 98c a yard. This season's most popular weaves and colorings and standard $1.50 values. On sale for 3 days only.

44-inch Cream All-Wool French Serge; our regular $1.25 grade every day in the year, and worth every cent of that price. For a great 3-day special we offer this splendid fabric at 85c this very low price

All Suits Reduced Values Up to $35 Now $23.85

Starting tomorrow morning and continuing for three days, every Suit, Coat, Skirt and Waist in the house stands radically reduced—and when we say "reduced," we mean a genuine reduction—no "marking up to mark down" tactics here. Note specimen values.

Suits $12.50 Women's and Misses' New Tailored Suits in popular stripes, checks and a full line of plain shades; every garment made-to-order and finished in the best possible manner—very latest styles and values, easily worth up to $20.00. On sale Monday and Tuesday at this extremely low price, only $12.50

Suits $23.85 This lot includes our regular $30.00, $32.50 and $35.00 Suits in the new Herringbone stripes in browns, blues, greens, tans and black and white mixtures—latest styles and garments any woman would be proud to own. Choice, Monday and Tuesday, $23.85

Muslin Underwear Reduced Women's fine Cambria Drawers, trimmed with hem-stitching and tucks; best regular 40c values, 25c Monday and Tuesday. Fine Cambria Gowns in square, V-shape or slipover styles; lace, beading and ribbon-trimmed, and standard $1.50 values, 97c

WRITE FOR OUR NEW REDUCED PRICE LIST McAllen & McDonnell CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON STREETS. WRITE FOR OUR NEW REDUCED PRICE LIST

Modish Suits

An indefinable feeling of perfect satisfaction comes to one whose apparel is well selected and in direct accordance with the prevailing dictates of fashion. That is the feeling one has who chooses her suit from the splendid assortment at "The House of Tone."

The excellent materials and just the proper amount and kind of trimming blend $22.50, $25, $30, $35, $40 and up to $75.00

Teesdale & Co. The Bartholomew Company "The House of Tone" 392 Washington Street

MANY small diversions have served society during the last week in Lent, bridge, seal, golf and horse-back riding interspersed with luncheons and dinners, the latter arranged strictly among intimate friends, and having little or no significance.

Theatricals, which were at one time taboos by smart society during the penitential season, have this year been well attended.

Great interest is manifested in the last assembly to be held on Thursday at the new Masonic Hall at West Park and Yamhill streets.

A number of attractive gowns are in course of construction for this event, which promises to be a brilliant success. The patroness list is the same as formerly, with the exception of Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, who is to receive in lieu of Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, who is en route to Tahiti. The patronesses are Mrs. Theodore H. Wilcox, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Helen Laid Corbett, Mrs. Charles Francis Beebe, Mrs. W. R. Ayer, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. William H. Warren, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. J. Wesley Laid, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, and Mrs. John C. Alsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Blake (Miss Ruth Maxwell), are pleasantly situated at Duntermine, Scotland, at which place Mr. Maxwell is the American consul. They have made many friends since their arrival in Scotland, and have been frequent guests at smart house parties in England, over the week-end.

Mrs. James Dougherty, her small son, Jack, and Miss Dorothy, have returned to Lake City, and will leave the first of June for Europe. During their year's absence abroad, the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty on King's Heights is to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gates, pending the completion of the latter's new residence, which will also be on King's Heights.

Miss Kinney, who has spent the winter as a guest of her sister, is an attractive girl, who has lived and studied much abroad. While here she has been a constant visitor at the Waverly Golf Club, being an enthusiastic golf player. Miss Angela Kinney, who spent last summer here in to complete her studies this June at a smart finishing school in New York, and will join her sisters on their travels in Europe.

Frank Vincent DuMont, of New York, is to arrive on May first and while here will direct the classes of the Oregon Art Students' League in drawing, painting and composition, commencing on May 1 and continuing for six weeks.

