COMPLETE LIST

Plans of Rose Festival Committee for Grand Ball Take Form.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT

Crowning Function of June Carnival Will Be the Most Brilliant in History of the Pacific Northwest.

The grand ball, which will be the erowning social function of Portland Rose Festival, and which will be held on the night of Friday, June 5, will excel any public entertainment of its character ever held in the Pacific Northwest. Portland's most exclusive set will be represented in the management and direction of this feature of the week's festivities. Never before has there been such a representative assembly of social dignitaries to lend support and indorsement as has come to the front in the case of the Festival

Every society matron of the city who has been requested to participate as a patroness has readily consented, and some of them have added warm expressions of encouragement to the efforts of the Festival management in their efforts to make the ball the most elaborate ever attempted in the Pacinic Northwest. The list of patron-esses was completed yesterday, and shews that the social leaders of Port-land will lend their indorsement to this function. The following is the full list of patronesses:

PROTEST BY CLUBS

Loss of Army Supply Business Is Resented.

DELEGATION URGED TO ACT

Telegram Sent Requesting Senators and Representatives to Work for Rescinding of Order Against Portland.

Representatives of the Portland comercial bodies took prompt steps yes terday to retain the business of the Department of the Columbia, which, advices from Washington say, will be transferred to San Francisco after July Indignant protests against giving up the furnishing of supplies for the Army department in this district were voiced by the representatives of Portland's commercial interests and a telegram was sent urging the Oregon delegation in Washington to prevent the threatened damage to Portland's business interests. Upon the receipt of advices from Senator Fulton and the advices from Senator Fulton and the Oregon Congressmen, the commercial bodies will take whatever steps seem best to avoid the transfer of Army business to the Bay City.

The following telegram was addresseed to Senators Fulton and Bourne and Representatives Ellis and Hawley:

and Representatives Ellis and Hawley:

Beported here that all supplies heretofore purchased through local Quartermanter's department will cease after July first and such business then for Pacific Coast requirements be supplied only through Quartermaster's Department in San Francisco. On behalf of combined commercial interests of Oregon, our delegation should protest against and prevent injustice of such action. The announcement just received from Washington that purchases will not be made here after July 1 caused wide-spread interest in Portland yesterday and President Swigert, of the Chamber of Commerce, took action to get an expression from all the commercial organizations. He called the meeting of delegates from each body for yesterday afternoon. The men participating in yesterday's meeting will gather later when replies are received from the Oregon delegation at Washington, and it is expected that the commercial bodies will memorialize the War Department.

KNIFE TO APPROPRIATIONS

Tawney Allows Money for Rivers and Trust Prosecutions.

WASHINGTON, April 25 .- The sundry his explanatory statement Chairman Tawney says that the department estimates prepared last September aggregated $141,284,366, far exceeding those for any previous year. Since then the financial stringency has caused a shrinkage of revenue, hence the drastic paring down by the committee.

Included in the appropriations recom-mended is $27,627,000 for the Isthmian Canal, which amount is reimbursable to the Treasury from the proceeds of Nie sale of bonds authorized.