In honor of Miss Hazel Dolph's return from the East, a pretty luncheon of 12 covers was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Samuel Kerr, to which were invited Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Miss Katherine Sifton, Miss Fanny Brown, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Hazel Croker, Mrs. George Wentworth, Jr., Miss Frances Warren, Miss Ethel Houghton and little Miss Beaul Kerr.

for which the favors, or gifts as the English term them, were most unique and elaborate.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Mathew and Miss Hoyt, who had planned to sail for San Francisco on Tuesday last, were unable to do so, owing to necessary repairs to the ship, which were discovered at the eleven o'clock hour, during their several days' delay. They were entertained informally in the Bay City.

"The Old Ladies' Home" box, which according to annual custom will be given Monday afternoon at the Hohler-Curtis, will be the first of the post-Lenten affairs.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas has charge of the musical program, which means that it will be a great success, as she has engaged some of the best local talent. The reception committee will consist of Mrs. P. J. Mann, president of the society, and Miss Edith Nicholson, vice-president, and the assisting hostesses will be Mrs. W. S. Laid, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. Martin Wink, Mrs. James E. Felling, Mrs. H. C. Eckelbarger, Mrs. H. L. Pitcock, Mrs. Robert Livingston, Miss Henrietta Felling and Miss Abbie L. Atwood. The table will be in charge of Mrs. Charles E. Curry, Mrs. John Elton Young, Mrs. Walter V. Smith and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal. Assisting in serving will be Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Marjorie Noble, Miss Madia Hart, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Caroline Kaum, Miss Eva Jones, Miss Mildred Nichols and Miss Dorothy Holbrook. Home-made candies will be for sale under the supervision of Miss Ethel Houghton, and the lemonade table will be in charge of Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. H. W. Campbell and Miss Grace Nicholson. Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Mrs. J. G. Gault have general charge of the refreshments. The musical numbers will be "The Waverly" (Schumann), Lakme Quartet "Scherzo" (Van Goens), Miss Mary Mackenzie Cahill, "Red Clover" (Ed. Regio), "You and Love" (L'Hardelet), "My Rose of Yesterday" (Marie Rich), Miss Sarah Glendon, "So Sleep My Heart" (Ambrose), Lakme Quartet "Aloha" (Schubert), "Humoresque" (Knappe), Miss Cahill, "It's All for You" (Bartlett), "The Clover Blossom" (M. Vogrich), "The Burning Eyes" (Hawley), Mr. M. L. Bowman, "If Bunch" (April), "Sonnet d'Amour" (Thomas), "Where Blossoms Grow" (Sans Souci), Miss Kathleen Lawler, Irish Folk Song (Toole), Lakme Quartet.

The marriage of Miss Laura Dunne and John Kerr will be celebrated Wednesday evening at Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne's home. A good deal of entertaining has been done for Mrs. Dunne, who is prominent in her set. Monday evening Mrs. Harry Humphrey entertained at bridge. When the hostess of guests arrived they found the other guests gowned in fantastic garb, and much merriment was caused. Bridge was played. Afterward there was a comic shower for Mr. Kerr. Tuesday noon Mrs. George Barker (Semple Groat) gave a pretty pink luncheon at the Portland with covers for nine. Her guests were Misses Miss Dunne, Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. Henry Humphrey, Mrs. Arthur McComb, Miss Lucille Dunne, Miss Ethel Shea, Miss Della Watson, and Mrs. S. C. Spencer. Afterward Miss Watson entertained the luncheon party and about a dozen others at six tables of bridge. The decorations were pink with beautiful Japanese quince blossoms. Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. Willard Holbrook won the prizes. Supper was served, where the bride's table was surrounded by small tables. A big Easter egg in Miss Dunne's place unfolded a shower of handkerchiefs. Several of their young friends have entertained informally at dinner and luncheon.

Mrs. I. Frohman and Miss Stella Frohman have recently been guests at the Hotel Chamberlin, at Fortuna Monroe. They have since left, and are spending the Easter holidays at Atlantic City.

Mrs. C. E. Smith and her young daughter, Miss Helen Smith, are at present in Naples.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wentworth, Jr. (Miss Lucy Sifton) left on Friday morning for Michigan, where they will visit for some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Wentworth, Sr.